Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

Be Passionate about Your Love for the Sunshine in Joseph's Valley

Series 6.8.25 – Letter #238

By the spirit of thanksgiving, I do cause you to abound over the walls before you. Leap high with the legs of gratitude, and ascend over these giant structures before you. Grace has picked you up and embraced you in its arms. By the spirit of thanksgiving, you are now on your way to the other side of all these things. Do not regret the bruises and wounds from the battle on this side of the walls. All these things were necessary. Lift up your eyes to the brighter days on the other side of the walls, and you will see the sunshine of love awaiting your arrival. Greet the rays of grace that are found in the sunshine of my love. Kiss the entire spectrum of this love light, and you shall find that your lips shall speak of the grace found here in the hidden dimensions of my light. I have touched you this day with a fresh touch of my hand. The touch did not make you better, but it paved a way that you might see what has always been there. I have brought you to this place. Now open up your heart unto the work that I will do in your life.

I do not get any pleasure out of your poverty, your sicknesses, your defeats, or your sadness. I have come and brought you life and that more abundantly. Receive of the abundant life of the kingdom. The abundance of the kingdom is flowing to you now. Lift up your head as you arrive on this new ground. Look around and see that the beauty of holiness commands that you take off all the things of the world and the clothing handed to you by frustration. Do not be a partaker with frustration, for I have brought you peace. Peace is given to you. Abide in my peace and trust in my faithfulness. Come. Let us run to the valley of Joseph. There in the valley of Joseph, I will teach you of my ways to add to the church. Come. Let us run to the valley of Joseph. Don't expect to see Joseph's hill until you have been to his valley.

(I paused and wondered about the words that had come into my hearing...Joseph's valley and Joseph's hill. What does that mean, Lord?)

Everyone that I receive is salted with fire. I have salted you much and applied the preservative of the kingdom. You are preserved unto eternal life. Others who are without wait on your arrival with the words of life and the expressions of preservatives for those who will live forever. Open up the gate of your mouth, and allow me to express the truth of my grace. I have brought you to this place for such a time as this. Open your mouth wide, and make known the truth of the gospel.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Be Passionate about Your Love for the Sunshine in Joseph's Valley

Not only will the evening time be light, but also the times of shadows will be obliterated by the love light of God. When life is an unbearable wilderness all around us, God will be a pillar of fire that goes before us. As he led the children out of the land of bondage and lit their path with his passionate love, he will do the same for us who are in between impossible barriers. In the battles of life, grace has and will continue to heal every wound and banish fear.

Joseph's dreams created deep valleys before him. The one who leads us through the valley of the shadow of death will also lead us through the valley of false accusation and attempted assassination. Joseph's throne was not without a price. It is so true that we cannot love without being hurt. Those who we do the most for will turn and rend us. They did that to Jesus. Did that stop his love or lessen his passion? No! It should not lessen our desire to walk in the love light that leads us to the masses that are lost. Our trials and disappointments are the design of infinite wisdom. We are not walking the maze of lost paths of this world. We must walk the path of love to a cross. We may be buried in a tomb. The glory of the following resurrection swallows up everything else. We are not redeemers, but we are the redeemer's children. He was rejected as Joseph was rejected by his brethren. In the final analysis, he saw that it was God and not them that sent him into this valley that almost cost him his life. Yet he revealed himself to his brethren as a savior and merciful provider for their lives and families. If this was done in the shadow of the cross that was to come, then how can we do any less? We will not withhold the words of grace that are prepared with fire and seasoned with salt.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Where is your helmet?

Your helmet is the hope of salvation. Did you come to my throne with the hope of salvation or with your head bowed to your troubles?

I have not appointed you unto wrath but to obtain salvation by Jesus Christ. Who can you comfort and edify while you are in deep mourning?

I have given you righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon your head. I have already worn the garments of vengeance for you; therefore, cast off the willows you adorned yourself with, and put on the armor of light that shines through praise.

I am wearing my helmet. It is the hope of salvation. I have come to the throne of grace with this hope, and my head is not bowed to my troubles. The Lord has not appointed me unto wrath but to obtain salvation by Jesus Christ. I cannot comfort and edify anyone if I am in deep mourning. God has given me righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon my head. He has already worn the garments of vengeance for me; therefore, I have cast off the willows I adorned myself with and put on the armor of light that shines through praise.

RE: RHEMA - Dance in the Invisible Rain of Blessings of the Future

We have only to remember that the prophet described him as the God who hides himself. Habakkuk 3:4 describes the hiding of his power. The latest 2 Micron All Sky Survey shows, by the invisible infrared, a fantastic view of 1.5 million galaxies that most are hidden by dust. One of the latest X-ray images from the X-ray Chandra Probe shows us the brilliant colors of oxygen burning in the darkness that is mirrored in visible light. It just lets us know that even when things look dark, God is in the curtains about to burst forth with tremendous demonstrations of his power. In Job 38:9, the darkness as a swaddlingband indicates that God stands just beyond our sight with a brand new creation wrapped in a baby blanket for us!

God spoke to us recently and said,

I can take all the things that you see and turn them into all the things that do not exist because I am the existence of the unseen. Yet I have already seen all the things you do not think exist marching triumphantly on parade through the door of your nothing. Your problem is the parable of your prevailing. Fear has drawn you sketches of what it says is coming, and you have started a picture gallery in your mind. My presence is the hallway out of your mind and brings you into my courts of miraculous supply. My Spirit has hidden behind sunsets, ridden on the edges of storms, hovered above the dust of battle, and is just inside tent doors. Just remember that the trouble that you are so alarmed about is just putting up the tent for the arrival of your victory celebration.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ I have designed victory. Now show forth praise unto me, and I will dwell in these praises as a secret weapon against the enemy. Show forth the triumphant praises of your King, and I will show forth my strength against the enemy. Do not look at the greatness of the problems, but look at the awesomeness of your God. Compare the entire problem to me.

16. Who is greater?

◆ The night is almost over, for it is spent much farther than you realize.

17. If you know the time, then why are you sleeping?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Debbie McBee

August 25, 2008

Your love light is great, and I give you praise as my Lord and Savior. When life seems unbearable and like a wilderness around me, you are the pillar of fire that goes before me. Your evening light shines bright in me and I am comforted. Just as you displayed your loving-kindness toward the children of Israel in the wilderness, I rejoice because you have set this same example before me. Every shadow and dark lurking thing is obliterated at the speaking of your word and the light of your name. I am so grateful because you, my God, have lit my path with a passionate love that utterly destroys every impossible barrier. When the battles of life come, your grace continues to heal every wound and to banish every fear. You are the great Shepherd, and you lead me through the valley of the shadow of death and every false accusation.

I know that I cannot love without being hurt; therefore, by your grace, I will not draw back from loving others. You are love, and you continually express this great love to your people. I know that I am not exempt from being done wrong. Many did that to

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Love is the brilliant illumination that reveals the hidden world of the spirit of men. We speak into that world and should not be surprised by the wounded and hurting spirits that are filled with infection. In that state, men and women are full of spite, bitterness, and pain that is so toxic that when the word is inserted, their corruption bursts out on us with a vengeance. What is happening is that God is doing surgery to remove the poison from their being. Surgeons must be prepared to use the tools of the Spirit, remembering that the blood and things that must be removed and taken away are part of the process. Love never fails to continue in the face of rebellion and rejection. Jesus looked from the cross and saw all the masses in the future that would reject his love, and yet he did not draw back from the death that he died. We are loving and living after his example.

you, and surely they will do it to me. Yet none of this stopped your love or lessened your passion. Let it be so in me. Let me not count the wrongs done to me. Let me remain open, tender and full of gratitude as you love through me. Allow my desire to walk in your love light to lead me to the masses that are lost. Place a coal from the altar upon my lips that I might be cleansed. Allow a renewed intensity to sweep over me. I open my mouth in adoration and praise unto you. Fill it with your words of grace that are prepared with fire and seasoned with salt. I lift my hands and I worship you as my great redeemer who is alive forever.

There Is a Bridge of Grace at My Beginning and My Ending

Series 6.8.26 – Letter #239

When you were a child, I gave you friendship and favor with man and with many who would have run you over if it hadn't been for my grace. The arms that have embraced you would have been fists to your head, but my grace ministered to those who were without and caused their hearts to change and embrace you with love and acceptance. Your eyes have seen many wonders in your country. I could have dammed up all the sights that were available, but I opened up many avenues that you might glory in the God of your salvation. Many floods have attempted to drown you, yet you are standing and have not been killed. I have given you the expression of my standard to fly above the head of the rushing waters of death that sought your life. Behind the wall of grace, you were hidden to glorify my name and to stand on the high places and exalt the name of the Lord. Many mountains stood aloof as intimidating giants that were uncrossable for you. You could not climb them with your equipment from the land of the plains. You had never seen mountains before I called you, but I brought you to the mountains and equipped you to climb the highest mountain by faith, which is in me.

You are no longer handicapped as those who do not have the resurrection and the life, but you are equipped with the armor of the Lord. Rest from the struggles that men talk about, and enter into the joy of my strength. I have given you fresh, clean waters and dammed up the floods of this life for you. You can now stand on the bridge of grace and watch the tamed waters that now flow only at my command. You are now traveling down a new highway. I have cut a pathway through the mountains that stood aloof and proud. When you pass through these mountains, you shall see them as plains and plateaus. Know of a truth that the glory of God has always been with you and provided for you continually, for you are my own. In the dry times and in the deserts of this life, I was your water and your refuge. When giants came to destroy you, I made them to be at peace with you. I have made giants come and bow down at your feet and feed you with the hands that would have crushed you.

You have entered many chambers of death and walked out alive. You have entered into the chambers of the god of the world and not lost your eyesight. When you were of a few years in me, you walked into the mouth of waiting lions, yet I shut their mouths and caused them to merely look upon you as you passed by. Into the lit places of worldliness you ventured. The glamour of their fabulous strips was offered to you, but grace was brighter than their brightest strip. The giant structures of the world stretched forth their offerings and offered you a ride in their carriages of wealth, but grace held you firm and shielded your heart from experienced warriors of the world. You visited friends who were prisoners of the god of the world. They spewed their bitterness and gloated of their comfort in the chambers of darkness. Their friendship and bond of the past was not enough to break the bond of my love for you. Children attached themselves to your children, yet my love did not allow the expressions from the innocent children to be the snare of the fowler for the feet of your own.

The hookers of the age cannot find you in the refuge of grace. The bright lights of damnation cannot enlighten those whom I have enlightened with eternal life. Behold the lights of this world, and see that they will merely kindle the fires of hell for them. Their money shall be the fire-starter for their own damnation, and their gifts shall be the tourniquet for their throats. This world shall definitely pass away; therefore, hide in the oasis of my love.

I have made a bridge for you to cross from death to life. You did not come to this side of the bridge by your own works. My works and my life were laid across the gulf of this life and created a bridge of safety for you and your own. My heart was crushed and broken for your feet to walk on this bridge of life. My death was for your life. My death created the eyes for your vision. The small things that could not be viewed by eyes of worldliness are now made clear through the eyes of those who have seen the view from this bridge. Climb up higher, and view the revival of my choosing for you. If you look from your self-imposed valleys, you will not see the vision of the Lord; but from the bridge of my grace, you can see souls weeping in my presence. I am pouring out my Spirit on the hungry and the thirsty.

Why do some come and some remain?

Why do some come and some leave?

How many have come and gone?

How many have remained that came when I called?

Do you know the answers to these questions?

Who will these be that are in the congregations now?

Who will leave, and who will remain?

Where were you when I filled your little one with my Spirit?

Where were you when I baptized her in my name and gave her remission of her sins?

I knew the appointed time and the appointed place. I provided the camera, and I preserved the pictures. Now know this of a truth that there is an appointed time and an appointed place for the desires of your heart to be fulfilled. Do not worry, for I am faithful to my word and to you. I have not forgotten your labor of love for my name. I am the beginning and the ending. I knew your beginning and I know your ending; therefore, rest in my love for you and know that I have not stood aside and watched you perish in the end. As I stood at your beginning and saw you drowning, I stand at every point in your life to keep you from drowning. The floods in the beginning could not drown you, then why should the flood right now drown you?

I am the same every day. Now lift up your eyes to the hills of your helper, and know that I am on time. I have never left you, and I won't leave you now. I will provide for you and not allow that which you picked up off the floor as "a baby evangelist" to be your demise and your shame. Every bad thing shall be regurgitated, and all my good things shall be yours. I have a mansion prepared already, but in this life I have good things to give you. Prepare for the good things that are reserved for you. My gift brought you before great men. Now the gift carries you on a journey for good things. Welcome to the journey of good things. Do not be spoiled, neither become ungrateful, but be full of gratitude and thanksgiving, then will the waters of prosperity be a place to swim and not a place to drown. I have given you the lifeguard of grace and the life preserver of experience. Rest in the shade of love, and you will come to the place of many blessings. Rejoice in me, for I have given you much. Now much is required of you. Rejoice in me, yet do not forget the many fish that must be caught. I will truly make you a fisher of men and women for the church of the last days.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - There Is a Bridge of Grace at My Beginning and My Ending

Jesus Christ is the Alpha and Omega. In the Greek language and thought, this is not only the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, but it symbolically stands for everything in the created universe. All of creation and its power are available through his grace in our lives. God is the beginning of everything that needs to start in our lives and has never begun. At the same time, he is the ending of everything that has needed to cease in our lives and had never stopped until now. With his great omnipotence, God structures our lives by his grace. He fills in the blank spaces that nothing else could write in. Grace builds the ruins that could never be renovated by any kind of contractor. Grace is the protection and shield against foes and fears that would have swallowed us up. Rivers and streams of blessings have made us abundantly rich in a wasteland and wilderness of nothingness. Many things have come to our door and lives, but God has removed their ability to swallow us up. We stand today as a pristine example of exorbitant grace. His riches in glory and grace have provided the bridge across the impossible gaps that resisted our best efforts. Miracles of grace are the marble floors of our feet. We stand in the courts of the One who is full of grace and truth. Grace knows our weakness and strengths. God will cover our weakness and enhance our strength. Grace will continue to fashion us in the victorious image from glory to glory. We have not been appointed to shame but to be glorious conquerors in him by grace.

RE: RHEMA - The Expression of the Resurrection Swings Through Your Life Today As Righteousness Intervenes

Today is more than today. Eternity stepped into time through the unlimited door of the resurrection. Our mouths should be filled with the excitement of the defeat of death in all its forms. Resurrection has commanded the forces of faith to march on the citadels of doubt, and they have been conquered. The ultimate revelation of today is the resurrection. Unbelief and fear have robbed us of the eternity of now. We miss the blessings of today because we allow them to be sealed behind the stinking stones of yesterday. The resurrection introduces us to the eternal Sabbath. Men argue over what day he was born, buried, and resurrected while all of creation dances around us in their daily celebration. We allow today to become the narrow, gloomy hallway between a vast yesterday and tomorrow. While, all the time, God wants us to make today into a massive banqueting house with yesterday and tomorrow as the narrow hallways on either side. The resurrection will stand in the midst of the flood of thousands of yesterdays of guilt, shame, and punishment and lift us out of the mouth of death into today's paradise. He has rolled away the stone from today forever!

By Thelma Hightower

August 26, 2008

Jesus, you are the Alpha and Omega, the first and the last. You are the beginning and the ending of all things that are in my life. I will not fear anything in my life because of your position in me. Thank you for structuring my life by your grace. You fill the blank spaces that nothing else could write in. Your grace builds the ruins that could never be renovated by just any kind of builder. I appreciate the grace you have given me that shields me against my fears and foes that would have swallowed me up. The miracle of grace is like marble under my feet, and you are full of grace and truth. I glorify you because you are the God of my salvation. Although I have experienced many trials and tribulations, I praise you because I am still standing. I stand on your promise to never leave me nor forsake me. I count it a blessing because you are faithful that promised. I am appreciative of your protective hand when things come to my life to swallow me up. I know that I am equipped with your armor; therefore, I will not fear the things that come against me. I know that I am blessed, and I will not believe Satan's lies. I have full confidence that the joy of the Lord is my strength and your grace is sufficient for me. Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Paul told the Colossians that they should continue steadfast in the faith by being rooted and built up in Christ. God's words that are spoken through us and by us are the building and planting of a kingdom that will not fail. If we are built on the words that he speaks, we are on the rock that will not be shaken and a kingdom that cannot be moved. We are rooted in the soil of faithful promises that will bring forth its bumper crop of fruit that will never fail.

The Undergirding Hand of Love in the Tidal Wave of Criticism

Series 6.8.27 – Letter #240

Though men forsake you and persecute you, yet I am your rock in the time of weariness and in the time of being misunderstood. I was misunderstood, rejected, and forsaken. My servants are not greater than I am. You are chosen to suffer these things that you might know the fellowship of my sufferings as you partake of the power of my resurrection. I have seen all that has happened, and I have ordained it all. You have been crushed by the grace that you have preached, and now do I take this beaten gold and fashion it after myself that you might shine with the brilliancy of purity and not be tainted with the dullness of self-righteousness. I have called you to walk in this path that you might have fellowship with the true light that lights the whole world. Do not worry about the voices that speak against you, for they are the voices crying in the wilderness of damnation. Their echoes shall ring from the depth of hell unless they hear the sound of grace and repent of their abominable doctrines of condemnation. I did not send them into the world to condemn the world, for the world was already condemned, and you cannot add to the condemnation that it already has. I sent men with a light to light the darkness, yet many have put out the light with their bushels of unbelief. Instead of a light of grace, they have presented themselves and have denied the only Lord God who saved them.

I send a wave of my grace throughout the earth. Do not fear to preach my grace, for I have sent you to proclaim it from every platform of faith that I bring you to. The message shall be multiplied every time that you preach it, so preach it again and again and again. I shall be with you and in you to confirm my word with signs and wonders. You sound as if you were Peter attempting to walk on the water. You ask if I care whether you sink or not?

Stand and walk on these circumstances, for I will not let you fall. I have come to undergird you with my love, and I shall carry you to the other side. You have weakened, but now are you strong. You shall see the power of my grace as it springs forth higher than the tidal wave of criticism and brings you forth to the dry ground of revival.

Do not listen any longer to the voice of regret that whispers in your ear, for I ordained the words that were spoken and not man. I sent you with the message, and I send you again. Do not shut up my mouthpiece, but open it wide that I might speak truth unto my people that they might live and not die. Hear these words, for I have chosen this time to speak unto you that your faith does not fail and that the enemy is warned that my hand is against him and his sifter. Give me your hand. Now give me your heart, your mind, your soul, and your strength. I release you from all of your fears. Now go and proclaim that which I put within your mouth. Go and do not regret.

RE: RHEMA - The Undergirding Hand of Love in the Tidal Wave of Criticism

Our Lord was criticized and misunderstood by the masses. Great minds and spirits have always been misunderstood by little minds and spirits. His love reached into the depths of destruction and brought us out, and he will not allow the waves of public opinion to drown our inspiration or dreams. His mighty voice is greater than that of any intimidation that would try to contradict the prophetic utterances that God has given. We will not be distracted by the voices of doubt or debate. Those who rise to cast us down to defeat will fall on the slippery path of their own words. We will stand on the bedrock of the forever settled word that has been spoken anew and afresh to us.

I was praying and the Lord spoke and said,

"I have never left you in a position that I did not overwhelmingly deliver you. I am still the God of the baskets full that are left over after the miracles. I will load you down with my benefits. No thief or trespasser will be able to steal or take your blessing and supply. I am better than a performance bond. You will never have to look around for a way to make my promises good. I have more promises in my extra closet of overflow than your biggest dream can hold. So do not fear to dream and see yourself receiving the abundance of victory that you have prayed for."

RE: RHEMA - The Weapons in the Impenetrable Tower of the Name of the Lord Are Impressive

Truly, the name of Jesus has thrown down the strongholds and the enemy spirits of torment and defiance for us here this week. Several impossible requests (as far as human reasoning) were answered in multiples all at once.

(1) A lady's grandson was acquitted of a double DWI homicide that all the lawyers said was impossible.

The Lord had given me this word for his father at the Church of Champions on a Sunday night,

"I have already passed judgment on your behalf for mercy. It is because of the mercy his grandparents have sown in the lives of others. No man or court will be able to rescind it."

(2) One of our very poor ladies received several hundred dollars in the mail as an answer to her need.

(3) One of the chaplains who was a problem was reassigned.

The Lord's name will be the firebrand in a thousand "mighty fires" that will turn the devil into ashes before us. I believe that God has some surprises hidden in the power of his name that will be revealed in this last hour. A feast of victory of those who love his name is about to be served!

All our inabilities and limitation were hanging on Jesus. The number nine is the number of the Spirit. We have nine spiritual gifts and nine fruit of the Spirit. In other words, we see Jesus as the bridge and companion for us in the darkest days of doubt and rejection of our lives. Walk on the Waters of Impossibility During the Raging Storms of Life

I have come and brought you life. This life has not been killed and brought down to defeat in the raging storms of life, but this life walks on the waters of death and endures to the very end of death's valley. I am the way-maker from Galilee. I have not diminished because I am not walking the earth in my body, called the Son of God. I am now walking in the sons and daughters of redemption. Do not be discouraged by the raging storm of adversity and difficulty, for these things must be. I sent you forth into the storm. I knew that the storm would be there before I sent you, but I did not send you alone. I came with you. Now rest in the storm, and see that you can walk on all of the circumstances of life and not sink. It is time to learn to walk on impossibilities and not fear when uncertainties come. You are more than a conqueror through me. I am in you to perform the miracles that must come.

The laws of nature are subject to my power. I am teaching you to operate in the dimension of miracles. Too long have my people operated in the dimension of the natural laws. My word gives you the example of my ministry in the earth.

My body, which is the church, has the same ministry. Rise up from this position of powerlessness, and behold the wonder of miracles, which happens through my body. Behold the wonder of the things that I am doing even now. The light cannot be put out by the spirit of unbelief and the spirit of doubt. I have not subjected my power to these things. I am more than enough for the things that are impossible with men. I am God, and I can do all things. I am the wonder worker. Will you relegate me to the traditional thoughts of God, or will you come and follow me into the ministry of the last days?

I am the same. I was the miracle worker then, and I am the miracle worker now. I have not changed, for I am the Lord and I do not change. Come and see the things that I am doing. No man can do the things that I did unless they see me do them. I am pointing you to the working of my Spirit within you, and by the spirit of revelation I do allow you to see the things that I am doing. I do touch your eyes that you may see the things that are spiritual and the things that are real. Be opened this day, and do not return to the blindness of carnality and of religion, for I am not a religion. I am God. Close your eyes to the images of the darkness.

Close your eyes to the projected images of the unseen forces, and open your eyes to the images of faith that I project into your spirit. I do give you a new platform this day, and you shall stand on the platform of faith and not doubt, but you shall enter into the wonder of my miracles that I am doing in my body in this hour. Even if you were blind, my miracles could not be hidden, neither prevented by your insufficiencies. I am the sufficient one who has already settled the issues that prevent man from entering into the realm of my power. I have paid the redemptive price and given you the portion of a son and an heir. Now as an heir, possess your place in me and make known the kingdom of God, which is in power and not in word only.

I am the Lord Jehovah, the one who is strong and mighty in every battle. This battle is mine. You have taken up carnal weapons and have tried to defeat spiritual things with carnal weapons. Here, take the weapons of my Spirit, and allow them to work through you this day. I am bringing down the strongholds, imaginations, and thoughts. Do not struggle any longer to go through these things, but give me your hand, and I shall cause you to walk on the impossibilities of this present time. Come and walk on the waters of impossibility. Come. Walk with me, for I am walking on them now at this present time. Walk with me, and do not doubt, lest you fear and sink. Walk.

RE: RHEMA - Walk on the Waters of Impossibility During the Raging Storms of Life

As I was praying, the Lord said,

"I will give my people greater miracles than the Red Sea and Jordan rolling back. I will turn the waters of defeat and uncertainty to the sweet waters of joy that will be better than the waters of Mara and the waters that Elisha cast salt into. I have given you faith-spoken grace. Faith has been spoken in law terms and has robbed my people of the abundance that I would give to them. I will cause them to walk on the waters of lack and loss to the miracles of much more than they ever had. Do not look at the things that rage around you. You are now walking in the midst of your miracle. I will turn off the words of the naysayers and speak to you in the flowing poetry of prosperity. Shout aloud the promise, and the walls of defeat will disappear before you."

We are heirs of the promises. The will cannot be broken in any court because it was finished in the highest court of the universe.

RE: RHEMA - The Faithfulness of God During the Time of Torment in the Desert of Loneliness

In Paul's desert, the grace of God was sufficient for him. He learned that when he was weak, God was that much stronger in his life. David, in Psalm 63, was in the wilderness of Judah. All the best authorities tell us that this is the desert of Judah. What a paradox to think there would ever be a desert in praise. God allows us to get into deserts just as he tried Abraham with the sacrifice of Isaac. He lets us see if we have a real worship relationship or just one of our lips. If we are worshipping with our whole heart and every part of our being, we will turn these into wells where there were the valleys of weeping as is recorded in Psalm 84:6. The fourth verse is the most telling verse of Psalm 84. This is where the people were STILL praising God. God will turn the valleys and deserts of true worshippers into highways of holiness that were once only deep valleys. Every foe will scream in our ears that there is not a cloud about. Yet God in his faithfulness will take the incense of our worship and turn it into the rains that will send rivers of deliverance in the desert. The ultimate paradigm of this conundrum is that in our pain we have deep rivers of peace, and in the torment that rises like flames around us, God has simply drawn a circle of power in the furnace, and he gets into the dance with us in victory.

August 28, 2008

I magnify you Jesus for bringing peace to my life. You are the Prince of Peace and are worthy of all praise. I thank you for being the stabilizer when all things seem out of control and the storms of life attempt to cause me to sink. You are my anchor and my certainty. I can rely on you, for you are faithful and marvelous. I acknowledge that the laws of nature are subject to your power, for you are in control. I behold the wonder working power of your grace. I am grateful for your grace that has been given. I appreciate your grace that was granted to me to believe in you and your miraculous hands of deliverance. You are the same yesterday, today, and forever. You displayed your deliverance in the past, and you continue to display it today. Thank you for not changing and for always showing forth your faithfulness in every aspect of my life. My heart is overwhelmed with joy because of your goodness and mercy. You woke me up another day and now today I put on your strength. Praise be to your name!!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Peace is the Hebrew word Shalom. Shalom is more than the absence of conflict. It has to do with "making whole" that which has been stolen by a thief. God in his peace will make the devil who has stolen from us repay it seven times! Shalom is the word that is used for restore in Joel where God has promised to restore all the years that have been eaten by spiritual pests that devour the harvest. In Nehemiah, we see that the shattered walls of life are rebuilt and finished in 52 days. Finished here in the Hebrew text is Shalom. God in his peace will rebuild and restore everything that the enemy has tried to destroy in our lives.

Success Is Determined by Your Position, Not by Your Conditions

Series 6.8.29 – Letter #242

I have made a way where there did not seem to be one. Walk in the light, and the way shall be plain unto you. Do not look to the left, neither to the right, but walk forward and walk on past those things that beckon your attention. I am the God of your life. Give me your attention and not the things of doubt and unbelief. If you really believe, then show forth your faith. I have made a way in this desert. The dryness of the trial is over. I have brought unto you fresh waters and a refreshing meal from the throne. The light is shining brighter than you have ever seen it. Do not be disillusioned by the conditions, for it is your position that determines how you see things. Turn from your conditions, and see that your position in me has made the difference. Do not gravitate any longer around the things that are perplexing, but worship with all that is in you, and you shall find that I am the stone that is immovable.

I have brought unto you a refreshing. I have not allowed the things of this life to take you under. I have brought unto you the grace to succeed. Success waits to take you on a journey, but you will not enter into its gate. The conductor of success beckons you and waits on your arrival at the gate. Do not draw back any longer, neither fear the things that could be, but walk in confidence to the gate of success and enter into its chambers. Do not merely peer within and gaze with the look of an unbeliever, but walk on into the chambers of success and sit down in the best seat. These things in these chambers have been reserved for you. Come. I have good things to give unto you, for you have truly sought my kingdom and my righteousness. Now behold the fulfillment of the promises of my word in your life. I am not a man that I should lie, but I am the Almighty God, the everlasting Father, and your reward. Behold the marvelous things that I do in your life now.

I will not gravitate any longer around the things that are perplexing, but I will worship with all that is in me, and I shall find that Jesus, the stone, is immovable.

The Lord has brought me unto refreshing. He has not allowed the things of this life to take me under. He has brought unto me the grace to succeed. Success waits to take me on a journey, but I have not entered into its gate. The conductor of success beckons me and waits on my arrival at the gate. I will not draw back any longer, neither will I fear the things that could be, but I walk in confidence to the gate of success and enter into its chambers. I will not merely peer within and gaze with the look of an unbeliever, but I walk on into the chambers of success, and sit down in the best seat. These things in these chambers have been reserved for me. The Lord has good things to give unto me, for I have truly sought his kingdom and his righteousness. Now I behold the fulfillment of the promises of his word in my life. Jesus is not a man that he should lie, but he is the Almighty God, the everlasting Father, and my reward. I behold the marvelous things that he is doing in my life now.

RE: RHEMA - Success Is Determined by Your Position, Not by Your Conditions

It seems that the word of the Lord is so on time with these Rhema words that you have sent. Even at the prison, the Lord spoke in the service and said,

"This is the time that I will bring the total of all my greatness to the fullness of times. This will be the year that you will personally see the things that you have prayed for, for a long time. It will not be a vision. It will be the reality that stands before you and that you hold in your hand. Success will be the possession of the church and not of the world. You will be laughing with great joy and not be the one being derided and laughed at behind your back. Many will not wag their tongues at you but will stand in awe of the mantle of greatness that I have placed upon you."

We may encounter a storm, a valley, or darkness, but we will step into the planes of power before the Almighty. The gates of hell shall not prevail against the attack of our worship and prayer. Waters of refreshing are washing away all the dust of defeat that may have tried to stain us. We will not be just window shoppers wishing for the inside treasures, but we will be worshipping among the wealth that is ours.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Go and remove lamenting and mourning from the midst of the people with the washing of water by the living word. Many are expressing themselves with tearful faces, and the voice of the plaintful souls contends for positions in the congregations. They seek to drain the true children of their joy and persuade them to follow their paths of moody worship. Go and lift up your voice as a watchman and tell them to break forth into joy and sing the new songs of the Spirit, which are given freely to those who are yielded unto the abundance of grace. Rejoice. Rejoice. Rejoice. My holy arm shall be seen by all nations, and the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of the true God.

RE: RHEMA

I was praying this evening and this came to me:

Darkness has been the cloud of dread and the printing paper that my people have received their messages on long enough. Take the pages of light that come from the words I have already spoken. Pens with the ink of love await those who will let me write across the tables of their minds. Grace will take the precepts of my power and dance with them across the paragraphs of promises. Satan has been able to get people to listen to the music and the words of death long enough for them to be blinded to the sunrise of the day of my power. I will swallow up death in the joy of the celebrated victory of the prophetic worship of my people. Satan will try to tell you that you will only speak and write nonsense, but he will become the one following the only path that makes no sense. My people are lifted above the power of death by the feast of life that I have already proclaimed. I will not give you the pauper's seat but the seat of the wealthy and confident. Those who have invested themselves in me will receive the true hundredfold blessings in this world now.

By Marco Mendoza

August 29, 2008

I thank you, Lord, for your Rhema word that is always on time! Knowing this encourages me, and it helps me to understand that what I have prayed for will be given to me at your appointed time. I trust you, and I believe that it will not be a vision, but it will be the reality that stands before me that I will hold in my hands. It is refreshing to know that in you success is of the church and not of the world. I am grateful because you caused me to laugh with great joy and not to be the one being derided and laughed at behind my back. I rejoice knowing that by your grace many will stand in awe at the mantle of greatness that you place upon me and all your people. Although I may encounter a storm, a valley, or darkness, I am comforted because you, the Almighty God, are with me! I praise you, and I am thankful that the gates of hell shall not prevail against the attack of my worship and prayer.

Thank you for the waters of refreshing that are washing away all the dust of defeat that may have tried to stain me. I am honored to serve you. I am filled with joy at the fact that I will not just be a window shopper wishing for the inside treasures, but I am worshipping among the wealth that is mine. I bless your holy name!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

When God spoke of the almond rod to Jeremiah, it was in connection with the fact that he would hasten to perform his word. God hastened the process of the almond rod budding and bringing forth almonds. God can hasten, slow down, halt, or remove any process in our lives. God eliminated the process of death for Enoch and Elijah. God eliminated the time process for Joshua. Whatever activity or process that is going on in our lives can be changed or caused to cease to give us blessings and God the glory. Every negative situation is just the container that our miracle is being shipped in.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

The Silencing of the Roar of Intimidating Voices

Series 6.8.30 – Letter #242

Make a joyful noise unto your King, for I have come unto the praises of the people and empowered my body with power from on high. You have received power, for my Spirit has moved mightily upon you. Do not be afraid of the uncertainties and the impossibilities, for the power within you is your God. I am greater than all of the outside forces that have come to intimidate and destroy your faith in me. I am faithful to those who call upon me, and I will deliver you in all of your troubles. I did not stop delivering you after the first time you fell, but I have continued to deliver you because you are my children. I have come in the spirit of love. I have given you the spirit of power, the spirit of love, and the spirit of a sound mind. Do not be frustrated because of the spirit of the age and the spirit of error, but be lifted up and encouraged in the faith of Jesus.

I have already overcome the world, and the prince of the world is already cast out. Do not be intimidated by the expressions that come from the mouths of wicked spirits in your hearing. These voices are not without signification, but they pass through the atmosphere of the holy as in a vacuum. These voices cannot stop here. They are as an echo and will pass through into the universe. They shall travel on beyond your hearing, and in the next moments the sound of praise shall silence the roar of the lions of intimidation. Behold the end of these things, for they shall be placed in a lake of fire and tormented forever and ever. These spirits are destined for my judgment. Do not be faithless but believing, for I am not a liar, but I am the truth. You are lifted up with me into a heavenly place. In Christ Jesus, you are far above all these things. Do not allow them to move you, but stand fast, being immovable in your faith and your commitment. I am the everlasting Father. When I created you a new creature in Christ, I restored you to the fellowship of Adam and Abraham. Moses talked with me face to face. Am I the same God who talked with him, or am I a different God?

I am the same in the present as I am in the past. I AM. I am the Almighty, which is, which was, and which is to come. Do not be drawn away by the winds of doctrines and the sleight of hand by crafty teachers and false leaders, but be content and confident in the faith and the revelation that has been delivered unto you. You are in the faith. From this day forth, remember to try the spirits to see if they be of God, for the spirit of error shall come. I have given you the spirit of truth, and by the spirit of truth you shall know all foreign spirits. Be lifted up, and know that I have brought unto you the encouragement of the Spirit.

Come unto me little lambs, for I have brought unto you the food for the morning. Eat and be full. Eat and be glad. Know that I am the God of Abraham who possessed Christ in his loins, and know that as you are Christ's, so are you Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise. You are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are no longer a stranger to the covenants of promise, but you have been brought nigh by the blood of Christ and now sit at the table of the children and eat of my bread, which is heavenly. Those of you who need healing, my bread is your healing, for I sent my word and healed you. To the cast down, my head was cast down that your heads could be lifted up. To the downtrodden, I was trampled underfoot by the bulls of Bashan so that you might tread upon lions and adders and know of the security that is in the resurrection. To the sorrowful, I was a man of sorrow and acquainted with grief. Your sorrows and your griefs I did bear. Do not bear the present sorrow any longer, and do not grieve because of the past and present pains, but come unto the faith of the cross that I did bear and have your sorrow turned to joy. I will turn your grief unto pleasantness. O cast down souls, why are you cast down in the presence of the lifter of the heads?

Look unto me, the author and the finisher of your faith, and see that my hand of the resurrection is reaching to lift you from the lowly places of this life. Come and hold the hand of the resurrection. Do not be faithless but believing. I will lift you from the places where you have fallen. Be lifted up by my Spirit.

RE: RHEMA - The Silencing of the Roar of Intimidating Voices

When God said in the beginning, "Let there be," all the forces of hell said it will never be. God said it and there was, so it will always be that way no matter who or what tries to contradict it. God has promised to give us mouths that none of our adversaries would be able to gainsay or resist. We will refuse to be intimidated by a voice that wants to be like a roaring lion but can only squeak in comparison to God's mighty voice. His voice is upon the many waters of the rain of the harvest. His voice thunders with the mandate of the rain of riches on his people. Who can still his mighty voice? All of creation is just parts of his ways. If the thunder is the faint whisper of his power, who can withstand the mighty thunder of his overwhelming power? God will make statements so loud that they will drown out the voices of intimidation. Praise has always pulverized the lips of the poor mouth devil. We are the sheep of the Lord's pasture and we will not hear the voice of a stranger. Satan's words of discomfort are the voice of a stranger and his surging seas of scorn will be annihilated by the Savior's sure statements. Error may try to shout through the megaphone of confusion, but it will be lost amidst the celebration that has already come. We will not be cast down or cut off, but the Alpha and Omega has already finished the work before us. We will walk in the finished work of Calvary in our lives. As the psalmist said, "All iniquity shall close her mouth."

I have not left you in a spiritual Babylon where people sit down and weep at the remembrance of the house of God and the good land of liberty. There is a spirit warring against my people that tempts them to hang their harps of praise upon the weeping willows planted in their midst. It is a spirit of bondage that has seduced many and brought them into captivity. This spirit will require of them the songs from the house of God that they may mock their relationship with their God. This spirit will carry away my people into a strange land of false joy and spiritual pretense. How will they sing the Lord's songs in a land of bondage where there is no real joy and the abundance of hypocrisy?

RE: RHEMA - The Shelter and Refuge of Grace from the Tongues of Bitterness and Corruption

For every ten tongues that rise against us, the Lord will have 10,000 angels singing the praise of the victory that he will perform in our lives against every lie of the enemy. Grace gives us the shoes of the good news of the gospel of peace to tread on the serpents and vipers that try to come near our feet. Notice that the poison of the snake is always in his mouth. But the perfect antidote is in the words of faith we speak that will cause none of these gainsayers to be able to resist. Grace is perceived by man to be timid, but grace is the main troop that will march forth as mighty cherubims of the arc of mercy into the field of battle where the Goliaths of the uncircumcised in heart and ear still bellow their lies and threats. We have heard the march of heaven's armies and the turning wheels of chariots of fire. As the tree that was cut down in the bitter waters of Mara turned sweet, so does grace neutralize all the bitterness that will come into our cup. He drank the vinegar on the sponge for us. Bitterness is the sponge that will soak up all our joy and inspiration. Grace has given us the cup of salvation to drink instead. We are safe on the mercy seat between the cherubims of grace and faith.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

August 30, 2008

I enter into your presence with thanksgiving and into your courts with praise. I am empowered by your Spirit to overcome all circumstances and situations. There is no power in the earth or in hell beneath that can adequately contend against your Rhema word. You have control over all the works of your hands. Lord, you created all things by your word; therefore, you have supremacy over everything. I praise you today because you are worthy. I honor you as God, and I express my thanksgiving unto you. As I praise you, the intimidating voices of my adversaries are being silenced. My enemy is confounded and defeated by my praise unto you, for in the mist of my praise is your right hand of power. I am so thankful that you have not allowed me to be destroyed, but you always deliver me out of all my troubles. No matter how many times I fail, you are always faithful and come to my rescue. I appreciate your loyalty and commitment to me; therefore, I will not be intimidated by the voices in the atmosphere because I know in whom I have believed. You are faithful, just, and true. The promises you have spoken will come to pass according to your will and in your perfect timing. I am encouraged by your Spirit. I am comforted as one of your little lambs and I rest peacefully knowing that you love me and will keep me in all of my ways. Now I express my faith in you with joy as I worship you.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God's word is like a fire and a hammer that breaks the rocks of rejection into pieces. We do not have to be the hammer. His word will break the rock of resistance from within. In Romans 9:19, the question is asked, "Who can resist his will?" 2 Chronicles 20:6 tells us that he ruleth over all the kingdoms of the heathen so that none is able to withstand him. We are dealing with an unstoppable power that will eventually work no matter the situation.

Lifted Above Condemning Voices by the Gravity of the Law of the Spirit of Life

Series 6.8.31 – Letter #243

I died for every sin and for every transgression of mankind. There is no need for a sacrifice for sins any longer, but the offering for sins has been made once and for all. Now all may come to me and be forgiven and cleansed of all their sins. I am the Savior of the world, not a man in name only, but I came as the Lamb of God and offered myself for the sins of the world. I condemned sin in my flesh. Now that sin is condemned, do not be condemned yourself, for I took away your sins. I nailed condemnation to the tree and spoiled principalities and powers by the act of obedience in the righteous act of the Lamb of God. Do not be frustrated by the trauma of torment. Its origin is in the roots of fear. I have said, "Fear not." Therefore, do not fear little one, for I care for you. I have made a provision for all the things that you do not understand. I have provided a sacrifice that took care of all of the things that pertain to life and godliness. Look away to the cross again, and see the crimson stream of blood. It flows forever for you. I am past, present, and future. There is no place where I am not. I am the omnipresent God, the Lord Jehovah, the Savior of the world. Is there a savior beside me?

I do not know any other savior. Be freed in your mind from all guilt, for I did not come to impute your iniquities and your transgressions, but I have reconciled you unto myself. Now are all your debts paid, and the withdrawal from my sufficient account is possible to all who believe. Believe on me as the scriptures have testified of me. There is; therefore, no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus. Do not walk after the flesh, but walk after the Spirit. The law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made you free from the law of sin and death. The law of sin and death shall not draw you into its clutches of bondage and ensnare you in its vicious storm, for the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus shall lift you into the heavenly dimension of faith and grace and cause you to abound much higher than all of the condemning voices of the atmosphere. The voices of condemnation are real and so are the voices of the mind, but look away to the voice of forgiveness and be healed in your mind and in your heart. I have provided a better sacrifice and a better resurrection. Receive of the fruit of my provision. Eat of the fruit of the Lamb's provision, and be freed from all guilt and condemnation. Whom I have made free is free indeed.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Lifted Above Condemning Voices by the Gravity of the Law of the Spirit of Life

Condemnation creates many force fields of trauma. The complex of fear, death, judgment, and condemnation have such a pull that people who are caught in the vortex of their influence are swept away into chambers of torture. Love is not the tormentor of our soul. We are promised peace and assurance in the face of adverse circumstances. If this is true, then fear and condemnation complexes are irrelevant and foreign to us. Their voices ring hollow because they have no truth in them. We will refuse to hear their loud voices that cry for our attention. Our response to God and our relationship with him is based on choice and not on fear. Fear and condemnation wrap their energy around the changing emotions. Love and true obedience are not emotions, but they are deliberate choices. The cross came to bury fear and condemnation. They failed through the weakness of flesh. Spiritual power that was released in the resurrection superseded all other powers. Every power that is not ordained of God will fail. As we are propelled into greater dimensions of power by God's Spirit, we will not be affected by the gravity of all that is of this system. He came to deliver us who were all our lifetime subject to the bondage of fear. If Calvary is where he spoiled this principality of fear, then we have received all the spoils of that victory. That means that we can live in a state with the absence of fear and condemnation. Restoration to that pristine state has always been God's purpose and intention. When God promised to bring all things together in Christ in the dispensation of the fullness of time, the Greek translation meant that he would resolve and remove every force of adversity that stood between us and complete reconciliation. Since fear has always separated man from God, (look at what fear caused Adam and Eve to do when God came in the cool of the day), the spirit of reconciliation will remove this force of separation. If Jesus has taken the guilt and penalty of our sin away, then he has also taken the condemnation and fear away from us.

RE: RHEMA: Arrested by Grace and Given a Restoration of a Desire for Much Prayer

Mention the word prayer and the carnal man wants to run away. Our spiritual man longs for and desires to breathe the atmosphere of prayer. Sometimes in his grace, God allows what seems to be very negative events to move us toward a time of prayer that reaches simply for relief, but then grace opens the door into the treasures of his power and his blessings that we have never experienced before. Our relationship with him in prayer empowers us with the grace that abounds to every good work and makes us zealous for every good work. Dungeons of darkness await those who eat at the tables of fleshly indulgence. Chambers of revelation and glorious vision open for those who will desire to see beyond the normal. Feasting tables of the miraculous are prepared for those who will allow grace to usher them into the presence that overwhelms every difficulty.

◆ I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. I do not change. What I did yesterday, I will do today, and greater works will I do today and forever. You have limited me in your life. Purpose to take the limits off of me in relationship to you. If you can believe, then all things are possible.

- 28. Do you believe on me as the scriptures have declared of me?
- 29. Do you know my voice?
- 30. If I told you to give all the money in your wallet today, would you give it, or would you begin to doubt that it was me speaking to you because of the sacrifice asked of you?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

August 31, 2008

I rejoice and give you thanks today because your word has allowed me to be forgiven and cleansed of all my sins. You took away my sins and nailed condemnation against the tree; therefore, I am comforted in knowing that you bore every deficiency of my life to the cross. By the example of your obedience, you made a provision for all the things that I do not understand. My mind is freed, and the spirit of life in you has brought peace to me and assurance in the face of all adverse things. I am grateful that you removed guilt and the force of separation from me. My response to you and my relationship with you is based on choice and not on fear. Fear is not love, and love is true obedience; therefore, I choose to serve you with reverence and godly fear. I give you praise as your word is being hastened to propel me into greater dimensions of power by your Spirit. I will walk and live in the Spirit so that fear and condemnation will remain absent from me. Your spiritual power that was released in the resurrection superseded all other powers. I believe and give you praise because you have reconciled yourself unto me. Now are all my debts paid in full. My head shall be lifted up above mine enemies round about me; therefore, I rejoice!

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

David said in the Psalms that God hath not dealt with us after our sins or rewarded us after our iniquities. God commended his love toward us while we were yet sinners. Condemnation is the roadblock to faith. Paul said that there was no condemnation to those who were in Christ. Fear and torment are cast from our lives as intruders by the One who is perfect love in our lives.

THE WAY WE LIVE: BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

*This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18*

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8*

CONFESSION OF FAITH

*The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10*

*Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12*
