Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

Dreams That Were Shut Up in the Graves of Failure Are Energized with the Power of the Resurrection

Series 8.8.30 – Letter #172

I am the light of the world. The whole world lies in wickedness and darkness. I have sent you to be a light unto the world; therefore, take heed to yourselves and forgive one another as I have forgiven you. You cannot say that you are exercising real faith if you do not forgive your brother. Go and shine the light of love as you show forth faith that will move the huge trees of unforgiveness in the earth. How can you say that you have supped with me when you are not plucking up the trees of unforgiveness?

Go and speak the word and these trees shall be plucked up by their roots. How shall the world behold the love of God if you are not thankful?

If you are grateful for my love toward you, then show forth the light of love unto others. The world awaits the light. When you have returned to me with a true heart of thanksgiving, then will you shine again and give glory unto me, your God. Come and dine with me. Come, eat, and drink. I have knocked on your heart. You answered the knock. Now sit down and sup with me. I have a chief meal to serve you. I have spiritual communion awaiting you. How will you express the fruit of the cup of the New Testament in my blood if you do not come to the table of prayer and fellowship with me?

I ate the Passover with the disciples before I suffered. I knew I would suffer, yet I ate the Passover with them. Have you drawn back from fellowship with me because of your sufferings?

Come and dine again. There is fresh bread and fresh wine for you. Offer thanks and express the fruit of your lips as you give thanks unto my name. I have granted you the benefits of the cup of the New Testament in my blood. Give thanks for the many benefits that you have. I am the Lord, your God, and the Messiah. My blood has made a way for you. Behold the blood of communion and realize that it has paved an open highway for you. There are no roadblocks on this highway. It is the highway of holiness for the redeemed. Only the redeemed are walking here. Only those who are bought by my blood are walking here. You have imagined that the officers of hindrance will prevent you from the goals set before you. Cast down these imaginations and high things sent from the devil. I have not brought you to the highway of my blood to hinder you in obtaining the blessings of goodness and satisfaction. I am satisfying your mouths with good things. Eat the bread of victory and rise up with the wings of an eagle. Rise up with youthful attitudes that have been renewed like the eagle. Do not travel any longer along the pathways of fear and regret. Soar above this pit that was dug for those who do not have the faith of Jesus Christ. The faith that is in you has a frame for your blessings. Secure the frame from faith's heart and place it on your desired vision.

Lift your eyes from the pit of defeat. I have not shown you the rejections along the pathways before you. An enemy has projected these things. Ignore the adversary's billboards. Tune out the voice of his broadcasts. The wind of his storm shall not affect the outcome that I have planned for you. I have designed only victory and no shame. Go forth in the power of the Spirit. Show forth the fervent praises of a redeemed man of God. Allow the light of confidence to shine. I have hidden my fist inside of your confident praises. Be unshackled by love, for my love shall work your faith. Be loosed in your mind. I have not allowed a thief to rob you of your dreams. Many dreams lay dead in this valley that you are traveling through. I spoke to many as they traveled this same path, but they did not believe. Do not listen to the voices of the serpents in the trees of the valley. These serpents are the children of Eve's enemy. Do not listen to their words, lest they spoil your faith. Listen to the voice of the Spirit of God. You have ears. Now hear what I am saying unto you. My blood has made a way for you. My blood has paid the debts you owed. Now who will lay any charge to you, for you are my elect?

I offered up the necessary sacrifice. Now who will entice me not to give you all things?

It is my good pleasure to give you the kingdom. It is also my good pleasure to add all things unto you. Receive the adding of the things that I have promised you. Your dreams are alive. Behold them dancing as they await your arrival on the shores of hope. Your dreams live. Behold them running along the rivers of faith. Your dreams are alive. They are furnished with the life from above. I have energized your dreams with the power of the resurrection and the voice of death cannot shut them up in the graves of failure. Go and speak the word. Your words shall assure others that true dreams never die. I have come to show you that there are living dreams among the people. The enemy has wrapped many minds with the grave clothes of failure. I have given you power to unravel the cords of confusion. To fashion clothes of failure, the enemy has used the cords of confusion. Go and preach the word, and my word shall unravel these cords and the people shall be loosed. Go and say, "Your dreams are alive. Behold them as they run. Your dreams live. Behold the dancing dreams of today and tomorrow."

RE: RHEMA - Dreams That Were Shut Up in the Graves of Failure Are Energized with the Power of the Resurrection

Joseph would not allow bitterness or unforgiveness to destroy the dreams of the blessings of God while he was locked up in the prison on false charges. Jesus was crucified, and death tried to hold him. Like Joseph, we must not allow any bitterness or unforgiveness to hold us or our dreams hostage. Joseph released his brothers who had wronged him and was so thankful to see them again. His dreams walked out of the prison as Jesus walked out of the tomb. With triumphant praise we will walk out of every circumstance that would try to hold us hostage to unthankfulness. Joseph saw the salvation of many people in view by the blessing of God. We must do the same as we view the sunrise of grace on the lives of others just beyond the horizon of negative circumstances.

A while back the Lord spoke to me a very encouraging prophecy while I was studying the story of the resurrection of Lazarus. He said, "The dreams that you thought were buried are now walking out of the tomb of defeat. Defeat cannot process the children of victory. I have placed the spirit of overcoming and triumph in your heart. The enemy thought you would bury your hopes and mourn over your losses. Instead, I have given you a celebration of dreams that have been fulfilled as you watched. Your dreams are not dead. Throw away the shovel of unbelief. Get rid of the tapes of failure. Do not listen to the music of the defeated. Your dreams are the vision of my eyes seeing through you. See what I see and you will be filled with joy!"

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

Lord, I am so grateful that you have allowed me to come to the table of prayer and fellowship with you this morning. Fresh bread and fresh wine are made available to me; therefore, with the fruit of my lips I praise you and bless your holy name. Through the power of the Rhema word, my understanding has been opened and now I can see what you see. You have loaded me up with benefits and given me fruits from the cup of your precious blood. I realize that your blood has paved an open highway for me to travel where no roadblocks abide, and I am grateful. I am glad that on the highway of holiness, I am redeemed! Because of your intimate love and the triumphant praise of your creation, I can walk out of every circumstance that unthankfulness tries to hold me hostage to. I release all those who have wronged me by my faith in you Lord. I throw away the shovel of unbelief and get rid of the tapes of failure. I turn off the music of defeat and celebrate that my dreams live, because the sunrise of grace lives. My dreams have been energized by the power of the resurrection. I am thankful that the voice of death is shut up by its own grave of failure. I know that just beyond the horizon of negative circumstances, I am worshipping you, Lord, for my dreams are the vision of your eyes seeing through me. My soul leaps within me as I am compelled by your love to show forth the light of love unto others. I know it is your good pleasure to give me the kingdom; therefore, with a heart of thanksgiving and a mouth full of praise, I am grateful for this salvation. To you alone belongs all the glory and honor. Praise be to your holy name, Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

John tells us in the book of Revelation that the redeemed will sing a new song. We will not sing of the past and its defeats. Our anthem will ring with the prophetic trumpets of the present and future miraculous. Tongues will lift up the harmony of faith and love as we bask in the presence of our Beloved. Others that would try to distract or debate us will be drowned out by the promises obtained by the words that Spirit speaks through us. Bitter tunes and disharmony of the soul will not be able to attend a recording session. Our hearts will soar on the wings of eagles into the symphonies of the heights as we sit together in heavenly places in Jesus Christ.

True Righteousness and True Holiness, a Refuge from Self-Imposed Mental Prisons and Judgmental Oppressions of Men

Series 8.8.31 – Letter #173

Have I saved you to make you ashamed?

He who believes on me shall never be ashamed. Call on my name and behold the deliverance behind the spoken door of my name. When you speak my name, you create a door for deliverance to walk through. I have said that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered. Those who are my delight shall be delivered. You are the seed of Christ; therefore, you are the seed of the righteous. As I delivered Lot, I will deliver you. I will contend with those who contend with you, and I will save your children. I have said that I will feed them that oppress you with their own flesh. They shall be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine, and all flesh shall know that I am your Savior and your redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob. Do not fear the voice of circumstances and the consequences of the rejections by man. I am not influenced by man's desires and will. Who has taught me to make judgment?

Who has been my counselor?

I am the Lord, your God, the Holy One of Israel. I have released you from sin and let you go. By my same grace, I have preserved you and counted you worthy to escape all the things that are coming upon this earth. I have not planned to give you up to the will of your enemies, neither have I planned to give you back to the darkness that held you by the power of your own sins. The payment that I rendered is sufficient for recompense and restoration. Believe on my word and have confidence in your salvation. I have not given you salvation and betrayed myself. You are not your own now. You belong to me. Will I deny myself?

You are loosed and set free. I have rescued you out of this present evil world. The dangers of this world cannot pluck you out of my hand. The cords of your own sins held you, but I abolished your sins and rescued you. Many calamities will come upon this world. I am your deliverer, and I am mighty in salvation and deliverance on your behalf. In the world, you will have temptations, tribulations, persecutions, and sufferings. I will deliver you out of all of these. You have been oppressed by the attitudes and influences of others. Lift up your eyes. Lift up your head. I will not gratify your foes, for I am not influenced to please others in judging you. I do not gratify the wishes of men in my judgment. I forgave all of your sins. Now grant me your faith in my grace and mercy, and experience your release from all bondage and captivity. I have liberated you. I have not held you in the prison house of men's politics. You perceive yourself rejected by others because you have attempted to enter into arenas that I have never planned for you. These are arenas of menpleasers where brothers are slain by brothers and the young are poisoned and killed by the will of man. The menpleasers will never experience true joy and singleness in heart. There is a path of true righteousness and true holiness. Awaken from the self-imposed prison in your mind and run down the highway of true liberation. Come and follow me. I am leading you in the path of righteousness. It is a plain path where the will of enemies does not hinder or abort your labor of love for my name. Come and follow me. Leave your frustrations behind you. Leave the mysteries of men and their actions at this altar of prayer. Bring along the sacrifice of praise and the faith of Jesus Christ. Now behold the clarity of the path before your feet.

RE: RHEMA - True Righteousness and True Holiness, a Refuge from Self-Imposed Mental Prisons and Judgmental Oppressions of Men

True holiness is a transparency. We are so thankful that he has delivered us from the killing influences of self and the flesh. We decrease and diminish that he will be seen in our lives. Everything that we do and say should attract attention to him and not to our person. If we ourselves are seen, then we are blocking the view of the King and his throne. True worship is to be prostrate on the ground. It is a physical impossibility to be on our face all the time. Yet, we in our spirit, actions, and words can glorify him who has called us out of darkness into his marvelous light. Second Peter chapter two tells of those who are in our day who would call our lives of holiness bondage when they themselves are the servants to corruption. Holiness is the only real freedom in this life. His commandments are not grievous. In keeping them, there is a great reward.

- ◆ Who can eat at God's table and the table of devils also?
- ◆ The enemy has come to offer you his rewards on the platters of compromise. Remember that God has sent you to be a testimony of his power and his glory. Remember that you are his witnesses and not the witnesses of the enemy.
- ◆ Compromise is a deadly tactic of the enemy. It is aligned against God's warriors to distract them from his goodness and mercy in order to smite you from the back.
- ◆ Remember that compromise is a deadly enemy, not a harmless game or entertainment. Every spirit of the darkness is armed with the weapons of compromise.
- ◆ Beware, lest you sell the truth for empty rewards and the praises of man. You have taken up your spiritual weapons by the hands of trust. Now continue to trust in God so that the weapons of your warfare may be swung with accuracy and confidence and not stilled by doubt and fear.
- ◆ In the hearts of those who have allowed love to abide, there is peace in the face of judgment by the courts of the enemy. In the hearts of those who truly believe, life is not viewed by eyes that seek to save their lives.
- ◆ Paul said that the world was crucified to him, and he was crucified to the world by the cross. This powerful statement is part of the view that must be part of our gaze in life. The cross goes across every boundary and barrier of earthly love. In the fellowship of his suffering, Jesus lets us know that in the three hours of darkness at the cross between the sixth hour and the ninth hour, he is with us. (Don Grigsby).
- ◆ In the darkest part of our lives, the cross speaks to us beyond the response of the mobs of negativity. Six is the number of man and his limited ability. Nine is the number of the Spirit and God's unlimited ability. Between the inability of our flesh and the unlimited ability of the Spirit, Jesus Christ is the bridge. (Don Grigsby).
- ◆ God has brought us out of the darkness and tyranny of sin. We lift up the cross as the difference in our lives between life and death. Truth has been given to us by the precious blood of the cross. Truth is not negotiable or for sale at any price. Compromise was never in the vocabulary of the cross. It cannot be in the context of the cross today. (Don Grigsby).

◆ Compromise is a mis-speak for a believer who has taken up the cross to follow Jesus Christ. In our lives, it is everything for Jesus and nothing is kept back. We cannot trust in the principles of any man-made religion. (Don Grigsby).

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

As I seek to please you Lord, I am assured that you will make even my enemies to be at peace with me; therefore, I do not engage in the politics of men. Rather, I focus on my relationship with you for it is up to you whether I stand or I fall. You are the supreme power and authority both in heaven and in earth. Thank you for the saving grace that has drawn me continually into your presence. You have done such great and mighty things in my life, yet I realize that the best and greater works are on their way to me now. I am liberated and set free to serve you. The influences of others and the misgivings of spirits do not have power over me. I am who I am by the grace of God, and I am becoming who I am already in the future. I thank you Lord, for the mercy, grace, and patience you've given as they aid me in seeking your holiness and true righteousness.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

As we stand on the platform of yesterday's promises fulfilled and with our praise proclaim his power; the power of the prophetic is piercing the future darkness. We stand in the stream of today and we are able to control the floods of tomorrow with the authority that Jesus Christ has given to us over all things. Our embrace of his grace in the arms of everlasting love will place us on the plain of protection beyond the reach of the destruction of the enemy. Love and worship will combine to create the incense that will cover the mercy seat of our dwelling place in the presence of our Beloved. Our present and future will then be illuminated by the Shekinah of glory that dwells over that mercy seat.

There Is No Foreclosure on True Salvation and God's Many Benefits

Series 8.9.1 – Letter #174

In the fullness of time, I came to offer myself a ransom for the sins of the world. In the fullness of time, the Spirit was poured out upon man at Pentecost. I will not be late for any of my divine appointments. I am faithful. My word has gone out of my mouth.

In the fullness of my time, the fulfillment that I have ordained will come to pass. Do not be frustrated because you do not understand my timing. Simply believe this: I am faithful and I cannot lie. I have given many precious promises. An enemy has sown the seeds of unbelief in the hearts of the people. Go and destroy the plants of unbelief and sow powerful seeds of faith. Go and deliver the people from unbelief with the word that is in your tongue.

There are vines of ignorance wrapped about the minds of the people. Go and cut these vines away with the sword of the Spirit. Swing the sword of truth and wipe out flourishing ignorance. Do not allow this perpetrator to remain in the pasture of faith. This vine is gratified because it turns the heart of my people from me. He who comes to me must believe that I am and that I am the rewarder of those who diligently seek me. This perpetrator has gained strength through impatience. Stand in the gap and make up a hedge of patience. The people have need of patience so that their souls may be possessed. Patience is a laborer. Show forth trust in me so that those who follow you might observe the perfect work of patience. The works of faith are not strong without the muscles of patience. Swing the muscles of patience among the people, and then will they have examples of spiritual gratification instead of discontentment. Go forth and communicate your faith. Do not simply speak it. Communicate and demonstrate it among the people.

Many imagine vain things about their deliverance. Their release from their troubles is not dependent upon them. It is dependent upon the payment of the necessary price for their ransom. I have paid it in full. Go and say, “Let the redeemed of the Lord say so.” I have sent the prisoners out of the pits of captivity. True liberation has been wrought by my own right arm. I dismissed them from captivity and its embarrassment. Proclaim the explosion of righteousness in their lives. Sin is no longer a liability. Retention in captivity is no longer possible if you believe. Faith is sufficient to overthrow the keepers of the pit. Show forth your faith and declare that there is no foreclosure on your salvation. Do not forfeit your deliverance and victory because the devil has issued his forged mortgage on you. The principal sum has been paid. You owe him no cost and no interest. Offer praise unto God most high and speak in the devil's ears your confidence in the atonement of Jesus Christ. I bought you favor by my death and sufferings. The ransom that I paid for you is proof of your release from all things. Your tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Write paid in full on his forged mortgage. You are delivered. Now say so.

Words of Light upon the Face of Captivity, Ignorance, Impatience, and Unbelief

Series 8.9.1 – Confession #174

In the fullness of time, God came to offer himself a ransom for the sins of the world. In the fullness of time, the Spirit was poured out upon man at Pentecost. He will not be late for any of his divine appointments. God is faithful. His word has gone out of his mouth. In the fullness of his time, the fulfillment that he has ordained will come to pass. I will not be frustrated because I do not understand God's timing. I simply believe this: God is faithful and he cannot lie. He has given many precious promises. An enemy has sown the seeds of unbelief in the hearts of the people. I have destroyed the plants of unbelief and sown powerful seeds of faith. I now go forth delivering the people from unbelief with the word that is in my tongue.

There are vines of ignorance wrapped about the minds of the people. I have cut these vines away with the sword of the Spirit. I have swung the sword of truth and wiped out flourishing ignorance. I refuse to allow this perpetrator to remain in the pasture of faith. This vine is gratified because it turns the heart of God's people from him. He who comes to Jesus must believe that he is and that he is the rewarder of those who diligently seek him. This perpetrator has gained strength through impatience. I have stood in the gap and made up a hedge of patience. The people have need of patience so that their souls may be possessed. Patience is a laborer. I show forth trust in Jesus so that those who follow me might observe the perfect work of patience. The works of faith are not strong without the muscles of patience. I have swung the muscles of patience among the people; therefore, they have an example of spiritual gratification instead of discontentment. I have gone forth and communicated my faith. I am not simply speaking it. Rather I am communicating and demonstrating it among the people.

Many imagine vain things about their deliverance. Their release from their troubles is not dependent upon them. It is dependent upon the payment of the necessary price for their ransom. Jesus has paid it in full. Now I say, “Let the redeemed of the Lord say so.” He has sent the prisoners out of the pits of captivity. True liberation has been wrought by his own right arm. He has dismissed them from captivity and its embarrassment. Now I proclaim the explosion of righteousness in their lives. Sin is no longer a liability. Retention in captivity is no longer possible because I believe. Faith is sufficient to overthrow the keepers of the pit. I have shown my faith and declared that there is no foreclosure on my salvation. I will not forfeit my deliverance and victory because the devil has issued his forged mortgage on me. The principal sum has been paid. I owe him no cost and no interest. I offer praise unto God most high and speak in the devil's ears my confidence in the atonement of Jesus Christ. He bought me favor by his death and sufferings. The ransom that he paid for me is proof of my release from all things. My tongue is the pen of a ready writer. I have written paid in full on his forged mortgage. I am delivered. Now I say so!

RE: RHEMA - There Is No Foreclosure on True Salvation and God's Many Benefits

The blessing of the Lord makes us rich and it adds no sorrow. Sorrow here is the Hebrew word for worry that we have constructed. We are told that in our patience we possess our souls. What does this mean? We are in the possession of some other emotion or power if we are impatient. We are in control of our lives when we can say as David did to his soul, “Wait I say on the Lord, for I will yet rejoice.” We know that God can answer or supply in a gradual manner, or he can answer instantly. Whichever way that he chooses, we as individual believers should rejoice in the times of trouble or of sweeping blessing. Why? The same God controls our lives and has heard our prayer before we ask, and while we are asking, he will answer. His grace has purchased all that we will need for our past, present, and future. No process or power of any one or of any enemy has the jurisdiction or ability to prevent the work of God from being completed in our lives. We are confident of this one thing that he who began a good work will complete it. All this provision has been paid for out of the abundance of the riches of his grace.

◆ The cross has laid the foundations of our living from the foundation of the world. If we suffer persecution by others because of the cross, then we are blessed and should realize that if we suffer with him that we will reign with him. The weapons of our warfare are not carnal. The cross has opened the armory of the love for us to access spiritual weaponry that will never fail. (Don Grigsby).

- ◆ The night approaches with the devastating blow of God's wrath, and the evening will vanish with the swiftness of light.
- ◆ Do not be removed from the love of the truth, lest the phenomena of the last day wonder find you asleep without spiritual vitality.
- ◆ Jesus is the light, which lights every man that comes into the world. Without him, you can do nothing.
- ◆ Out of a dark place has God's light shined and brought immortality by the gospel. Do not be removed from the gospel of Christ, for there is no other gospel but the gospel which has been delivered unto you.
- ◆ Love this gospel and continue to stand in this gospel, for by it were you saved, and by it you shall stand.
- ◆ Stand with your loins girt about with the truth. Do not forsake truth and do not let the truth that you bear fall into the streets. Embrace God's love and a love for God, and you will never fall.
- ◆ The evening hour has brought many to the threshold of decision. Wrong decisions are being made every day. Seek God with a whole heart, and then will you find him a friend who sticks closer than a mother, a father, a brother, or a sister.
- ◆ Jesus will never leave you. Do not leave him. He remembers you in all that he has done and is doing concerning you.
- ◆ God has not ordained that you be devoured by the subtle enemies that search for your blood, but he has ordained your victory over everything.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING by Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you that you have not issued a foreclosure notice on my salvation. You gave your life freely that I might live. I am so blessed by your many benefits. Your blessings make me rich and you add no sorrow. I am grateful to be called by your precious name. Your name is above every name. You have exalted your word above your name. You are faithful and your word has gone out of your mouth and it will not return unto you empty or void. You have plans for me and I must not be impatient waiting on your plans to be fulfilled. I know that what you have ordained shall come to pass; therefore, I will not become frustrated. When the enemy tries to sow seeds of unbelief in my heart, I know that you will destroy the plants of unbelief and sow seeds of faith in my heart. I allow you to control my life and know that my prayers have been heard. These prayers sown will come up before you as a memorial. Your grace has purchased all that I will need for my past, present, and future. I am confident that what you have started in me, you shall perform it. I celebrate in the riches of your grace. I have been rewarded because I diligently sought you. Thank you for filling me with your Spirit. I am joyful and delighted to serve you with gladness. Your goodness and your mercy has brought me through many dangers, toils, and snares. You plucked up the snares that were set before my feet. I purpose to show forth trust in you, so that those who follow me might observe the perfect work of patience in me. I am convinced that in my patience, I possess my soul. Help me to allow patience to have her perfect work in me. I will go forth and communicate my faith because it is exciting to share your gospel. All glory and honor be unto your wonderful name!

PRAYER INSIGHT by Don Grigsby

All the promises of God are yes and amen in Jesus Christ to the glory of God by us. God does not need any promises or miracles but we do. He gets the glory when his word is fulfilled in us. His word is immutable. Many will define this as unchangeable. The root word means that it will never be silenced. God's word that is once spoken remains alive for all eternity. It is eternal in power and duration. If we deny him, he will never love us less or go back to the cross and say that it was not worth the cross and the pain for us to just turn it down. His word is like a garden of flowers and fountains that house the beauty of his majesty and love for us. Daily he waters it with the abundance of the rain of truth and grace that causes it to flourish into a verdant green that is fresh with the scent of the spices of his mercy. He always leaves a note of invitation that is drenched in the drops of dew of a morning kissed with sapphire skies of inspiration. It is always tied with a ribbon of velvet words that ask us to come away with him to his pavilion of promise where we can rest from the relentless battles of our soul.

The Lord's Vengeance upon the Enemy's Campaign of Fear and Intimidation

Series 8.9.2 – Letter #175

You are in a mighty conflict with principalities and powers. You have not gone to battle against these enemies without me. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you. I am the same God who brought Israel out of the land of Egypt. Do not let your hearts faint. Do not fear and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of these mighty foes. I am the Lord. I go with you to fight for you against your enemies to save you. The number of your adversaries does not trouble me. Many intimidating foes have arisen against my body. There is help for you in me. I am your shield and your glory. I am the lifter of your head. Though the enemy has intimidated and threatened you with fear, do not be afraid. Do not be afraid of these enemies that have set themselves against you. I have arisen to save you. I will smite them upon the cheekbone. I will break out the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation belongs unto me. Remember, I have placed my blessing upon my people; therefore, do not fear their fear and do not be afraid.

The enemy has sent a campaign of fear and intimidation against you daily. The enemy intends to hamper your testimony by intimidating you. The stares of the spiritual enemies in dreams are terrifying. He has penetrated your dreams and attempted to corrupt the atmosphere of your peace and rest. The intimidating figures and icons of your dreams are real, and so am I. I am sanctified in you. I am the Lord of hosts. Allow me to be your fear. Allow me to be your dread. Do not draw back because of the beasts who come to war against you. Paul fought with the beasts of Ephesus. Do you think that the enemy has sent house cats to fight against you?

The enemy knows that he only has a short time to devour many. Do not become timid and fearful because of his rage. He hopes to restrain the word in you by intimidation. Do not allow his threats sent through dreams to deter you from prophesying and preaching. I am your sanctuary, a stone of stumbling, a rock of offense, and a snare to the foes of the word. Do not allow this bully to bind up your testimony. You will not perish by his hands. He is intimidating many by holding fear over their heads. Do not be browbeaten by this defeated foe. Do not be frightened away from the heritage of souls in your grip. He is attempting to scare you away from the territory that he has claimed for himself. Do not lose courage. I am in you to do a mighty work for you. Trust in me with all your heart, and do not lean to your own understanding, neither lean on your own concept of power. The battle is mine. Behold my actions on your behalf, and hear the voice of your deliverer as I say, “The Lord rebuke you, thou intimidator. Get thee hence.”

I have rebuked the adversary. Now do not be restrained by voices that declare your losses. Do not be weakened by the sounds of strange figures that hang around to frighten you. I am your hope; therefore, the enemy cannot take your hope away from you. Go and encourage others in the peace that I have granted. Go and assure them that circumstances and demons obey me, the Lord, your God. Do not be afraid, but arise and speak. Do not hold your peace, for I am with you. No man shall set on you to defeat you. Arise. I have many people in these cities.

RE: RHEMA - The Lord's Vengeance upon the Enemy's Campaign of Fear and Intimidation

In Luke 18:1-8, we have a large commentary on how God uses vengeance. It begins with our need to pray and not to allow anything to cause us to quit or stop. It ends with the question of "will he find faith when he comes on the earth?" Faith is a gift of the Spirit and a fruit of the Spirit. Believing should be as natural and normal to the spiritual person as breathing is to a natural person. All of the enemy's information is spam and lies. Satan deals in libel and slander. God has already let us know that our enemies are his enemies. We are encouraged to stand still and see the salvation of God. We rest in his peace that he will complete us and every good work that pertains to us. We have not received the spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind. Jesus came for the very purpose to destroy the working of the devil and to the very one who had the power of death. Everything that the enemies says or charges us and God with is invalid. We should never try to verify it by even considering its thoughts. Unjust circumstances are going to come our way, but God will avenge his chosen people. Our enemy will try to divert our attention by getting us to look at what seems to be failure. Our victory is in keeping our hands and hearts lifted in praise and upon him who is the author and finisher of our faith!

- ◆ You have already overcome the world and all the obstacles that have attempted to fence you in the corners of this life. The corner that the enemy has driven you into this day is not a corner for his victory. This corner is the place where God shall build a testimony of his abiding love within you.
- ◆ God is bringing you from this corner of entrapment and is building upon this corner, a mighty building of testimonies. From this point in your life, he is building a mighty monument concerning his faithfulness to you.
- ◆ God has loved you with an everlasting love, and he continues to love you with an everlasting love.
- ◆ God's mercy has restrained defeat and pushed it aside. He has shoved defeat to the uttermost part of the arena.
- ◆ Grace has picked you up and embraced you in the arms of sufficiency and gladness. Rise up with the joy of deliverance coming from your life, for the Lord has truly made you free by the gospel and his love.
- ◆ Do not worry about the outcome of your church services, for God is the one who works within you. He has already placed within you the inspiration for the hour.
- ◆ God will prove to you again and again that there is a new ministry within you. It is the ministry of reconciliation and the ministry of righteousness. Righteousness ministers in you and the ministry of this righteousness is the expression of the faithful witness within you.
- ◆ The Lord has given you a mouth, and he has given you wisdom. The gainsayers cannot resist the words of your mouth, for Jesus is the Lord God who speaks within you.
- ◆ Look up again unto the hills and see that help has already descended unto the scene in the corner that was designed by the enemy for your defeat. Jesus is there in this corner with you. Now draw your sword and allow him to show you the direction to swing it.
- ◆ Stand on your feet and offer praise, for the praises of the Lord God will slash in pieces the foes before your face. Not one of them shall remain, for God has set up an ambushment for your enemies and your foes by your praises.

By Cindy Mesa

I am overwhelmed to behold a new day of truth that is prepared to fight against principalities and powers on my behalf. Though the battle is not mine you have prepared a table of Rhema to strengthen me during this time of attack upon my faith. I am comforted knowing you have considered my weakness and brought to my remembrance that the devil is a liar and, therefore the intimidating words he speaks are irrelevant regarding my salvation. I rejoice in the word that is set as a standard against the threatening voices of the adversary. The slandering words to diminish my testimony are silenced by my deliverer who has rebuked the intimidator. Once dead in trespasses and sins I walked in the ways of this world. The enemies babble of accusations and intimidation is like a dog that gnaws on a bone that has no meat and the splinters of his words will be his demise. His tactics of campaigning against me are over. He cannot humiliate me in the hopes that I might retreat from the race and silence me from testifying of your goodness and mercy. You are the high and lofty one and your name is holy, you are rich in mercy giving grace that I may sit in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. I am delighted to know that I am safe in your pavilion and from the strife of tongues; therefore, I will be of good courage for my hope is in you and my calling is not in vain. I lift my hands in praise for you are truly the author and finisher of my faith.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Moses won many battles with the rod in his hand out stretched. God however wanted him to do with his mouth what he had done with the rod. Moses was commanded to speak to the rock instead of smiting the rock. If we are not careful we will smite our rocks of difficulty instead of speaking to them. Death and life are in the power of the tongue. Power in this verse in Proverbs is not one of the power words that we think of as dunamos in the New Testament. It is the Hebrew word yod that means hand. Our mouth and words are the hand that the promise is seized and held in possession with.

The Mountainous Walls of Impossibility Are Borders of Safety and Walls for Portraits of Faith, Not Intimidating Structures of Limitations and Fear

Series 8.9.3 – Letter #176

The journey through your present trial is through a valley, not over mountains. I have carried you through valleys before; however, this is a different type of valley. I desire you to experience the beauty of the valleys and to learn things about valleys that will aid you in helping others. The mountain walls of this journey encroach upon your pride. Allow these huge overlapping things to fashion great trust within you. I have placed these huge things along the way as borders of safety and walls for portraits, not for intimidating structures of limitations and fear. Your view of things is not dependent upon you but on me. I have placed my view within you. Because you cannot see through the walls of your valley is no reason to view these mountains as displays of trouble and impossibility. I have arranged the walls of your valley for my own purpose in your life and the lives of others. The huge walls of your valley have separated you from many that I have excluded from your life. They will not come over these huge problems to fellowship with you; therefore, their unwanted hindrances and distractions are alienated on the other side.

The huge problems that face you are ordered to stand only. Come near them and touch them. They do not bite, neither can they devour you. I have commanded their silence and forbade them to move. Now accept the opening of your ears to hear my voice as you walk along the mountainous walls of God selected valleys. I have silenced the vocal echoes of these walls and commanded beautiful portraits of faith instead of intimidating roars of fear and loneliness. This valley is your home for awhile. Rest and view the portraits placed on the walls of your abode by the words of my faithfulness. Behold their beauty, for they are from the mind of the one who created the walls. Behold what I see instead of what you see. Behold the beauty of the walls of the valley. I have made them out of the finest that impossibility has to offer. These walls of impossibility now serve you. They stand in silence and obedience to me as they offer you protection and walls for portraits of faith. Behold the portrait of prosperity that I am placing on the wall of financial impossibility. Behold the portrait of healing that I am placing on the wall of contrary sickness and disease. Behold the portrait of eternal life that I have placed on the wall of intimidating condemnation and damnation.

RE: RHEMA - The Mountainous Walls of Impossibility Are Borders of Safety and Walls for Portraits of Faith, Not Intimidating Structures of Limitations and Fear

Impossibility is not in the thesaurus of heaven. Our El Shaddai has the power to erase every obstacle and protest that stands in the way of miracles. In the beginning of time God spoke into the nothingness of emptiness and out of that came all of natural creation. We should never be appalled at anything that happens in the natural world or invisible world because he made them both. Our God made their laws and limitations and he can change them or erase them as he pleases. We should not be intimidated by any limitation that seems to encompass us about. Israel had an impossible and daunting task to get 3 million people across the Red Sea and deal with an army of the enemy behind them. All God has to do is speak to the wind, the light, or to fire, and they will fight the darkness and deliver the people of God from their impossible situations. We are dealing with people in impossible situations in society and culture. We see domestic situations and criminal activities that seem to be endless. Yet, God in his infinite wisdom and longsuffering allows them to exist. Why? He wills that they all might meet his mercy and love through a vessel of grace. God has given us the very force and power of creation hidden in the scrolls of letters that his Spirit has given us. Miracles and wonders are scripted in these declarations. We will see a world of awesome and unbelievable events take place before the coming of the Lord. Never doubt that as Zachariah said that God would move the mountains that form valleys and turn it all into a plain of grace and upon it a temple of majestic power.

By Marco Mendoza

Lord, I am so thankful that although things may be impossible with man, with you nothing is impossible. I rejoice at the fact that you do not reward me according to my sins, but rather according to thy loving-kindness and the multitude of thy tender mercies you blot out my transgressions. I praise you my great God; you formed all things in the beginning of time by the word of your power. You uphold all things by your word, in you I live, move, and have my being; therefore, I will not fear, neither will I be appalled by anything that happens. Absolutely nothing can happen unless you allow it. I understand that angels are on assignment from you to keep us in all our ways. I know you know what you are doing and I trust you. You have started a good work in my life and you will complete it for you are the author and finisher of my faith. So whether you close a door or open it, glory to you for it will surely work out for my good. I thank you Jesus for the great cloud of witnesses that I have in the holy scriptures, for these things were written for my learning, that through them I may be comforted knowing that you do not change, neither are you a respecter of persons. If you did these things then, you will surely do them now and I praise you for that. All you have to do is speak to the wind, the light, or to fire, and they will fight the darkness and deliver me from what may appear to be an impossible situation. Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Impossible is not in the thesaurus of the Lord. Mary asked how that she would be the mother of the Messiah, knowing that it was not a natural possibility. With God nothing shall be impossible rang in the message of the angel. Impossible here was not the word that we see in most texts, it is the word Rhema. In other words, the things that the Spirit speaks will never be without power to come to pass. Or it could be said that no Rhema of God will fail to come to pass. We see that Mary understood when she told the angel that it would be according to his word to her. God's presently spoken words are not just special spiritual effects. Prophetic promises are painting the portrait of the promise that will soon hang in the corridors of the present.

The Ugly Design and Architecture of Misunderstandings Are Used to Make Beautiful and Profound Testimonies

Series 8.9.4 – Letter #177

The misunderstandings and the mysteries that have come into your life are not to baffle you. They are allowed as illustrations for the classes that I have enrolled you in. I am the master teacher. Living examples and real situations are being used to instruct you. They aid me in granting you a greater understanding of me. I desire to teach you so that there is nothing to fear in gross misunderstandings and perplexing mysteries. Come near. I am teaching you about the design and architecture of misunderstandings and mysteries. Their branches and flowers are unusual and secretive. These branches and flowers spring forth as mistakes and errors. They are like a giant maze many times. Their solutions are not obvious, for their design is to manifest a puzzle that draws their subject into the chambers of confusion. You have looked at their flowers, but I have seen their roots and their flowers. Allow me to show you the roots of these things, and behold the simplicity of misunderstandings and mysteries. I saw the beginning of these trials. I know their origin, and I know their ending. Am I worried about these unusual manifestations before you?

Do you seek to understand the nature of your problems, or do you seek to know the God of answers?

Is anything impossible for me?

If I am for you, what can be against you?

These unusual things have no ending in this life. They will grow until the end of time. They are all the same to me. Trust me to take each of these designs and unfamiliar patterns and make beautiful and profound testimonies out of them. Though you do not understand the why of these things, rest in the fact that I am faithful. You continue to ask why. How many times must I repeat these lessons?

There is no fear in love. I am working grace out in your life. Grace is teaching you in a special school with misunderstandings and mysteries as illustrations. Rest in the promises of God. This school of higher learning will grant you the diploma of love, which is a symbol that you have learned to trust me in all things and at all times. I am faithful. Only believe.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Ugly Design and Architecture of Misunderstandings Are Used To Make Beautiful and Profound Testimonies

Hebrews 11:3 explains that the things that are made are made of things which do not appear. In Genesis Chapter one, the majestic creation came out of the empty void. Job tells us that God hung the world on nothing. In a vast world of beauty, there can be little less attractive than an empty void. After a beautiful stage production in a theater, there is a dull ugliness when every prop and accessory is removed and there is only the bare floor on the stage. Yet, we must understand that it has only been cleared for a greater and more beautiful production. When our lives seem confused and barren, we must not misunderstand the situation. We are in transition to greater fullness. God has chosen the things that are despised to bring to naught the things that are. When we look at the dark matter and the black holes of the universe, we are told that they are 100 percent efficient in their transforming matter into energy. We are also told that bright stars are only 8 to 12 percent efficient in their transformation of matter into energy as light. We could be sad and think that darkness is much more efficient than light, but the fact is that darkness must do everything it can to just be darkness. Light is not even getting its engine hot to be overwhelming light! We must not be deceived by the apparent and obvious. Only God could look at a pile of dust and see a man created in his own image! We must view the ugly misunderstandings of life as beauty and power that is coming or about to be created.

THOUGHT NUGGETS

- ◆ Miracles are about to be like waves upon the shores of the righteous. God has not brought us to this hour to cast us away and let us be destroyed. We are the vessels of mercy that he has chosen for this hour to proclaim his deliverance to all. (Don Grigsby).
- ◆ Whatever attack that may come our way, we will not cease to declare the faithfulness of God. When David in the Psalms was in so much pain that he could hardly think, he declared the former goodness of God and kept it up until he was delivered. (Don Grigsby).
- ◆ A world is watching and listening to see if our words and actions match up. In the face of every obstacle we praise the greatness of God's promise daily, and he will show his integrity by performing all his pleasure. (Don Grigsby).
- ◆ Many have collided with unbelief. This is no accident. Unbelief intends to run you off the highway of holiness and into the ditch where the blind are falling. Allow God to anoint your eyes with eye salve that you may see during this time when many are reckless because they are not walking by faith.
- ◆ God has begotten you unto a lively hope. The lively hope granted you will not make you ashamed. Shame has been defeated. Because you believe, you have been planted together with Jesus into the likeness of his death and granted the benefits of the resurrection.
- ◆ The cross of Jesus has been endured and the shame of sin despised. The joy of redemption was seized and set before us. This glorious joy of redemption is now yours for strength.
- ◆ Sound the horns of praise, and declare the victorious joy that cannot be captured by the scheme of sadness.
- ◆ Sorrow and sighing are bundled together and cast upon fleeing horses. As riders, they journey beyond the horizon of joy. Joy's horizon is firmly fixed. It is not removed from the foundation of strength.
- ◆ Lift your eyes again to Love's height if you can. The benefits of the banner over you cannot be numbered; therefore, go forth with your banner of everlasting praise.

◆ Everlasting joy is upon our heads. The joy of Messiah is within. Open the gates of praise and the strength of joy shall flood the palaces and strongholds that resist you.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tom Browne

Lord, I have much to be thankful for. I open my heart and let my mouth speak of your glorious presence in our lives. I could not, nor will I ever be able to earn what you have so richly blessed us with. The salvation that you have provided for us, is the most awesome gift I have ever beheld. While we were still sinners, you became our salvation, knowing all the while we would call upon your name and receive the promise that comes through faith. There have been many times that I did not understand why things were happening, yet you have always graciously let me know to trust in you. Whether on the mountaintop or in the valley I am learning the value of trust. You are the faithful One that will see us through to the end. I thank you for revealing to me the things that I should know, and keeping in secret those things that I should not know. You know more about me than I know about myself. You know what I can handle and what would be too much. Thank you for being gentle and longsuffering, patient and kind. You have been a loving Father unto me and I praise your mighty name. Jesus is the most beautiful name in heaven and earth. You are the master teacher, so now I allow the mysteries and misunderstandings to be used as illustrations in the classes that you have enrolled me in. Thank you for drawing me near that I may understand that the stage has been cleared for a greater and more beautiful production. I am excited beyond words that the King of kings is my Father and that you are working all things for the good to those that love you and are called according to your purpose. Amen!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

This week in prayer the Lord spoke these words to me. "Some of my people are allowing the enemy to intimidate them by what they perceive as not happening or is happening in their lives presently. I will never allow the present to cancel out the past or outrun the future that is running faster than today. I will reach into the past and hold the events of the future at the same time that I embrace their present. They need to speak into the future, and I will bring to pass the things I have promised before the time as I did the rod of Aaron. I will always hasten my word to perform it. As they speak into their future they will create a river of promises that are coming to pass and then the present conditions will be swept into the power of "It shall come to pass." Remember that there were days in your past that you did not see all the way to the end of the road that you were on but I never failed to lead you to victory."

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

The Voice of Redemption Speaking Light and Order in the Face of Crumbling Kingdoms, Stars of Distraction, and Medics of Spiritual Insanity

Series 8.9.5 – Letter #178

Your redeemer lives inside of you. His hand is poised to bring down wrath upon all unrighteousness and ungodliness. In the face of arriving judgment, the glory of redemption and the power of his love are present. While the pleasures of sin continue to swallow up men into its chaotic belly of deception, the voice of love continues to move upon the face of wasted lives to command order and hope. Do not be distracted from love's power as lovers of iniquity drink it like water. Be drawn to me, and I will show you the glory of the gospel in the face of crumbling kingdoms and erupting dreams. If you are entertained by the inspiration of those whose hope is rooted in a lie, then you will taste the degenerate diet of those who have no hope. My kingdom is not decaying. It will not disintegrate. If you are in fear, then you have placed your hope in the wrong god and the wrong kingdom. You are beholding the consummation of falling kingdoms. I have already thrown the stone of truth and sent the wind of judgment against these kings and their kingdoms. I am the stone of stumbling and the rock of offense. It is my breath that is blowing away these things. If you have reached to hold onto that which I am blowing away, then you will soar into chaos with the ungodly. The ungodly are not so, for they are as the chaff, which the wind drives away. I am terminating these things. Place your hope in the kingdom of the Stone, for of the increase of my government and peace there is no end.

Behold the creative power of my voice in the earth. In the face of obnoxious threats by voices of fear, the voice of redemption is speaking light and order in the lives of those who call on the name of the Lord. Under the duress (control) of iron-like uncertainty, the mighty constructive power of my word builds success while failure tears down your evil neighbor's lofty, cankering dream. Do not be dismayed, neither be distracted by voices from icons of religious pride. I have not feared fear, and I have not subjected you to the feet of terror and despite. The voice of the light within you is the voice of the Father of lights. The voice of the darkness stands in defiance of my command, yet at my name its image is bowed in your presence.

Do not be pulled from duty and responsibility by the defiance of unruly spirits roaming to and fro. They are stars of distraction and medics of spiritual insanity. Do not allow these spirits to be your practitioners. I am your teacher. I have not consulted the sorcerers of the age to help me in fulfilling my purpose. I am the Lord and I do not change. I have not blown this trash away and decided to use it for growth in my holy kingdom. This trash is contaminated with sin, and as the earth and the heavens it shall pass away.

Do not be dismayed by attitudes from the voice of misunderstanding. I am not slack concerning my promise as some men count slackness. Prepare for my coming. The world prepares to reel as a drunken man. I am coming for my bride in the face of this drunkenness. The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night. The heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat. The earth and the works within the earth shall be burned up. All the things that man has placed his hope in shall be dissolved. Look unto me and behold how they will be dissolved. Seeing that these things shall be dissolved, how much more will I invalidate their effect against you?

Take your eyes off these things, and look for new heavens and a new earth wherein righteousness dwells. Be diligent that you may be found in peace, without spot, and blameless at my coming. Close your ears to the voices of shallow, unlearned, and unstable speeches. Do not listen to their voices, lest you are led away with the error of the wicked. Grow in the grace that is within you. Beware of the spirit of error so that you do not fall from your steadfastness. Hear the voice of creative power in your ears. Let there be righteousness, peace, and joy in my Spirit. Stand, for fear has been cast out.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Voice of Redemption Speaking Light and Order in the Face of Crumbling Kingdoms, Stars of Distraction, and Medics of Spiritual Insanity

Jesus Christ is soon to return for his bride. We must not be caught up on the whirling vortex of this world's fast deteriorating gravity. Life seems to be at such speeds, and we are caught in such multi-tasking that we must be careful to not leave but little time for our relationship with God. In the face of an awful world, we have a wonderful Savior. Isaiah 9:6 expresses that our wonderful Savior is from the Hebrew word Pey. Pey symbolizes the open mouth of God speaking creation into the chaos of the unformed. Voices of strangers and confusion will fill the air and our ears if we listen with the cacophony of deception. Lies and delusions are more popular than truth. Gossip and tale bearing have developed into an art form. All of these lies and heresies are spiritual pornography to the dedicated believer. We must tune out and focus on seeking the Lord and hearing his voice alone. Jesus Christ is the good Shepherd of the sheep, and he will continue to go before the sheep and lead them with his voice. Deadly predators may try to destroy the flock and their union with the shepherd, but his mouth is a sword and rod that will drive away the stranger and predator. We are told that the true sheep will not follow the voice of a stranger. Lust will lead to destruction those who hear the voice of a strange woman. Many voices are all around us in multiple venues, but there is only one venue for the believer to hear and live in, and that is in the presence of the Lord. Our redeemer will not leave us at the mercy of the attacks of the crumbling walls of society. He has a fold that has peace and safety, and he is the only way in or out.

THOUGHT NUGGETS

By Moses Hightower

◆ Confidence is not defeated. Integrity is not dead. Character is not marred. Faithfulness is not erased from the earth. The clouds of trouble have flown through lives. They have cast the temporal shadows of spiritual barrenness and blindness. They are as a giant fog; however, their time is over, and the sunshine of victory's beam has broken through.

◆ Forecast victory's reality. Proclaim the light from shore to shore. Shout the vibrant praises of victory, for its light refuses to live in the darkness of the clouds of trouble.

◆ Break forth unto joy. Rend the garments of heaviness, and adorn yourselves with the garments of praise.

◆ Get dressed in the royal garments of thanksgiving, and write your signature of redemption. Sign on the dotted lines of uncertainty. You have been given the authority to sign the family name. Now take your pen of the ready writer, and sign the name of Jesus for your release from bondage, debts, sickness, and damnation.

◆ God has released you from every prison of the darkness. Light is yours. The release of the light within you has expressed a language only interpreted by the angels and the redeemed. Come and follow the light through the corridors of the world. Its language commands respect, and its effect warrants liberty.

◆ Come and follow the light of praise. It is the outward expression of inner joy. Wear the testimony of praise to the throne of grace, and the name of Jesus shall touch the lips that offer glory.

◆ You are loosed, not bound. You are freed, not captured. You are healed, not sick. You are redeemed. Go and say that you are. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so.

◆ God's word is immutable and will accomplish the purpose that he has sent it to perform. Jesus Christ is the guarantee for the covenants of promise that are ours as the children of Abraham. At the cross, the shame was despised but defeated on our part because he saw the glory that would replace our shame because of his suffering. (Don Grigsby).

◆ Our strength is not a dried up stream, but rivers of joy are constantly reviving our strength daily. Everlasting joy is the dynamic of our hope and rejoicing. We are liberated from the prison houses of defeat by the sacrifices of joy. (Don Grigsby).

◆ In the midst of our trial, we will stand upon the Rock that rivers flowed from and announce our victory celebration for rain while there is none in sight. We will seize the announcements of our pending demise from the hands of the liar, and we will declare that it is null and void. We will begin to detail the triumphs that will follow one upon another like the waves of the sea. (Don Grigsby).

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you for your voice of redemption that speaks light and order in the face of crumbling kingdoms, stars of distraction, and medics of spiritual insanity. I look forward to your soon return. Help me not to be caught up on the whirling vortex of this world's fast deteriorating gravity. In this fast paced world, remind me to keep my focus on the matters of the kingdom, because it does not profit me if I gain the whole world and lose my soul. I know that being kingdom-minded should be the focal point of my thinking. Your word has declared that as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he. I thank you for being my Savior, my redeemer. Extend your grace and mercy to me, so that I will not be caught up in the pleasures of sin because I know that they are but for a season. I appreciate your voice of love that continues to move upon the face of wasted lives to command order and hope. I am focused on not being distracted from love's power. Your love covers a multitude of sin. I know that voices of strangers and confusion will fill the air and my ears if I listen with the cacophony of deception. I am persuaded to love the truth. If I do not love the truth, the word has stated that you would send me a strong delusion that I would believe a lie and be damned. Lord, grant your mercy unto me so that I may continue loving the truth. I do not want to be entertained by the inspiration of those whose hope is rooted in a lie. Thank you for allowing me to hear your voice and not follow the voice of a stranger. There are many voices and none are without signification. You are my good Shepherd and I love you. Your love is so amazing. You loved me so much that you gave your life for me. Lord, be gracious unto me! Keep me in the hour of temptation. I love and adore you. Glory and honor to you.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We pray the example prayer for the kingdom of the Lord to come. Come is in active verb tense. It is really a moving and active present kingdom of love, peace, and grace that reaches for the shattered and the screaming. God has so graciously bestowed upon us the greatest measures of forgiveness and liberty by his Spirit. We have been chosen to be a mercy seat and a platform for the word of God to heal the hurting and release all that are bound. Our liberty is multiplied and we set others free by the power of the cross.

The Way We Live

BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
