Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

Give Grace, and Then Will You Observe the Vastness of the Breath, Width, Depth, and Height of It Working in Your Own Life

Series 7.1.12 – Letter #12

Do not fear to trust the voice that speaks to you. This trust is part of your faith. Without trust in my voice, you will be lost. My sheep know my voice. They hear it, and obey it. Trust me, for I will not allow you to be deceived. You will receive an angelic visitation that you might be assured of the direction to take. I will confirm that which I desire for you in the mouth of two witnesses. Do not be afraid, for I am with you to do a work for my name's sake in these last days. Do not be alarmed in the face of impossibilities or the things that you do not understand. Many times the impossibilities stand before you as you seek the will of God. Remember that the impossibilities are in your mind, not in my mind. It is only your view of things, for all things are possible with me. Nothing is too hard for me.

I am with you; therefore, simply trust as a child and believe this. I am with you even unto the end of the world. You are blessed, for you are a child of God. All those around you shall call you blessed as you begin to be a blessing. The world will not know the blessing in you until you begin to bear the fruit for them. You have kept your blessing to yourselves long enough. Now rise and bear fruit for those that I died for. The womb of the church is blessed and so is its fruit. Those who are called and chosen by me shall respond to you because of the divine foreordination upon them. Only believe.

Do not be disturbed by the events in this period of time. All things must come to pass. They cannot come to pass unless you pass through time. Journey through time, and do not allow time's events to disturb you. You have eternal life dwelling in you. Though you produce creatures of time, you are eternal. Do not allow the effects of temporal persuasions to intimidate you. You will prevail. I have sent angels to testify to many of the ministry on the way to them. Even ministers await your arrival in the future; therefore, do not dwell in the past. I am speaking to you of heavenly things. Many earthly people will not understand, but those appointed unto eternal life shall hear you.

Do not worry about your life in this world. I have already sealed you with the spirit of redemption. The earnest of your inheritance is in you. No one can take it from you. Believe the prophets, and know that the ways of the patriarchs were ordered of me. I have also ordered your steps. Now rise up, and walk in the paths of righteousness for my name's sake and not your own. From a child, the Spirit of God has touched you. You could not miss this divine ordination because it was ordered of me. Will you miss the providence ahead of you?

Be about my business, and avoid many of the frustrations ahead of you. Walk in the paths of the kingdom and not in the paths of earthly cares. Continue to grow in grace, and you will also increase in wisdom and in favor with man. Give the grace that you grow in, and then will you observe the vastness of the breath, width, depth, and height of the grace working in your own life. You have received much, and much is required of you. You have been isolated from the world. Move into the world, and make friends with sinners. Eat with them, and make friends with mammon, for the children of darkness are wiser than the children of the church. Do not allow their lifestyles to affect you, but allow your salt and light to affect them. You are the salt of the earth. Grace has filled you with savor.

Your light is not under a bushel, for I have set you upon a hill uncovered and visible. Even in the wilderness, the light of the church is shining. Even in the valley, the light of redemption is a bright light of revealed knowledge. The voice of the church is not silenced by the loud voices from the world, but this voice is causing confusion among the voices of the world. I have confounded the devils in your path and left them without comprehension of your life and light. Continue to preach the gospel in every prescribed manner, for it is the power of God unto salvation. John preached in a wilderness, but you must preach to the world. Go and proclaim the good news in you.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Give Grace and Then Will You Observe the Vastness of the Breath, Width, Depth, and Height of It Working in Your Own Life

Every true believer has received his fullness and that is grace for grace. The original language should cause it to read, grace seceding grace perpetually. Wow! This is grace in perpetual motion supplying more grace. Many words, such as the Hebrew word Olam and the Greek word Basis, let us know that God's grace is measureless. It passes knowledge, or it is in such an exaggerated form that the natural refuses to believe that it is possible for this much grace to abound. His grace has abounded to us and will continue as we hold the hand of the Shepherd. His sheep know the vast vistas and pastures of his graceful provision. His grace will exceed any war or attacker that will ever arrive in our lives. Every lack will be more than supplied by the abundant grace that God never runs out of. He never gives up on any soul. His mercy and grace never quits.

As we become the repositories of grace, we are to become the transmitter of the abundance that we have received. We were certainly not worthy of the blessing of God. So many around us today are as the man laid at the door of our temple daily that is begging for just a crumb of grace but has none. They have never walked in the wealth of his great love. When we release the grace of God as we speak life into their lives, a flood ensues. Out of the vastness of the Almighty begins to flow the immeasurable greatness that dimensions cannot capture. It is wider than the broad attacks of enemy forces. It is higher than the towers of arrow shooters at the righteous. It is deeper than any pit that would try to swallow us up. As we give grace, the air will be cleared of all voices of greed and confusion. We will behold him in the light as pristine as the first morning.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - A Celebration on the Bridge of Grace, Built Above Distraction, Traveling Down the Way of the Carnal and the Disobedient

His joy is our strength. His love has swallowed up every deathly form in victory. Distractions that are rooted in our carnal weakness can become a pit and deep depression that will endanger our journey. As we are caught up in the Spirit of the celebration of the liberty of the Christ, we must cast away the bondage that tries to pull us down to its level. Sin deals with us and others in a treacherous manner. Pride and lust will always gravitate downward. Even when others stoop and fall into the pits and low places of castigation and speaking against others, we are walking on a bridge of grace. We must never allow lesser values to be factored into any equation to reduce us to the least common denominator. As we are running in this race by the enablement of grace, the foes that would distract us are heard a long way off. We must never give them ear, for that distraction will be amplified in proportion to those things that we pay attention to. We are not designed for the low places of this life but to ride on the high places of the earth. We will patiently see the destruction of every adversary as we continue to sing the melodies of grace and to curse the disharmony of disobedience.

◆ These things rule over most Christians because they have not bought gold tried in the fire. These things rule in the dimension of the fire. You should rule in these domains, for your God is a consuming fire, and you are a son of the fire. These things rule as giants over most people because they are weak in faith.

352. How will you overcome the world if you do not have faith?

◆ My name is a familiar word used in Christian exercises, but a real knowledge of me is absent from these same exercises. I have come to give you living experiences that will train you for ministry beyond the good things of this life.

353. What good is a ministry that can only minister to recipients of good things?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I am so thankful for the unlimited power of grace. By grace, I am saved through faith and these gifts are not of me, but they are of you. You have blessed me with all spiritual blessings, gifts, and talents in Christ Jesus so that I do not come short in any. You have also opened up my ears that I might hear your voice. Thank you, Lord, for the precious gifts bestowed upon me. Now by love's operating power, my faith, gifts, and talents are mobilized into action to bless those around me for your glory!!! You love every single one of us in such an endearing and inexhaustible manner that we cannot comprehend. You called me, appointed me, and blessed me. No matter what schemes, traps or destruction men may have laid up for me, you are my justifier and kinsman redeemer. It is up to you whether I stand or whether I fall. Although I sin and fall of short of your glory daily, you will not revoke your gifts and talents from me. I praise you, for you ever live to make intercession for me. You commanded your angels to bear me up lest I dash my foot against a stone. Furthermore you are not a man that you should lie, neither the son of man that you should repent. You do not make mistakes. I trust in your eternal wisdom, knowledge, and love; therefore, I am at peace today because I am exactly where I am supposed to be.

I am not missing out on anything. Now, I am experiencing love's motivating power as it prompts me, directs my steps and actions so others may be blessed with the same relationship opportunity you have given me. Lord, you have been so good to me. Your patience has never run out; your mercy never ever quits, and your grace abounds in eternal units of measurement not calculable by any human made instruments. There is no way possible that I can be condemned by the enemy of my soul when I have your unmerited favor working on my behalf, and I thank you. All of my transgressions have been covered, forgiven, and forgotten. You have declared me NOT GUILTY, and I am so glad and blessed to have you in my life. I glorify your name and praise you with my body and spirit.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

His precious word is a treasure that is beyond price. By the voice of the Lord, we have gifts and blessings bestowed in our lives that take us beyond the reach of the things that would pull us down and swallow us up. Jesus Christ has the keys to hell and death and any other situation that would bring us into captivity. His word intercedes on our behalf. Since he ever lives to make intercession for us and he is the Word then even when we are asleep and in our own confusion, his word is fighting for us. We celebrate his promises and power that are presently working every moment of our lives on our behalf.

The Vibrating and Reverberating Effect of the Living Word Will Create New Atmospheres and New Dimensions of Living

Series 7.1.13 – Letter #13

According to my mercy, I have saved you by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost. I have shed my mercy upon you abundantly. You are justified by my grace and have become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. You did not do anything to earn this. You cannot become righteous of yourself. You could not inherit the kingdom of God, but I washed you and sanctified you. I justified you in my name and by my Spirit. You have become one with me. He that is joined unto me is one spirit. You are my temple. You are not your own, for I bought you with a price; therefore, glorify me in your body and in your spirit, which are mine. I am building my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Go and wash my church with the washing of water by the word. I will present it to myself as a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing. My church should be holy and without blemish. I love my church. I love myself; therefore, I love my church. You are members of my body, of my flesh, and of my bones. The mystery has been revealed; therefore, abide in my love, and allow my love to abide in you. I was put to death in the flesh and quickened by the Spirit that I might bring you to me. Will I now lose you after having suffered for your sins?

I am one who is just. You were unjust. I suffered and died for you. Does that demonstrate my love for you?

You were without strength, but I died for you. Scarcely for a righteous man will one die. Perhaps, it may be that for a good man some would even dare to die. By chance, you might find a few that would offer their lives for a good man, but I purposed and gave a favorable notice that I would die for you because I loved you. I will now save you from wrath, for I have justified you by my blood. You were an enemy, but I reconciled you to myself by my death. Now that you are reconciled, I shall save you by my life. Go and utter the words of life in the ears of my people. Emit from your mouth, the very words that I have spoken in your ears that they may be washed thoroughly by the Rhema of God. Open your mouth that you may voice the sound of my word in their ears. Faith will come to them as you speak the Rhema of God. Go and be a trumpet's voice by the breath of God. Go and speak the word in their ears, and life shall be breathed upon them. Cut them loose from the things that bind them. Go and declare liberty and freedom in the house of God. Go and thunder with my voice, and the enemy shall cease his oppression. The angels shall applaud the acts of your faith. They shall rejoice at the repentant hearts in your midst. My goodness shall cause them to repent and turn from their evil ways. Allow my expression to flow through you, and I will set the captives free. Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

I will create a brand new atmosphere for dancing and rejoicing in the midst of my church. My word is quick and powerful. It shall create a reverberating effect among the people. I shall enlarge their coast, and they shall leap into new dimensions of living. They shall come forth as lively stones as the vibrating words of your mouth go forth into their hearing. They shall leap as the hind and shall realize that they are truly new creatures in Christ Jesus. All things have become new. They shall taste of the newness created by the Spirit. I shall loose them from everything that has shaken them in times past. Go and proclaim the Rhema word in their ears. I will make them free by my Spirit and cause them to dance on the places of victory. The living word shall cause them to hear again and eat from the tree of life instead of the trees of abomination and the tables of death.

RE: RHEMA - The Vibrating and Reverberating Effect of the Living Word Will Create New Atmospheres and New Dimensions of Living

Regeneration is the original word "paling-genesis." It means "creation vibrating again and again throughout our being." It is as if God is taking the true Rhema word and washing the fabric of deity that we are over and over again. Every time we come to the house of the Lord or into his presence, we are cleansed by the same sound that produced light in the beginning. When he spoke and said, "Let there be light," he washed the face of the earth from the night that soiled its beauty that it would shine through. Our universe is filled with the moving signature sound waves vibrating at the heart of every galaxy and star. He spoke and they were. We have a more sure word of prophecy that abides in us as the day star has arisen in our hearts. We have been translated spiritually beyond the gravity of this world and into the kingdom of light and revelation.

Our whole world is dancing in the waves of x-ray, infrared, microwave, and sound that is not seen or experienced unless we have a receiver. We are the receiver of God's promises of power. He has set his love upon us. Out of this relationship flows daily the commands that surround our lives with creative power. As God created light with sound, he creates revelation and blessing in our lives daily. His word will shake the things that mar our existence out of our lives. Only those things that his word has established will remain. Dimensions of power and promise are the launching pad and runway of those who will hear the call that John heard to come up higher. The new platform of victory that we have been called to will dislodge all the stones of the enemy and will cause an avalanche to fall on his plans. We will rejoice and speak the dancing words of the morning in the face of the clouds of this world.

Because you cannot see through the walls of your valley is no reason to view these mountains as displays of trouble and impossibility.

RE: RHEMA - Grace Has Leaped into Our Path and Arrested Us

Many do not understand the sovereign grace of God when it operates in us with purpose. When his purpose is involved, he chooses between Jacob and Esau. He designs vessels of mercy and vessels of wrath. He will even keep individuals back from sinning against him as he did for Abimelech. God is not arbitrary, but because grace is the economy of the universe, he will allow an entire system to implode so that it can explode in the creation of grace in another place. We are part of that economy. Destruction is not our designed finale. Triumph has been written for us to receive if we will choose to receive it.

Predestination is not the fatalistic idea of what will be will be. It is the infinite design of grace weaving a fabric of unbelievable blessing and placing it around us and ushering us into the immutable promises made to us before the foundation of the world. Our journey is filled with that which no force can deter. He has prepared for us a feast of the bountiful fruits of the harvest of his selfless sacrifice. We will refuse to eat the garbage of the lust and pride of this life.

Lord, you are great and greatly to be praised. Your mind is so awesome. I am thankful for the vibrating and reverberating effect of the living word will create new atmospheres and new dimensions of living for me. I have been regenerated; therefore I am convinced that creation is vibrating again and again throughout my being. I am being washed by your word. I am washed, sanctified, and justified in your precious name. I am grateful that every time I come to the house of the Lord or into your presence, I am cleansed by the same sound that produced light in the beginning. Your voice spoke and our universe became filled with the moving signature sound waves vibrating at the heart of every galaxy and star. When you spoke, creation became what you spoke, for you have the power to speak things into existence. I am thankful to have a sure word of prophecy.

Thank you for translating me spiritually beyond the gravity of this world and into the kingdom of light and revelation. You have the whole world in your hands, and it is dancing in the waves of x-ray, infrared, microwave, and sound that is not seen or experienced. I am blessed to receive the promises of your power. I received your promise and your power. Thank you for setting your love upon me. Just as you created light with sound, you created revelation and blessings in my life. RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

New stars and galaxies are being created daily by the same word that created the universe. His word is speaking and creating new dimensions and arenas away from the ability of the wicked one to prevail against us. If God hid the body of Moses from the devil, then he can hide our being from the lies of the devil and the strife of tongues. His voice and word brings his presence. We are hid with Christ in God in the secret of his presence.

You Are Blessed With Abraham; Therefore, Rejoice When You Are Persecuted

Series 7.1.14 – Letter #14

I have freed you from the hand of the oppressor. His hand has been smitten, and now you are in the hands of the liberator of all things. I have not left you in the hands of an enemy to be tormented. I have rescued you again from the hands of evil. No one else will be able to judge and sentence you because you are under my jurisdiction. Do not listen to the voices of your enemies, which call out to you for vengeance. They are not able to enforce their threats. I have stripped them of the power that they once held by my victory won on the tree. I have given unto you my power, and no one is able to change what I have decreed.

I have sent you in the midst of wolves, so be wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove. You are a sheep; therefore, look to me, your shepherd, to defend you. Watch out for men, for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will terrorize you in their church buildings. They shall bring you before the chiefs and other leaders for my sake. This shall be for a testimony against them. Do not take any thought how or what you shall speak, for I shall give you in that same hour what you shall speak. It will be me that shall speak in you; therefore, worry not when they shall deliver you up. Rejoice in that day, for this is how you know that you are greatly favored. You have been given power to tread on serpents and scorpions. You have been given power over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Do not become overzealous because I have given you power, and the spirits of darkness are subject unto you, but rejoice with the angels, for your names are written in heaven.

I have favored you and given you the blessing of Abraham. Your eyes are blessed. You see things that many prophets and kings have desired to see and have not seen them. Your ears hear, for you hear those things that they have desired to hear and have not heard them. I have truly revealed myself unto you. Rejoice, for I have opened your eyes and your understanding. You are truly my sheep, for you hear my voice. Do not follow the voice of a stranger. I have made you to lie down in green pastures. You dwell in the secret place of the most High. You abide under my shadow. I am your refuge and your fortress. Trust in me, for I will surely deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the noisome pestilence. I will cover you with my feathers, and under my wings you may trust. My truth is your shield and buckler; therefore, do not be afraid for the terror by night or the arrows that fly by day. Do not be afraid for the pestilence that walks in darkness or for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. You have made me your habitation, and now a thousand shall fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand. Destruction shall not come nigh you. Only with your eyes shall you behold and see the reward of the wicked. No evil shall come upon you, and none of the devil's plagues shall come nigh the place where you dwell. I have given my angels charge over you to keep you in all of your ways. Now rise up, and walk on the stones of trouble. Tread upon the lions and snakes. Trample under your feet the lions and dragons. I have set my love upon you, and now I will deliver you. Call upon my name. I will deliver you in time.

RE: RHEMA - You Are Blessed With Abraham; Therefore, Rejoice When You Are Persecuted

Persecution will never be the companion of those who compromise principles and concepts. Abraham would not live on the porch of Sodom or gather fruit from its bountiful gardens. He chose the mountains and desert-looking areas that God caused to blossom and flow with milk and honey and blossom as a rose. As God called the light out of darkness, he can call blessing out of cursing. All that behold the blessing of God are not the friends of the kingdom. All those who are detractors of those who pursue godliness will see their criticism turned into vapors that are swept away by the sunlight of righteousness. As Paul was attacked by countrymen and strangers who did not understand, we face the barrages of harsh words many times, but the storm will cease before the peace speaker. Our spirits should rest in him because we know we have heard his voice that is leading us deeper into his fellowship. If our enemy cannot get our attention of the Savior's face by the attractions of the world, he will use the interference of the remarks that cut and pierce us through with a sword. God not only heals the broken hearts of the lost, he is the balm in Gilead for the bruised for his name's sake.

I have arranged the walls of your valley for my own purpose in your life and the lives of others. The huge walls of your valley have separated you from many that I have excluded from your life. They will not come over these huge problems to fellowship with you; therefore, their unwanted hindrances and distractions are alienated on the other side. The huge problems that face you are ordered to stand only. Come near them, and touch them. They do not bite, neither can they devour you. I have commanded their silence and forbade them to move. Now accept the opening of your ears to hear my voice as you walk along the mountainous walls of God-selected valleys.

RE: RHEMA - Love's Conquest of Sin Assures Access to Victory Crowned with Success

Love never fails. Love will never be deterred by any energy of matter in this universe. No time or space will evoke any quantum handicap to slow down love. Love has hurled the enemies of death, hell, and the grave far beyond any ability to seize our lives ever again. We have been raised up together with him far beyond any principality or power that exists in this world or the world to come. When the great Apostle Paul spoke of the sweeping dimensions of that love in the 8th chapter of Romans, he said that things present of things to come would not be able to separate us from the love of God. This is an unusual construction after much study. It seems that he is talking of all the dimensions that exist in the universe. How deep or wide is this dimension?

It will never separate the ability of God's love to keep his promises to us. Defeat is a lie. Victory is the truth. Lies are the implosion of every system. Grace has built a kingdom that will never be shaken because the voice of love is speaking the details of truth. Sin and Satan may speak their lies, but they will never appear on the ledgers that have been swept clean and erased by the blood of Jesus.

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ I have rescued you from the villainous lord that you served under. The depravity of the actions against you was cruel. You were lead to believe that you had children and then told that you had no children. This is the action of a villain.

356. What if Paul had been told that Timothy was not his son in the gospel?

◆ Submit yourselves unto me. Humble yourselves unto me. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. You cannot overcome this attack of the devil by carnal means. You cannot overcome this attack of the devil and his forces by choosing sides with the devil. You must agree with me if you are to overcome.

357. How will you overcome these forces of evil in the last days, if you cannot overcome in your present trial?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tony Johnson

January 14, 2008

Thank you for smiting the hand of the oppressor while reaching for me with your hand of liberty. Gratitude is what has filled my heart as I ponder the position of blessings I am in as I lay in the hands of love. No longer do I live in the clutches of evil and the hands of tormenting spirits, but you have given me a change of address and placed me in the safety of your name, and for this I am thankful. Though I walk in the midst of wolves, I trust in the wisdom granted by your Spirit that has made me wise as a serpent yet harmless as a dove. Thank you for calling me blessed while not allowing anyone to call me cursed. Thank you for granting me grace, unmerited favor, in the face of the barrage of hatred spewed out of my enemies mouths. My spirit rests in you, and I praise you, O Lord, lover of my soul for the fellowship of your Spirit. I offer praise this day for the healing balm of Gilead you have applied to every bruise brought on by the stones of trouble. With a heart of thanksgiving, I bless you O Lord.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Though the hand of the oppressor may come against us, the Lord will rebuke him. Isaiah promises that those that are incensed against us will be as a thing of naught. Every enemy that comes already has the sword of the Lord against them. We praise and worship in excitement, knowing that the victory has already been sent to our location.

A Renewal of Joy in the Midst of Sorrow

Series 7.1.15 – Letter #15

Today is the day that I have made. Rejoice and be glad in this day. Serve me with gladness, and come before my presence with singing. Do not allow sorrow to have a part with you, for I have made you glad. Sorrow is not planned for you. I have placed gladness on the platter of your praises. Now serve me the fruit of your praises, and behold the gain of your obedience. Count all the things that are happening to you joy. Number joy with the grievous things that are happening to you and behold the power of joy in the midst of trouble. Joy is not stripped of its power because it is in the same line with sorrow. Though grief monopolizes the band with mourning, joy stands upright with ecstasy as its theme. Hear the joyfulness that comes from the heart of joy. Even in the midst of regret, joy's bright light is not blurred. Stand erect in the band of sorrow. Come and direct the band. Turn the entire ensemble unto a marching band of delight. This power is given to the joyful, for the joy of the Lord is your strength. I have made joy your strong point. Now allow joy to express itself in you, in spite of heartache and pain.

Misery has lost its power to depress you. Woe puts down its trumpet of despair. Unhappiness flees in the presence of delight. Heartache loses its sting when enjoyment stands established before it. Trouble becomes a pest to be smitten when happiness rules in your heart. I have given you all of this in the midst of the band of sorrow. Now behold the renewal of joy that you now possess. I have given unto you a pleasant emotion and a positive attitude of delight. Allow gladness and contentment to rule. Rise above the situations that have confronted you, and be motivated by who I am. Hope continually, and allow praise to dominate your expression and your heart. I have touched your mouth, and now it shall show forth my righteousness. Come forth in my strength, and make mention of my righteousness as a priority.

I shall have joy in the new strength that you have accepted, and in your salvation, I shall greatly rejoice. Allow your lips and your soul to greatly rejoice as you sing unto me. I have redeemed your soul, so be glad and rejoice in your mercy. I have considered your trouble, and I know your soul in your many adversities. I will not shut you up into the hand of the enemy, but I have set your feet in a large room. Praise the name of the Lord. Rejoice in the way of your testimonies. Rejoice at my word. Praise me with your instruments. Sing unto me a new song. My word is right, and all my works are done in truth. The whole earth is full of the goodness of the Lord. By my word, were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of my mouth. I require joy of you because I have given it unto you. What do you expect from my Spirit?

Then give it unto me. Cease looking upon your circumstances lest your joy becomes circumstantial. I am working all things out for your good; therefore, know that there is joy in the midst of sorrow. Rejoice in the truth. Praise the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary. Praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts. Praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet. Praise him with the psaltery and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance. Praise him with stringed instruments and organs. Praise him upon the loud cymbals. Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, "Rejoice." A fruit of the Spirit is joy. Do not allow your flesh to rejoice over you with its affections and lust. Live in the Spirit and walk in the Spirit. You are justified by faith and have peace with me through the Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom you have access into the grace of God wherein you stand and rejoice in hope of the glory of God; therefore, glory in your tribulations, knowing that tribulation works patience; and patience, experience; and experience, hope: and hope maketh not ashamed because the Holy Ghost sheds the love of God abroad in your hearts. "Rejoice," I say, "Rejoice." I have made you glad in the midst of sorrow.

RE: RHEMA - A Renewal of Joy in the Midst of Sorrow

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Depression and sorrow, like buzzards for road kill, may try to line up in the dead trees of life and wait for our joy to expire. God's express freight liner will leave only a greasy spot where his joy ran over their efforts to pick our bones clean. Dark days that come to our lives would like to flood our lives with misery. Our companion is hope dressed as rejoicing. We will sing in the choir for the funeral of expired dreams. We will dance on the top of depression and dysfunction as we celebrate the everlasting joy of the kingdom.

Rivers of living water flow out of the innermost being of the believer. One of those rivers is the joy that is our strength. Situations would like to post notices of closure on the rejoicing hours of the believer. His praise shall continually be in our mouth. Job taught us one of the verses of the everlasting song. If we are blessed by being added to, we are blessed just as much to have things subtracted from our lives. Our emotion should flow from the inside out in our lives and not from the outside in. Outside forces will try to squeeze all the joy out of our lives, but God will give us a continual supply. Proverbs tells us that if we have a merry heart, we will have a continual feast. Our praise will set a table that is always prepared with the bright and shining plates of rejoicing. Sadness will never have a place card at the feast of the King!

RE: RHEMA - Shiloh, the Peace-bringer, Bought Us Peace as He Took Our Place at the Judgment Hall of Righteousness

Screaming voices of terror and buffeting winds of pain may howl down the canyons of our mind and spirit, but the peace speaker still stands and says, "Peace be still!" As our Prince of Peace, he has already made peace by the victory of the cross. Hosts of hell may be assembled on every horizon of today and tomorrow, but he descends to place his hand into our hand and lead us through this host unscathed. All the statements of adversity and condemnation have been absorbed by the curse and the reproach he swallowed up for us. His peace is not just a short lived euphoria of mind but a deep settled conviction that no matter what comes, everything will be alright. By the price of his precious blood, the throne of peace has been established in the lives of believers. Every mandate that the mind receives has been decreed from the mouth of our friend and faithful witness. Hell has no jurisdiction in our case; it is only decided in the courts of mercy in the heavens.

By Marco Mendoza

It makes me glad, Lord, to know that weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. You are my defense against depression and sorrow. In your presence, I have fullness of joy that is unspeakable and full of glory. Your love is as an express freightliner that leaves only a greasy spot of those attempting to steal my joy. Your word is a light unto my path; therefore, the dark days that come to my life cannot flood my life with misery. I am thankful that you never leave me nor forsake me, but you are a very present help in trouble. I have hope that does not make me ashamed and causes me to rejoice continually. I can dance on the top of depression and dysfunction because you have given me overcoming faith, and for this I offer you my appreciation with praise.

I am truly grateful that you placed rivers of living water that flow out of my innermost being. I understand that it is these rivers that contain joy that is my strength. Situations would like to post notices of closure on my rejoicing, but your grace enables me to continually praise your name. I thank you for saving me from a life of sin and for transforming my mind to recognize that I am equally blessed when you add or subtract from my life because you know best. I exalt you for the revelation that my emotions need to flow from the inside out in my life rather than from the outside in. Outside forces try to squeeze all the joy out of me daily, but you, O Lord, are my continual supply of peace, joy, love, and of life. In the safety of your name is where I rest and hide. It is there that I feast on your goodness because you have given me a merry heart. How awesome it is to praise you and to be a partaker at the table which is prepared with the bright and shining plates of rejoicing. Sadness can never have a place card at the feast at your dining table that you, my wonderful King, prepare for me!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

At the well of Jacob, Jesus was the well and the bucket at the same time. We draw water out of the wells of salvation with joy. Troubles may come our way, but God will deliver us from its torture and trauma by the tremendous joy that flows out of his rivers of living water. So many things can, in life, act as joy stealers and celebration stoppers. His joy is everlasting and he anoints us as we come to Zion so that sadness and sorrow will flee away. If we will sow the seed of joy in the midst of tears, we will reap in joy!

Humble Yourself as Christ Humbled Himself, and Become Obedient unto Death

Series 7.1.16 – Letter #16

Beware of philosophies that are sent forth to spoil you. Vain deceit is all about you. This deceit is not after Christ. In Christ, dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and you are complete in him. Christ is the head of all principality and power. He spoiled principalities and powers. He made a show of them openly as he triumphed over every one of them. I am not the author of confusion. This confusion is not of me. It is a distraction. Do not be carried away with this madness, for it will alienate you from me if you are taken by it. The spirit of antichrist already takes many. Beware, lest you are pulled away after another Jesus. This spirit lies in wait. Let the mind that was in Christ Jesus be in you. He made himself of no reputation, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, for in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Word was made flesh. You are flesh; therefore, humble yourself as he did, and become obedient unto death. Only the humble in heart and mind can be free of distraction while they attend upon me. Attend unto me as one who is espoused unto me. Be focused on me that you do not behold the masked Christ of the hour. There are many Christs in disguises. Only by knowledge of me will you escape the antichrist that comes with chief subtlety. Only by my voice will I be known by my people, for my sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me.

Have you ever seen me?

Do you know my voice?

Then follow me, and do not be distracted with those who are intruding into those things that they have not seen, vainly puffed up by their fleshly mind. Hold fast to me, the Head from which all the body by joints and bands, having nourishment, ministered and knit together, increases with the increase of God. If you are my sheep, then come and follow me. Be about the Father's business, feed my lambs, and win the lost. Feed my sheep, and do not be distracted by the issues of the hour. Do not take up the wars among brethren as to who I am. If you bite and devour one another, you will be consumed one of another. If you know my voice, then you know me and who I am. Come and follow me.

RHEMA - Humble Yourself as Christ Humbled Himself, and Become Obedient unto Death

Cultural centers of learning put pride and self-sufficiency on a pedestal. Any type of self-abasement is taught as a sign of weakness. Honesty is not the strength of sin. Only by humbling ourselves will we be exalted. God will always resist the proud but gives grace to the humble. Humbling ourselves never involves our wearing a sign for others to see. It is a result of the right attitude and spirit toward God and others. We are sons to God and servants to everyone. He came not to be served but to serve. Jesus Christ became of no reputation, and we should not be afraid of ours. If God honors us, it is still his honor. We are absolutely nothing without his help. The more vacant and residual we become, the more he will be able to increase in our lives. Humility will never rise to attack others. We will truly turn the other cheek. Our battle is his, and if we don't have faith, we lose. We will always be winners if we stand still in a cleft of the Rock and behold the works of the Lord.

RE: RHEMA - Eat from the Master's Table, and Feed the Lord's Lambs with the Living Bread

We are instructed to not labor for meat which perishes but for that which endureth unto everlasting life. God has always prepared a feast table for Israel and the church. His table is spread with all the pleasant fruits of the Spirit and the living bread that has the fragrance of the supernatural exuding from it. Our enemy has a table that has plastic and synthetic provision that seems good for a while, but it turns into bitterness within us. Our invitation is to come and dine. Would he give an invitation and not have wonderful and delightful things prepared?

God has spread out a feast of his spiritual words that extends into eternity both past and present. Many have only come to get a bite here and there. He wants us to sit down and consume his powerful words and allow them to consume us! As the rain comes on the earth, so shall the word of the Lord come and bring forth the rose and the lily. It shall bring forth an abundant harvest, and we will eat of the bread of the fruits of the abundant harvest of his Rhema word. It brings a harvest where there is none sown. As the rod bore almonds before the ark, so will the barren land and harvest of the lost come to the barns by the spoken words of the Lord. We may be surrounded by the enemy, but the Lord will surround us with his blessings and hosts that are more numerous than all our problems. We will sit down in peace and not in fear. We will partake and give thanks for the provision that cannot be provided from any earthly source. Our enemy will be as the begging dog that whimpers on the outside of our life because he has had nothing to devour. Our God will seat us in the seats of grace before his presence. Every atmosphere of doubt and pain will be swept away by the wonderful aroma of the fresh bread of promises that fill the room almost like perfume. We will eat and be satisfied and have no desire to seek other tables but the table of the Lord. We will not only partake of the blessings of his provision but gather from the streets of the needy and hurting that all are hungry for a word from the Lord.

By Michael Hannah

I appreciate the words that you have spoken in my spirit, and I offer you praise, because I am absolutely nothing without your help. As you made yourself of no reputation Lord, I will strive to follow in your footsteps and do likewise. When you asked if I know your voice, I purposed in my heart to know your voice because you have said, "If you know my voice, then know me and who I am. Come and follow me, for my sheep hear my voice, and another they will not follow." I am grateful that you are not the author of confusion, for confusion is not of you.

I am thankful to be a part of your people which are called by your name. I shall humble myself and pray not be carried away with the madness of confusion and distraction, lest I will be pulled away after another Jesus. It is written, In the beginning, was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Word was made flesh, and I am made of flesh; therefore, I will humble myself as you did and become obedient even in the face death. I know that only by humbling myself will I be exalted, for a man's pride shall bring him low, but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit.

I am grateful that you do as you will in heaven and in earth and will always resist the proud but give more grace to the humble. I present to you my tender heart Lord and humble myself before you as you dwell in the high and holy place. I will hold fast to you, the head from which all the body by joints and bands, having nourishment, ministered and knit together, increases with your increase. I praise you for reviving the hearts of the contrite ones, and allowing us to stand still in the cleft of the Rock. I am thankful that you came in the pristine example not to be served but to serve. This honor and glory belongs only to you, for this is still your honor. I praise you for the result of a right attitude and spirit toward God and others, as a son of God and servant to everyone. Now, lest I be consumed with the proud, I am relieved to know that it is better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly than to divide the spoil with the cultural centers of the learned. I am overjoyed that Calvary and the price of your blood purchased me. I thank you for this inspiration and all the commandments which you have commanded me this day that I may live to remember that you are leading me to humble me and to prove me and to know what was in my heart to increase even more in my life. For this, I give you praise! Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God did not use secular learning to save us. We were saved by the word of God that we heard. Our safety and deliverance depends on us continuing to hear his words. If we listen, the words of all the distractions and other lovers around us we will be led astray. From the beginning of time, it is the word of the Lord that creates. His words and directives in our lives create a right spirit within us as we diligently hearken to his voice.

Warning: A Philosophical Scheme Is Formulated to Spoil You, So Do Not Be Beguiled by the Spirit of Error

Series 7.1.17 – Letter #17

A crafty scheme has been sent against my body. You must lean on my wisdom and not your own. A philosophical scheme has been formulated to spoil you. Beware, lest you are spoiled with the masses. Beware of vanity of all forms. Vain deceit fashioned after traditions now bombards the minds of church leaders to snatch away their faith and the truth. Reinforce those that you shepherd with the truth about me so that they are not led away after this philosophy. Extreme fear has been sent against the church. You are being attacked from without by the sword of the enemy and within by the terror of philosophy. Fear of being wrong about your doctrine is being propagated to arouse extreme wonder and admiration of a new truth. This is a dangerous issue that will destroy the faith of many. Do not run after this philosophy. Do not be corrupted from the simplicity that is in me. There is one God and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. Do not be turned from this truth, or you will worship another Jesus. Do not be confounded by the terror of these spirits. These spirits are mixing their poisonous dogmas with the truth so as to confuse my identity. Your mind will be thrown into disorder if you allow the truth to be disturbed by this philosophy. Remember Eve. Her mind was corrupted from the simplicity that is in me. I was made of a woman, took on seed of Abraham, and adorned the flesh like the children, for the Word was made flesh. Do not be beguiled by another Jesus. You will be overthrown and distracted if you go after another.

RE: RHEMA - Warning: A Philosophical Scheme Is Formulated to Spoil You, So Be Not Beguiled by the Spirit of Error

Error will always attach itself to the ways of the flesh. We should know no one after the flesh but after the Spirit. Spiritual understanding has a way of abolishing the subterfuge that carnal reason brings with it. Philosophy is the thinking of man. God's ways and thoughts are not ours. Beyond the veil of any measure is the beginning of the wisdom of God. El Olam is the entrance into the things that are out of the time and the mind of man. Everlasting wisdom teaches us that we cannot listen to others or our own thoughts to determine our paths. As we hear the voice of God, we know by experience that it will agree with the written word. God is not out of agreement with himself. As unlimited as his word is, so is his voice beyond the measure of the dictionary. Words are thimbles in oceans of meaning when we come to consider our Creator. Why would we chew the small thin sticks of the gum of philosophy when God has given us storehouse after storehouse of exceeding, great, and precious promises?

Salvation that was preached by the Apostles will never change. Early Greek philosophers changed the understanding of the deity of Jesus by using terms of philosophy. As we continue to use the forever settled word of God and not the cute philosophical terms that send men into false doctrine, we are safe. Foundational truths of the Apostle's doctrine will stand forever in the mouth and the tongue of those not afraid to stand for truth. We must never use the contemporary vernacular of our hour to explain or teach these unchangeable truths, or we will follow the same error that others did when the philosophers took over the writing after the apostles died.

RE: RHEMA - March to the Rhythm of God's Love and to the Tune of Spiritual Taps

Our God is a responsible Father. He knows that we did not choose to be born on the same block where the devil is running loose. So in his compassion, he has provided grace that has made a way out of every incursion of sin into our lives. He has commended his love toward us while we are yet held in the clutches of lust and error. When God looks at us and deals with us, he is dealing with himself. He foresaw the failure we would become but prepared a way for his glory to cover our shame. He intends to present this flawed and failing flesh spotless and blameless before the presence of his glory. Our Redeemer has not called us to a death march but a victory march.

Not long ago the Lord gave us this word.

“Judgment has lost all the files of your case. They have been cleaned out by the power of my blood. All your mistakes are gone forever. All the gravediggers of condemnation have lost their shovels that they would dig your grave and bury you with. I have covered you with the garments of my grace. You do not appear in the clothing of the condemned but of the justified. Do not fear something that will come upon you unaware. I have silenced every tongue that would rise against you and locked up all that would pursue you.”

Our sins have been blotted out by the blood of Jesus in the waters of baptism. God is leading us past all the death and fear that would try to encircle us into the safety of the secret of his presence.

The Promise of Eternal Life in the Midst of Troublesome Times

Series 7.1.18 – Letter #18

The rescue workers are to be commended for the job that they are doing. They have a job ahead of them. I will be with them. You have a job to do. I am with you. Many are perishing without me all over the world. I desire to amass a team of rescue workers for the gospel's sake and for my name to reach those who are lost. Souls are perishing while you are wasting time. Come and follow me. I have opened your ears to hear my voice. Now hear what I am saying to the Church. The world rescue workers have their responsibilities. The church rescue workers have their responsibilities. You cannot take care of their responsibilities. I have given you a specific calling. Now arise and preach the gospel to every creature. Their purpose is obvious. When will you realize the urgency of your purpose?

If only one is saved today, the value of that one cannot be weighed in silver and gold. What is the value of a soul?

What does it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?

Can a man be profitable unto me, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?

Or is it gain to you that you make your ways perfect?

For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

What is a man advantaged if he gains the entire world, its fame and riches and lose himself or becomes a castaway?

Hear the word of the Lord, and obey my voice. If you will come after me, deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it, but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

The results of war shall increase in the hours to come, but this does not lessen the purpose for which cause I came into the world. I have come into this world for judgment, that they which do not see might see, and that they which see might be made blind. If they were blind, they should have no sin, but now they say they see; therefore, their sin remains. Go and show them the door. If any man enters in, I shall save him. I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly. I gave my life for the sheep. Do not act as a hireling and flee. The wolves have come to catch the sheep unawares and to scatter them. Care for my sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep and am known of mine. Other sheep do I have, which are not of this fold, which I must bring. They shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

Many died without me this week. Would it have been better to seek after bodies of those dead in Christ or seek after bodies of those who do not know me?

Prepare souls for dying that they might have the promise of eternal life instead of empty ceremonies of remembrance. More deaths are to come. Who will go and prepare souls for the hour of their death?

Those who die in me have the promise of eternal life. What do those who die without me have?

Then what is important to do?

Seek first the kingdom of God and my righteousness, and then all the other things will be added unto you. If you have the kingdom of God and my righteousness, then you have these promises. Precious in my sight is the death of my saints. Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lord that they may rest from their labors. Those who are fallen asleep in Christ have not perished, but now is Christ risen from the dead and has become the first fruits of them that slept. Those who have departed and come to be with me have received the better thing, for to die is gain. While you are at home in the body, you are absent from me, but to be absent from the body is to be present with me. For whether you live, you live unto the Lord and whether you die, you die unto the Lord. Whether you live, therefore, or die, you are the Lord's. Do not be ignorant concerning those who are asleep that you do not sorrow even as others which do not have any hope. If you believe that I died and rose again, even so, those also which sleep in me, will I bring with me. They that are alive and remain unto my coming shall not prevent them that are asleep. I shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God. The dead in Christ shall rise first then those that are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet me in the air, and so shall you ever be with me. Go and comfort others with these words. Go and preach that those who have not obeyed the gospel may be convicted. Do not let any man despise you or your words.

I have no righteousness of myself that would give the Almighty pleasure; neither does he gain anything from me trying to make my own way perfect. There is nothing in this world worth exchanging my soul for. A man is not advantaged if he gains the entire world, its fame and riches, and loses himself, or becomes a castaway. That is why it is of the highest importance to preach the gospel. I settle it in my heart to seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and then all the other things will be added unto me. PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - The Promise of Eternal Life in the Midst of Troublesome Times

As men are addicted to the substances of this hour, we need to be addicted to winning the lost of our day. As God certainly heard the cry of his people in Egypt, he is hearing the cry of the lost today. His sacrifice has already paid the price, but there are rescue teams that need to embark on that journey to where they are in trouble. We rejoice in our testimonies of the blessing of salvation and the promise of eternal life in the world to come. We rejoice at the death of those who are saved.

What about those all around us that are rushing headlong into destruction?

We cannot be comfortable to rejoice simply to have warned them. Our love must embrace those that are even detestable to us. We were once as they were. We soon forget the dilemma that God delivered us from. All the time, we rush headlong to appointments that provide for our own and satisfy ourselves when a hand is outstretched for just a cup of the water of eternal life that we drink almost thoughtlessly. One soul is worth more than the whole world. Abraham could have gone down further for Sodom. Notice it was Abraham that stopped. God left the 99 sheep and went for the one that was lost. What does that tell us? He considers just one lost brought to his fold more important than the maintenance of the 99!

We spend so much time in this hour dealing with the cares and pressures of trials and problems when if we would seek first the kingdom of God in the lives of others, all the things that we pursue would be ours automatically. Our goal and aim is that the lost should feel the same love that we have been so wrapped up in all these years. Let us go forth with the words of grace and power and boldly speak them into lives that so desperately need to hear them. As I began to pray for the problems of the men at one of the units and their families that many of them had wept with their requests for them, God spoke to me. He said, “Because you have prayed for the things of others and not your own, I will supply your needs without you asking. I know your needs before you even ask. Your asking for others opens the gate of supply for the things you need yourself.”

RE: RHEMA - Jesus, the Difference Between a Filthy Rag and the Garment of Salvation

Our attempts to manufacture righteousness are as vain as Adam using fig leaves to cover his nakedness. Sin had so polluted and stained the image of man that no artist's makeover could cover the filthy residue that was left behind. When we try to use the same fabric of human efforts to redress images that should reflect his glory, we still have a mud covered mirror. Justification and righteousness come from the same original Greek word. It means we have been counted not guilty by his sacrifice. They are the most wonderful words you can hear in a criminal court of law that we are Not Guilty. His daily work of power in us demonstrates that his eternal power transcends man's ability. The carnal mind is not subject to the law of God and neither can it be. We must have the Creator to create a new heart out of which flows the works of his righteousness. Every accuser and adversary must stand aside in the face of his justification for it has already been said, "Who is he that condemns us?" As we may be attacked daily with the barrage of the enemy's condemnation, we need to remind him that we have been accepted by the Lord and nobody else that matters can reject us. As we esteem the treasure of his gift of righteousness and grace we are lifted above the petty conversation of those who have chosen to dwell in the mundane and the trivial. Let us rejoice in the final verdict of victory on our behalf.

By Rigo Toledo

I come before you, Jesus, and thank you for creating something new within me, a new desire to seek and save the lost on your behalf. I have a job to do, and I can rest assured that you are with me in the labor for the lost. I am convicted that many are perishing without knowing the true gospel that saves. I desire to be part of the team of rescue workers that you are assembling for the gospel. I rejoice that one of your rescue workers came to me and spoke of your saving name. I want to show my gratitude by doing the same for others. I come and follow you. I have a responsibility; I am a debtor to every man. Your grace has prepared me to preach the gospel to those I meet. Your gospel is the power that is needed for salvation to everyone that believes. Your righteousness is revealed from faith to faith: for the just shall live by faith. I am thankful you have opened my ears to hear your voice. You have given me a specific calling. I now rise and go to preach the gospel. I know If only one is saved today, the value of that is far more than silver and gold. I am grateful that you are placing the desire to see the need to be addicted to winning the lost. As you heard my cry when I was lost and you sent me one of your workers of grace, so I desire to do the same. Thank you, Jesus, for your saving grace.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our mission is the good news of the gospel to those who are in bondage to all the negative and bad news of this hour. God has changed our outlook from a pessimist to an optimist. We know that all things work together for good to those who love God and are the called according to his purpose.

THE WAY WE LIVE: BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
