Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

By Moses Hightower

Awaken O Bride of the Evening Time unto the Whisper of Your Lover

Series 6.9.29 – Letter #273

I am the Father of creation, the Lord, your God. Give glory unto the name which is above every name. It is a glorious name, for it is higher than all names. I am the one true God, the eternal Spirit. Jesus is my name.

There is no name above this name, for it is a hallowed name. It has been set apart in the heavens and in the earth. Do not be drawn away from the truth concerning this hallowed name of your Father. I am the Father of lights and the Father of Spirits. There is no other creator. I did not counsel with anyone. Who has been my counselor?

I am all wise and do not need to counsel with anyone. I am the Father of lights. Without me, there is no true light; therefore, do not forsake the true light, for it lightens everyone. My Spirit will not always strive with man, but in due time the judgment of the Father of lights shall remove the candlestick of life from all who do not know God and do not obey the gospel. Shake yourself and awaken unto godliness and holiness. I am the Father of Spirits, and I will not allow the spirit of the devil to reign with the Spirit of God. Choose this day whom you will follow. The Spirit of God or the spirit of the devil; the spirit of truth or the spirit of error; the spirit of holiness and godliness or the spirit of unholiness and ungodliness?

Choose this day whom you will serve. No man can serve two masters, for if you do, you will certainly hate one of them. Do not be beguiled by the spirit of error and accept the inspiration which leads to a double-mind, but awaken unto truth and light that your mind will be enlightened with the spirit of truth and freedom. I am the light of the world, and those who have my light will not be hidden in these last days. I do force you out of hiding and bring you to the hill of visibility that my light may shine and glorify me, your King.

Look up and see that redemption is drawing near. The signs of the times are all about you. Do not be slothful in this last hour of the church upon the earth, for I do come quickly for my bride.

Go and say,

"Awaken Zion from your slumber and put on strength, for the Lord Jehovah, your Jesus, does prepare for your catching away."

Go and say,
"Look up, O eyes of weariness and be refreshed with the washing of Jehovah's water, for he does pour out fresh waters upon his bride in her closet."

Go and say,
"O bride of the evening time, awaken unto the whisper of your lover, for he does prepare to knock on your heart and snatch you away with the swiftness of the resurrection's power. Awaken O bride of the evening hour, your lover, who is your God, does come for his purchased possession. Babylon shall fall, and its cry shall be heard from here to there and everywhere in the land. Awaken O bride of the evening hour, for the love of Jehovah does whisper in the ears of the hearers in the closet."

Go, for I have made you a messenger of the end time hour. Do not be afraid to speak, neither concern yourself with who will believe you and who will not, for I have appointed you to speak and say that:

"I do come with the swiftness of the eagle of light. I have already arisen with healing in my wings, and now the bride of the gospel's closet shall prepare herself for her morning of glory. I do send my messengers to prepare her adornment. Her spirit shall be meek and quiet, and her holiness shall radiate with the radiance of purity and not the similitude of harlotry [prostitution]. I shall make you shine in your appearances of modesty and sweetness of spirit, for I am the holiness within you, O bride of the evening hour. O bride of the evening hour, I do whisper in your ears and bring you to the threshold of pure trust and faith. Look and see the light through your window chambers in your heart. My messengers have peered through the chambers of your heart and prepared you for the messages of light that you might know of the secret passage of truth where you shall run with the swift legs of love and be caught away in the morning of the resurrection. Look unto me, O bride of the evening hour. It is evening time and there is light. Come unto me and know that my arms of love reach forth unto your chamber. Come and know that these arms shall embrace you forever. Come, O bride of the evening hour."

(And then I saw the wonder of eternity as my eyes were closed and my mind filled with wonder for what would happen next. Then my mind went back to the Lord's Prayer. Reflections of the words, "Thy kingdom come" came to my mind. I heard the Lord say,)

Do not look there. Do not look here. Do not look anywhere except within you, for my kingdom has already come and now dwells within your heart. The kingdom of God did not come by your observation, but it came with power and demonstration of my Spirit and has been placed within you. This kingdom has made you the recipient of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Awaken unto the kingdom, and know that this kingdom shall ever increase. It is the government of the hour, and of the increase of this government and peace there shall be no end.

I am causing my will to be done. Though it seems that many things are going wrong, everything is going right, for all things are working together for the good to all those who love me and all those who are called according to my purpose. I have made the wicked, and I have made the godly I have made the wicked for my own day of judgment. Choose this day, for I do show that the evil of the hour, neither the ungodly shall stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

Awaken and shine the light, for I do break the comprehension of the wicked and the ungodly, and they shall be in derision and total confusion. Awaken O light of the day, for I have brought my kingdom of pure light and placed it within you that you might shine. My will is being done in earth. It is being done in heaven. Allow it to be done in you. Here is bread. Know that it is the manna from the heavenly throne and from the baker of good bread that is not filled with the leaven of the religious. This bread was baked with my Spirit and imparted by my Spirit and now served to the hungry for righteousness. Open your mouth wide and I shall feed you the bread of the morning and the diet of victory. Open up your mouths and open up your hearts, for the bread of victory is placed in your mouths and in your hearts and in your minds. I do bring a renewing to your minds. The spirit of your mind shall show that you are sound and filled with power and love. Eat and be filled with my goodness, for I shall use you to manifest the truth of this gospel of deliverance.

(I began to speak in tongues and pray unto the Lord in the Holy Ghost. I felt myself being built up on his faith, which had become my holy faith. It dawned on me that I was living the life of God's word as a modern day believer. A surge of faith came, and I knew that all things were possible. Then I heard in my hearing these words,)

Lift up your head, and lift up your hands, not the hands of doubt and unbelief, but lift up holy hands without wrath and without doubting. Pray for forgiveness, and receive the forgiveness that you pray for. I am the Lord, the forgiver of all iniquity and all sin. Forgive all those who have trespassed against you while you sit and while you stand praying, and then will I also forgive you.

I have led you in a plain path that leads to the still waters of the morning. It is your place to drink. Here there is a pasture with nourishment that shall bring you new strength. I have not tempted you, for I do not tempt anyone. Relinquish all your lusts, and then will you continue to follow me, the Lord, your God. My hand is stretched forth for your lust. Give lust to me, and then shall you remain near the legs of the church as it walks through the earth in liberty and freedom.

The enticing things of the hour shall not keep you from the preparation of my bride, for I have given you faith, and now righteousness shall lead you in my steps. You will come to the hill of salvation, and from there shall you be caught away. I will deliver you from all evil for my own name's sake. All things are for my glory, for it is my power that has brought you to the chambers of departure. Lift up your eyes, for I do prepare to wipe your eyes and embrace you with eternal arms of eternal strength.

Thus have I spoken unto you, O Gentile child.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Awaken O Bride of the Evening Time unto the Whisper of Your Lover

If we sleep when his voice is at the window of our soul and looking on at our lattice, then we are in the sleep that will cause us to miss the rapture if we continue in that state. Our beloved is speaking the poetry of love in the ears of those who he has betrothed. Stairways of inspiration that lift the stars to the heights of the heavens are the zephyrs that are gentle breezes of honey that drip into our hearing from the voice of the Creator. Creations symphony has been playing as the angels sing the harmony of the greatest love songs of history. His great love for us has thundered in the giving of the law and gently led us in the arms of a shepherd. We must not sleep when there is so much to hear at his feet. The lullabies of the hour will cause us to listen to other voices. We have turned our ears to the love that caused darkness to blaze and silence to shout as it heard the words of mercy and forgiveness from the cross.

As the bride we should shake ourselves from the shackles of our neck and put on the garments of strength. We should shake ourselves from the dust of defeat. Victory is the cleansing water that washes our face in the light of the evening time. We are told that the thunder is the faint whisper of his power in the book of Job. His whispers are the headaches that rob hell of any sleep. Love's grandest whisper is the wonderful tones of his presence. His arms hold us close, and his hand is under our head. When we hear these words, we are deaf to anything else. In other words, his whisper drowns out all other overtures of the enemy. When we feel this kind of love, we are ready to quit keeping records on anything and anyone else. Love is the highest degree of tolerance. Love sets everyone else free to choose and still loves them. He loved us enough to die for us and allowed us to totally reject him. He still reaches out and embraces our rejection and rebellion with his redemption. Our love for him should be so overflowing that it does the same for everyone who would be our enemy. Loving our enemies is not a sideshow at a carnival. It is the center stage for mature lovers only. It is a light thing for us to love those who love us back. When another person spits in our face with false accusations, they spit in his face. When they pull the very fiber of our life apart, they pulled out his beard and scalp. When they lash out with bitter whips of lies and beat us behind our back with wounds that will not soon heal, they did it to him. If they would nail our very best effort to a cross and laugh at it, they did it to him. Then he loved them still! Our love has then been fashioned by the words and whispers made flesh!

EXCEPTIONAL EXPRESSIONS

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Some seek the kingdom but not my righteousness. The kingdom of God is liken unto a merchant man seeking goodly pearls who when he had found one pearl of great price went and sold all that he had. What kind of pearls did you come to the kingdom for?

Unless you came for me and my righteousness, then the kingdom shall become your enemy, and unrighteousness shall become your love. Many seekers have cast their treasures in the sand of time because they never set their affections on me and on things above. The sands of time are filled with used things from my kingdom because believers cast them to the ground because of frustration and misunderstanding. This is a reflection of their intent. They came to the kingdom for me to fix their lives instead of coming to the kingdom to be born again. This is the source of many distractions. What have you come to my kingdom for?

CONFESSION BITES

By LWWC CONFESSION WRITERS

Some seek the kingdom but not God's righteousness. The kingdom of God is liken unto a merchant man seeking goodly pearls who when he had found one pearl of great price went and sold all that he had. I came to the kingdom to search for the pearls in the will of God. Unless I come for him and his righteousness, then the kingdom shall become my enemy, and unrighteousness shall become my love. Many seekers have cast their treasures in the sand of time because they never set their affections on God and on things above. The sands of time are filled with used things from his kingdom because believers cast them to the ground because of frustration and misunderstanding. This is a reflection of their intent. They came to the kingdom for God to fix their lives instead of coming to the kingdom to be born again. This is the source of many distractions; therefore, I have come to the kingdom to do God's will.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Consuming Fire of God Saves from the Coldness of Lethargy

When we are consumed by the fire of God's Spirit, there is nothing left for the enemy to lay hold on. Being lukewarm and lethargic goes up in the smoke of the intensity of the worshippers who will never stop praising the Lord. Even when we are wrung out, worn out, and washed out, we are still worshippers. They that sleep, sleep in the night. Conditions in the world will lull us to sleep. We must be as Rizpah and build a fire daily to prevent the birds and beasts of prey from touching one piece of the things we consider to be important in eternity. We must wake from sleep, for now is our salvation closer than when we first believed. Coldness slows down our responses and reflexes in the natural and gives us a false sense of warmth even when we are freezing. God's consuming fire needs to burn daily on the fires of our hearts. Love that waxes cold is in a process that happens over time. We must never allow ourselves to be heated and cooled off over and over again, or all our inspiration will be evaporated.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ You have allowed your misunderstanding of righteousness to frustrate your faith. Abraham was a man just like you are. Moses was a man just like you are. Elias was a man subject to like passions as you are, yet he prayed that it might not rain, and it did not rain for the space of over three years. He prayed again, and it rained so that the earth brought forth fruit. All of their righteousness was like a filthy rag.

109. Why did I hear them?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

I give glory unto your name, which is above every name. You are the Father of creation, the one true God. Jesus is your name. Beside you there is no other. All things were created by you. I know your Spirit will not always strive with man, and your light will be removed from those who do not obey; therefore, I cherish the godliness and holiness that has come from you, the Father of lights. I have chosen to serve you, for no man can serve two masters. I refuse to allow hatred to be my inspiration, but I look up to see my redemption drawing nigh, and I rejoice in the light that brings glory unto you, my King. I wake up from my slumber and put on strength. You have opened my eyes unto freshness and knocked upon my heart to take me away as your bride. When Babylon shall fall and cry out, the amazing grace of your love whispers in my ears in the evening hour. O how precious is your voice in this hour. You have given me authority to speak of your coming without the fear or concern of those who will not believe. I am grateful to be adorned with holiness. I am drawn by your voice of trust and faith. I lay my head in your bosom and I am embraced in your arms of love.

I will no longer look to the left or to the right when the kingdom of God is within me. Your kindness has made me a recipient of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. It is refreshing to know that when it seems like all things are going wrong, you are working all things together for my good and that I am called according to your purpose. The light of your love reveals the broken bones of the wicked and ungodly bringing them into derision and confusion. Your will is being done in earth and in heaven, and I give you high praise for the manna from heaven that feeds the hungry and the righteous.

I know I am called to be in your bride. Just as the wedding couple feeds one another cake, you have placed the bread of victory in my mouth and renewed my heart, my mind, and filled me with goodness and deliverance. I lift up my head and my hands, and I do praise you, the lover of my soul. Without wrath or doubt, I will pray for forgiveness and receive forgiveness. Thank you for leading me beside a plain path and giving me new strength. As I release my lust, you are giving me the legs to leap in my liberty and freedom. I celebrate my deliverance that you have given for your name's sake. All glory and power is yours, for you have placed the garments of strength upon me. The words of life are whispered in my ears, and they reach out and embrace my rejection. All those things that have been done to me by the enemy have also been done unto you because you loved me enough to die for me. For this do I give you praise.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Creation is the veil that is between the natural world and the spiritual world. If this veil (the universe) is 17 billion light years across, then how large is the spiritual world? If Jesus Christ fills all of that and more, and he is in us, then the blessings and abundance that he bestows on us are imperceptible. Mercy takes the broad brush of forgiveness and paints a masterpiece where sin had left a scribble on parchment. In Psalm 46, David tells us that even if the mountains shake and are carried into the sea that God is with us and will help us and that right early. Mountains were representative of kingdoms in the prophet's books. It does not matter which kingdom rises out of the sea or is cast into it, there is a rock that will become the mountain that will fill the whole earth with his kingdom, and we will reign with him!

Up the King's Highway to the Celebration Center of Heaven

Series 6.9.30 – Letter #274

Make a joyful noise unto me, and then will you find the avenues of joy unspeakable that are full of my glory. Make a joyful noise unto me, and then will you know the strength of the unicorn and the leaping ability of the ram.

Make a joyful noise unto me, and then will you skip and leap with the joy of those who drink wine. Make a joyful noise unto me, and then will you experience the strength of my arms. I have joy that is unspeakable. This joy that I have cannot be expressed with words, but I will cause it to be expressed and demonstrated by you. Even in the womb of my body shall this joy bring forth strength to give birth to new ones. Do not hold back the expression of joy, which is at the door of expression. Lay aside your temptations to grieve, and come with me to the avenues of joy. Look beyond these temporal things, and see the end of the avenues of this life. Beyond the clouds of the Spirit there is the preparation for a wedding and a marriage supper. Give me your mind, and I will channel the vision of my mind through your mind, then will you see what is happening at the end of the avenue of life.

You are not walking down the corridors of death. You are walking up the King's highway. This highway does not lead to the doors of death, nor does it lead to the pits of sorrow. This highway leads to the celebration center of heaven where my bride and I celebrate. Come from your third dimension, and enter into the fourth dimension. Look beyond these things which have attempted to move you, and see the things that are already happening in the future. Look and see the angels that rejoice even now as sinners repent. Behold the angels that rejoice at the arrival of the Lamb's wife. Behold the order of the ceremony, and be assured that you were called to be in the number. Cancel all your reservations for all the voyages to the deep sea of destruction. Do not let sin and the influences of sin be given to you. If you receive the offers of the wicked one and his angels, then will you miss the journey beyond this life. There is no voyage with those who perish that is worth anything. What does it profit to gain the whole world and then perish with the ungodly?

Sin's interest is greater than any credit card charge. The interest of grace has been paid by my life. Now look unto the glorious things of my kingdom, and you will find that godliness with contentment is a greater gain than all the things of the pleasures of sin. The seasonal offers of sin only bring the reward of death. Death's payment is sure and final, for when you have picked up the salary of death, judgment shall present you with the trophy of a fool. Choose this day whom you will serve, for I have come and stood behind death. You see his shadow, but there are no shadows without a light. Look beyond the shadow of death. Look beyond death. Look unto me, the light of the world, and you will find me with a rod and staff for your comfort.

Open wide the gates of praise. The valley of despair is only a dip in the road. Come unto me, and I will lift you over this thing, for I have hands that can carry the weight of the entire world. Make a joyful noise unto your Lord. Express your joy with the clapping of your hands. Express your joy with the leaping of your legs. Express your joy with running legs. Express your joy in the dance. Express your joy from the depth of your being. I wait on the expressions of faith, for I desire to bring my fire to consume the joyful praises of my body. Bring me your praises, and I will send you a fire. Bring me your thanksgiving, and I will consume all the enemies round about you. Bring me the sacrifices of praise, and I will come and attend to the expression of your praise with my fire. Send up praises, and I shall make a fire in your bones. Send up praises, and I will show you a fire unfolding itself. Send up praises, and you shall see the wheel in the middle of a wheel. Send up praises, and you shall behold the bones of your city become a marching army of saints in the army of the Lord. Come and bring the sacrifice of praise.

Words of Light upon the Face of Death, Despair, Destruction, Grief, Perdition, Sorrow, Sin, the Wicked One, and Ungodliness

Series 6.9.30 – Confession #274

I have made a joyful noise unto the Lord; therefore, I have found the avenues of joy unspeakable that are full of his glory. I have made a joyful noise unto him; therefore, I know of the strength of the unicorn and the leaping ability of the ram. I have made a joyful noise unto God; therefore, I am skipping and leaping with the joy of those who drink wine. I have made a joyful noise unto Jesus; therefore, I am experiencing the strength of his arms. God has joy that is unspeakable. This joy that he has cannot be expressed with words, but the Lord has caused it to be expressed and demonstrated by me. Even in the womb of his body has this joy brought forth strength to give birth to new ones. I have not held back the expression of joy, which is at the door of expression. I have laid aside my temptations to grieve and have come with Jesus to the avenues of joy. I have looked beyond the temporal things and seen the end of the avenues of this life. Beyond the clouds of the Spirit there is the preparation for a wedding and a marriage supper. I have given God my mind, and he has channeled the vision of his mind through my mind; therefore, I can now see what is happening at the end of the avenue of life.

I have not walked down the corridors of death, but I am walking up the King's highway. This highway does not lead to the doors of death, nor does it lead to the pits of sorrow. This highway leads to the celebration center of heaven where Jesus and his bride celebrate. I have left the third dimension and have entered into the fourth dimension. I have looked beyond the things which have attempted to move me, and beheld the things that are already happening in the future. I have looked and beheld the angels that rejoice even now as sinners repent. I have beheld the angels that rejoiced at the arrival of the Lamb's wife. I have beheld the order of the ceremony and been assured that I was called to be in the number. I have canceled all my reservations for all the voyages to the deep sea of destruction. I have settled it in my heart not to let sin and the influences of sin to be given to me. By grace, I will not receive the offers of the wicked one and his angels; therefore, I will not miss the journey beyond this life. There is no voyage with those who perish that is worth anything. It will not profit me anything if I gain the whole world and then perish with the ungodly.

Sin's interest is greater than any credit card charge. The interest of grace has been paid by Jesus' life. I have continually looked unto the glorious things of his kingdom, and I have found that godliness with contentment is a greater gain than all the things of the pleasures of sin. The seasonal offers of sin only bring the reward of death. Death's payment is sure and final. By grace, I will not pick up the salary of death; therefore, judgment will not present me with the trophy of a fool. I have chosen whom I will serve, for God has come and stood behind death. I saw his shadow, for there are no shadows without a light. I have looked beyond the shadow of death. I have looked beyond death and I have looked unto Jesus, the light of the world. I have found him with a rod and staff for my comfort.

I have opened wide the gates of praise. The valley of despair is only a dip in the road. I have come unto God, and he has lifted me over this thing, for he has hands that can carry the weight of the entire world. I have made a joyful noise unto my Lord and I have expressed my joy with the clapping of my hands. I have expressed my joy with the leaping of my legs and with the running legs. I have expressed my joy in the dance and from the depth of my being. God has waited on the expressions of faith, for he has desired to bring his fire to consume the joyful praises of his body. I have brought him my praises, and he has sent me a fire. I have brought him my thanksgiving, and he has consumed all the enemies round about me. I have brought God the sacrifices of praise, and he has come and attended to the expression of my praise with his fire. I have sent up praises, and he has made a fire in my bones. I have sent up praises, and he has shown me a fire unfolding itself. I have sent up praises, and I have seen the wheel in the middle of a wheel. I have sent up praises, and I have beheld the bones of my city becoming a marching army of saints in the army of the Lord. I have come and brought the sacrifice of praise.

RE: RHEMA - Up the King's Highway to the Celebration Center of Heaven

Joyous praise will build the avenues and streets of access into the superhighways of his presence. Roads of fear will always get washed out. The road beds of praise will always be built on the Rock. Gates of praise are the entrance to his city. Celebration is going on in his presence 24 hours of the day. We spend only a few minutes in his presence, and we are so out of breath that we nearly pass out. Miles and miles of revelation are the pavement that we are destined and designed to run on. The forerunner has already run and won the race for us. If we will put on the shoes of the gospel and declare his greatness over every hill and valley that we pass through, we will be part of the continuous celebration. In one sense, we have arrived at the arena of great and joyous festivals of victory, but when we do finally get to that city, we will not be able to contain the eternal praise that will explode in our beings. Praise will become the fiery chariots and whirlwinds that will catch us up to the Lord.

Unless you seek me, the living God, then you will not find treasures for the sands of time. Unless you seek me, then you will litter the sands with unwanted things that I gave you. Come from the hot, dusty sands of things, and begin storing your treasures in heaven. Today has brought you a moment of eternity where light is from the Lamb. His light is a spiritual rainbow flashing after the rain of my Spirit upon you. Look to the magnificent rainbow of love and promise, and behold the light of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, righteousness, and the fear of the Lord. By faith, be baptized again with the light of love, and you will be clothed with humility and truth.

RE: RHEMA - Cast Out the Offspring of the Works of Your Flesh, and You Will Not Be Bound by Their Contempt

All that is born of the flesh will always pull us toward the center of itself. Deification of self is Satan's toll of destruction in our lives. It will always contend with and persecute that which is born of the flesh to the point of destroying its inspiration in our lives. Without the revelation and inspiration of the Spirit in our lives, we are just a vapor swept along with the other clouds. Our lives must become a rain of righteousness to make a difference in a flesh cast system. Our confidence is in the supernatural power that is the Creator of heaven and earth. We will not lean on the fleshly understanding. Spiritual understanding evicts the works of the flesh and all things that are born of it. His greatness and majesty are trumpeted by our exalting his name. His name shows forth his identity. His word stands on the immutable power to fulfill his word by the authority of his name. Dunamos--supernatural power, exosia---authority, and kratos----manifest power and dominion all flow together into a mosaic foundation on which our faith stands and will not be shaken. He will see to it that we will not be disappointed as we trust in him and his redemptive royalty. We have not drunken from the vessels of fear but of faith and love. Our feast is in the name of the Lord.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Jorge Sanchez

Lord, I thank you for allowing my praise to build the avenues and streets of total access into the superhighways of your presence. It is gratifying to know that your grace washes away my roads of fear. The road beds of praise will always be built on you my Rock. The gates of praise are the entrance into your city. I desire to be part of the celebration that is going on in your presence 24 hours of the day. Therefore, I enter your gates with thanksgiving on my lips and I come into your courts with praise.

I thank you for not leaving me ignorant of the path you have placed me on. You have designed the miles and miles of road that I am destined to run on, and I worship you. You are the forerunner, and you have already run and won the race for me. I love you, and I appreciate the privilege to serve you. I gladly put on the shoes of the gospel and declare your greatness over every hill and valley that I pass through. I appreciate being a part of the continuous celebration in you. I know that when I arrive at the arena of great and joyous festivals of victory, I will not be able to contain the eternal praise that is already exploding in my being. My praise unto you will become the fiery chariots and whirlwinds that will catch me up to be with you. I give you thanks, and I do not plan to stop the flow of great celebration that you have placed within me. Thank you for renewed strength and purpose to serve you and to continually worship you as my King.

PRAYER INSIGHT

Heaven is in a continual mode of praise and celebration. David explained that he would bless the Lord at all times, and his praise would be continually in his mouth. Neither the enemy or our circumstances will ever stop the mouth of those who are set on fire with the joy of his greatness. We are incurable worshippers. We will never get over it! While others are grumbling, we will be gushing with God's gracious wonders!

The Passion of Redemption

Series 6.10.1 – Letter #275

Open up your eyes and see the coming of the Messiah in the distance. Don't you see the coming of the Lord at your door?

Come from your chambers of darkness, and stand in the light that I am, and then shall you see that the end is near, even knocking on your heart this moment. When THE END has drawn its curtain and the lights of THE END have been turned off, then shall the world know that THE BEGINNING AND THE ENDING has come and departed before they were aware of his presence. Do not be as the world who will know my coming as a thief in the night, but know me as a bride who is watching and waiting. Arise up from your bed of slumbering and enter into the preparation chambers of departure. I am positioned to come and dash away with you in my arms of divinity. Do not lean to your own understanding. The understanding housed in clay vessels cannot comprehend the vastness of my wisdom and design. I am the author of eternal redemption. I did not design you to understand the totality of the redemption and the romance of my Spirit. The passion of redemption is not understood by human reasoning. The shedding of holy blood for the unholy is not understood by the philosophical adherents of the age, but by the spiritual understanding given you by revelation are these things understood.

[I thanked the Lord and praised him for a short while, and then I heard these words,]

Do not be cast down in your soul, but be lifted up in your soul. Your spirit is reborn, and you are reconciled unto divinity. I am the deity of your life. I am the Lord, your Jehovah. I am Jehovah, the Lord, your God. My name is Jesus, the Lord of lords, the everlasting Father. I have not come to you with salvation and left you frustrated. An enemy has stalked you and attempted to sow the tare of confusion in your heart. I have come and plucked up the tare of confusion and cast it into outer darkness. Be comforted and know that my grace is sufficient for you. My grace has come in abundance and abounded toward you. As Adam disobeyed and allowed sin to come into the world and death by sin, so have I come as the second man Adam and obeyed, thus allowing righteousness back into the world and life by the righteousness of me, your Jehovah-Tsidkenu.

Be full of faith and refuse to fellowship condemnation, for you are under the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus. The law of the spirit of life in me has made you free. Whom I make free is free indeed. Lift up your voice in confidence and sound the trumpet of peace among the people. I have not come to condemn them, neither to judge them, but I have come with the voice of reconciliation; therefore, go and say, "Be reconciled unto God." I am their light in this time of condemnation that has come to thwart the message of faith that has been preached.

Go and proclaim the liberty that is in me, for during the storms created by condemnation's winds, I am the anchor that shall secure them in peace and quietness. Blessed quietness and blessed hope have come and shall not depart. Shiloh has come and not departed, but Shiloh made his abode in the earthen vessels of man and set up his own stronghold. Turn to the stronghold, for the stronghold has made a way out of the pit of condemnation wherein was no water. By the blood of the covenant have I made a way out of the pit of condemnation for you. Look up to the throne and see that I am here with victory in my hands. The mantle of victory has been passed on to you. Now rejoice for I have made you free. Whom I have made free is free indeed. Rejoice and be glad, for this is the day that I have made. Rejoice in my day that I did give unto you.

Redemption's passion is so intense that it will destroy the very gates of hell that come against us.

I spoke to David and let everyone know that my love is so intense that I will go to the depths of hell where men make their beds. No attacker can rip you from my arms and not feel the counter-attack of my love. Many believe that my love is just soft and tender, but I tell you that I will cause even the coldest heart to feel the warmth of my reaching hand. If I can cause the frozen, icy stare of hatred to melt with my love, then I can turn the most rejecting attitude into acceptance. Nothing is hid from the heat of my searching and the voice of my pleading. The fires of my love will turn hell's hostages into heaven's hosts!

Though many things seem to remain the same, all things are passing away. Time is passing away. It is not just another day. Time is passing away. Time shall rush on through a portion of eternity until it has exhausted the fuel of time, then time shall be no more. Where will you spend eternity?

Why will you spend eternity in the place you are destined to go?

What will determine where you will spend eternity?

Are the sufferings of this present time worthy to divert you from heaven?
Why have you halted to tabernacle your hurts and your fears when the wind of wrath shall blow your sand tabernacle away?

RE: RHEMA - The Language of Love Is Without Hypocrisy, and Counterfeit Love Is Revealed by Double Standards

We cannot speak love and harbor hate. Our love is not a song that we carry in worship and then burn in the fires of anger. Our adversaries and opposition will stand and test our resolve to allow the Lord to fight our battles. Love will stand the test of time and experience. We cannot wear the garments of sacrifice and dress later in the cloak of condemners. Love will cover the multitude of faults and failures and not turn around and expose the failings of others. Love speaks a language of reconciliation and never that of condemnation. God never said to humanity, "O ye my sinners, but O ye my children." Hypocrites may eat the gossip of the crowd, but it will turn to gravel in their mouth. We were not created to be instruments of destruction but instruments of mercy. God looked at all the sacrificing of the Pharisees and then saw their hypocrisy in cutting down others. Jesus' answer to all this was, "Go and learn what this meaneth. I would have mercy and not sacrifice." It is easy to live some personal standard or the standard of the church in the area of the weekly services. It is another thing to refuse what you seem to have every right to do to get even with others.

◆ I have subdued doubt and arrested fear. Fear has been cast out and sent back to the pit from whence it came. The love, which is shed abroad in your heart, has been revived in you, and now the power of faith leaps with the legs of a unicorn. Faith will not submit to the binding power of unbelief. It is destined to overcome the giant walls erected by skepticism. Do not allow the failure of the past to come into the present or the future through the channels of your mind. Cast down the imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself above my knowledge. I do not know any defeat. I do not know any limitations. All things are possible if you believe.

112. *Is anything too hard for me?

◆ Rise up and take your place as more than a conqueror. I have conquered the territories before you and the spirits that once ruled in these territories have been banned. I have given you the land. Now go in and possess it. All souls are mine. Do not allow man to dictate which souls you are to win. If you subject yourself to the lordship of man, you will miss the will of God for your life. I have shown you the selfishness and the spirit of error that controls many men. I have given you the spirit of truth. Now do not be subjected to the spirit of error, which is the spirit of antichrist.

October 1, 2008

I thank you, Lord, for the riches of your grace, the forgiveness of my sins, and the redemption through your blood that is so intense that it will destroy the very gates of hell that come against me. I am so thankful for your love that is hotter than the flames of hell itself, and the very gates of hell will not prevail against your church. You are so gracious and your understanding is unsearchable that even if I make my bed in hell you are there to pluck me out.

It is comforting to know that you are for me and that no attacker can try and rip me from your arms and not feel the counter-attack of your love defending me. My soul rejoices knowing that your love is soft and tender, yet it extends and causes even the coldest heart to feel the warmth of your reaching hand. It is an honor to serve you, the one true living God, and there is nothing hid from the heat of your searching and the voice of your pleading. I praise you, Lord, and I am encouraged by the fire of your love, which will turn hell's hostages into heaven's hosts! I marvel and worship you for this understanding.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our love for God and his love for us is hotter than the fires of lust in this world. Our souls have been set on fire by the fire of God who is a consuming fire. Love can consume everything and still be burning. We are like the burning bush of Moses. God is speaking to us on the edge of the wilderness of the world and the Promised Land. We will burn with his love and mighty voice until the feet of our lives run on the roads of redemption. We are blessed beyond explanation by a love that loves the sinner more than it hates sin.

This light that I am will never go out. I am the eternal Light, the eternal Spirit, the eternal God. My light is not a creation of man, but I am light. Go and learn of the light, and you shall see dimensions in me that you have not known. Look unto your light, and know that the darkness has no place with you. I made no provision for the darkness in my spectrum. I am all that you need; therefore, lean on me in this time of stress from the trial. You will not be stretched beyond your measure and capability, for I have considered all things in testing you.

I am the good shepherd, and I have considered you in all things. I am love. Go and learn more of my nature. I am truly a friend who sticks closer than a brother. Never leave this love that I am, for there is no coldness in the love of God. The fiery fervent love of God burns continually. It will consume all the foreign things to the light. You will not be consumed, for I have chosen you unto honor and not unto shame. Do not let your affections for me wane in these last days, but come and fall upon me and be broken, then shall the debris of carnality and selfishness be emptied out upon the altar of love.

I am the light of the world. I have sent forth a refreshing in the belly of the church. There comes a wind of refreshing in the midst of the church. Even those whose spiritual bones were bleaching in the sun shall arise and come forth with the newness and refreshing of my rest. In the midst of the storms of life, there comes the brightness of my light of glory. I shall shine in the midst of my church as the one seen by John. I am truly clothed now with a garment down to the feet, girt about my paps with a golden girdle, my hair is white like wool, and my eyes are like a flaming fire. Lift up your eyes from the storm, and look upon the one in the midst of golden candlesticks.

I am Lord of lords and King of kings. I have brought unto you a refreshing. Now shall the light of eternity shine bright in the face of the storm, and it shall be calmed. Look unto me, and be saved. There is no salvation in the world's system. I am the Savior of the world. My life was not wasted. It was poured out for you and now know the peace that passes all understanding. I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man can approach unto the eternal light that I am without coming through faith in me, the door of life. Do not lean to your own understanding in this trial, but lean on my faithfulness, and know that I have promised, and I will perform. I will not fail because of your failures, but I will come forth and answer because I promised.

The night is coming. Day is here now. Prepare to make your exit from this life with the day, and do not be here on this earth during the night that comes. There comes the storm of the end times when my wrath shall be poured out upon the earth. Walk in the light of the faithfulness of the Lamb of God who took that wrath for you on Calvary. Walk in the light as I am in the light, and my blood shall continually cleanse you from all sin.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Invigorating Light of God's Love

Nights are filled with restlessness and fear. God instructed us in the Psalms that the light and the darkness are alike to him. How can this be?

He has and will command the light to shine out of darkness. If darkness is his pavilion, then the pavilion of rest is in the light that abides to refresh our understanding in the face of the resistance of the hour. Light has always produced life, and life that is abundant is resting on him. His light is the light of life and joy, and we have not been held up to the phantoms of fear. The love of many may wax cold, but his love becomes greater everyday. God never regresses but always progresses. Storms and troubles may sweep around us, but we will not fear. Even if the mountains are cast into the sea, we will not fear. We will rest in the confidence that he will not only help us but bring us into the secret places of power by the love that will be revealed in every trial and temptation. His light will always make our steps to be vigorous and leaping. Joy is the brand of heavenly candles that light our path, and the spotlights of excitement will illuminate our today and tomorrow.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Come and tabernacle a tabernacle worth building. My waters will only remain in the cisterns that I build. Unless I build the house, then you have labored in vain. Do not labor any longer for perishing meat, but labor for the meat that will never perish. I am emptying out my Spirit upon the hungry and the thirsty. Why is it that some of you are not hungry and thirsty?

Unless you cease eating and drinking from the reservoirs of the world, then you will only have an appetite for devilish and sensual things. Allow me to spoil your appetites for carnal things, and then will your appetite for true spiritual food be revived. Open your mouths wide, and I will fill your souls with living waters that shall wash away these appetites that have spoiled your desires for the things of the Spirit. Then shall the sunlight of righteousness arise upon your faces, and a new day shall begin in your lives. The darkness shall dawn upon the faces of others, but they that know me and love me shall experience the sunrise of true spirituality. Be attentive now, for I desire to minister to those with open hearts.

I purpose to come and tabernacle a tabernacle worth building. God's waters will only remain in the cisterns that he builds. Unless he builds the house, then I have labored in vain. I do not labor any longer for perishing meat, but I labor for the meat that will never perish. God is emptying out his Spirit upon the hungry and the thirsty. Some of us are not hungry and thirsty because we have eaten of the world's delicacies. I have ceased eating and drinking from the reservoirs of the world; therefore, I do not have an appetite for devilish and sensual things. I have allowed God to spoil my appetite for carnal things, and now my appetite for true spiritual food has been revived. I have opened my mouth wide, and he has filled my soul with living waters that shall wash away these appetites that have spoiled my desires for the things of the Spirit. ◆ You are accepted in me, the beloved. In me, you have obtained an inheritance and were predestinated according to my purpose. I work all things after the counsel of my own will, and no one can hold any counsel against me; therefore, do not worry. I foreknew you and predestinated you to be conformed to my image. I was the firstborn of many brethren. Whom I predestinated, them I also called, and whom I called, them I also justified. Whom I justified, I also glorified.

◆ I have opened your understanding to know and believe this. In your time of trouble, I have you hid in my pavilion. You are hid in the secret of my tabernacle. I have set you upon a rock with your head lifted up above your enemies. Now offer the sacrifices of joy and sing praises unto your God. I delivered my Son up for you and did not spare him. In that I delivered him up for you, I will also give you all things. Do not worry about those who lay things to your charge. I am the one who justifies.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Debbie McBee

I give you praise, and I reverence you today as the eternal Light and the eternal Spirit, who is my God. You command the light to shine out of darkness. I thank you for refreshing my understanding in the face of the resistance of the hour. I am so grateful for your light that is producing life in me. I rest in your love and the pavilion of your provision. Because your love is perfect, the phantoms of fear have no place in my life. In this hour when the love of many is waxing cold, your love becomes greater and more evident to me everyday. You are the good shepherd, and I rejoice that you have considered me in all things. Although storms and troubles come, you are there and I will not be afraid.

For you are with me. I am comforted, and I know that you are leading and guiding me in the way that I should take. My confidence is in you, for you are my help and my salvation. You are the progressive King of glory, and there is no regression or shadow of turning in you. I am thankful that you do not change and that I can always depend on you. You have brought me great joy, and now I see by the heavenly candles of love that you have created to light my path. I worship you for the grace to remain steadfast, immovable, and abounding in your work. I am excited to serve you in these closing hours of the church, and I offer you praise as my great, glorious God.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

God's glory always outshines the darkness and its shadows. David said that even if the darkness covered him, the darkness would be light all about him. Most of the observable universe is made of dark matter. Dark matter glows in the right light. Many physicists say that the darkness is only light that we cannot see. We see the proof in that God called the light out of darkness. All the dark matter is one hundred percent efficient in its conversion of matter into energy. Satan likes to tell us that matters (a play on words) are too bad. Watch as God turns our matters into miracles! We are promised the treasures of the darkness. Hidden treasures await those who are not afraid to fly on the wings of the mercy of the morning. God will fulfill all our petitions in the light of the land of revelation that is beyond the darkness.

I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man can come unto me except by my body. I am unapproachable except by the blood that I shed on Calvary. That blood that I shed is a way of access into my presence. In my presence, there is fullness of joy, and on my right hand there are pleasures forevermore. Rejoice in this time of trial, and allow the gold of this trial to be yours. I have refined the gold of experience and suffering that you might be rich in faith and in love. Rejoice in this time of trial and denial, for I have chosen this time as a time of preparation for greater things to come. You have purchased gold tried in the fire, and now the evidence of your faith shall manifest itself in the presence of all, for I have refined your life and made a life of honor and not of shame.

Rejoice and be glad, for I have already overcome the world. In this world, you will surely have persecutions, but rejoice for I have given you the victory that overcomes. Rejoice and be at peace, for I have given you a peace that passes all understanding. There is night all about you, but there is day inside of you. The day inside of you is fostered by the star that resides inside you. I am the light within you, and now there is day in your life. The night approaches the land with its gross dark effect of terror and torment. Worship the King of your life, and chase away the dark shadows that hover over your head.

I have expressed my love by my sufferings and my death. I have demonstrated my glory by my resurrection. Rejoice in this day of continual resurrection demonstration, for this power cannot be diminished. Of the increase of my government and peace, there is no end. Look up unto the expression of the resurrection, and know of the ascending power of my government in the earth. My kingdom is growing exceedingly great in magnitude and in number. It shall surely fill the whole earth, but first shall the earth be filled with violence, and then shall I destroy the earth and the heaven with a great noise and a fervent heat. Afterwards, I shall create a new heaven and a new earth.

Look unto the palms of my hands, and see that this pasture that you dwell in is safe. I have cast out the wolves of the field and the serpents of the grass, for I have paid for that which they had rights unto by taking your sins upon myself. Now neither viper, nor beast has the right of entrance because you are redeemed by precious blood and plenteous redemption. Rejoice, for I do make

RE: RHEMA - Spiritual Gold in the Palm of God's Hand

The trial of our faith is more precious than gold. We have been instructed to purchase gold that is tried in the fire. God said that he would refine us from all impurity. He will most certainly do that until he sees his reflection in the mirror of our relationship with him. We may not be willing participants in these exercises, but they are to make us rich in the riches of God. Years ago, I was in a great distress financially. I prayed and fasted for over a year and nothing changed. The Lord finally came to me and asked this question, "What do you want? Do you want gold that you can hold in your hand, or do you want me that is better than gold?" It did not take me long to answer. When I began to seek him and love him more than anything, he gave me twice as much monetary help as I had asked for. In the word, we are instructed to seek him and his righteousness, and all these other things will be added to us. I believe that the gold that paves his chariot in the Song of Solomon is the experience of the saints that have allowed their lives to be refined by the fires of his instruction and love. His kingdom that has been created in us in these dimensions will be beyond the reach of false teachers and the beast of prey that would assault our lives. It is time for us to rejoice that our beloved is returning for us. He has paid the price to take our sins away, and the same price crowns him with the power to take us away unto himself as a people for his name.

RE: RHEMA - The Redemption of Man Is Finished; Now Who Will Prevent a Finished Work from Coming To Pass?

It is God that has justified us. Who can condemn us? Before the foundation of the world the Lamb was slain. Blood was provided on the altars of eternity before there was a man. God will always love us and provide in his redemption the faithful generosity. Death and darkness will have to sit in the darkened seats of time because they have no authority to be on the same stage as redemption. Redemptive love is like the eternal tide of the infinite sea of grace that has covered all the mountains of the law with the flood of power. This love will never base its claims and declarations on our behalf, in our ability or our worthiness. Our enemies and the spoiler of life have been restricted to only what we allow them to do. God has mandated the realm of liberty and freedom into a concert hall housing the symphony of eternal redemption that will drown out all the death-like dirges of judgment and condemnation. The blood of Jesus has built a platform of seating for us beyond the reach of fear and false accusations. It has prepared a mercy seat for everyone of us before the oracles of time. We shall stand perfect and complete in him throughout the ages of eternity with unending praise in our mouth. Redemption has prepared a feast of continual victory for us to eat from. We will not eat at the tables of the scorers and false accusers, for they are of their father the devil.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

October 3, 2008

Lord, I am blessed this morning that you have granted me access into your presence where there is fullness of joy. I thank you for giving me audience to receive the authority of your pleasures that are with me forevermore. This joy which comes from you gives me strength to endure each trial of my faith. I rejoice in this time of trial, and by your grace, I will allow the gold of this trial to be mine. You have given this gold (trial) to refine me and to be a reflection of a pure relationship with you. I thank you for the instruction to purchase gold tried in the fire that I can receive the miracles you have prepared for me to make me rich. I am comforted because when I begin to seek you and love you more than anything else, I believe that you will give me twice as much as I have asked for. Your word instructs me to seek your kingdom and your righteousness, and all these other things will be added unto me. I am elated to seek your kingdom first and not to be found as one saying I am rich and have increased with goods, and have need of nothing. I am wretched and poor and I have need of you, O Lord. I am so grateful that by your precious blood, you have shown me the path of life that has crowned you with glory and power. I offer you praise today, and I worship you for paying this awesome price for me to take my sins away. I am refreshed by the love that you have expressed toward me by your sufferings and by your death and I am eternally grateful that you have demonstrated your glory by your resurrection and your power. I rejoice in this day of continual resurrection demonstration, for your power cannot be diminished nor taken away. All glory, honor, and praise belong to you. I praise your holy name.

Trials were never intended to punish us but to bless us with more than we ever had before. God in the midst of adversity is making room for the things that he has prepared for us. The trial of our faith is to focus our eyes on the unseen that will become seen. Just as Job had twice as much after the trial as before it, so does God flood our lives through his providence. Love lavishes the loads of blessing upon us in the face of every enemy.

RE: RHEMA - Fashioned To Overcome

Satan would like for us to dance to the drumbeat of defeat. Our destiny however, is in the hands of the designer of the universe. It is interesting that if you take the word overcome and turn it into "come over" that we are promised not only to be overcomers, but we can come on over every mountain and obstacle that is in our pathway. Spirits of darkness and fear may try to rise up before the children of God, but the Lord God mighty in battle has promised to demolish every force that sets itself in array against us. Howling voices of fear and distraction may fill the air around the camp of the saints, but the Lord will disperse them with one word of his mighty voice. Our mouth should continually pour forth the declarations of our faith into the atmosphere until it is saturated with the dew of heaven.

Last night in our prison service the Lord spoke to us and said,
"Storms of difficulty and trial will come to your mind and try to paralyze your thoughts of faith and confidence in you. It may seem so strong that you are struggling to think the thoughts that I have given you, but my thoughts for you are more in number than the sands of the sea. I have planned for you to succeed and not to fail. I have planned your celebration over every obstacle. My thoughts are higher than yours. Your fleshly thoughts are too close to the source of the problem. Mine are above the gravity of your location. Mine are higher than the heavens above the earth from which I have already sent your victory. Rejoice and dance in the celebration that my cross has already provided for you."

I am so glad to know that I am fearfully and wonderfully made. I am in awe of the fact that I was created in your own image and fashioned to overcome. Knowing this assures certain victory in this life over every circumstance that may try to defeat me. I rejoice because my steps are in sync with the rhythm of the drums of praise and not the drumbeat of defeat. I praise you this day as I come on over every mountain and obstacle that is in my pathway. I rejoice exceedingly, and I offer praise for what you have prepared for me on the other side of the mountains that stand in my way. Thank you for demolishing every force of the enemy that rises against me. Just one word of your mighty voice blows away the howling voices of fear and distraction, and knowing this makes my heart glad. I appreciate your ever-abiding presence throughout the storms of difficulty in my life, and I thank you for thwarting the plan of the enemy that tried to ruin my confidence and faith in you. I am grateful for the foreknowledge in your word that has caused me to believe in my heart and confess with my mouth the confidence and faith that I have in you. My heart is overwhelmed by your multitude of thoughts of success for me being more in number than the sand of the sea. ### The Economics of Worship and Praise

Series 6.10.5 – Letter #279

What does a man know about tomorrow except by my Spirit and by my word?

Can you add one cubit to your stature?

I am the Lord God, the builder of the church. I am the everlasting Father, the keeper of the house of God. No man can pluck you out of my hand. I have placed you in the Father's hand. No man has placed you in my hand. The hand of divinity is your dwelling place. The fence of grace has been your guard for safety. I have not taken down this fence in the midst of the darkness where roving wolves of the field roam day and night seeking to bathe their appetites with precious life.

I shall make new decisions for your life, for I know the beginning and the ending. Lift up your eyes from self-concern, and look to the harvest field. There in the field of harvest, you will find that it is so filled with workers that the enemy can find no room for his seat of discord. Lift up your eyes to the harvest and prepare to join the international workers for souls. I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. Make the joyful sound of praise. Do not cheat yourself because of laziness and unconcern, lack of sacrifice, and insensitivity to my Spirit.

I have awaited the sweet savor of your praises, yet you gave me few.
Empty out yourself, and see the difference in your life. I am the Savior of the world, the bright and the morning star. Come from your dark corners of the night, and enter into the wide open spaces of today's harvest field. Do not cringe with despair and fear, but empty despair and fear out upon the altar. I will give you an exchange for your praises. How much of yourself are you willing to spend?

Come. I await the dispensing of your economy. Do you understand the economics of worship and praise?

Go and learn what this means.

[I obeyed the Lord and went into the living room to worship and praise him. I poured out my heart, my mind, my soul, and my strength unto him. Brokenness came into my life. I returned to the computer to hear what he would say unto me, and these are the words that came into my hearing.]

It would be better to be born blind than to trust in the direction of blind leaders and blind guides that say they see. It would have been better to be born blind than to look with human eyes and try to determine the direction for your life. I have not set you in the midst of blind leaders and blind guides, but I have given you a leader with sight. Now trust the direction of the Holy Spirit of God, and rest in the decisions that I make for your life.

I am the Lord, your God, and the Creator of heaven and of earth. I fashioned you the first time in your mother's womb, and now I have fashioned you again in the womb of a heavenly mother, the church. You are called by my name, and the name of Jesus that you wear is an honor and a praise unto my kingdom. Do not do anything to bring shame unto that worthy name that you bear. Cease from all iniquity that this worthy name is not blasphemed before men and before your God. I am Jehovah, the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Lift up the banner within you, and come from the hiding places of traditions. The hour has come for my demonstration from within you. I will not demonstrate my divinity behind the veil of traditions, for I will not share my glory with the humanity of self-righteousness.

I am the Lord God who came in the flesh of the Son of God. I walked perfectly in human flesh and did not sin. I took the judgment demanded by supreme justice and died for the sins of the whole world. I was buried in a human body and rose from the dead on the third day according to the scriptures. I was seen of men and ascended into heaven. I sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, and now I have ordained you to go forth in my name with the power of the most High dwelling in you. The power of the Messiah is in you. You know things by my Spirit. The spirit of sorcery and the spirit of witchcraft shall prophesy against you. Do not fear, neither concern yourself with the threat of the witches that you shall meet. I have ordained this that I might bring them low and cast them down to the horrible pits so that they might learn not to blaspheme my holy name and cast it before themselves unto usury.

Do not fear. I am with you. As the sorcerers of Egypt, they shall be ashamed before you. Whatever they manifest, the power of the Lord God shall manifest greater works that they may marvel. My love for their souls is greater than their iniquities. I send you because I have prepared you aforetime for the meeting of the spirits within them. Do not fear, for courage is born in you, and the gift of God is resident in you unto the working of miracles. Do not allow fear to reign with you. Cast it out by the hand of the perfect love that I am within you. Lift up your voice in praise, and know that the day that I made was for you. Now rejoice in your salvation, for I do make you glad and keep you in perfect peace.

CONFESSION OF A SOUND MIND (AGREEMENT WITH GOD)

Words of Light upon the Face of Darkness, Despair, Discord, Doubt, Fear, Lack of Concern, Laziness, Sorcery, Traditions, and Witchcraft

Series 6.10.5 – Confession #279

Man knows nothing about tomorrow except it is revealed to him by the Lord's Spirit and his word. I cannot add one cubit to my stature; therefore, I look to Jesus, the Lord God, the builder of the church. Jesus is the everlasting Father, the keeper of the house of God. No man can pluck me out of his hand. He has placed me in the Father's hand. No man has placed me in his hand. The hand of divinity is my dwelling place and the fence of grace is my guard for safety. He has not taken down this fence in the midst of the darkness where roving wolves of the field roam day and night seeking to bathe their appetites with precious life.

God has made new decisions for my life, for he knows the beginning and the ending. I have lifted up my eyes from self-concern, and I have looked to the harvest field. There, in the field of harvest, I found that it is so filled with workers that the enemy can find no room for his seat of discord. I have lifted up my eyes to the harvest and prepared to join the international workers for souls. Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever, and I have made the joyful sound of praise. I no longer cheat myself because of laziness and unconcern, lack of sacrifice, and insensitivity to his Spirit.

The Lord awaited the sweet savor of my praises, yet in the past I only gave him few. Since I emptied out myself, I have seen the difference in my life. Jesus is the Savior of the world, the bright and the morning star. I came from my dark corners of the night and entered into the wide open spaces of today's harvest field. I no longer cringe with despair and fear, but I have emptied despair and fear out upon the altar. Jesus gave me an exchange for my praises. I spent myself completely; I dispensed my economy back to God. He had waited on me to understand the economics of worship and praise. Through the giving of myself in worship and praise, I have gained an understanding of what this means.

It would be better to be born blind than to have trusted in the direction of blind leaders and blind guides that say they see. It would have been better to be born blind than to have looked with human eyes that tried to determine the direction for my life. Jesus has not set me in the midst of blind leaders and blind guides, but he has given me a leader with sight. I trusted the direction of the Holy Spirit of God, and I have rested in the decisions that the Lord made for my life.

Jesus is the Lord, my God, and the Creator of heaven and of earth. He fashioned me the first time in my mother's womb, and now he fashioned me again in the womb of a heavenly mother, the church. I was called by his name, and the name of Jesus that I wear is an honor and a praise unto his kingdom. I have done nothing to bring shame unto that worthy name that I bear. I ceased from all iniquity that this worthy name is not blasphemed before men and before my God. He is Jehovah, the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I lifted up the banner within me, and I came from the hiding places of traditions. The hour came for his demonstration from within me. He had not demonstrated his divinity behind the veil of traditions, for he has not nor will he share his glory with the humanity of self-righteousness.

He is the Lord God who came in the flesh of the Son of God. He walked perfectly in human flesh and did not sin. He took the judgment demanded by supreme justice and died for the sins of the whole world. He was buried in a human body and rose from the dead on the third day according to the scriptures. He was seen of men and ascended into heaven where he sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, and now he has ordained me to go forth in his name with the power of the most High dwelling in me. The power of the Messiah is in me and has known things by his Spirit. The spirit of sorcery and the spirit of witchcraft had prophesied against me, yet I had no fear, neither have I concerned myself with the threat of the witches that met me. Jesus ordained this, and he has brought them low and cast them down to the horrible pits so that they might learn not to blaspheme his holy name and cast it before themselves unto usury.

I have not feared, for God is with me. As the sorcerers of Egypt, they are now ashamed before me. Whatever they manifested, the power of the Lord God manifested greater works so that they marveled. His love for their souls was greater than their iniquities. He has sent me because he had prepared me aforetime for the meeting of the spirits within them. I have not feared, for courage was born in me, and the gift of God was resident in me unto the working of miracles; therefore, fear was not allowed to reign with me. It was already cast out by the hand of the perfect love that Jesus is within me. I have lifted up my voice in praise, and I know that day was made for me. I am rejoicing in my salvation, for the Lord made me glad and kept me in perfect peace.

RE: RHEMA - The Economics of Worship and Praise

Too many do not understand the wealth that is hidden in the chambers of worship and praise. Many would scoff at the results of worship and praise as just a side venue of the kingdom of God. When we look into the heavens, we see that it is the main dynamic that is at the heart of all activity that is going on there. If this is the substance of heavens activity, then this must be the standard for its economy. Every grand event and revelation seems to have its origin in worship. All the treasures of this life that are worth having are hidden in Jesus Christ, who is the focus of worship. It appears that all evil in time has been enclosed and surrounded by the prayers of the saints and the worship of the Lamb. Hell is bankrupt in the final total when worship adds up everything. Hidden in inner recesses of worship and praise is the treasure of the ages. Pearls of peace and diamonds of faith shine like brilliant stars of the night against the darkness that would try to discourage us. People who really know how to worship are the richest people in the world. In their appreciation for all that he has done and is doing, they are able to ignore the false charges of liability that the father of lies hurls at them. Every kind of sorcery and witchcraft may come against the believer, but they are running a scam that has no real resources to begin with. Worshippers are rich King's kids.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

My anger was deferred, and the judgment of my right hand was protracted as the light of mercy shoved anger and judgment aside. Come back to my bosom again. See that there is a place for you. I did not choose you because you are good. I chose you because I love you. My love shall perform what is needed within you to satisfy my demands. I have not called you and not justified you. I have not called you and not qualified you. I have not called you and left you incomplete. You are complete in Christ Jesus. You are complete and blessed in Christ.

RE: RHEMA - We Are Saved from the Wrath of God by Jesus, Our Ark

Wrath had begun to send its destructive floods of violence into our lives. We would not have any craft that was able to withstand the violent storm that would have surely taken us to the depths of the abyss of this life and into the oblivion of eternity beyond. Out of the cloudy heaviness sailed the ark of his grace. It was pitched on the inside and outside with the blood of the precious Lamb. The ark of the covenant and the ship of the flood were more than enough to take us beyond the wilderness of the destruction of sin. His blessing has wrapped us in the protection of forgiveness that is beyond our understanding to truly appreciate. Many times our focus on the trivial things in our lives prevents us from seeing the greatness of the grace that sweeps us above the vortex of the winds of negative gravity. As the ark rode above the flood, so do we ride above the waves that would bring us crashing upon the rocks of the shore of man's judgment. God has sent forth judgment unto victory at the cross. He took the blow of death that was intended for us and gave us the embrace of the arms of grace instead.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ There are unbelievers among the people of God. They do not agree with me; therefore, they will not agree with you. I have allowed them to grow among you. They will not agree with you. Many of them are consumed with covetousness. They are idolaters.

120. What agreement does the temple of God have with idols?

◆ My people are consumed with idolatry. The heavens declare my glory and the firmament shows my handiwork. I created you to show forth my glory and my handiwork.

121. Must people only look to the heavens and the firmament to learn of me?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I praise and worship you in spirit and in truth. Help me to understand and embrace why I worship and praise you. I realize that I am tapping into the wealth that is hidden in the chambers of worship and praise when I yield myself totally to you. I know that the heavens declare your glory and the firmament shows your handiwork. When I look into the heavens, I see that it is the main dynamic that is at the heart of all activity that is going on there. You are the focal point of my worship and I know that all the treasures worth having in this life are hidden in you. I am in your hands, and no one can pluck me out.

I am thankful to be dwelling in your hands of divinity, and I am grateful for the fence of grace that is my guard and safety. I lift my eyes from self-concern and look to the harvest field. I thank you for giving me leaders that see and that the vision for the last days. I am grateful to be called by your name. Your name is above every name, and at your name every knee shall bow. You are the bright and morning star. You have given me power. I cherish this power because you have given me power over serpents, over scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. I know that the gift of God is resident in me. I will not cheat myself because of laziness, unconcern, lack of sacrifice, and insensitivity, but I will rejoice and make a joyful noise unto you. I know that your joy is my strength.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

We have been given authority over all the power of the enemy. No matter what form or in what person that the enemy comes in, we will always prevail against it. We are promised that we will always triumph in praise. As we worship, we walk into the wealth of a world that is awash in the floods of power and glory. Ezekiel chapter one presents a stage of spectacular scenes that we cannot begin to understand the dimensions of. We measure with the words of our everyday life and experience. Worship takes us beyond the measurable and limited. We walk free from the gravity of the feelings of our own failures and shortcomings. Our trip to the throne in worship hurls aside the devil and his kingdom. We become seated with Jesus in a seat of power that defeat will never be able to sit on.

PROPHECY

*This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18*

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8*

CONFESSION OF FAITH

*The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10*

*Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12*
