Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

The Waterfall of Grace Includes Curative and Restorative Power

Series 6.5.26 - Letter #147

The light of love has greeted you this morning. This light has pushed back the darkness of trouble and conspiracy. The enemy has threatened to bring destruction; however, he cannot enforce his threats. His forecast of trouble and woe will come upon his own head. I am the Lord and I am in total control. From the waterfall of grace there comes a fresh shower of peace and contentment. The winds of trouble that blew against your mind have passed on into its own arena of trouble. Bathe yourself in the waters of grace, and be confident of the newness that is planned for you. I have thoughts to prosper you, and these thoughts will not fail. They have become the Rhema of God to you. Do not fear debt, neither the housing market's trouble. I have gathered all trouble in the same hand and demolished it by my own power. Come boldly before my throne of grace. I am giving out help and grace here at my throne. Come to the waterfall of grace and experience the curative power of grace. I have given healing and restorative power to all who come to these waters today. Soak in the love of God that is flowing in the waters of grace.

RE: RHEMA – The Waterfall of Grace Includes Curative and Restorative Power

He that believes in the Lord as the scripture has instructed will have rivers of living water that flow out of them. Grace is one of the rivers that will come to us and wash away our wants as we worship Jesus Christ. Grace, as the Rhema word, washes the church and the believer. Grace abounds to us so that we not only abound to every good work but also that we have all sufficiency in all things. Sufficiency is not just barely enough but an abundance. Light is the energy source of the universe. In him is life and that life is the light of men. In this truth, light is synonymous with life. In other words, all the death, defeat, and destruction that the false prophet (devil) has spoken are devoured by the powerful energy of the light of life. We stand in the light of God's love and grace washed and illuminated in the glorious light of his power and not in the darkness of our shame and failure.

You have preached the gospel. Now do not worry about those who did not believe your report. The arm of the Lord is revealed to whom I reveal it to. Your description of me was as a root out of a dry ground. They looked for human beauty and intellectual philosophy. The gospel did not bring a Christ with form and comeliness. The true gospel describes me without beauty that fallen man desires. When I walked the earth, I was despised, rejected of men, a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief, and men hid their faces from me. In my humanity, I received the bruising of the Father's pleasure. I was put to grief, and my soul was made an offering for sin. The pleasure of the Lord prospered in my hands as I bore the keys of the kingdom upon my shoulder. I brought the government of God to the earth, and the increase of that government continues in its everlasting increase.

As I was praying this came to me,
"Why are not the heart and the mouth of my people rivers of praise that turn into a mighty flood as it banishes their weakness and demolishes the strongholds of their enemies? In the midst of their hurry through life, they almost create vacuums of power because they abandon the very dynamics that brought them out of sin and into my presence. As they release the gratitude into the channels of their mind and spirit, I will multiply its force and power beyond the reach of every adversity. PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
By Milton Rodriguez

May 26, 2008

Lord, I am so thankful because your light of love greeted me today. As I experience your life giving light, I am engulfed in your love. I appreciate your powerful grace as it restores all the things I had lost because of ignorance and sin. I glorify your holy name as I celebrate you in the midst of the waterfall of your grace. Although I am not worthy of the least of all your mercy and truth, I am grateful that you have expressed your love unto me. Thank you for meeting all of my needs according to your riches in glory. I worship you in the beauty of holiness and righteousness. I extol you through praise. As I dance and sing unto your name, I am washed by the rivers of your grace. Thank you for allowing me to experience your redemptive power in this manner.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Daniel watched as God showed him kingdoms of this world that would rise and fall over time. Every one of them was eclipsed and destroyed by the stone that was rolling down out of the mountain. Jesus Christ is the living stone that has become the foundation of our lives and relationship with him. Darkness may cover the earth, but in the hearts and lives of the people of God the light will triumph over the works of darkness. The same God that called the light out of darkness in the beginning has given us a kingdom of light and life that is a continuous revelation of awesome dimensions that are occurring on a constant basis in our lives. As we are being continually filled with the Spirit of God each day, the same Spirit that garnished the heavens is bringing God's ever moving kingdom to pass in our lives.

Grace Enables Us to Fight the Good Fight of Faith and Prevents the Demonic Powers from Enslaving Us

Series 6.5.27 - Letter #148

Many have blinded eyes and blinded minds. Give thanks that you see and that you have a mind and heart to serve me, the living God. Many have been taken captive at the will of the devil. You have found grace in my sight. Grace has kept you from being a slave of the demonic powers of the hour. Praise should be the expression of your life, for the truth has kept you free. The spirit of bondage seeks after everyone. In the end, the devil will deceive the entire earth. I will shorten the days so that my elect will be saved. The spirit of bondage has thrown his net of deception over the lives of those who walk after their flesh and ignorance. Purpose to continue the walk of faith, and always fight the good fight of faith. The walk of faith is a fight. Do not beat as one who beats against the air, but swing the sword of the Spirit, which is the Rhema of God. Hide the word of God in your heart and you will not sin against me. How can you fight a good fight of faith if you are sinning against me?

How will you uphold the love to work faith if your love is too weak to keep my commandments?

Don't you know that faith works by love?

If you love me, then keep my commandments.

My commandments are not grievous. My commandments are principles that you abide by that enable you to function in heavenly places. It is less difficult for a man to fly than it is for one to operate in heavenly places while breaking the commandments of the Spirit. Grace teaches you to deny ungodliness and worldly lust. It teaches you to live godly and soberly in this present world. Grace will not defy its own principles. Grace has given you an identity. Why walk after the flesh if you have the identity of a child of God?

Are you veiled as a child of the devil, or are you ignorant of your thoughts and your actions?

Walk true to your calling and manifest the fruit of the identity that I gave you in Christ Jesus. In other words, is Christ truly living his life out through you, or are you allowing another spirit to live out its life through you?

RE: RHEMA - Grace Enables Us to Fight the Good Fight of Faith and Prevents the Demonic Powers from Enslaving Us

The breeze created by grace's broom stirs up the wind of destruction and it will sweep away all of the earthly kingdoms that the Stone has destroyed. In Zechariah chapter four, we read that it is not by might or power but by the Spirit of the Lord. Might and power have to do with human ability. Whether it is the lack of or the abundance of ability that a person has it will not matter. Only the spirit of grace will make the difference. Why? In verse seven, it tells us that the headstone or capstone of a finished work will be brought forth by grace. Deception may swirl around us, but grace is full of truth. Jesus Christ is full of grace and truth.

We are promised in John that if we love him, we will keep his commandments and he will manifest himself to us! Romans 5:5 explains that the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. In Romans 8:28, we are assured that all things will work together for good to them that love God. In the same chapter, we are given the ultimate defense that nothing will separate us from the love of God. Faith and love are a result of or a fruit of the Spirit. As the Holy Ghost dwells in us, the love of God overflows into the arena of grace and makes it vigorous and vibrant.

Darkness and wickedness may be on every hand, but we as the children of light will have the weapons of the Spirit through grace. In Thessalonians 5:8, we put on the breastplate of faith and love so that love and grace will be our protection and defense.

I bore the iniquities of all, and by my knowledge I justified many. I poured out my soul unto death and was numbered with the transgressors. I bore the sins of many and made intercession for the transgressors. I was bruised in a pleasurable manner. Now lift up your heads from your grief and despair. I have allowed you to be bruised in trials; therefore, come and become acquainted with these things with your heads lifted up instead of heads which hang down. I have brought righteous judgment to the Gentiles. I have spared the bruised reeds and the smoking flax. Behold the judgment that has presented you with the truth. I created the heavens. I stretched them out and spread forth the earth. I am the Creator, and am I not able to grant you all things?

RHEMA - Humble Yourselves As Christ Humbled Himself, and Become Obedient unto Death

Cultural centers of learning put pride and self-sufficiency on a pedestal. Any type of self-abasement is taught as a sign of weakness. Honesty is not the strength of sin. Only by humbling ourselves will we be exalted. God will always resist the proud but he gives grace to the humble. Humbling ourselves never involves our wearing a sign for others to see. It is a result of the right attitude and spirit toward God and others. We are sons to God and servants to everyone. He came not to be served but to serve. Jesus Christ became of no reputation, and we should not be afraid of ours. If God honors us, it is still his honor. We are absolutely nothing without his help. The more vacant and residual we become, the more he will be able to increase in our lives. Humility will never rise to attack others. We will truly turn the other cheek. Our battle is his, and if we don't have faith, we lose. We will always be winners if we stand still in the cleft of the rock and behold the works of the Lord.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

May 27, 2008

Lord, you are great and greatly to be praised. I love you and I am thankful that you saved me by your amazing grace. Your grace enables me to fight the good fight of faith and prevents the demonic powers from enslaving me. I am grateful that you have kept me from being taken captive at Satan's will. You have kept me in my right mind, and for this I have much gratitude. I know that only your spirit of grace makes the difference in my life. Your grace is full of truth, and your love that is shed abroad in my heart by the Holy Ghost helps me to keep your commandments. I am persuaded that all things in my life are working together for the good because I love you and I am called according to your purpose. I am thankful that your love and grace are my protection and my defense. I am delighted to follow after your Spirit so that the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart will be acceptable in your sight. Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Grace has provided a frame of mind that has delivered us from the carnal mind. Death that reigned through the carnal mind has been replaced by the spiritual mind that is life and peace. Love has banished the images of fear from our minds and replaced them with the images of miracles. We are not looking in the mirrors of defeat but in the reflections of delight in the Lord.

By Means of a Broken and Contrite Heart, There Is a New Experience in Righteousness and Holiness

Series 6.5.28 - Letter #149

You have approached me in brokenness. I do not despise a broken and contrite heart. I have embraced you in my arms of love. Your repentant heart is not overlooked. I have looked upon the heart and viewed a heart that is to be renewed by love. You came to me, your altar, and were broken on me. The brokenness that man views is not the brokenness that I view. It is the broken vessel that I fill with goodness; however, it is the unbroken vessel that remains empty. Do not be confused by this paradoxical expression. Believe that what you hear is truth and embrace it. Out of this embrace will come a new experience in righteousness and holiness. You are begotten again unto a lively hope. When you viewed me upon the cross, you took note of every point of blood on my body. By my precious blood, you are free from everything that is adverse and unprofitable to you. You may walk uprightly before me because my feet were nailed to my cross. Acknowledge the sanctified walk that is provided by the blood from my feet, and do not stumble as those who walk in darkness.

Come to the cross again and behold why I hung there. View my legs, which were not broken and made weak for you. Now, you can stand strong and upright without the hindrances of weakness in your walk. You may walk in love, in peace, in power, in liberty, in praise, in holiness, and in righteousness. The fact that I allowed them to not break my legs means that I have prevented the devil from breaking your fellowship with me in an upright walk. A blood bath is prepared for you, for out of my side came blood and water. Allow the washing of regeneration and a renewing of the Holy Ghost to occur in you. This blood bath is washing away every stain and unclean thing from your life. Hear the sound of the blood as it washes you and makes you white like snow, white like wool. Your entire body is washed in my holy, sanctified blood. This blood bath is a shower of cleansing and a shower of refreshing.

From my back, there is the currency of my stripes. Access faith in my blood and the stripes that came upon my back that purchased your healing, which is your bread. The devil has handed you sickness. I have said, "None of these diseases will I place upon you;" therefore, I will remove everything that the devil places upon you because of what I allowed them to place upon me. You are already healed, for sickness has been paid for. Sign the certificate of validation in my name and receive the healing that you need. Open your mouth and speak my name, and the document will be signed with your tongue, which is the pen of a ready writer.

From my head, where a crown of thorns was soaked in my blood, there flows peace that passes all of your understanding. As you fell on me in brokenness, fresh water cleansed you. You may sit down, eat the fresh bread of life, and drink the wine of success. Hear the echo of my voice in the Spirit as it echoes, "It is finished;” therefore, access the benefits of my finished work of redemption. Worship in spirit and in truth. Your access leads to your success. My sufficiency is given in abundance. Now enjoy the abundant life.

RE:RHEMA – By Means of a Broken and Contrite Heart, There Is a New Experience in Righteousness and Holiness

Psalm 22 is the Psalm that describes the agony and suffering that Jesus suffered on the cross. It begins with, "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" It lets us know that he felt forsaken by God and man so that when we felt forsaken by God or man that he was there for us and endured that incredible suffering that we would not suffer under the power of that bondage. He is poured out like water, and his heart melted like wax in the midst of his bowels. If we are broken in heart or in spirit, he has suffered to make us whole. When we come to the gospels, we see that Jesus hung suspended between heaven and earth for three hours between the sixth and ninth hour. Six is the number of man and nine is the number of the Spirit. In other words, what he did for us to know him in the fellowship of his suffering was there between the gap of the ability of the flesh and the unlimited ability of the Spirit, and he was also there to fill the gap for us. He let us know that he would be there for us in our hour of darkness. Our brokenness is the avenue for God to help us cast away our limitations and allow him to make a larger container in our lives to receive a greater dimension of his blessing.

I will dry up the pools that have stood before you. I will make darkness light before you and the crooked things straight. I will not forsake you, but I will uphold you and turn back your enemies. Your enemies shall be greatly ashamed, for they have been held by their chains of covetousness, which is idolatry.

RE: RHEMA - Dream of the Future "Good," Which Is in Front of You to Make You Glad in the Presence of Embarrassment

These words came to my mind.

All your yesterdays have been buried by the dreamy tomorrows that you thought would never come but have arrived today on the wings of my Spirit. Now is the time that I will rectify the ranting of "sometimes and maybe." All the derision of the skeptical spirits will I wash away in the sunrise of the day, at the end of the day you thought would end in disaster. Dreams are the vision that I will video in fulfillment. All the slideshows that the enemy would try to turn into a power point presentation will be lost in the short circuit of my power. Behold the true display of the promises in my coming as the Messiah, every evil influence lined up, and that has not ceased to defame the faith of those who believe in what was spoken by prophets but not seen. Behold, all that I have spoken will come to pass in a flood greater in magnitude than the first flood, but it will be in the Spirit.

By Cindy Buford

May 28, 2008

Thank you for your gracious love that embraces me this day. My heart is overwhelmed with gratitude because you did not look upon me as men did when I came to you with a broken and contrite heart. Instead, you filled it with your goodness and mercy. How lovely is this experience of holiness and righteousness. You have given me hope by the way of the cross and I thank you. The precious blood that you shed has made me free from everything. I acknowledge your love for me when I look to the cross and remember why you died for me. Your crucifixion was for my liberty. You gave me strength to walk in peace, power, praise, holiness, and righteousness. My heart is overwhelmed at the expression of love you displayed at Calvary. The fact you're your legs were not broken was for the strengthening of my walk in fellowship with you. The blood and water that came from your side was for the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost that was to happen in me. I am made whole through your sufferings. I am washed like snow. I am sanctified by the blood. My heart is immersed in thanksgiving for the healing of my body and the cleansing of my spirit. I am redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. I worship you, the one who has given me the fresh bread of life. I cherish my deliverance. All sufficiency is given in abundance, and I am enjoying the abundant life. I extol you, Lord, and I worship you in spirit and in truth.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Calvary's suffering was the door of access out of our dungeon of defeat. Our shame was changed into glory by the grace of the cross. All the things that could have filled our lives with the rubble of sin have been removed and replaced by the good ground that brings forth the good fruit of the Spirit and God's righteousness in us. We are healed of every emotional trauma and abundantly blessed as we rejoice in the rain of the blessing of God that is flooding our lives.

The Leverage of Grace Prevents Condemnation from Pushing Us Off the Cliff of Our Imaginations

Series 6.5.29 - Letter #150

You dwell in the safety of my strong tower. By the sanctified blood of redemption, you have entered into the holiest of all. Before the throne of grace, you stand. An upright walk has been given to you by the grace that is given, and now you may ask what you will and it will be given unto you. You are a new creature in me. The fact that you are a new creature avails everything that is needed for your victory. The love that is shed abroad in your heart works the faith that I gave to every man. No longer is faith shut up by unbelief and the law, but faith soars high above all the obstacles that have attempted to bring you into bondage. Do not give place to loving others less because they disappoint you or sin against you. I have given you the leverage of grace, which will cause you to love them more. I have shined the light of a renewed mind into your life, which shall cause you to look upon them with a heart of compassion. Without my grace, you would be as they are; therefore, pray for them that they might find grace in my sight.

Hatred conspires to entrap everyone in the congregation. Go and warn the people of this conspiracy. The enemy has waged a vicious war against them by defiling their conscience. Many are losing their inborn sense of right and wrong and are being flooded with the inability to judge with a right mind. They must seek minds that are void of offense, lest their conscience is seared with a hot iron and the court that they hold in their minds is inhabited by the evil judge of the air. If the devil ever sets up a court of law in your mind, he will be the culprit, judge, witnesses, jury, and executioner. On the back of condemnation will come your guilt and the pain of a wounded spirit if you allow him to set up a court in your mind; therefore, receive a clear conscience that is freely given to you by grace.

Do not allow condemnation to push you off the highest cliff of your imagination. Cast down every imagination with their terrors of an evil conscience. Your imagination is the hiding place for all types of thieves and phantoms that will track you down as a criminal and pull you down to ground zero. An evil conscience will convict you; therefore, know of a truth that I am not condemning you. Go and sin no more, for you have found forgiveness in my sight and your sins are not remembered by me anymore. Seducing spirits are speaking lies in the ears of the people in attempts to get them to depart from the faith. Remove the hot iron from their presence with the words that I place in your mouth. You may live in a good conscience before me all the days of your life and always have a conscience void of offense toward me or man. Now go forth and demonstrate the actions of a pure heart with a conscience bearing witness of the truth that is in you. You are free by the grace of God. Now walk in freedom. Walk in praise. Walk in liberty. Walk in prosperity.

RE: RHEMA – The Leverage of Grace Prevents Condemnation from Pushing Us Off the Cliff of Our Imaginations

We are saved by the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Ghost. Washing here is the same as is in Ephesians, that is, by the Rhema word renewing of the Holy Ghost is the creating of a right spirit in us. We must always come before the Lord and ask him to create a new and right spirit in us. Our need is to empty out the things that try to ease into our lives that are trespassers there. When our will becomes diseased with the corruption of hatred, we are the victims of the enemy's greatest scam. We think we will feel better and get a certain measure of justice in the imbalance of life and our interaction with others. Even if others betray us, we are poorer for reserving the right to feel injured by them. We must do as the people of Israel did on the day of atonement. They took the scapegoat (Jesus Christ is ours) and put all the offenses on it and turned it into the wilderness to let it go. We need to let the goat go!!!! O how we need to let it all go. If we retain it, it will be us that becomes the captive and the sufferer. Blessed are the merciful. Happy and blessed are those who freely give mercy and let it flow and flow. Perfectly miserable are the unmerciful, for they will never be happy!!!

RE: RHEMA - Love's Priority Is the Salvation of the Lost

Priorities must be established fresh everyday in our lives. Many things will vie for our attention. Many voices will cry out to be heard. Many lovers will beckon us to their arms. We have heard the call to be fishers of men. We are commanded to love others as ourselves. We do not want to be lost, so it is simple to understand that God made it his eternal priority that no one should perish. If everything we do does not dovetail into winning the lost, then what we are doing is in vain. It is necessary to refocus that mandate regularly. Personal and interpersonal needs cry out for us to address them first. We must address the needs of others and think of them as better than ourselves.

God recently spoke to me and said, Why do you busy yourself with the business of the church?

All the procedures and services are important. Tell me who they are for. Are they to entertain others so they can say you preached a good sermon or that you did a good job?

You could do a good job, and people will still be lost. Where is your passion for the lost?

Feel their "lostness" and confusion and desperate desire to not be a candidate for an eternity filled with pain and separation. Bring men to me and me to all that you can! We can do all the good and leave out the best. We can be caught up in the maintenance and not in bringing the lost sheep to the Shepherd. The battles and wars that arise around us can distract us from reaching the ones that are in the ditch at our feet as we are on our way to the house of God. We can be so focused on getting a blessing ourselves that we forget the greatest blessing is for others to receive eternal life. Carrying our cross is not as important as carrying someone else to the One on the cross. We are told by the word that, "They that wait at the altar will be partakers with the altar." As we bring others to a place to meet the Savior, we will receive the liberty and power of deliverance multiplied into our lives. God has already finished the work of our salvation. Our work is before us in the harvest fields of the last hours.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
By Rashall Sanchez

May 29, 2008

Lord, I stand before you today so very thankful that you have saved me by the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Ghost. I thank you for washing me and renewing me with your Holy Spirit. I am so grateful today that you have sent the Holy Ghost to me to create a right spirit within me. I thank you for the grace that you make available to me daily. I kneel before you today and humble myself in your presence and acknowledge that you are the supreme God of glory. I know that I must always come before you and ask you to create a new and right spirit in me. Without your power working on the inside of me, I am wretched and undone. I am relieved that you have shown me my pride, selfishness, and wretchedness. I have much need of your mercy and grace today Lord. I have much need to empty out the things that try to ease into my life as trespassers. I am so thankful that you have kept me from the diseases that have come to corrupt my will with the corruption of hatred and make me a victim of the enemy's greatest scam.

I rejoice because you have made me free today. I am so thankful that you have loosed my mind and heart from bitterness and resentment. I worship and give you praise today because you have become my scapegoat, and you have taken all the offenses that have come against me. I submit myself to your will today, and I let it all GO! As I kneel in your presence, I release my bitterness; I release my anger; I release my frustration; I release my resentment; I release my hatred; I release my pride – I LET IT ALL GO and I embrace your peace. I rejoice because I am a new creature in you. I thank you for showing me that if I harbor hatred, bitterness, and pride, I will become the captive and the sufferer. I thank you for the grace that you have given me to be merciful. I am so thankful that you have caused mercy to flow from me freely and rescued me from being so desperately miserable.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

On the Day of Atonement, the priest had to let the goat go into the wilderness with all the sins of the people upon him. Jesus Christ was our scapegoat. He has borne every sin and taken it away from us. We are a royal or kingly priesthood. The priest that let the goat go had to wash his clothes and his flesh after taking the goat outside the camp. As Jesus suffered without the camp, we need to go to him without the camp at the cross and let all our pain, resentment, bitterness, and anger go. Jesus Christ has carried our reproaches. We need to place every reproach that is thrown at us on the cross and let it be nailed there for good. As we allow mercy to flow through us, we will be free from the clinging feelings of unforgiveness and hurt that would bind us. Love sets everyone free to choose and still loves.

When You Are Moved with Compassion for the Lost,
Then Will the Spiritual Significance of God's Expressions Be Vented Through You

Series 6.5.30 - Letter #151

I am eternal. I was before time. I gave man dominion over everything; however, man failed the test of obedience. I knew man would fail and bring utter chaos upon himself. Spiritual death came immediately, and then physical death; therefore, I came into the world to save man. I am revealed in the tabernacle of Moses. Go and truly understand the tabernacle plan and be blessed abundantly. As in Adam, all died, but in Christ all are made alive. You must deny yourself to adequately and excellently follow me. You cannot do my will without a life of sacrifice. A life of sacrifice in order to serve others is a life of blessing. When you have come to the commitment to sacrifice yourself, you will find yourself among the people sharing the wealth that is within you. The people will ask you many questions. Do not fear, for I am in you to answer every one of their questions. They will not be able to withstand the wisdom that is within you. I have made you a rich heir of the word, of truth, revelation, prophecy, gifts, and power. Why be wealthy spiritually if you are not going to share your wealth?

Did you notice how the people gathered around you yesterday as you expounded the truths of my word?

I have made you rich. Now continue to share the fruit of your wealth.

You must return to real prayer, for in prayer you will gain the freedom that you need to break forth into the dimension of sharing the Christ that is in you. I am bringing forth my seed, which shall be as the stars of heaven. You are Christ's seed; therefore, you are Abraham's seed and an heir unto the promises. You are an heir. What will a worthy heir do?

Not everyone will understand the things that you say, for it is not given to everyone. Many of the things that you will say shall be mysteries and therefore concealed. These things will not be incomprehensible or difficult to understand, but some of the things will not be for everyone. Those to whom the things are given shall understand and follow you. In the Rhema word, I have employed expressions that are intended for whosoever I have sent my word unto. Seeing, many shall not see. They will be able to see naturally, but spiritually they will not understand the spiritual significance of my expressions. Receive a purification of your heart so that you will continue to see and hear. Many are malignant and blind; therefore, they cannot understand the Rhema word. Remember, I do not intend for everyone to understand. Understanding of these things is only to whom it is given.

I have visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for my name. How can they come out of darkness without coming out in my name?

Baptism in my name is not an alternative. It is the only exit out of the darkness. It is an exit out of sin and an entrance into my kingdom. The truths concerning my name are being constantly revealed; therefore, go preach my name and its glory. The tabernacle of David had fallen down, but I am building it up again so that the residue of men might seek after me. I am searching for those who will serve me supremely and dedicate their lives unto me and my purpose. How will they do this if they yet hold to their own desires and purposes?

Set your affections on things above, not on things of the earth. You must become like me in order to gain an inheritance with the stars of heaven. I seek the dead, those who are dead in trespasses and sins. They are as Lazarus; however, I send you to raise them from their dead state as Lazarus was raised from the dead. Have you wept at their graves?

Or have you passed by their graveyards and not heard the cry of the dead?

When you have heard the moans and the cries of the dead, then will you be moved with compassion for the lost. Go and raise souls from the deadness of their sins by the preaching of the gospel. Go.

RE: RHEMA – When You Are Moved with Compassion for the Lost, Then Will the Spiritual Significance of God's Expressions Be Vented Through You

As I was in prayer, the Lord began to talk to me about many of the same things. God said to me,

"I have not and will not cast away truth to save anyone. You may see me go to the worst places and in the worst conditions to save, but you should never try to follow. Only I can go to the pits of hell and rescue those who are in chains there. Those who are being consumed by the fires of lust are looking for an escape ladder of grace. You put it in place but detest the garments that are singed with the effects of sin. I will never abandon the truths of holiness and my name to reach those who are so lost and depraved. Many desperately need the love of my Spirit that is within you, but I will not deny the laws of the commandments to be baptized to save them. There is a way that seems right, but it leads unto destruction. You can never do just what seems right to help others. It must be according to the word that has delivered you. Holiness did not bind you, but it set you free. My name and identity did not exclude you, but it included you. Holiness and my name will do the same for those around you that are so bound. I have called you to pray for them and believe in the work that I am doing while you pray. Remember my word in Revelation 8:3 that your prayer comes before my throne. I will show you what happens from there. Look at the words of my prophet Ezekiel. In his introductory chapter, you see my throne. Out of it proceeds the lightning, thunder and earthquakes. I will send such a shaking in the earthly houses of men that they will fall down and call upon me. From out of that throne through your prayer, I will send the wind and fire of my Spirit and consume every obstacle and barrier that prevents them from coming to me.

I will send forth the Spirit that is like a lion that will tear in pieces the enemy. My Spirit will soar on wings like an eagle to reach those who have run away the farthest distance. Everything that you cannot carry or bear will be placed on my shoulders as the perfect ox or bullock that will carry your load. I will combine all these in the new man that is in you, and your prayer will become the power that turns the wheels of eternity and dispenses angels to the homes where demons once ran roughshod over the residents. I will then place my throne with power in a crescendo of power as the voice of many waters, but it will be my Almighty voice. Many of my people do not realize what happens when they really seek my face and commune with me. Yet it releases all my power that is seen and unseen in their world. Do not be afraid that I will accomplish and bring to pass all that you pray for. Rejoice in the victory that is already in place for you."

Pretenders will never be happy because they lie to themselves. If we fail to tell ourselves the truth, we will be herded and hounded by the fear of every lie that comes within striking distance. Satan blinds the mind of those who have not given themselves over to the obedience of faith. They fail to see the liberty of their submission to the order of the kingdom and his word. As we focus our energies to circumvent what we think is trivial, we will forget what is important in the kingdom of God. All who are strong and committed to the principles of his holiness will shine as a beacon in a dark night along a stormy shore. Our true identity must not be slurred among the blending shades of the night. It is a necessity that we turn the tide from seeing what is the bare minimum to be able to please God to the concept of what is the maximum I can do for him. It is not with an arrogant, proud spirit we do this but from the knees of thanksgiving for deliverance from horrible destruction into an unlimited creation.

May 30, 2008

Lord, I am so thankful to know that I serve you, the Truth. I am encouraged by your love, which causes you to go to the worst places and in the worst conditions to save those who are lost. I am grateful that you went to the pits of hell to rescue me from the chains that held me by the cords of my own sins. I give you praise for opening my eyes to understand that there is a way that seems right unto a man, but the ends there of are the ways of death. It is truly an honor to be a part of this truth, which is an escape ladder of grace. I thank you, Jesus, for drawing me by your grace unto the true gospel message so that I may be saved. I am comforted O Lord by your love that keeps me in my right mind, the mind of Christ, to not just do what seems right to help others but to walk according to the word that has delivered me. I rejoice in your holiness which makes me free, and I extol your name and identity, which did not exclude me but included me. My soul is restful and filled with confidence, knowing that my prayers come before your throne, and from your throne you answer my prayers! I rejoice in the victory that is already in place for me because of your mercy and goodness.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jesus Christ went to the very depths of the prisons of hell itself to deliver the captives. Grace and love were abundant in our lives because of this rescue of our soul. As we reflect about his marvelous grace in our lives, we will desire that everyone around us to be liberated by the same Spirit of life that was in Jesus Christ. Rivers of living water that flow out of our life and praise are a burning testimony of the love that wants to write a story of deliverance in the lives of others. His holiness has made us free from our filth and sin that others may walk in the paths of righteousness for the sake of his name.

Victory That Is Working for Us

Series 6.5.31 - Letter #152

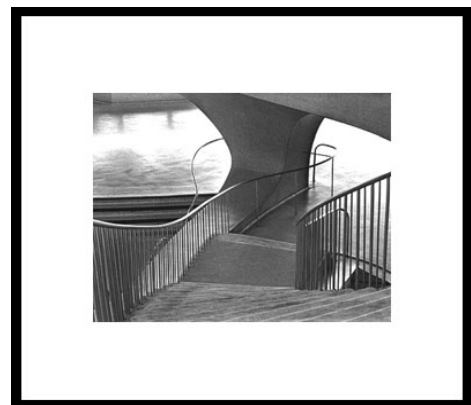

I am the resurrection and the life. Do not allow a spirit to debase who I am in your mind. Death came and disputed with life; however, death could not triumph over me. I took all the suffering that was vented against me, yet the pains of their scourging did not dismiss the healing that the scourging brought forth to everyone who believes. The anger of my persecutors did not turn away the peace that came forth because of their accusations. A greater joy has come into the world because of my sufferings, my death, my burial, and my resurrection. The heaviness of my cross guarantees you a light burden. The agony of my sufferings was painful, yet it pleased the Father to bruise me, as the Son of God. The path of suffering was chosen for me for your sake. How can you view my suffering without gaining a love for me?

Many do not love me because they have never viewed my suffering as a reality. It was not a fairy tale. The nails in my hands and feet were real. The stripes on my back and my body were real. Finally, I gave up the ghost, but not the purpose for which I came into the world. Believe the scriptures as they are written and know that what is written is already settled in heaven. By my death, you can understand my love for you.

The plot to kill me was meant to produce an effective victory for you, but they did not know it. The truth has been revealed. Now do not remain tied up and paraded before witnesses as defeated. I was tied up and paraded before Pilate so that you may walk before the witnesses of the hour in honor and victory. Do not allow unbelief to lead you into the parade of betrayal. Judas betrayed me for thirty pieces of silver. Will you allow your price to betray me to lead you into a burial place for the homeless?

Those who betray me reside in a field of murder. I have not designed a field of murder as your habitation, but I have designed a kingdom of light for you to dwell in. The long list of accusations against me was meant to grant you a voice in the presence of your persecutors, not to keep you silent in their presence. I kept silent and did not open my mouth so that you may open your mouth in praise and in wisdom, which the gainsayers cannot resist.

Steer clear of spite, for it will influence you to make wrong choices about me. My enemies chose Barabbas instead of me. Beware, lest you choose another spirit instead of me. If you receive another spirit, you will have to bear with it; therefore, be content with your choice in the beginning of your salvation, for it is right. Wash your hands in the blood of the Lamb, for you cannot wash away betrayal once you have submitted unto it. I am your King, the King of the Jews. Now worship and receive a fresh revelation of my love for you.

Words of Light upon the Face of Accusations, Anger, Betrayal, Pain, Persecutions, and Spite

Series 6.5.31 - Confession #152

Jesus is the resurrection and the life. I determine not to allow a spirit to debase who he is in my mind. Death came and disputed with life; however, death could not triumph over him. He took all the suffering that was vented against him, yet the pains of their scourging did not dismiss the healing that the scourging brought forth to everyone who believes. The anger of his persecutors did not turn away the peace that came forth because of their accusations. RE: RHEMA – The Anger of Our Persecutors Will Not Turn Away the Effective Victory That Is Working for Us

When we read Philippians 3:8-10, we discover that the way to know him in his excellence and the power of the resurrection is in the fellowship of his suffering. In hanging on the cross for those three hours of darkness, Jesus provides for us and lets us know that he will be with us in the darkest hours of life and suffering. When we look at Isaiah 53 and Psalm 22, we find out that Jesus Christ is not only the resurrection but the reverse of every negative circumstance that will come to us. False witnesses may arise, but we have the faithful witness and his blood that testifies on our behalf. He stands in judgment and condemnation for us so that we will stand free of condemnation. He was despised and rejected so that we could be accepted. There was no one else to help so that we would have to rely on the One called alongside us for help. He was forsaken that we would never be alone. Not only is Jesus the resurrection, but he is also the antithesis of everything that would try to defeat me in my walk with him. Defeat is not the diet that we eat. He was naked and without anything to help him so that we could be abundantly blessed with overflowing victory everyday. All this is why the preaching of the cross is the power of God to us who believe.

EXCEPTIONAL EXPRESSIONS PROPHETIC BITES By Moses Hightower

The day of rejoicing is given to you. I have shielded you from the grief and despair that sought to wrestle you from the foundation of joy. I have allowed grace to lift you into the expression of great joy and victory. The way of holiness is yours. I have taken away the lions and the serpents that sought to distract you from the purpose. I have sent my standard into their presence and resisted them. Though these things are loose in the earth, I have hidden you from them. Do not be weary in well doing. You are reaping now. I have light for you; therefore, do not be afraid to trust the way before your feet. It is not a strange path. It is a simple path. It is the path that I have chosen for you.

RE: RHEMA - Warning: A Philosophical Scheme Is Formulated to Spoil You, So Be Not Beguiled by the Spirit of Error

Error will always attach itself to the ways of the flesh. We should not know anyone after the flesh but after the spirit. Spiritual understanding has a way of abolishing the subterfuge that carnal reason brings with it. Philosophy is the thinking of man. God's ways and thoughts are not ours. Beyond the veil of any measure is the beginning of the wisdom of God. El Olam is the entrance into the things that are out of the time and mind of man. Everlasting wisdom teaches us that we cannot listen to others or our own thoughts to determine our paths. As we hear the voice of God, we know by experience that it will agree with the written word. God is not out of agreement with himself. As unlimited as his word is, so is his voice beyond the measure of the dictionary. Words are thimbles in oceans of meaning when we come to consider our Creator. Why would we chew the small thin sticks of the gum of philosophy when God has given us storehouse after storehouse of exceeding great and precious promises?

Salvation that was preached by the apostles will never change. Early Greek philosophers changed the understanding of the deity of Jesus by using terms of philosophy. As we continue to use the forever settled word of God and not the cute philosophical terms that send men into false doctrine, we are safe. Foundational truths of the apostle's doctrine will stand forever in the mouth and the tongue of those not afraid to stand for truth. We must never use the contemporary vernacular of our hour to explain or teach these unchangeable truths, or we will follow the same error that others did when the philosophers took over the writing after the apostles died.

By Tony Johnson

May 31, 2008

I worship and adore you, Lord Jesus, for the victory you won over death, hell, and the grave. I am grateful to know you both in the power of the resurrection and in the fellowship of your sufferings. Thank you for being an ever present help in my times of trouble and for never leaving or forsaking me in my darkest hours of life. I take comfort in knowing that though all hope seems lost and my circumstances appear to be dead, you always come through with your resurrection power to bring new life to my hopeless situations. My soul cries out Hallelujah when I think of the many times you have testified as the faithful witness on my behalf and in the face of the false witnesses of darkness. I worship and praise you, my King, and sing praises to your great and glorious name above all names. I express my sincere gratitude for the shame that you suffered for my sake. Though it should have been me, I thank you for being despised and rejected so that I could be accepted; forsaken so that I would never be alone; naked so that I could be clothed; and hungry so that I might be fed. I believe that the preaching of the cross is the power of God, and for all of this I give you praise.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Job said that his life was spent like a weaver's loom without the threads of hope in the material of life. In chapter 14, Job declares the hope of a tree that at the scent of water that it will bear branches and leaves, even if it is dead at the roots. We have found the living water of the Holy Ghost. Spiritual worship and praise is the scent of water and life that causes others to desire Jesus Christ in their lives. No situation in our lives or others is hopeless as long as the One who is the hope of glory is in us and stating his power through us.

THOUGHTS HIGHER THAN MINE CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY By Moses Hightower

Love, Which Works by Faith Displaces Fear and Unbelief

Series 6.6.1 - Letter #153

The spirit of deception is taking multitudes into captivity. If I do not shorten the days, even the elect will be deceived by his trickery. I have not allowed ignorance to blind your mind or your heart, but I have sent love into your heart and shed it abroad. Allow love to rule in you. Unless love is allowed to sit and rule on the throne of your heart, fear will rule in you. Many have accepted fear because they chose to allow unbelief to gain an entrance in their hearts. When unbelief takes up residence, it opens the door for fear and all of its cohorts. Beware of unbelief. Unbelief is treacherous. It will rob you of your faith. If you allow love to work your faith, then there will not be a place for unbelief and fear to enter in.

RE: RHEMA – Love, Which Works by Faith Displaces Fear and Unbelief

Faith is the result of the light that love shines into our hearts and lives. Faith's light will expose every lie and deception for what it is. God's love that was so brilliant in the darkness of the cross showed that the selfishness of sin and the lies of the devil would not prevail against those who look to the cross. The cross of Jesus Christ says, "Jesus will perform all things for me and that his promises will be with me and abide in the time of extreme resistance in our lives." Israel was deceived by the Gibeonites because they did not seek counsel at the mouth of the Lord. If every word, deed, and thought that we involve ourselves in is a result of what God has spoken to us, we will not be deceived.

EXCEPTIONAL EXPRESSIONS PROPHETIC BITES By Moses Hightower

Walk in the light of love, and you will not fulfill the fears planned by seducing spirits. I have overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil; therefore, do not be moved from the hope in you. I am the light of the world, and you do not walk in the darkness of unbelief. You walk in the light of love and faith. Come into this mighty river before you. These waters are waters to swim in. These waters are alive. Their flow is pure and right. Come and be washed again in the love of God. Why don't you trust the relationship that I have fostered?

RE: RHEMA - Run to the Shelter of Grace, and Bind Wisdom As an Ornament

Grace will dress us in the garments of kings and deck us with the jewels of wisdom as we tarry at wisdom's gates. Our source of prophetic inspiration will also inscribe wisdom in our hearts and mouths. Wisdom's house is built of pillars of truth that will always work. In Proverbs 9, she is sure to slay every predatory spirit that would devour the creation of God. She mixes her table with the bread of his presence and sets forth the wine of the miraculous. As we dwell at the nerve centers (information centers of the Spirit), we will hear the instructions of grace that will teach us to reject ungodliness and the lust of our flesh.

Wisdom will also instruct us of the dangers that lie in wait if we will hear its voice.

◆ I cannot be corrupted by the darkness, for I am the Light. Do not fear those who stand in the quicksand of darkness and accuse you. I am not influenced to be against you because of their accusations. I am faithful to those who are mine. Your failures do not disqualify you as an inheritor of the grace of God. My blood was shed that you may be cleansed when you fail or sin. Have confidence in my blood that has washed you, and now you are white like snow. Have confidence that I do not remember your sins any longer.

327. Shall I support charges that I do not remember?

◆ The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
By Debbie McBee

June 1, 2008

I am overjoyed Lord for the light of love that shines into my heart and life. This light strengthens the faith that you have given me. Deception and lies do not stand a chance against faith's light; therefore, I thank you for exposing the enemy's attempts at distraction and discouragement. I look to your cross, and I am humbled by the vision of your love for me. Your love is so brilliant and clearly shows that the devil's lies and the sin of selfishness will not and cannot prevail against any of your children as long as we keep looking to you. Just as your blood speaks better things unto me, so does your cross. I thank you, Lord, and I give you praise, for you will perform all things for me. I am rejoicing and ecstatic that your promises abide with me, even in the times of extreme resistance. I rejoice for the victory that you bring, and I am grateful for your spoken word. Fill my heart and mind with your thoughts and ways so that all of my deeds and actions will be a result of what you are saying to me in these closing hours. I love you Jesus and I thank you for first loving me.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jesus Christ, who is the yes and amen of every one of his promises in our lives, will not go back on his promises. Even if we deny him, he will abide faithful. We are standing in the light of thousands of years of proof of his miraculous power. We are not destined for second best but for the excellence of the conqueror and winner of the race. We have confidence through the blood of his cross that we will win every battle that will ever come to our lives. When the enemy resists, God has promised us a mouth of power and that there will be no ability to resist or gainsay against.
