Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

Hidden in the Cleft of the Lord's Hand Along the Darkness of Trouble's Path

Series 6.6.30 - Letter #182

Grace has appeared unto you again. Just as it has appeared unto all men, teaching them that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts that they should live righteously, soberly, and godly in this present world. Trouble cannot find you in the secret place of grace. You are hidden with me. The darkness of trouble cannot comprehend what the light is doing, neither can it understand what is going on in the light. Here in the light, my love is constraining you; therefore, do not feel disappointed about the things you have desired to do, yet my love constrained you and kept you in the secret place of the most High. For my own sake, you have been preserved from the path that trouble walks upon. Along trouble's path, the wicked one is seeking whom he may devour. I have not placed you on the devourer's menu. Though the wicked one hungers for your life, I will not allow him to taste of your precious life, for you are mine. You are abiding in the cleft of my hand. In this cleft there is safety. The name of the Lord is a strong tower. The righteous have run to my name, and here they are safe. Offer praise for the appointed haven of safety, for many are ravished by devourers outside of the safety of my name.

The serpent that deceived Eve is yet roaming the earth. He is very subtle. He beguiled Eve through his subtlety. Because people are drawn to the devil's show in the darkness by their own lusts, they are deceived and entrapped. There is simplicity in Christ Jesus. Do not be corrupted from this honesty, which is in me. If you are filled with integrity, you will never be drawn away after deceitful lusts and dishonesty. People who are drawn away are dishonest. They are liars and cheats. Because of the fraudulence which governs their thinking, the enemy beguiles them and they are ensnared by their own untruthfulness. The pleasures that are in sin are used many times as bait to catch unsuspecting souls. These souls do not realize that you must go to the prison of pleasure to fulfill the desires of their flesh. In the prison of pleasure, they are enslaved to the wicked one. The enemy is very treacherous; therefore, choose the safety of holiness and honesty. Remember, the devil is seeking those that he can devour. Think on the things of the Spirit and never be drawn away from me. Hide my word in your heart and you will not sin against me. My Spirit is granting you grace to live by every word that is proceeding out of my mouth; therefore, shun the very appearance of evil.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA – Hidden in the Cleft of the Lord's Hand Along the Darkness of Trouble's Path

Adam and Eve fell into the deception of the serpent. We have the power of the second man Adam so that we can overcome the temptation to fall into the trap of the enemy of our soul. Jesus Christ has brought us into a safe and abiding protection that shields us from the attack of the enemy on our body and mind. Our gates are not open to the traffic of the liar. Truth is the chariot in our streets. Jesus has rebuked the devourer for our sake. Jesus Christ will not only consume death but he will also demolish the power that it would try to prevail upon us. Our commitment must be to never give in to the lust of the flesh and the eye. We are fixed upon the Lord and not the pride of life. Our hunger is for the Lord and the things of the Spirit and not the things that give pleasure to our flesh. His pleasures are everlasting and his presence is prevailing. Paul said that none of the things that happen in his life moved him. We can have that same resoluteness that we are on the Rock, and we will not be moved away from him who loves us completely. Our thinking has been purged from the dishonesty of sin and sensuality. Our thoughts have been captivated by the One who is above everything in this world. Our speech and minds are riding the winds of the Spirit into heavenly places. Why would we want to remain here in the junk and the garbage when we can have a feast of the powers of the world to come?

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Look unto the completion of the work. You have looked at the adversary long enough. Look away from his show in the dark. His demonstration of actions without power to carry out his plan has fallen to the ground. Now look at the slain warriors of evil in the distance, and behold the church rejoice on the tombstones of evil persecutors. I am the Lord. I do all things well. Will I do a bad work in your presence, when I have promised you revival and victory?

Come to the table of victory again and eat its bread and drink its wine. Do not be drunken on the wine of this world, but be drunk on the Holy Ghost. Come. There is revival in your bosom. Come to the activity of the Spirit, and you will behold the wind of a new Pentecost.

RE: RHEMA - The Lord Prepares To Take Away His Bride and Gather His Remnant

"The bride has made herself ready," rings from the pages of the book of Revelation. We must not wait to try to get ready as the five foolish virgins did, but we need to stay ready. Every song in nature and around Israel shouts that the Lord is soon to return. Evil men are waxing worse and worse. Men are utterly self-centered and godless in their thinking. They are addicted to lust and allergic to God. In the shadow of all this darkness, there is light in the evening time in the camp of the church. One last tidal wave of revival is sweeping the earth for many souls in a harvest that was promised in the parables of the kingdom. The network of the ingathering of the church will be so great that the angels will have to separate those that are caught in the nets of revival. As we are preparing to meet him, we should never develop a bunker or defensive mentality.

God's church should always be on the offensive. As the bride, we know that we shall be swept away in the rapture that precedes the time of wrath when the Antichrist rules in the earth. We do not have to live in fear of being ready if we maintain our relationship with Jesus Christ daily. He has not given us the spirit of fear. Power, love, and a sound mind are the blessings that we have from the Lord. He shall appear to all those that look for him. We know not the day or hour, but we know of the reality of him, who will come, on a daily basis. We are living in the light of harvest, gathering angels and the brilliant light of the promise of his coming.

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ I am calling on my body to be activated unto obedience and purpose. Many are captured by the spirit of disobedience, for they will not even rise to join me in the devotionals given to them to do in their homes.

387. How will they obey me in my commission to preach the gospel if they will not obey me in proclaiming a script that is written out for them in the sanctuary of comfort and ease?

◆ As long as the people allow their old man to tell them how to live, their lives will be filled with infectious unbelief, and the expressions of their experiences will result in disobedience. Many are in bondage to the prince of the power of the air who is now working in the children of disobedience. Go and make them aware of the freedom that grace grants to those who desire to be free. Grace has imparted the desire to be free to love me.

388. How can you say that you love me if you do not obey me?

389. Did you participate in the daily devotion designed for you, or did you excuse yourself from obedience?

390. Will you preach the gospel to someone today, or will you excuse yourself from obedience?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

June 30, 2008

God, I praise you for who you are in my life. You have given me grace that teaches me to deny ungodliness and worldly lust so that I might live righteously, soberly, and godly in this present world. I am thankful that trouble cannot find me in the secret place of grace. You have given me power to overcome temptation so that I won't fall into the trap of the enemy of my soul. I am appreciative that you have brought me into a safe place of protection that shields me from the attack of the enemy. Thank you for your love that constrains me. You have rebuked the devourer for my sake. Help me to never give in to the lust of my flesh and the lust of my eyes. Keep my mind fixed on you. I am grateful for the commitment that your grace has allowed in my life so that I will continually hunger after you and the things of the Spirit. Thank you for the grace to fall on you, my Rock, and to be broken. I love you and I trust you with my life. You will never lead me where your grace cannot keep me.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Grace is the throne that is at the palace of praise and thanksgiving. We live an obedient life out of gratitude for all the grace that has been bestowed upon us. We become the galaxies of heavenly power in an entropic system of sin. Sin is always making everything cheap and without value. Sin depreciates all that it touches. Grace enriches and escalates in value all that it touches and creates new in Jesus Christ. We are too blessed to be sour and insubordinate to the plan of God. We have known the bounty and overwhelming flood of the provision of God that we could never go back to the place where he delivered us from. As the love that we have been filled with constrains us, it also destroys the ability of the devil to influence us in our lives. We are truly free from the law of sin and death by the law of the Spirit that is written with the pen of grace on the tablets of our hearts.

Great Enabling Grace Shall Carry Us All the Way to the Resurrection of Life

Series 6.7.1 - Letter #183

Great grace has entered into your life to enable you to be thankful in your heart that you are yet breathing life. You are in the land of the living with blood, which is the life flowing in your veins. Not only are you breathing and healthy, you are saved. Multitudes have awakened this morning without salvation. Many do not have a clue that they are lost. Be humbled that I have revealed myself unto you, for many religious men, wise men, rich men, and all types of people of fame and of fortune do not know who I am, yet I pulled back the veil from your mind and allowed you to know who I am. I am Jesus, the everlasting Father, the first and the last, the Almighty God. Grace has leaped into your life with the ability to be thankful for all of my goodness toward you. I am both Lord and Christ, the Prince of Peace. You abide in peace and the righteousness that you have found grants you a position in my kingdom where your prayers avail much.

Look out upon the horizon of the future and tell what shall be if you can. I know; however, you cannot know unless I reveal it unto you by my Spirit. The future is darkness to those who do not know me, the living God, the eternal Spirit. Man can make plans; however, what shall be is in my hands and determined by me. I have given you the mind of Christ, and now you can know what shall be by my mind. I will show you things to come, and I will not do anything unless I reveal it unto my prophets. Secrets are revealed unto you. If men do not believe you, do not worry or fret about it, simply know that I have spoken; therefore, go and prophesy.

You can do nothing of yourself, but what you see me, the Father, do. Those are the things that you can do. I will show you the things that I am doing and will show you greater works than these that you may marvel. I am opening the blinded eyes and the deaf ears. I am healing all manner of sicknesses and diseases. I am raising the dead and preaching the gospel to the poor through my body. You believe on me; therefore, you have everlasting life and will not come into condemnation. You have passed from death unto life because I have given you the ability to love the brethren.

The hour is coming when those who are in the grave shall hear my voice. They shall come forth, for they have done well. They shall come forth unto the resurrection of life. If you are yet alive, will you hear my voice when I catch up those who are alive and remain?

How will you hear the voice to come up with me if you do not hear the voice that beckons you to pray and fast?

It is the same voice; therefore, do not choose when you want to hear my voice, lest you are deceived by your own double-mindedness. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. Will that man receive the gift to be transported out of this life?

Do not deceive yourself, neither resist the ministry that you say that you are a part of. How will you fight the ministry that you say you are a part of and be found innocent in my sight?

If you bite and devour one another, you will be consumed one of another; therefore, be at peace. What spirit are you of if you choose to defend yourself rather than suffer wrong?

I have said, “If you suffer for righteousness’ sake, you should be happy. It is better that you suffer for well doing than for evil doing.” Look at my example and you will find me suffering for sins, the just for the unjust. I did not open my mouth when I was accused. Who is your example if you choose to defend yourself?

I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. Have I chosen an example for you and a different example for myself?

Then why are you yet attempting to justify your actions?

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA – Great Enabling Grace Shall Carry Us All the Way to the Resurrection of Life

We have been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ has approved or accepted us into the inheritance of the saints in light. Our deliverance is not limited to the freedom from lust and sin but from all the fears and troubles that may start in our minds and thinking and then come to reside in the apparent realities of our lives. Psalm 34 speaks of the Lord delivering us from all our troubles. Troubles here in the Hebrew language mean the stress and pressure of things that try to crush our faith and hope in Jesus Christ. God has opened our minds to see the revelation of who Jesus Christ is as the mighty God. It is the eternity of now that the devil wants to hide from us. As the I AM, Jesus is the reality that is already in existence for our every need in the present tense. We do not have to wait for a tomorrow because we have NOW FAITH. We have been opened up to spiritual directions and not the bondage of fleshly suggestions. We do not have any ability of our own, but we have all the power that we need for any problem right now in Jesus Christ. In the 4th chapter of Philippians, Paul said that he could do all things through Christ that strengthened him. Strengthened in the original Greek is a present active participle. This means that there is continuous and repeated action in the present. Everywhere we see the ETH on the end of a word in the Bible, the Holy Ghost is at work in the present tense! God has called us to speak the word of faith and cultivate the faith and confidence of those who are in such desperate need of deliverance in this hour. It is not a time to be in some faction of a group of people but for us to come together to edify and encourage one another with the fresh word of the Lord.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Believe my words unto you. I have given you power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing shall by any means hurt you. Continue to place your trust in me, for I will save you from those that rise up against you by my own right hand. I am keeping you as the apple of the eye. You are hidden under the shadow of my wings from the wicked that oppress you. Though your deadly enemies compass you about, remember that they are enclosed in their own fat. Do not listen to what they speak with their proud mouths. Though they search for you as a lion that is greedy of his prey and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places, I have arisen to disappoint them. I will cast down your enemies and deliver your soul from the wicked.

RE: RHEMA - The Miracles Conceived in Us Shall Come Forth and Testify of the Greatness of God's Power and Faithfulness

The sovereign work of the Almighty shall overshadow and displace the resentment of the pride of the religious. Such a flood of the DNA of the supernatural and the miraculous is in the being of true believers. There is enough genetic code for there to be non stop miracles. If there is enough DNA in the physical body, if it were unraveled, that it would reach to the sun and back 100 times. How much more of the supernatural has been conceived in us by the Rhema word of God?

All the prophets felt the shame and the stigma of announcing the miracles and promises that no one would believe long in advance of the actual event. Abraham must have been the joke of the neighborhood while he was looking for a child at his advanced age. Elijah must have been the laughter of all the people when he announced miracles of weather that no one thought could be controlled except by God. Our great God is announcing things that go beyond the realm of Joshua in speaking to planets to win the battles of everyday life. Victory is assured to those who will boldly declare the word of the Lord. As we will finally enjoy the reality of the miracle, others will live in the abject spiritual poverty of their own cynicism.

◆ Those who struggle with holiness are rooted in a love of the world, and the love of the Father is not in them. Cry out for a cleansing of your heart and be filled with a love for me, then will these things that pull on you lose their grip. I have imparted grace to enable you to do what is required of you. Now do not resist the grace, or you will find yourself abiding in disgrace. If you are saved by grace, those who are disgraced will be lost.

391. What does it profit you to go your own way and be lost?

◆ The spirit of bondage seeks after everyone. In the end, the devil will deceive the entire earth. I will shorten the days so that my elect will be saved. The spirit of bondage has thrown his net of deception over the lives of those who walk after their flesh and ignorance. Purpose to continue the walk of faith, and always fight the good fight of faith. The walk of faith is a fight. Do not beat as one who beats against the air, but swing the sword of the Spirit, which is the Rhema of God. Hide the word of God in your heart and you will not sin against me.

392. How can you fight a good fight of faith if you are sinning against me?

393. How will you uphold the love to work faith if your love is too weak to keep my commandments?

394. Don't you know that faith works by love?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

July 1, 2008

As I enter into your presence, I experience your great grace and delivering power from the darkness. I express my thanksgiving as I offer unto you my praises. I am so thankful for the breath of life you breathed into my soul. Blood is running through my veins today; therefore, do I give you thanks. In the midst of all my troubles, you have allowed me to experience your revelations and inspirational words. Thank you, Lord, for the faith of Jesus Christ that resides in me, for it is now faith. Just as you are eternal, every one of your attributes are eternal. I am confident in your eternal faithfulness, for it is a continuously repeated action of faith right now. I am overwhelmed with joy and strength by your Spirit because you chose me to be a part of your body. I am complete in you. I appreciate your divine design for my life, and I desire to continue in this journey. Thank you for your saving grace, which is the same as your keeping grace. I worship you and magnify your name.

PRAYER INSIGHT

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

As praise and worship flows from our being, there is a powerful dynamic that is energized in the Spirit. We can see the reality of the eighth chapter of Revelation take place. We see the prayers and worship like incense that goes up to the throne of God and is mixed with fire that comes back to the earth as voices, lightning, thunder, and earthquakes. Worship and praise that goes up is mixed with the fire and power of heaven and comes back to us and all around us in multiplied dimensions of power that will change our lives and the lives of others in unseen dimensions.

Our praise truly provides God with the empowerment to do what he would not otherwise do, for he inhabits our praise or is enthroned in power in our lives by it!

Words of Grace, Seasoned with Salt,
Are Given So That We May Edify Others

Series 6.7.2 - Letter #184

Out of the deepest part of yourself you cried unto me. I heard your cry. I placed the sincere cry within you. Your cry for grace-filled lips and a heart of love and grace is of me. It has been my desire from the beginning to give you words of grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how to answer every man. I desire to give you words of grace that others may be edified. I desire that you become able to separate the precious from the vile and that you not offend in anything that you say.

I have inspiration that you have never heard, and I will show you things that you have never seen. I have pulled the veil from your heart and mind so that the spirit of wisdom and of revelation might shine through without the interference of your own thoughts, self-righteousness, ignorance, pride, and such like. I have waited on you to express your agreement with me for this type of ministry. Now that you are willing, grace is given so that you may be obedient.

Pride, a judgmental attitude, and self-righteousness have robbed you of the treasures in my expressions to you. I resist the proud, and self-righteousness is as a filthy rag in my sight. Judgment belongs unto me. I am cleansing you of these evil things so that you may stand in my holy place with clean hands and a pure heart. Come away with me in the Spirit and be changed forever. I am placing a fresh anointing upon you and anointing your eyes with eye salve so that you may see. The fire of the trial is assuring you of riches beyond your imagination and white raiment for your spiritual adornment so that the shame of your nakedness is done away with. Rejoice for this moment in your life. I have blessed you with spiritual blessings that cannot be purchased with silver or gold. Rejoice.

Condemnation, Ignorance,
Imaginations, Judgmental Attitudes, Pride, and Self-righteousness

Series 6.7.2 - Confession #184

Out of the deepest part of myself I cried unto the Lord. He heard my cry. He placed the sincere cry within me. My cry for grace-filled lips and a heart of love and grace is of him. It has been his desire from the beginning to give me words of grace, seasoned with salt, that I may know how to answer every man. God desires to give me words of grace that others may be edified. He desires that I become able to separate the precious from the vile and that I do not offend in anything that I say.

The Lord has inspiration that I have never heard, and he will show me things that I have never seen. He has pulled the veil from my heart and mind so that the spirit of wisdom and of revelation might shine through without the interference of my own thoughts, self-righteousness, ignorance, pride, and such like. He waited on me to express my agreement with him for this type of ministry. Now that I am willing, grace is given so that I may be obedient. In the past, pride, a judgmental attitude, and self-righteousness have robbed me of the treasures in his expressions to me. God resists the proud, and self-righteousness is as a filthy rag in his sight. Judgment belongs unto him. He is cleansing me of these evil things so that I may stand in his holy place with clean hands and a pure heart. I come away with Christ in the Spirit and I am changed forever. He is placing a fresh anointing upon me and anointing my eyes with eye salve so that I may see. The fire of the trial is assuring me of riches beyond my imagination and white raiment for my spiritual adornment so that the shame of my nakedness is done away with. I rejoice for this moment in my life. He has blessed me with spiritual blessings that cannot be purchased with silver or gold; therefore, I rejoice.

RE: RHEMA – Words of Grace, Seasoned with Salt, Are Given So That We May Edify Others

John introduced Jesus Christ to us in his gospel as the One full of grace and truth. Every other gospel was one of a fleshly beginning. The book of John starts before time began and expresses Jesus as the Word that has always existed. Revelation does not come by fleshly ability or reason. Revelation is a gift of grace from the Lord. We quote the scripture that God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him. His reward for those who seek him is revelation. Moses sought the Lord, and God showed him that he would be gracious unto those whom he would be gracious. God places a desire that refuses to be satisfied in those who hunger after him. No greater treasure exists than the river of revelation that will bring understanding and words to us that have never been seen or heard before. As we love him, his Spirit will reveal unto us all the things that he has prepared for us and hidden from those who live after the flesh. As we rid ourselves of judgmentalism and self-righteousness, we will behold the light of him who did not condemn us but caused us to approach him. We can come boldly to a throne that we never deserved access unto. As we see how abundantly we have been blessed to be in this position, we will allow the words of grace and the work of grace to flow out of our lives and touch others. Our rejoicing will overflow as the fountains of grace and wash our minds of all the condemnation that would ever try to reside there.

RE: RHEMA - Take Up the Weapons of Your Warfare and War After the Spirit

Warriors and worshippers are in demand in the kingdom today. The sword of the Spirit is being used in an aggressive mode more than ever before. The Rhema word and prophetic declarations are the ICBMs of the Spirit. Components of these words are locked on the intricacies of the heart and spirit like lasers. Every evil contention and lie are like fiery darts being thrown at us in this hour. Our God is the shield of faith in this hour. He will extinguish the burning fires that Satan seeks to set in our lives. The enemy would like to burn the house of faith down around us. God will silence these lies and put them out with an abundant flow of his power in our lives.

God will use the foolish things of the world to bring about victory in our lives. Our weapons demolish strong holds and vanquish evil imaginations. God will bring to naught the things that are by the things that are not. Jeremiah tells us that, "God has opened the armory and loosed the weapons of his indignation." Indignation in the Hebrew means "foaming at the mouth." God is more than ready to defend and destroy the enemies of our faith by just releasing the sword of his Spirit.

We can be confident that we are being used by the Spirit when we declare the arrival of the promises of the word. Before the walls of Jericho fell, they shouted. Before the victory was consummated, the men with Gideon shouted in the release of the sword of the Lord. Before the victory was enforced by Jehoshaphat, they praised. When we speak his words, we are releasing the authority that has always been in place. The centurion told Jesus that he was a man under authority. He indicated that Jesus need only speak the word and the healing would be done. Jesus instructed the disciples that they had both power and authority over the power of the enemy. We must learn that one of the greatest weapons we can use in this hour is the understanding that we have the authority of the Lord behind the words of the Spirit. Whatever weapons that we need, he will even fashion them on the spot. We are destined for victory.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

I thank you for the words of grace you have placed within my tongue and for making me the salt of the earth. I give you praise for the salty savor of love you have placed on the inside of my soul by your grace and your truth. You are the way, the truth, and the life. I am grateful that you have given me a desire to diligently seek you, and I look forward to reaping the revelations given by your Spirit as a result of doing so. Just as Moses sought you, and you showed him that you would be gracious unto those whom you would be gracious, I know that you have that same blessing of grace for me and those I come into contact with. My heart is filled with gladness every time I think about the treasure you have laid up for those whom you have justified. I love you Lord, and I rejoice with expectancy for the things that eye has not seen nor has any ear ever heard. The good things that you have prepared are fringe benefits in comparison to the amazing grace you have so abundantly blessed me with here on earth. Thank you for the cleansing flow of fresh inspiration from your fountain of grace that washes away all condemnation and hindrance. I give you glory for this washing of regeneration.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Grace abounds so that we abound to every good work, and we have great sufficiency in all things. We are blessed with the material things we need by grace, and we are an overflowing ocean of the confluence of the rivers of life that flow out of the throne of God into our lives. Eden is established again in the garden of our hearts. We flourish in the courts of his presence, and we are taken beyond ourselves into dimensions of spiritual awareness that let us see the kind of things that John saw in the book of Revelation. When John saw them and thought of Jesus, he said he was full of grace and truth. Other gospel writers first saw a flesh and bone baby. John saw the Creator in clothes. John saw grace that would grant us a scepter of power to rule over the lust of our life that would be a never-ending struggle to all who try to do it by themselves without the help of God. Thank the Lord that we can come boldly to that throne of grace and find the help we need so desperately everyday of our lives.

and the Destructive Waves of Lust Will Not Carry You Out to the Sea of Destruction

Series 6.7.3 - Letter #185

I am in heaven, in earth, in my church, and everywhere at the same time. I am omnipresent. I have all power and I know all things. You have the living God living inside of you. There is no greater place to be than to be inside of me. Do not allow the world to diminish who you are in your mind. Without me you are dead in trespasses and sins. Without me there is no forgiveness of sins, for I alone paid for the sins of the whole world. You are alive at the greatest time to be living. I brought you to my kingdom for such a time as this. Do not be drawn away by your own lust. You must die daily and each moment that you live, or your own lust will lead you astray. The voice of your own lust is a real voice. Its voice is marching to the cadence of the world's drum. The heart of the world is pulsating with the throb of death; therefore, do not listen to its thumping. The melodies of the world are all fashioned after lust and pride. Grace has brought humility to your heart this morning. Now pick up the new song of humility and sing love songs to me, your Lord. I am available to everyone that seeks after me. I am found of those who seek me. I have a kingdom to give, so why seek after empty relationships that are destined for hell's gate?

I have brought you plenteous redemption; therefore, speak of my power and my glory, and you will turn the tide of the destructive waves of the sea of lust and pride that have come to carry you out to the abyss of this life. There is an abyss that has opened its mouth and waits to swallow up all who hunger and thirst after lust and pride. All who travel the highway of lust and pride are destined for the inlet of destruction. Destruction is a hollow place. There is no satisfaction there. Why go to a place where all of the inhabitants live in regret?

What will you preach there?

What will you sing there?

You cannot sing the songs of the church in the land of destruction. The songs of redemption are not sung there. Only the blues of your folly are sung there. The tables are filled with meals for the mourners. After you are filled with its menu of sorrow and death, your vomit is the only good thing for you to taste. Go and preach repentance today. There are people waiting to dive into the abyss of destruction. They think that it is a splash into a pool of pleasure, but it is a dive to their own devastation. I send you today to reach for those who have halted between two opinions. I am the only choice that leads to life. The other choice leads to death. Death and life are before the people. Grace is given that will enable them with sincere desires to be saved to choose life. I have brought life. The life that I have brought is abundant and full of satisfaction. I set before you today satisfaction and dissatisfaction. The vehicles of lust and pride are stopping at the door of every listener. Refuse to ride in the vehicles of lust and pride and take the vehicle of obedience, which is destined for the satisfaction that I have laid up for you. You will not find satisfaction in dissatisfaction. It is not possible; therefore, choose humility, and you will find the path and the destiny of honor, riches, and life. Only believe.

RE: RHEMA – March to the Cadence of Humility and the Destructive Waves of Lust Will Not Carry You Out to the Sea of Destruction

God is speaking the same way that he did to the bride in Song of Solomon. He is asking us to come away with him. Where and to what? We have been called out of darkness into his marvelous light. His revelation light exposes lust and pride for what they really are.

Lust and pride are beasts of destruction in minute form. They grow into the devouring monsters of sin that devastate our lives and relationship with Jesus Christ. In chapter one of Song of Solomon, the bride is not in the usual fields of the world but beside the shepherd's tent. If we stay close to the shepherd, we will not be attacked by the wolves of lust. In chapter two, the bride is called away from the cold or lukewarm state of the winter that would destroy their relationship.

In chapter 4 verse 8, we are called from Lebanon, which is the source of wood or cedar. Cedar or wood is the type of flesh or the carnal nature. We are then called from a carnal mind to the places of Amana, Shenir, and Hermon. We are also called away from the lion and leopards dens. Amana is the word for truth. We are all sinners and we need to repent, but repentance is the way out of the fleshly captivity. Shenir is the word for armor. We are called away from the lackadaisicalness of the flesh and into the warfare of the Spirit for ourselves and others. Hermon denotes destruction. We see the destruction of Satan and his kingdom when we come away with the Lord. Lions and leopards may be in the tops of these mountains, but it is also the place of the heavenlies and filled with warrior angels. We are called away from a position of defeat and destruction in the flesh and to a place of total victory in heavenly places in Christ!

The symphony of the miraculous has been scored for the ages. Now our magnificent Director has assembled enough participants to lift up the instruments of praise and begin the intro with gusto. All the circumstances that presently surround us will be the backdrop to contrast his greatness with our inability. His supernatural work is the carpet laid into barren rooms of those who have never experienced his greatness. His proceeding work will swallow up all the conventional wisdom and logic in its sweeping impact. Words must be spoken to open the floodgates of creation. Behind the curtains of the visible await the fresh designs of deity's delight. All the noise of other instrumentation that is playing to drown out the triumph of his power will be silenced by the cries of those experiencing the miraculous.

◆ You must deny yourself to adequately and excellently follow me. You cannot do my will without a life of sacrifice. A life of sacrifice in order to serve others is a life of blessing. When you have come to the commitment to sacrifice yourself, you will find yourself among the people sharing the wealth that is within you. The people will ask you many questions. Do not fear, for I am in you to answer every one of their questions. They will not be able to withstand the wisdom that is within you. I have made you a rich heir of the word, of truth, revelation, prophecy, gifts, and of power.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Buford

July 3, 2008

I am blessed to know the one who is in heaven and in earth. You are omnipresent. It is a pleasure to reside with the one who has all power and knows all things. I would be dead in my trespasses and sins, but you paid the price of forgiveness at Calvary. I have been called out of darkness into your marvelous light and there is no greater joy than knowing this. Lust and pride have stepped upon the platform to entice me with their worldly pleasures. The light of revelation exposed lust and pride as beasts of destruction. In these last days, lust is running rampant, but your grace pulled me from the raging waters that tried to sweep me away. I will speak of your power and your glory with the voice of triumph. You have provided me with ways of escape from lust and pride. Your word is a lamp unto my feet and light unto my path; therefore, I will not travel the highway of destruction to be trapped in the cul-de-sac of lust and pride. The songs of redemption are upon my lips. I thank you for the abundant life that is given to me. I choose life and not death.

You are life and any other way is death. The place of victory awaits my arrival. The vehicle of obedience is ready to take me into the heavenly places that are in you. Humility will escort me down the path of honor, riches, and life. I rejoice in the grace and in your loving-kindness that has brought me unto this great salvation.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our obedience is better than any sacrifice that we will ever present to the Lord. God's presence is the atmosphere that we are healed, delivered, and liberated in. Lust will come dressed as a suitor that will sweep us off our feet. We must remember that we are espoused to the Lord Jesus, and no other lovers are allowed access to our hearts and minds. Sin's wages are death, but God's gift of eternal life is the treasure that we enjoy here and look forward to in the world to come. If we humble ourselves, we will be exalted in the kingdom. Daniel was the real ruler of all the kings that he served because he had an excellent spirit. If we can possess an excellent spirit, we have the greatest treasure that we can in these vessels of clay. God's presence is the dwelling place of those who submit themselves to his will.

The Word of Truth Shall Cast Out the Words of the Deceivers and the Trouble Makers

Series 6.7.4 - Letter #186

Today is a day that I made for you to rejoice in. Do not allow regret, sorrow, other people's attitudes, or any such thing to steal your joy. If you allow the theft of your joy, you will be weak and without strength, for my joy is your strength. Do not be distracted by what the devil is venting through ignorant and deceitful saints. Those who threaten to leave because of their dislike of me probing their hearts were never with me in the first place. They were only here for their self-serving agendas. If they leave, the ministry that I gave you is still valid and flourishing. They are the losers, not you or my church. The gates of hell will not prevail against my church. If they rebel and leave, the gates of hell will open wide for their entrance into it, for they will have forsaken me, the fountain of living water.

The recent messages that have been given in the congregation are for the revealing of the wickedness in the hearts of those who are not really with me. There are those among you who do not love the people. They are really self-servers who throw off on the ministry when occasions arise. Do not be deceived by the words of the deceivers, for I will make them prove their claims of loyalty and faithfulness. Those who have used deceptive words shall be found liars, for I will send a fire through their lives that shall reveal their dishonesty and trickery. Do not include them in the ministry, for they will minister by a false spirit. False spirits have come to the frontline with the wave of deception coming out of their mouths. The fasting and praying has brought out many hidden spirits. These spirits are attempting to deceive the people and you. Do not give place to these spirits, for they are attempting to beguile you as the serpent beguiled Eve; therefore, do not be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. I have given you the spirit of discernment so that you may know the spirit of truth from the spirit of error. An abundance of grace is given that you may be established, rooted, and grounded in the truth and preserved unto eternal life.

The weapons of your warfare are not carnal, but they are mighty through me to the pulling down of strongholds, casting down imaginations, every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. Your obedience is being fulfilled; therefore, be ready to revenge all disobedience. Disobedience is an open door for the prince of the power of the air to enter in and work in the children of disobedience. Look unto the grace given you, and you will not be ensnared by the spirit of disobedience. Grace has given disobedience a “stiff-arm.” Now keep it far from your mind and think on the things that I have told you to think on. I will keep you in perfect peace if your mind is stayed on me.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA – The Word of Truth Shall Cast Out the Words of the Deceivers and the Trouble Makers

In Nehemiah 8:10, we read that the joy of the Lord is our strength. Strength is from the Hebrew word mauz that means a defense. This defense is much like the body's immune system that gives us a resistance to the attack of disease. In other words, the joy of the Lord is more than just an emotional high or a relief. It gives us a real spiritual resistance to the attacks of negativity, problems, and the harsh words and condemnation of others. Other people may come and go, but with the real joy of the Lord, will be defended like a fortress against the events and intrusion of the feelings and emotions that the enemy may try to produce in us by the interaction with those who do not love the Lord as we do. Every kind of false spirit will arise, but we will not allow the enemy to steal our joy and confidence in the ministry of reconciliation and prophecy that God has given us. Just as the prophet Elijah stood on Carmel and said, “If I am God's prophet, then God will cause fire to fall from heaven.” God not only sent fire and consumed the sacrifice but the water, the dust, the rocks, and the wood of the altar. Water is typical of the spiritual cold water that others would like to throw on our inspiration and enthusiasm for Jesus Christ. We will not allow that to stop our intensity and worship. Many are worshipping Baal in a spiritual sense today. God will consume these hard stones of resistance and the dust and wood of their fleshly attacks. We will win, and God will expose the false because the weapons of our warfare are spiritual and will last while all others will fade away.

A mighty pestilence walked in darkness today. A thousand fell at your side, and ten thousand fell at your right hand, but it did not come nigh you. You beheld the pestilence and the destruction with your eyes. You saw the reward of the wicked, but because you had made me your refuge and your habitation, no evil befell you, and no plague came nigh your dwelling. Angels accompanied you to your bed. They stood watch over you while you slept and slumbered. I sent them to the home of your little one. After you prayed for her, angels ministered unto her.

I have given you many promises. I have said, “The sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.” Though the enemy spread a net by the wayside, I have covered your head in the day of battle. Though the enemy weaves a spider's web for you, their webs shall become their own garments. You have run to the strong tower of safety, which is my name. You are hidden now. Your enemies shall fear my name from the west and my glory from the rising of the sun. They have come in like a flood, but I have lifted up a standard against them. I have made a covenant with you. My Spirit that is upon you and my words that I have placed in your mouth shall not depart out of your mouth or out of the mouth of your seed from henceforth and forever. Arise and go unto the people. Preach the gospel. In my name, devils shall be cast

A mighty pestilence walked in darkness today. A thousand fell at my side, and ten thousand fell at my right hand, but it did not come nigh me. I beheld the pestilence and the destruction with my eyes. I saw the reward of the wicked, but because I had made the Lord my refuge and my habitation, no evil befell me, and no plague came nigh my dwelling. Angels accompanied me to my bed. They stood watch over me while I slept and slumbered. The Lord sent them to the home of my little one. After I prayed for her, angels ministered unto her. God has given me many promises. He has said, "The sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den." Though the enemy has spread a net by the wayside, God has covered my head in the day of battle. RE: RHEMA - Cast Down Imaginations, and Live by Every Word That Proceeds Out of God's Mouth

Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh. Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts. The mind only processes what comes from the heart. Keep thine heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life. Our lives are on an up and down ride because of the issues that arise on the course of our journey. We must determine that we will make every decision based on the wisdom found in the pages of the word that will never fail. Paul indicated that it was the mind that would be the battlefield for the believer. Carnal-minded efforts will end in death and spiritual-minded efforts will be full of life. We are encouraged to set our minds on the things in heaven. Those things that are lovely, pure, and of a good report should be the streams of thought that feed our imaginations. Imaginations of the heart were the very things that doomed the world in Noah's time.

False images of fear will run in and out of the shadows of our mind. We can create our own anxieties and monsters that do not even exist if we let our thoughts run wild. We need to allow our thoughts to be captivated by the greatness of the blessings and power of God. Many times the scripture says for us to continually say that, "The Lord has great delight in the prosperity of his servants." We speak this not only aloud with our mouth, but we make sure it echoes in the concert halls of our minds. Perfect peace have they that love thy law and nothing shall offend them. He will keep us in perfect peace that has our minds stayed upon him. It is when we are focused on others or other things that we become distracted from the greatness that will overwhelm every incursion of negative thought.

You must return to real prayer, for in prayer, you will gain the freedom that you need to break forth into the dimension of sharing the Christ that is in you. I am bringing forth my seed, which shall be as the stars of heaven. You are Christ's seed; therefore, you are Abraham's seed and an heir unto the promises. You are an heir.

400. What will a worthy heir do?

◆ In the Rhema word, I have employed expressions that are intended for whosoever I have sent my word unto. Seeing, many shall not see. They will be able to see naturally, but spiritually they will not understand the spiritual significance of my expressions. Receive a purification of your heart so that you will continue to see and hear. Many are malignant and blind; therefore, they cannot understand the Rhema word. Remember, I do not intend for everyone to understand. Understanding of these things is only to whom it is given. I have visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for my name.

401. How can they come out of darkness without coming out in my name?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
By Marco Mendoza

July 4, 2008

I am thankful, O Lord, because your joy is my strength. This lets me know that I can stand against anything, for surely your strength is my defense. I am comforted by the reality that your joy is more than just an emotional high or a relief, but it gives me a real spiritual resistance to the attacks of negativity, problems, and the harsh words and condemnation of others. When I think about the security I have with you and how I am defended like a fortress against the events and intrusion of the feelings and emotions that the enemy may try to produce in me by the interaction with those who do not love you, I cannot help but praise your name. I am grateful that you will not allow any kind of false spirit that arises to attempt to steal my joy and confidence in the ministry to succeed. I extol your name, and I am confident that you will consume all the resistance of those who attack me. I am assured by the fact that in you I am victorious, and you will expose the false because the weapons of my warfare are spiritual and will last while all others will fade away.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God's joy is a spiritual immune system for us against all the toxins and spiritual diseases that would infect us with pain and suffering. We may suffer in our flesh with the pains and troubles of life, but we can always rejoice in the Lord and be filled with the strength that is part of the flow of his joy in our minds and spirits. We cannot look to circumstances for joy, or we will be on a roller coaster for life. How could Paul rejoice in suffering and persecution? The apostles had plugged into a flow of joy that only comes from the Spirit of God and its constant rich presence in our lives by the special relationship that we have with God. Enoch must have been a joy to God for God to take him home without death. David was a man that rejoiced in the Lord all the time. God delighted in the worship of David. It is possible to live in the delight of God and live in a near raptured state above the daily things that buffer our spirits as we are filled with everlasting joy.

THOUGHTS HIGHER THAN MINE CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY By Moses Hightower

Walk in the Shoes of Peace and Allow the Heart of Holiness to Dwell in You

Series 6.7.5 - Letter #187

How can you make your calling and election sure if you are constantly falling?

Because of my goodness and mercy, I am reminding you that there are things that must be done to be sure that you stand. Many are falling in this hour because they have neglected to give diligence to make their calling and election sure. Precious promises have been given to you. You are a partaker of my divine nature; therefore, you have escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. Why become a captive to things that you have escaped?

I have given to every man the measure of faith. Now add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. You cannot stand unless you have done these things; therefore, hide these things in your heart so that you will be assured to keep them always before your face as necessities in your spiritual growth in Christ. It has always been in my plan for you that these things would dwell in you and my purpose according to the election might stand because I called you, not because you worked to obtain these things. I did not establish these things for you after I saw that you were developing into a man of God, but the ground for my choice was established according to my purpose and good pleasure. I have given you favor according to my sovereign will and pleasure; therefore, rise up and allow grace to work out my will in your life. You are destined to stand. Now stand with your loins girt about with the truth, having on the breastplate of righteousness, and wear the shoes of peace. I have placed the sword of the Spirit in your mouth. Now swing it and come forth unto the victory ordained. You will not die lost, for you are called unto salvation, not unto damnation. Hope does not make you ashamed. You believe on me. Now believe that your calling and election are made sure by the grace that you walk in.

RE: RHEMA – Walk in the Shoes of Peace and Allow the Heart of Holiness to Dwell in You

We are encouraged in the word of the Lord to not build again the things that we have destroyed. Many are falling away because they do not have a continual and special relationship with Jesus Christ. We will not fall asleep in the bondage of lust if we are in love with our beloved. Faith is a fruit of the Spirit. Long-suffering, patience, kindness, and knowledge in the Spirit flow out of the same river and grow out of the same root. As we allow the Spirit of power and grace to flood our lives, there is a displacement of inordinate desires. Faith then is able to flourish and grow, even in the times and places that seem barren. Our measure of faith is not a minimal measure but the maximum of all things are possible. In fact, God has told us to throw away all our measuring instruments. God proved it to the disciples when he fed the 5,000. They thought they counted a few pennies, but Jesus began to multiply and there was more than enough with plenty left over. His grace will establish us and make us to stand. If he is able to make all grace abound to us that we would abound to every good work, then every work or fruit of the Spirit will abound in our lives.

The fruit of salvation will remain far from them, and their transgressions will continue to multiply unless they repent. Evil hearts of unbelief have caused my people to depart from me. Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter into their lives. Go and preach the true gospel about the man Christ Jesus, my arm that brought salvation and righteousness. Proclaim the Christ that put on righteousness as a breastplate, a helmet of salvation upon his head, garments of vengeance for clothing, and zeal as a cloak. RE: RHEMA - The Light of Life Has Displaced Death's Shadow and the Devil's Threat

The devil's threats are hollow, and his devices are powerless over those who have heard and tasted of the power of God's living word. Our enemy will try to turn our questioning thoughts into a rowdy mob of protesters that will shout insults to our faith and the promise of God. No good thing will he withhold from his children. Condemnation always brings its bags of lies around to prance like a court jester to try to make us think we are not worthy of miracles because of our mistakes and failures. God's word is an indestructible seed. It will always bring forth and prevail in the purpose for which it was sent. Praises should continually ring in our mouth. Miracles are about to spring forth as the green leaves of the trees multiplying in the spring of the year. As we feast in thanksgiving and the reality of miracles, others will have an empty plate. Our promises are not empty but full and running over with his blessings.

By Michael Hannah

July 5, 2008

Thank you, Lord, for the surety of your goodness and mercy today. You have promised me that both goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life so that I will dwell in your house forever. I am grateful that your continual encouragement has provoked me to be diligent in making my calling and election sure; therefore, as I do these things I shall have a special relationship with you and will never fall. Thank you for reminding me that in this last hour many have fallen away and many have fallen asleep. The sufficiency of your virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness and charity has given me favor as I rise up and allow grace to work out your sovereign will and pleasure in my life. The measure of these things to my life and now your divine nature allows me to escape the corruption that is in the world through lust.

The Spirit of your power and grace floods my life and my faith flourishes and grows within me all the way to the place that you have prepared for me. Thank you for blessing me with the establishment of grace, to be sure that I stand even in the times and places that seems to be barren. I praise and worship you for your precious promises, and I rejoice in my heart for the Rhema word. An entrance of your word ministers unto me abundantly, even unto your everlasting kingdom. I am ever grateful for the strength and ability you have given me to praise and appreciate you my Savior, Jesus Christ.

Before David talks about goodness and mercy following us all the days of our lives, he talks about two very important things. One is the table that is prepared for us in the presence of our enemies, which are our troubles and pressures of life and not an armed soldier. God gives us a feast of promises that he keeps in the very face of every adversity. His promises flow out of the faithfulness that God is wearing every day. The second is that God anoints our head with oil and our cup runs over. We have a word anointing and overflow blessing in the rivers of miracles that follow us in the paths of goodness and mercy.

Series 6.7.6 - Letter #188

Grace has granted you a right mind and a right heart. It has led you to a place of submission to my Holy Spirit so that you may honor me and show your respect for me. Give thanks for the grace that you have found. Noah found grace in my sight and so have you this morning. Noah lived before the law was ever given. I poured out my blessing upon him. I blessed him because I loved him. Noah did not change his behavior. I changed his behavior. After the flood, Noah got drunk. I knew what he would do before I saved him. Independent of his behavior, I gave him grace. Noah found grace in my eyes. It was not dependent on his behavior. You have found grace in my sight and my blessings are being poured out upon you. I am not a vending machine; therefore, do not think that you are being blessed because you have put good works into me, and as a result blessings have come out of me. My heart is to bless you. I am blessing you because of my goodness, not yours. The favor that I have given you is changing your behavior; therefore, rejoice for the change that is occurring in you because of my grace.

Because of the washing of regeneration and a renewing of the Holy Ghost, I have prepared you for my blessings. The washing of water by the Rhema word of God has brought the purification that is needed. The washing of water by the word shall drown those in the congregation who have been given the spirit of slumber. You are motivated to spend your time searching for me; therefore, you have realized that you are nothing on your own, but you are what you are because of who I am in you. I have tested those in the congregation. Many have failed the test because they did not really love me. They have used the things that I gave them for themselves, not to connect themselves to me. Unless what I have given is used to connect to me, then the things will become a curse to them, and they will be drowned in the water that saves others. Give thanks that you were chosen to be blessed. Have you ever thought about the animals that were not chosen to join Noah in the ark?

There will be people who are left out of the blessings that you are inheriting. Many are called, but few are chosen. Rejoice, for you are chosen. You were without strength when grace found you, yet grace looked into the eyes of your persecutors and gave you fresh water that revived you when you were at your weakest moment. You were a slave in the house of bondage. There were many slaves in the house of bondage. I chose to give you fresh water while many others died of thirst. Love raised you out of the thirsty land where there was no water. Rejoice in the triumph of your salvation over the defeat of damnation. I have placed you upon the white horse of honor. Allow your praises to lead you to the award of my blessings that are granted by grace. The angels are rejoicing, for I have placed you in the chariot of blessing; therefore, rejoice with the angels.

RE: RHEMA – Rejoice in the Triumph of Your Salvation over the Defeat of Damnation

We quote the verses in the New Testament that say that it will be like it was in the days of Noah with the days of the coming of the Son of man. We normally think of the eating and drinking and giving in marriage. On the positive side, we see the wildest beasts come to the ark. We will see in the spiritual realm the most beastly people find God in this hour. We will also find grace in the eyes of the Lord in the presence of his face in our lives.

Grace will also prepare an ark of supply to protect us while all the trouble is raging. God is washing the church with the washing of the water by the word. His words that are spoken to us are the very instrument that will cleanse us from the atmosphere of the toxins of sin and iniquity. Our minds and hearts are renewed in the same power of creation as we are renewed in his Spirit. Pressure from every side and attacks of the enemy may accelerate but we have more than enough power in the Lord to be a pillar in the temple of God. Our body is his temple, and we will not open the door to lust and deception. As Jesus took and drove many things out of the temple when it should have been a house of prayer, we need to drive everything out that is contaminating us and condemning us. We will rejoice in the shadow of the Almighty, for we have found his secret place.

RE: RHEMA - We Have a Franchise of Liberty, and We Are Immune to the Laws of Fear and Terror

When Jesus told Peter that the children are free, he meant more than some realize. The Greek word for free here is not just of movement, but it means, "Exempt from every law of the system." We are born from above. We are the children of the resurrection. We get our directives from the throne of God and not from the throngs and masses. A poll does not determine what we do or say. We are called to be counter-cultural. We are going against the tide of popular opinion. God has placed everything about us before his throne. David knew the truth that if we place ourselves in the hands of God that he will always be merciful and kind to us. Laws of fear would like to put up its notices of our failure or demise on every corner. Faith has spoken to the liberty that puts us beyond the hands of this prosecution. Fear would rise up and take us on the hurtling ride of anxiety through the torture chambers of the mind. God will put us in his arms and carry us across the most desolate places of this life. God is not the author of confusion; neither is he the instigator of fear. He said that the wicked one comes and he has nothing in me. When we are in Jesus Christ, there is no condemnation of incarceration of fear and doubt. The same God that opened all the doors of a Philippian prison has opened up every door of our existence and stored every chain. We are free from the fear of any tomorrow and loosed from the guilt of the past. None of these things can separate us from the plan his love has for us.

◆ A greater joy has come into the world because of my sufferings, my death, my burial, and my resurrection. The heaviness of my cross guarantees you a light burden. The agony of my sufferings was painful, yet it pleased the Father to bruise me, as the Son of God. The path of suffering was chosen for me for your sake.

405. How can you view my suffering without gaining a love for me?

◆ Believe the scriptures as they are written and know that what is written is already settled in heaven. By my death, you can understand my love for you. The plot to kill me was meant to produce an effective victory for you, but they did not know it. The truth has been revealed. Now do not remain tied up and paraded before witnesses as defeated. I was tied up and paraded before Pilate so that you may walk before the witnesses of the hour in honor and victory. Do not allow unbelief to lead you into the parade of betrayal. Judas betrayed me for thirty pieces of silver.

I come before you this day and give thanks for the grace that you have granted in my life. For by grace am I saved through faith, I appreciate this gift you have given. Your grace has prepared an ark of supply to protect me from all the troubles that are raging in this world. This protection of grace causes a new found gratitude in my life. I am elated that you did not base the giving of your grace on good behavior, but according to your loving-kindness. Your grace is changing me everyday, that I may be transformed and renewed in my mind with the mind of Christ. I rejoice, for when I was without strength, grace found me, and looked into the eyes of my persecutors and gave me fresh waters of life that revived me during the times that I was at my weakest moment. I was a slave in the house of bondage, but your grace delivered me. Your love raised me out of the thirsty land where there was no water. Therefore I can rejoice in the triumph that you displayed in saving me over the defeat of damnation. This deliverance has resurrected indebtedness and appreciation for what you have done to bring forth freedom in my life. For this I magnify your name!!

God is the excitement of the universe. We must never lose the excitement and joy that we have in the Lord. Dark shadows have a way of trying to hide the revelation that we have of the greatness of God. If we allow that excitement to explode in our worship and praise, we can see the gates of hell shaken, taken apart, and removed in the very face of thrill in Jesus Christ. We shout for joy, we leap for joy, and we sow in joy in the face of tears. When Israel shouted around the walls of Jericho, they shouted for the joy of the victory that would come.

and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.*

Romans 10:8-10

*Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called,
and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12*
