Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

The Assistance of the Resurrection and Ministering Angels

Series 8.4.26 – Letter #109

Lift up your eyes from the pits of this world. I have not selected a pit for your abode. I have called you into my presence to abide with me before the throne of grace. An enemy has sown the seed of doubt in your midst. Do not cultivate this seed of distrust in me. I am faithful. I have promised, and I will perform. I have sent forth the mercies of David, and these mercies are sure. I have called you unto grace, not disgrace; therefore, lift up your eyes unto the harvest. Labor for this meat in the field of grace. There in the harvest field will you find the glory of the last days. I have sent forth more power that you might experience the glory of my promises. I have called you unto sufferings; therefore, do not glory in the things that the enemy desires to hear, but glory in the cross of redemption. I shall show you the power of the suffering of the cross. I have caused you to allow this expression that I might be glorified. Lift your eyes again to the power of the cross, and behold the power of my glorious gospel. Do not be ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation. I know that you believe the gospel. Now live in its power. This gospel and its power are the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Do not be ashamed of my name and me. Go and proclaim the power of my glorious name. It has you hidden from the things that have attacked your body. It has you hidden from the debts that have leaped from the shadows of doubt and unbelief. Do not give credibility to the wave of unbelief that has filled the land, but give praise unto the name that has already been glorified. Lift your eyes, and behold the blessings that are already in the barn of faith. I have called you blessed. Now nothing, no one, no spirit, no principality, no dominion, no person, and no adversary can call you cursed. I lift up one, and I bring down another. Be content in the place that I have set you. I have set you as a pillar in the church. Go forth in the power of the resurrection that carries you. The power of the resurrection is carrying you during this time of weariness; therefore, do not be weary in well doing. You are reaping more than you realize. Carry the harvest to the barn of fulfillment. When it is harvested by the angels that minister, then will you see what you have reaped. Angels have assisted you all the while.

Behold their presence in your life in a manner that you have not seen. I am touching your eyes to behold the realness of angelic help in this time of spiritual wickedness against you and the body of Christ. Behold the power of the ministry of angels on your behalf. Go and preach the gospel. My word is already in your tongue, and the expression of the resurrection waits to deliver the people. Prepare for a wave of deliverance on behalf of my name.

I have lifted up my eyes from the pits of this world. God has not selected a pit for my abode. He has called me into his presence to abide with him before the throne of grace. PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Assistance of the Resurrection and Ministering Angels

When Paul said that he desired to know him in the power of his resurrection, he was not expressing a void of resurrection power. Peter called it a lively hope. There are dimensions of ecstasy and joy that transcend ordinary joy folded in the dimensions of resurrection power. Elisha's bones were so affected that a dead body touching them arose. When a person is even literally deathly sick, they have been known to rise up from their bed in the embrace of a special anointing and transcend states of consciousness beyond their normal healthy living. There is no power or circumstance that can divert the mighty rivers of the power of the resurrection in our lives. We are the ones who grieve, resist, and quench its liberating power. Promise and provisions of grace will abundantly bear fruit in the presence of the power of the resurrection just as Aaron's rod did. Angels have appeared as morning stars and the captains of armies. They have ushered people out of cities and out of jails. Angels can and will be a tidal wave of help and victory if we will be aware of the power that we have been entrusted with to direct their actions. We are living in the time of the harvest of the end time. Every promise will be fulfilled, and the sweeping tide of the resurrection is at high tide right now. His word will not fail, but it will be fulfilled in its season.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

I am delighted to have been greeted with the presence of grace. The sunlight of your love warms my heart and my gratitude has been unwrapped by the numerous promises in the midst of my unbelief. Your faithfulness is as committed as your death, and the power of your resurrection restores hope in this glorious gospel. The enemy's plot to destroy my faith was crippled at the hands of the ministering angels that reveal themselves in the time of attack against me. I lift my eyes to the hills to see my help arrive at its destination and bring forth deliverance. I am more than a conqueror; therefore, no one can separate me from your love. Your love has persuaded me to continue in the path which has been set before me. There is an overflowing river of blessing that can only be reached while walking by faith. I chose to walk by faith and my eyes are beholding the beauty of your faithfulness, and I am thankful for the power of the resurrection.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God's faithfulness is as sure as the rising and the setting of the sun. As sure as his covenant with the seasons, tides, and days so are his covenant promises of grace. We are not on an uncertain path to a questionable end but we go from faith to faith and victory to victory.

Enabling Grace and Sacrificial Love Made Available in the Shower of Love, Hope, and Faith

Series 8.4.27 – Letter #110

Man will lie, but I will not and cannot lie. It is impossible for me to lie; therefore, go to my word and hold fast to the promises contained therein. You have missed many blessings that were laid up for you because you have not laid hold on that which was promised. There is no greater assurance than that which I have promised. Search the scriptures for the wealthy promises that are there for you. Search diligently and not like the slothful servants of Satan's kingdom, but look at the diligent servants of Satan kingdom and behold their wisdom in regard to obtaining that which is in the world. My privileges are not hidden, but you have allowed your traditions to spoil you and govern you after the attitudes passed down to you by others. Lay aside this erroneous concept of faith, and seek the wealth of the promises in my word. I have given you many personal promises. Study the personal promises given to you. Combine that which is in my written word and those that were given to you personally, and then will you behold the vast possibilities in your possession. Take up the instrument of faith and begin refining the promises given you. You are begging and pleading. Rise up and refine what you have, then will you understand how much has already been given to you. I have given you precious promises. Many promises lay along the roadside of your mind in the dust of carnality and unbelief. Rise up and dust off yourself with the fervent expressions of praise and worship. Rise up this day, and behold the effect of faith expressed in the due season of blessings. Due season is here. You are looking into the future and the yesterdays of the past. Look to this day, and behold the power of salvation working on your behalf. Salvation came and brought the ransom price for sins. Is salvation unable to bring the benefits of the ransom price?

I am able to do much more than you can ask or think. You cannot imagine the ability that I have. My ability and my productivity are not measurable. You cannot describe my ability with words, for my ability is far beyond words. Only the name of Jesus reigns above the things in this life. One word reigns supreme and that is my name. You have called on my name. Behold the effect and the response to your cry. Lift your head from the fears propagated by the spirit of fear. I have not given you these dreams of fear, but an enemy has supplanted these images by his subtlety. Pick up the sword of the Spirit again and destroy these images of fear in your mind. The enemy has failed to overcome you while you are awake; therefore, he has attempted to bring you down to ruin by attacking you while you sleep. Be at peace with man, and then will perfect peace motivate you to keep your mind stayed on me, even while you sleep. Lift your ears to the revelatory expressions in the Spirit and grasp with the hearing that came by the word of God. I have not left you in a vacuum of silence where my voice is not heard. I have placed you in my presence with the robe of acceptance on your life. Only believe, and you shall see the glory of God. Look beyond the circumstances, and you will see me who is invisible. There is a price to pay and values to forsake for the pleasure of such an experience, the experience of looking beyond visibility and beholding invisibility. You must count all things joy and all things dung. You must choose to suffer afflictions with the righteous and refuse to be the son of the world and the son of the god of the world. When you have elected to suffer affliction with the people of my name and have counted this more precious than the treasures of the world, then will you see in dimensions closed to the lovers of pleasure and idolatry. Lift your heart to me, and then will your ears and your eyes be lifted. You must go beyond what you say with your lips and what you do in your body. You must actualize these things in your heart first. Receive my righteousness and cast down your self-righteousness. Cast away your rags of filth, and be washed with the fuller's soap of love and the washing of regeneration. I am pouring out my Spirit, but have you come to the shower or to your face bowl of carnality?

Withdraw from the mirror of human reasoning and traditions, and come to the mirror of my word and my Spirit. I desire to show you the real you that you might behold his wretchedness and his misery. You are increased with goods, but you have need of every spiritual blessing that is made available in the shower of love, hope, and faith. Come. I have beckoned. Come and be washed. Leave the clothes of self and self-righteousness outside the shower, for these things shall only prevent the washing from taking effect in your life. I am not impressed with you or anyone else, for all have sinned and come short of my glory. You can do nothing of yourself; therefore, come to the shower that awaits you, and I will supply you with enabling grace and sacrificial love. Come. It is your hour and your time. Accept this offer and leave here clean and victorious. Refuse this offer and leave here filthy and defeated. These words have I, the living God, spoken in your ears.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Enabling Grace and Sacrificial Love Made Available in the Shower of Love, Hope, and Faith

Lies are the vernacular of the enemy, but love and grace are the colloquial speech of heaven. Our vocabulary does not include the verbs and nouns of false concepts. Truth and faith are the sentence structure that we rehearse. We allow the Spirit to sing its songs of assurance, and we have not learned its phrases and seized its promises. A vast storehouse of promises; things both old and new is in the precious word that we need to bring forth as ready scribes. We are washed by the Rhema word of regeneration. Love takes the washcloth of faith and washes away the hopelessness from our soul and spirit. Hope is the refreshing perfume of the presence of the voice of the creator that we spray all around us. Ephesians 3:20 is a prayer or a benediction in form. We will not let its form fool us. It is the powerful pronouncement of the blessing of God in advance. Nowhere are prophetic words more powerfully stacked in syllables. To literally translate, it says from the Greek that God is able to do SUPER, SUPER, SUPER EXCESSIVELY BEYOND WHAT WE ASK OR THINK. THIS IS ABOVE THE FOUR DIMENSIONS THAT PRECEDED THIS STATEMENT. One version says that it is infinitely more than we would dare ask. The Message version exclaims it is more than we would ever imagine or request in our wildest dreams. Abraham saw cities with foundations in a time when no cities had true foundations. Grace and love have picked us up in the chariot, whirled us through time, and are letting us see past the curtain of the end into the endless future. We have not been left at the mercy of menacing malevolent threats, but we have been marched triumphantly into the galleries of the miraculous.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

By Tom Browne

I thank you Lord that I can count on your promises, knowing that they will come to pass. I rise up and dust myself off with fervent expressions of praise and worship that allow me to exercise my faith in your word. I am reminded again of this great salvation that you have provided for us. The precious blood that was shed is sufficient to secure me in every trial. I must always look up, for the day of rapture draws nigh. You are able to give us more than we can ask or think, so I must pray in the spirit, so I do not miss your will or ask amiss. I thank you Jesus that we may ask anything in your name and according to your will, we shall have whatsoever we desire. This is the confidence we have in you! Your name is blessed both now and forever. Because of your comforting Spirit, I can now lift my head from the fears propagated by the devil. I am encouraged to take up the sword of the Spirit, which is your word, and destroy the images of fear that have attempted to ensnare me. I lift my heart to you and I am restored to peaceful thoughts. I thank you for having patience with me and that you continue to teach me to withdraw from human reasoning and to trust you for the miraculous. I rejoice today that the shower of love, hope, and faith have been provided, so I can come and have my conscience cleansed. You have purified unto yourself a special people zealous of good works. All praise and glory unto you, Lord Jesus.

PRAYER INSIGHT

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

His blood continues to cleanse our hearts and minds of false images on a daily basis. Dead works are erased and living deeds of kindness are enacted by the blood that speaks better things than revenge. God fights our battles and brings promises to his children like daily bread to a home. Not only are we joint heirs with Christ but we are part of the commonwealth of heaven. We receive daily promises and confirmation in actual events of the miraculous. Rivers of liberty and strength load us daily with the benefits of God's bounty.

THOUGHTS HIGHER THAN MINE
CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY
By Moses Hightower

Towering Grace Expressing the Value System of God at the Doorstep of the Amphitheater of Departure

Series 8.4.28 – Letter #111

I am your covert from the searching things of the hour. As I did not allow you to plunge to the bottom of the canyon of ignorance, I have also kept your feet from falling and given you more grace in the time when many are falling. Lift up your voice and offer sacrificial praise. Praises that do not cost you anything are also worthless praises unto me. I desire effectual, fervent praises that are poured out unto me as precious water that you have risked your life for. Why offer me anything that did not cost you something?

Am I a god, or am I the living eternal God?

If I am God, then predicate your worship upon my worth and not upon your feelings and blessings. You must decide to worship me according to my worth, but how will you effectively worship me if you have not discovered that my worth is not calculable?

There is no instrument that will measure my worth. The value system of the kingdom of God is not the same as the value systems of the world. Come to the marketplace of fiery trial and weigh the worth of experiences found in the treasures of fire. I have not allowed you to go down to the low pit of destruction, but I have continually expressed love toward you, even when you were disobedient and ignorant. I have sent forth the surging power of my knowledge and allowed you to eat again of life's bread. I have placed bread on the platter of your praises. Will you eat and drink without the leaven of hypocrisy and unbelief?

Lift your eyes again to true faith. True faith will bring you into the large room of sincerity and truth. The room of truth is not fashioned after the room of lies. The architect of religion has fashioned rooms of lies that now hold many in the prison cells of religious bondage. I have brought you out of the religious performances of the age and placed you before a throne of grace. Before this throne, you are elected because of love and not because of religious advantage. Come and behold the light of truth in this large room for your habitation. This light will not shine in vain, for it cannot be turned unto vanity. The light of truth has shined and glorified me, the only Lord God. Go and declare the beauty of holiness and the power of sacrificial praise. There is no defeat in me. I know no failure. I am the eternal God, and all power is mine. All power is in my hands, and no one will wrestle power and authority from me. There is no counsel against me, for I am the counselor. I have sought you to bring you to my counsel room and counsel with me. Why seek counsel from the unwise and the ungodly?

If you stand in the congregation of the unrighteous and walk in the counsel of the ungodly, you shall reap their inheritances. I have given you a standing in me. Your platform is the righteousness of God. Now walk in the counsel of my holiness, and you will not fall into the ditches dug by your foes. You have come to the threshold of the catching away of my body. Shall you walk into this arena of departure and have the mind of the world?

No worldly person shall enter into the body of this final glorified body. Flesh and blood cannot inherit eternal life, neither can those who hold on to worldly lusts. I have sent grace to teach you to deny ungodliness and worldly lust. Will you refuse the teachings of grace and inherit eternal life?

Do not believe the lies that say that you cannot lose your eternal life. Those who do not continue in the paths of righteousness shall lose eternal life. Eternal life will not venture into the paths of unrighteousness with you. Lay hold on eternal life so that you follow it to the gates of departure. You have come to the threshold of the end. Place your hands to the plow, and follow peace and holiness without which no one shall see me. You must have peace with all men and holiness to see me. If you do not have peace with all men and holiness, then how will you lay claim to a pure heart?

I purify hearts by faith, and the heart purified by faith shall manifest the fruit of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, meekness, temperance, and such like. Allow me to prune you, and you will bring forth fruit and not be cast into eternal fire. Look to the end of your life, and see the rewards of heaven. Look to the end of the life of the wicked, and behold their rewards. What do you see?

Is the judgment for living a life of wickedness what you really desire?

Then will you change the judgment already sent upon the wicked?

Is your attitude at this moment the fruit of love, or is it the fruit of pride?

What will you give in exchange for your soul if your soul were required of you?

Then cast down your wrong attitudes, and allow my word to dig around you so that you begin new growth of fresh godly fruit.

I have decided to worship him according to incalculable and invaluable worth with everything that is within me.

There is no instrument that will adequately measure his worth. The value system of the kingdom of God is not the same as the value systems of the world. I have come to the marketplace of fiery trial and weighed the worth of experiences found in the treasures of fire. No worldly person shall enter into the body of this final glorified body. Flesh and blood cannot inherit eternal life, neither can those who hold on to worldly lusts. God has sent grace to teach me to deny ungodliness and worldly lust. I have accepted the teachings of grace that I may inherit eternal life.

I have not believed the lies that say that I cannot lose my eternal life. Those who do not continue in the paths of righteousness shall lose eternal life. Eternal life will not venture into the paths of unrighteousness with me. I have laid hold on eternal life so that I follow it to the gates of departure. I have come to the threshold of the end. I placed my hands to the plow, and follow peace and holiness without which no one shall see Jesus. I must have peace with all men and holiness to see him. I will lay claim to a pure heart by having peace with all men and holiness. God purifies hearts by faith, and the heart purified by faith shall manifest the fruit of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, meekness, temperance, and such like. I have allowed God to prune me, and now I am bringing forth fruit, and I will not be cast into eternal fire. I have looked to the end of my life and seen the rewards of heaven. I have looked to the end of the life of the wicked, and beheld their rewards. The reward of their corruption is damnation. The judgment for living a life of wickedness is not what I desire at all. I cannot change the judgment already sent upon the wicked. My attitude at this moment is the fruit of love, and not the fruit of pride. I cannot give anything in exchange for my soul if my soul were required of me; therefore, I cast down my wrong attitudes, and I allow God's word to dig around me so that I begin new growth of fresh godly fruit.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - Towering Grace Expressing the Value System of God at the Doorstep of the Amphitheater of Departure

When grace stepped into the arena of time, condemnation melted into a corner like a shadow. Darkest nights became blazing sunrises upon the darkened valleys of sin. Distress and despair's deserts became a garden in floods of the rain of mercy that would never quit. Evil thrones were emptied, and thrones melted into the pavement of flaming crystal as grace ascended the throne of the universe. Heaven gasped as all beheld him who sat upon the throne of ancient days. Earth became a clear mirror instead of a marred canvas as it reflected his face, but it was really mine! All of us looked up out of awful dread and judgment's chains as freedom's vocabulary filled the air with liberty's shouts. Grace rewrote our story. We became a story of redemption and not a vanishing chapter in the book of hell's horror flicks. When this realization grasps us, we are launched into an orbit that is beyond the gravity of negative thought. We soar on the wings of eagles above the mundane and menial.

God has taken the judgments of limited things off the table of our lives. Grace has spread the design of a life that has an intended great finale to it. We have not been laid out to be dissected by failure. We have been lifted up to be vaulted into the leaping and dancing gyrations of the loved and loosed. Grace is playing the songs of forgiveness, and love is singing the new songs of accomplishments to come. Orchestras of faith are filling our hearing with songs of victory. This world can have its dirges and listen to its commentary of chaos and cataclysmic disasters. We are rejoicing with heaven in another language and citizenship of the eternal blessing that is residing in our lives. Wrong attitudes are not our authority. Only the One who is filled with grace and truth can sit on the throne of our lives that was created for him. All other pretenders are trespassers and need to be quickly evicted from our lives.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

April 28, 2010

Lord, as I stand in the amphitheater of departure I can hardly stand for the glory of your grace which fills this place. I am in awe as your ever-enduring mercy intercedes and takes up my slack that my shame is not seen. You are truly my righteousness, my shield and my buckler. I bask in the ambience of sweet smelling incense created by the beautiful melodies I hear in my heart. You are my inspiration and the music of the song that I sing. Your radiant power continues to touch my inner sanctum so I am continually comforted, edified and fortified by the power of your spirit-breathed word. As you speak, I vibrate by the sound waves as you speak words of life, power, blessings, and prosperity into my life. I bless you with my heart, mind and strength. I am eternally in your debt for you have saved me from the pit of destruction that was once my lot. Now I have a new eternal destiny, I am so grateful to know you and in doing so I have found where I fit in. In Christ, in Christ, in Christ. This is where I belong, and nothing or no one can pluck me out of the Father's hand.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Satan is the king of blame and shame but we serve the Lord of glory. Jesus Christ covers our shame with his glory. He endured the cross and its shame to be able to present the church that we are a part of to himself before the presence of his glory. Grace has given us a place at the table of the kingdom and rooms of rest that transcend the dwellings of flesh. In his presence is fullness of joy. His presence is packed with power and glorious delight. On this highway of heaven there are no detours onto the back roads of lust. Love has paved the way before us to the heavenly reward.

The Body of Christ, the Rescue Team During Spiritual Quake Hopelessness

Series 8.4.29 – Letter #112

There is an unceasing assault by the spirit of hopelessness. Hopelessness is a storm spirit. This spirit of the storm has left the lives of many a disaster zone. Many are left fearful because of this spirit and its devastating blows upon the inhabitants of the earth. It oftentimes comes as an earthquake that turns lives into rubble. Hopelessness attempts to destroy everything in its path. It plans to leave no survivors. I am the only hope in the face of the spiritual quake of hopelessness. I am the hope of glory, and I have sent my church as a rescue team to pluck lives out of the devastating hands of hopelessness. Many are as babies in a storm and do not know that they are in a spiritual quake. You must go and pluck them out of the hands of this quake, for they do not have the awareness of the reality of this storm. Come and follow me, and I will show you how to search for those who have a desire to live in Christ Jesus. Not everyone caught up in the storm of hopelessness wants to die in their sins. Many have been deceived by false teachers and false prophets; therefore, they are unaware of the ditches that they are in. Go and search for the living that I am drawing unto the church of the living God.

You must prevail in prayer, for by prayer, you will be able to find those whose voices are weak and faint, yet are crying out from the rubbish that they are buried under. Many are buried in the storm of vain traditions that almost silence their soul's cry. Many voices are faint, yet they are crying. You will not hear these faint voices unless you pray and become sensitive to the voices of the needy. Many are dying in religion. The carnal mind would not expect to find people dying in church buildings. Multitudes are dying in religion because rescue teams that are unaware and untrained have missed the multitudes who are devout but lost. Go into the byways of the abode of every creature. You will find many who hunger and thirst for me. You ask why are these things happening to you, but I say, “If you did not experience pain and suffering, you would not extend yourself to find others under the falling debris and religious trash that has fallen upon many.” You have dug deeper in prayer, not so much for yourself but for many others who are buried under religious fallings that have buried many people. Keep digging by means of prayer, for you are about to reach many who have almost lost the will to live. Keep digging in prayer, and you shall reach the hands of multitudes that await you to find them buried under the religious fallout of the hour.

RE: RHEMA - The Body of Christ, the Rescue Team During Spiritual Quake Hopelessness

Every believer since Job has had the sense of being without help and alone. Never a greater lie was spawned by the devil. Our God will never leave us or forsake us. He is eternally Jehovah Shammah, which means the Lord is there (always). Storms may rise and the waves may lift us up to the heights and down to hell itself, but when we cry to the Lord, he brings us out and into our desired haven. David spoke of the earth shaking and trembling, which was certainly describing an earth seismic event. As we are bound together in worship and prayer, so are we in the time of upheaval. Though the mountains may fall into the sea, he will preserve us and bring a host to intercede for our deliverance. We as the body of Christ are the first responders to those who are in the family of God and to those who are crying out for help. Many feel like they are being hurled over the precipice of eternity without hope. Their cries fill the air all around us. We have and know a Savior who will deliver and rescue us if we allow him to work through us. Many have fallen into the pits of traditions and religious abuse. Grace has a household of faith that they can come and find the loving arms of the Savior and his saints. Our prayers and intercessions are the torch light of their path to the place of deliverance.

Lord, I give you praise today. You are the hope of glory and in you I have hope. This hope maketh not ashamed. When hopelessness attempts to impregnate me, you encourage me by the hope that you have given unto me. I believe you and I trust that you will never leave me nor forsake me. I am comforted knowing that you are Jehovah Shammah, the Lord who is always there. I am thankful that you are always there to protect me from discouragement and hopelessness. Although I am aware of an unceasing spirit of hopelessness, I will continually pray that your grace works in me to keep this spirit from overtaking me. Lord, I am willing to be used to help those dealing with hopelessness. Because you have given me hope, I am able to testify to others that feel like they are being hurled over a precipice of eternity without hope that you came to give them hope. By grace, I will direct them to the household of faith so that they may find peace in the midst of their troubles. You are a peace-bringer. I am thankful for you. Glory and honor be to your name.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Hope makes us not ashamed because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. Jesus Christ in us is the hope of glory. Abraham hoped against hope but we have a lively hope by the resurrection. Hope is not some spiritual smoke and mirrors or a lot of noisy hype. Hope in the Hebrew is the word for expectancy of good from the Lord. We have been delivered from negative expectations by hope. Our expectation comes from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

The Fashioning of Grace Creates a Satisfied Vessel of Peace and Power

Series 8.4.30 – Letter #113

I have not allowed an enemy to siphon the grace that I gave you. Though iniquities have abounded and sins have been committed, my steadfast grace has accomplished its purpose in your lives and brought you to this point of victorious faith. Do not leave the throne of grace for another position or station in life. There is no other place that you can journey to and find the riches possessed in me. I am the treasure that men and women seek, yet they continue to search for the empty things in life. They are constantly destroyed because of their lack of knowledge. Go and proclaim Christ, the wisdom of God and the power of God. I am the riches of life. There are no other riches that last forever except me, the treasure of the ages. Many have sought for what you have found; therefore, rejoice in this relationship, for it is valued above everything in heaven and in earth. The systems of the world shall now know that I am God. I am more than a man, more than a prophet, more than a lamb. I am the everlasting Father and the Prince of Peace. Man's peace shall not come in the form of things, but man's peace came as a lamb and was offered as a sacrifice. Unless my offering for sins is accepted and believed according to the scriptures, then a man's religion is vain.

Look to me, and I will show you the glory of redemption and the glory of this relationship. I have not brought life to your ears and to your doors only to have you come and find death and defeat. I have brought you the glorious victory of my cross and granted you the fruit of my sufferings. My sufferings were not in vain. All that I suffered was for you, and now the fruit of my sufferings is for your tasting. Taste of the victory of my bruises. Taste of the victory of my wounds. Taste the fruit of my stripes. Taste of the fruit of Gethsemane. Taste of the fruit of my submission to death. I have not sent forth an empty experience into your life, but what I have sent forth is the total victory of life over death; health over sickness; prosperity over poverty; peace over confusion; liberty over bondage; a sound mind over troubled minds; and righteousness over unrighteousness.

I am a holy God. There is no defeat in me. I have all power, and there is no counsel against me. Lift your eyes to me, and give me your heart. I have all power. I created man and made woman from the man's rib. Has my creative power diminished when I am the Lord who does not change?

Has my constructive power withered as a flower in its state of withering?

I am the Lord, and I do not change. Trust me, and I will show you my glory. Trust me, and I will show you that you have not believed in an idol. You have believed in the only Lord God. I am Jesus who called Paul of the early church. I have called you. Allow the fashioning of my grace to complete its work, and then will you be pleased with the result that I have planned by my mind. You cannot add one inch to your stature. Then why struggle to become what you are going to be?

Allow me to continue my molding process of your life, and then you will be a vessel that I am pleased to dwell within. I have a word for the people. Allow me to give them what has been sent from eternal wisdom and understanding and not from your own plans, then will you behold the victory planned for today. Only believe.

RE: RHEMA - The Fashioning of Grace Creates a Satisfied Vessel of Peace and Power

An enemy is not in control of the viaducts of the waters of grace that flow down into our lives. Even if sin and iniquity abound, the grace of God will so abound that the flood of iniquity will be like shallow run-offs compared to what God can and will do in our lives. When Paul had questions about a messenger of Satan, God explained that his grace was sufficient. When we are weak and in the battle, that is when the Lord is strongest. Grace will take the adversity, trials, and suffering of our lives and create a mosaic of beautiful proportions from them. We seldom welcome trials or suffering, but grace will gently lead us through them and fashion in us the peace of God that passes knowledge. Grace is the master architect of the universe. When the economy of elements available afforded nothing, then grace made everything out of nothing. Grace is not bothered by our inabilities or shortcomings. It is rich in its abundant supply. He will abundantly satisfy our mouth with good things. We do not have to go shopping for the elements of grace in the religious halls of men. It is always available at the throne that we have always run to. Grace has our lives on the drawing board of eternal wisdom and understanding. God has not designed a failure but a graceful success.

Your grace is sufficient in all aspects of my life, for your strength is perfect in my weakness. Thank you so much for your goodness towards me. You are my treasure and pearl of great price. There are no other riches that last forever except you, the treasure of the ages! I am a blessed person in that I know who I serve; therefore, I can go and proclaim Christ, the wisdom of God and the power of God. I appreciate the peace that I have that passes all my understanding. RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

What are the riches of his grace? When Paul mentions the riches of grace in Ephesians chapter one it includes all spiritual blessings. Who can count the number of blessings that are available in the Spirit? How much is it worth to be blameless, holy, and accepted before God in love? To be chosen by the Lord before the foundation of the world to be a vessel of mercy and not of wrath is invaluable. Redemption from our failures and forgiveness instead of retribution is beyond price. We are rich beyond riches in the grace that is bestowed on us constantly.

The Washing of the Living Word after the Storm of Ignorance, Lust, and Pride

Series 8.5.1 – Letter #114

The light of the glorious gospel has shined into your heart. The grace of the Lord has sent forth a revelation of my glory in this hour of spiritual enlightenment. I have enlightened your eyes and your mind. The day of redemption will not find you asleep, but the day of redemption of the body shall find you looking for my appearance. I have sent forth more grace that you are not found possessing cold love for me. I have forewarned you of the subtle acts of the spirit of lust and pride. Lust and pride have been sent forth in a magnitude never seen nor experienced. Beware of covetousness. Beware of lust. Beware of pride. Know of a truth that the whole world lies in wickedness. Lust is the doorway of sin. It is written in my word that sin entered in through lust. All that is in the world is the lust of the eyes, lust of the flesh, and the pride of life. Do not be a friend to lust and pride. Friendship with lust and pride has cost multitudes their eyes and their minds. Look to the grace that is so freely given you and rejoice in self-denial and holiness. The world cannot know me in the light of the word. I am hidden from the world just as I am hidden from many who dwell in me. Look to me for a revelation of me, who is also invisible, immortal, and approachable. You must see me who is invisible. Unless you have seen me who is invisible, then there are heights to desire in your spiritual growth. Look to my word again, and behold the many appearances of Moses' great glorious God.

I have not sent you away empty although you have neglected the fellowship of the Spirit. I have not dealt with you after your sins. I have stretched forth more love in your time of little love for me. Return unto the fellowship offered you, and I will return unto you in a magnitude of revelation that you have not known. Be thankful and rejoice in your tribulations instead of responding with coldness and indifference. I have allowed the purifying fire of trial to come that you might endure unto the end. Do not think these things strange which are to try you. No strange thing has happened; therefore, rejoice in as much as you are partakers of my sufferings. My glory shall be revealed, and you will be glad with exceeding, great joy. If you refuse the grace to rejoice, then how will gladness be found at the end of the trial?

Come from your tables of pride and covetousness and sit with me at the tables of fresh bread and water. I have a refreshing for you in this hour that shall wash away all the debris of the storm of ignorance. There are continual storms of ignorance being poured out by lust and pride. Receive the grace that is being multiplied unto you in this hour, and you will not walk through this life in the filthy garments of misunderstanding and spiritual poverty. I have sent forth fresh waters of the washing of regeneration and a renewing of the Holy Ghost. Be washed again with these fresh waters of cleansing. These waters are sent forth for times like these. Many have refused the washing of the word. Many do not have the living word for washing and cleansing. Will you remain ungrateful and lose the washing of water by the living word?

Many are attempting to receive this washing with the filthy waters of death, for they have gone to the fountains of the letter and not the fountains of the Spirit. Heed this admonition and know that love speaks to you. I have sent forth a renewal of the living word in you. Now embrace this experience again, and behold people and things all around you come alive. The living words in you shall produce life. Now go and proclaim the life that is in you.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - The Washing of the Living Word after the Storm of Ignorance, Lust, and Pride

Our power and deliverance is written in pools of blood that are larger than ink on paper. Jesus Christ wrote his love for us in pain and agony that cannot be measured in words. When we are caught away with him in the Spirit, we are overwhelmed by the floods of love that we feel. This is because Calvary opened fountains of grace and love that is beyond the shallow ignorance and understanding that is little in the hallways of the flesh. It would be the ultimate insult to take the heart and mind that has been washed in the precious blood of Jesus and sully it with the putrefying garbage of lust and the filthy thinking of this world. We are bought with a price. How can we be the servants of this lurid system?

Into the chambers of the unlimited dimensions of love, we walk into the embrace of the most sacred presence of the universe. Everything sacred and hallowed has been disgraced by the trivial treatment of the ignorance of desire-based knowledge in this life. Our fervent desire is to have him whom our soul loveth to embrace us at the table of fresh revelation. His precious and fresh word will remove the cobwebs and the filthy touch of every unclean thing from our hearts and minds. No wonder the psalmist asked to be washed thoroughly with hyssop. God's personal words for us will cleanse the interference from our conscience and bond us to him with everlasting love.

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you for the light of your glorious gospel that is shining in my heart. When I am faced with the storm of ignorance, the storm of lust, the storm of pride or any other storm, I know that the living word will wash me. As long as I have you to depend on, I will not fear the storms. Your grace has sent forth a revelation of your glory in this hour of spiritual enlightenment. You have enlightened my eyes and my mind. Thank you for Calvary that opened fountains of grace and love for me. I appreciate you sending forth more grace so that I might not be found possessing cold love for you. I realize that in the last days, the love of many will wax cold. Keep me in a safe place so that I will not succumb to covetousness, lust or pride. It is my desire to stay alert so that I will not be deceived by the tactics of Satan. I know that Satan is seeking whom he may devour. Thank you for your precious promises to give me power over serpents, scorpions, and all the power of the enemy. Although I have sometimes neglected fellowship with you, you did not send me away empty. You stretched forth more love in my time of little love for you. Forgive me, Lord for not loving you more. You have given me life and an opportunity to live in a manner that is that is more than I deserve. Thank you, Lord! Words cannot express my gratitude to you. You have blessed me with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places. You have not dealt with me after my sins, but you grant me grace and mercy. This is the day that you have made; therefore, I will rejoice and be glad in it.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Storms of life arise from many sources. God can send one to work a miracle in our life and bestow a revelation of grace that is beyond our present state of relationship to receive. Life will have storms and troubles that come to us all but the Lord will walk into the midst of them and walk us through the waves and take us to the other side for revival. Our own personal pride and desires can produce the storms that would destroy us as it did for Samson. Yet the Lord is merciful to us and his grace prevents us with from arriving at the destruction that they would bring. As we walk with him, it is so true that a bruised reed will not be broken and a smoking flax will not be extinguished, but he will fan that relationship of love until it becomes an inferno of love and praise to the One who never leaves or forsakes us.

SUNDAY

THOUGHTS HIGHER THAN MINE

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

Repent, Choose Obedience, and Behold the Fruit of Obedience on an Eternal Plane

Series 8.5.2 – Letter #115

Night is coming fast. You are beholding night fall upon the world as a dark blanket. Though men say night is not coming and that things will continue as they are, know of a truth that night will come and overtake them as a thief.

My thoughts are much higher than yours. My ways are much higher than yours. My time is not as your time; therefore, heed this admonition and know that if Adam had known the power of disobedience, he would not have disobeyed. You have seen the power of disobedience and the power of obedience. Choose obedience and behold the fruit of your obedience on an eternal plane. Many have chosen to taste the bitter fruit of disobedience on an eternal plane. The fruit that awaits those who do not believe is an unwanted experience, yet many shall experience damnation by choice.

Look again to Adam and Eve, and behold their lack of knowledge. You can make a choice having much knowledge available to you. Will you choose as they did with the vast knowledge of the consequences of disobedience?

Do you think that Adam would make the same choice if he were choosing on this side of time?

What will you do on this side of time?

I once winked at ignorance, but now I command everyone to repent. Repent and enjoy the fruit of the tree of life. The tree of damnation is an unwanted experience with the taste of all the sorrow, grief, and pain in the life to come multiplied by infinity. Repent and experience the joy of obedience.

Night is coming fast. I am beholding night fall upon the world as a dark blanket. Though men say night is not coming and that things will continue as they are, I know of a truth that night will come and overtake them as a thief. Jesus' thoughts are much higher than mine. His ways are much higher than mine. His time is not as my time; therefore, I have heeded this admonition and know that if Adam had known the power of disobedience, he would not have disobeyed. I have seen the power of disobedience and the power of obedience. I have chosen obedience and am beholding the fruit of my obedience on an eternal plane. Many have chosen to taste the bitter fruit of disobedience on an eternal plane. The fruit that awaits those who do not believe is an unwanted experience, yet many shall experience damnation by choice.

I have looked again to Adam and Eve, and beheld their lack of knowledge. I have made a choice having much knowledge available to me. I have chosen obedience and the knowledge of the consequences that go with it. I believe that Adam would have not made the same choice on this side of time. I will obey on this side of time. The Lord once winked at ignorance, but now he commands everyone to repent. I have repented and am enjoying the fruit of the tree of life. The tree of damnation is an unwanted experience with the taste of all the sorrow, grief, and pain in the life to come multiplied by infinity. I have repented and I am experiencing the joy of obedience.

RE: RHEMA - Repent, Choose Obedience, and Behold the Fruit of Obedience on an Eternal Plane

Repentance is the brazen altar that helps us get nearer to God. Just as the brass altar in the tabernacle was intended to make a way to God's presence, so does repentance open the door for fellowship with Jesus Christ. Repentance is the cleansing and washing away of the pollution that can accumulate in our minds and spirits on a daily basis. The Lord's example of prayer contains a daily dose of repentance. Repentance in the original Greek means, to get a hold of our right mind. Repentance humbles our hearts and minds into the posture of obedience instead of rebellion. We can eat of the tree of the sweet fruit of forgiveness because of a personal altar of repentance. If Adam and Eve could have had a place of repentance, they could have eaten of the tree of life. We are blessed beyond measure to be able to avoid the poison of disobedience to abide in our lives. We can purify our hearts by the power of repentance.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

May 2, 2010

Lord, I appreciate the living words of grace today, not to despise the riches of your goodness, forbearance and longsuffering toward me, but to be thankful that you have placed an altar before me to make a way into your presence. I am glad that an open door for fellowship with you is a choice granted to your people every day. For night is coming fast, and we are beholding night fall upon the world as a dark blanket. But through the power of repentance, I can purify my heart and mind into the posture of obedience instead of rebellion. Every word that you have given your church has walked into our lives and expressed your love for each and every one of us. Because of your love for me, I am forever grateful that you have allowed me to experience the power of disobedience, and now see and experience the power of obedience displayed openly. I lift my hands and worship you because I have chosen obedience and I now behold the fruit of my obedience on an eternal plane. I rejoice in the clear vision of repentance as it cleanses and washes away all the pollution that has accumulated in my own mind and spirit. Now, with a heart filled with thanksgiving I commune with you in prayer that contains a daily dose of repentance. I continually praise you for this experience of the joy of obedience. I am glad and I rejoice for a personal altar of repentance, for this assures me that we, your people are blessed beyond measure, and we can eat of the tree of the sweet fruit of forgiveness that helps us get nearer to you. I am thankful you have given me “a hold of my right mind” to look steadfastly into heaven and see your glory and to make the right choice on this side of time and having a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when my obedience is fulfilled. Glory and honor be to your holy name. Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

As we are obedient and hearken diligently to the voice of the Lord we eat the good of the land. Repentance and forgiveness are not exclusionary in nature but inclusive in action and result. As we humble ourselves before the Lord, his grace flows into our lives like rivers. Sin and corruption may flood the lives of many but grace abounds even more to all who embrace it and to those who may not even recognize it. Grace bestows fellowship without fear and guilt. We are blessed in the presence of everlasting mercy.

The Way We Live

BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
