Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

Lift Up Your Ears to the Revelatory Expressions in the Spirit and Seize with the Hearing That Came by the Word of God

Series 7.1.5 – Letter #5

Man will lie, but I will not and cannot lie. It is impossible for me to lie; therefore, go to my word, and hold fast to the promises contained therein.

You have missed many blessings that were laid up for you because you have not laid hold onto that which was promised. There is no greater assurance than that which I have promised. Search the scriptures for the wealthy promises that are there for you. Search diligently and be not like the slothful servants of Satan's kingdom, but look at the diligent servants of Satan's kingdom, and behold their wisdom in regard to obtaining that which is in the world. My privileges are not hidden, but you have allowed your traditions to spoil you and govern you after the attitudes passed down to you by others. Lay aside this erroneous concept of faith, and seek the wealth of the promises in my word. I have given you many personal promises. Study the personal promises given you. Combine that which is in my written word with those that were given to you personally, then will you behold the vast possibilities in your possession.

Take up the instrument of faith, and begin refining the promises given you. You are begging and pleading. Rise up and refine what you have, then will you understand how much has already been given to you. I have given you precious promises. Many promises lay along the roadside of your mind in the dust of carnality and unbelief. Rise up and dust off yourself with the fervent expressions of praise and worship. Rise up and behold the effect of faith expressed in the due season of blessings. Due season is here. You are looking into the future and the yesterdays of the past, but look to this day and behold the power of salvation working on your behalf. Salvation came and brought the ransom price for sins. Is salvation unable to bring the benefits of the ransom price?

I am able to do much more than you can ask or think. You cannot imagine the ability that I have. My ability and my productivity are not measurable. You cannot describe my ability with words, for my ability is far beyond words. Only the name of Jesus reigns above the things in this life. One word reigns supreme and that is my name. You have called on my name. Now behold the effect and the response to your cry. Lift your head from the fears propagated by the spirit of fear. I have not given you these dreams of fear, but an enemy has supplanted these images by his subtlety. Pick up the sword of the Spirit again, and destroy these images of fear in your mind. The enemy has failed to overcome you while you are awake; therefore, he has attempted to bring you down to ruin by attacking you while you sleep. Be at peace with man, and then will perfect peace motivate you to keep your mind stayed on me even while you sleep.

Lift your ears to the revelatory expressions in the Spirit, and grasp with the hearing that came by the word of God. I have not left you in a vacuum of silence where my voice is not heard. I have placed you in my presence with the robe of acceptance on your life. Only believe, and you shall see the glory of God. Look beyond the circumstances, and you will see me, who is invisible. There is a price to pay and values to forsake for the pleasure of such an experience, the experience of looking beyond visibility and beholding invisibility. You must count all things joy and all things dung. You must choose to suffer afflictions with the righteous, and refuse to be the son of the world and the son of the god of the world. When you have elected to suffer affliction with the people of my name and counted this more precious than the treasures of the world, then will you see in dimensions closed to the lovers of pleasure and idolatry.

Lift your heart to me, and then will your ears and your eyes be lifted. You must go beyond what you say with your lips and what you do in your body. You must actualize these things in your heart first. Here, receive my righteousness, and cast down your self-righteousness. Cast away your rags of filth, and be washed with the fuller's soap of love and the washing of regeneration. I am pouring out my Spirit, but have you come to the shower or to your face bowl of carnality?

Withdraw from the mirror of human reasoning and traditions, and come to the mirror of my word and my Spirit. I desire to show you the real you that you might behold his wretchedness and his misery. You are increased with goods, but you have need of every spiritual blessing that is made available in the shower of love, hope, and faith. Come. I have beckoned. Come and be washed. Leave the clothes of self and self-righteousness outside the shower, for these things shall only prevent the washing from taking effect in your life. I am not impressed with you or anyone else, for all have sinned and come short of my glory. You can do nothing of yourself; therefore, come to the shower that awaits you, and I will supply you with enabling grace and sacrificial love. Come. It is your hour and your time. Accept this offer, and leave here clean and victorious. Refuse this offer, and leave here filthy and defeated. These words have I, the living God, spoken in your ears.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Lift Up Your Ears to the Revelatory Expressions in the Spirit and Seize with the Hearing That Came by the Word of God

God has never ceased to speak unto his children. We get a small measure of things that were promised before the world began. Before there was a man, God spoke endlessly into the existence that surrounded him. When he made the creation we call a seen universe, which we now realize may be more than one, he expanded the library of speaking that is the repository of things that he has done, seen and unseen. Everything unseen has the signature of words unheard and unwritten all over them. We are standing in the height of intellectual dishonesty when we think we have heard all that God has or ever will speak. Existence itself is left breathless with what he writes on the morning chalkboards of expression. So much has been reserved and stored up for this hour that now is the time that God will truly give it in abundance. God will so overbalance all the false and negative information that the world would like to flood us with that we would stand up and say all these narrow concepts of men and the world are just faint whispers compared to the thunder and the waves of greatness that are powerful enough to excavate hell itself if someone would loose it.

We have never heard because of our fear of the fact that God will work according to the words that he can anoint us to declare. We must never speak them in destruction but in creation and redemption. Enough judgment has already been detailed in the written word to swallow up all the disobedience of every creature. Our mandate is to declare the revelation of the expressions of the Spirit into an impossible situation. So much of what we see and hear overwhelms us on the face of the earth. His voice comes from above all of this. He does not push creation further away from himself when he speaks but beckons it to come nearer to him. Every lie that has been perpetrated by false ideas and concepts will be just a blurred passing cloud in front of the Sun of righteousness that shines in the heart of true believers. We have received the same spirit of faith. We believe; therefore, we speak.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

You are in a mighty conflict with principalities and powers. You have not gone to battle against these enemies without me. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you. I am the same God who brought Israel out of the land of Egypt. Do not let your hearts faint. Do not fear, and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of these mighty foes. I am the Lord. I go with you to fight for you against your enemies to save you. The number of your adversaries does not trouble me.

RE: RHEMA - The Promises of God Are Sure

Immutable and unequivocal is the One who, with the minutest detail, arrayed us in tailor-made fulfillment of his promises. Consuming fires await the ascending incense of our praise as it regenerates itself as high impact results in the earth. Earthquakes of natural origin may have made room for seas and oceans as the Lord shook out creation like a wrinkled, folded garment with the words of his mouth. Now he proceeds to reveal the raw intent of his intense purpose to bless us through the most unexpected means. Nothing too high or too deep escapes his reach. His love and compassion reaches to give abundantly to us so that we have not enough room to receive it. All those who have played the harlot and the whoremonger have given themselves to the wholesale ruin of this unbelieving generation. They will never have an inheritance with the righteous seed. We will follow after the precious harvest of promises that are ripe in the fields of truth.

◆ The enemies of prophecy shall gather themselves together to fight against you. They shall open their mouths against you to discredit you, but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you to deliver you. Be not afraid. Go and dry up the flood with the words of your mouths.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you that it is impossible for you to lie. You are faithful, and your word is your bond. I am assured that I can depend on you because of your faithfulness. I love you and I trust you. Your promises are sure, and I am persuaded to follow you because you are the one true living God. I realize that I have missed many blessings that were laid up for me because I did not lay hold on that which was promised. Forgive me for my doubts and unbelief. Before you created man, you spoke endlessly into the existence that surrounded you. You called those things which be not as though they were. I confess that I have allowed my traditions to spoil me and govern me after the attitudes passed down to me by others. Lord, help me to lay aside my erroneous concepts of faith and seek the wealth of the promises in your word. I am privileged to be called by your name; therefore, I know that much has been reserved and stored up for me in this hour. Thank you for your righteousness that shines in my heart. I know that all of my righteousness is like filthy rags. I can do nothing of myself but through you all things are possible.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

If we hold fast the profession of our faith and confidence in him, we will see the promises completed in our lives. Many voices and circumstances of "what if" will scream at us and try to discourage us, but we will encourage ourselves in the Lord as David did. Our faith and speaking is not in vain. Every empty frame of life will be filled with the same power that created heaven and earth in the midst of an empty void.

Plagues Shall Come upon Those Who Oppose You

Series 7.1.6 – Letter #6

Do not fear to thrust those things that you love on the waters of uncertainty. They shall arrive where they were intended to because of my ordination of these things. Nothing can prevent my will from being done in the earth. I am God, and I rule over all. I have sent the will of God to your door. Now accept it and follow it, and you shall see my glory. The will of God shall be as sweet fruit unto your taste; therefore, taste and see that I am good. I have revealed myself unto you. My voice you know and hear. Do not fear this relationship. Do not worry about how you will explain what is happening. Simply be obedient to my voice. I will quicken your tongue, and eloquence shall be given to your tongue. Come and follow me. There is work to be accomplished. Lean on the faith of Jesus Christ, and you will not fail. It will be a staff for you when you grow weary. It shall be an instrument that will swallow up your adversities in the time of hardship. Do not allow the number of adversities to frighten you, for all of them shall be consumed by faith that is in me. Plagues shall come upon those who oppose you, for I have sent you to do my will. I will demonstrate my power in the earth in these last days. Prepare for signs and wonders, for I shall show forth the power of my right hand. Liberation of the captives shall be seen, and all shall know of the power of the gospel in the earth. Your enemies shall pursue you, but do not fear. They shall all be destroyed for my name's sake. Do not listen to the voices of doubt among you. Move forward in faith. I will save you out of all your troubles.

RE: RHEMA - Plagues Shall Come upon Those Who Oppose You

Doubt may lift up its eyes and try to describe the ugly things in us that are not even there. God will beautify the meek with salvation. His beauty includes letting the Lord fight the enemies that come to bury and crush us. Their debate will become their own debacle. All their sentences will become the surging sea of trouble that their boat will sink in. God will surround those who trust in him, and he will speedily avenge his elect. Some theologian said that meekness is unobtrusive humility. God has power that is beyond the power of words to describe. It is said to be ineffable. God can just think words and actions that are so powerful that the nations tremble at his presence and will make the mountains to flow down and the enemies we face be as a thing of naught. He said, "We would look for them, and we would not be able to find them." He can make them to vanish as surely as his winds sweep the mist of obscurity from the face of a perfectly created day. We are his chosen creation to declare the day. He will not allow anything to eclipse the light that he has placed in his servants.

Many intimidating foes have arisen against my body. There is help for you in me. I am your shield and your glory. I am the lifter of your head. I will smite them upon the cheekbone. I will break out the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation belongs unto me.

RE: RHEMA - In Everything, Give Thanks

Our enemy will do anything to resist our testimony of the greatness of our God. God is working his will in our lives as the events of life are passing by. We are on a journey to success and not of defeat. We have been designed to be, by the grace of God, everything that we should be. We have been specially fitted and structured to live in the circumstances that we encounter. In the master design of it all, the gratitude for his grace is the lubricant of every moving part. We will be corrupted by the unthankful attitudes of this age. Thankless people become blank people. They will continue to be the plaything of every problem that comes along. Life will remain a place of bondage for them. Our profusion (abundance) of praise will create a symphony of power that will fill our lives. When we forget to be thankful, every dreary tune will torture us.

The Lord was speaking to me and said this,

All the grumbling and negative speaking of men may be calculated into the billions of syllables, but the greatness that I bless men with is infinitely beyond the sum total of all that fear will shout. All that I am is multiplied by millions every time that one of my children praises me. Unless the incense of worship covers the mercy seat of life, you will be destroyed by the cross instead of saved by it. It is no more than a trivial act in the venues of eternity without the recognition of those for whom it was intended. Eternal praise is the stairway out of the hallway of time. If you desire to be a captive of time, you can remain silent. If you will release your praise for me, you will become a traveler in the limitless arena of the infinite.

◆ My justification is not slack and insufficient. Come away from condemnation. I have not led you there. I have led you to justification by faith, which is in me. 338. Now who will condemn you?

339. Who will lay any charge to my elect?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

Glory to you, my King, for you are the one who rules over all. I do not have to fear the uncertainty of those things that I love because they will arrive in due time. I know nothing can prevent your will from being done. I will accept your will and follow it, and all will see your glory. I trust your word and I am grateful. I taste and see how good you are. I am thankful to know and hear your voice because you have revealed yourself unto me. In joy, the beauty of your truth will I follow and your faith will not fail. You will beautify the meek with salvation, and the enemy will lose the battle in your beauty. I trust the staff of righteousness that you have given me in my times of weariness. I pray for them that come against me, for they will see the plagues if they choose to oppose me. The demonstration of your power will be revealed in these last days. I will be surrounded by your presence as I put my trust in you. I cannot describe the power of your words and see the wonders of the power of your right hand. I enjoy the liberty that I have and there will come a time when the captives shall also see the liberating power of the gospel. I will not fear the pursuit of my enemies, for they will not be able to find me in the day that you have created. I am as the apple of your eye, and I am hidden in your wings. I am safe in your pavilion, and in the secret of your tabernacle shall I be hidden.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God has already established his faithfulness in our lives. Over and over again we have not been abandoned or left to the mercy of our situations and circumstances. Satan will try to whisper and shout the same lies about God failing us, but God proves him wrong every time. His promises and kind words continually embrace us and assure us that we are the focus of all that he is doing in the earth.

Enabling Grace Leaping with Us in Its Arms to Bring Us Out of Every Snare and Temptation and unto Total Victory and Success

Series 7.1.7 – Letter #7

I have called you to testify concerning the resurrection. Do it with the power of my Spirit, and great grace shall be upon you. My grace labors and enables you to accomplish solutions to the complex and simple problems of the hour. Lean on me and not on yourself, and you will experience the fullness of my grace. I have a fullness that you have never experienced. I have a testimony that you have never expressed. I have a light that you have never beheld. Look again to the favor given you, and you will find the benefits in the gift that you have overlooked. I am refining your experience. Abundance of mercy is at work on your behalf. Though you deserved judgment, I have given you an abundance of my mercy to lift you and bring you out of the consequences of your mistakes and entrapments by the enemy. I am very rich in mercy. When you were dead in trespasses and sins, I expressed my extreme kindness toward you. This same kindness is expressing its nature and victory toward you. Experience the victory that comes by my kindness toward you. You should have perished, but the riches of my grace rained kindness upon you. Now allow the enabling grace that has made you acceptable in my sight to abound. Enabling grace is leaping with you in its arms. I am carrying you. I brought you out of darkness and into my marvelous light. I brought you out of the devil's family and into the family of the most High God. How much more will I bring you out of every snare and every temptation?

You are not a minister of the gospel because of your human achievements. You are what you are by my grace. The grace that I have given is an effectual grace, which is laboring abundantly and effectual unto total victory and success in the kingdom of God. Do not fear the threats of the enemy. You have abounded unto a good work. I expressed my fullness to save you. Now I am expressing my fullness in keeping you and enabling you to accomplish the fulfillment of my vision; therefore, do not fear, neither be afraid of failure's threat. I am sending forth an expression of grace that shall transform you. By my grace, I am doing more than you could ask or think. You are a new creature in me. Now lift up your eyes from the tree of man's knowledge, and look to the knowledge of God Almighty. I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. In me, there is no darkness. In me, there is no defeat. With every trial, you are growing in my grace and in the knowledge of me, your Lord and Savior; therefore, be strong in this grace, and show forth the testimony of my victory. Though you have sinned and fallen short of my glory, you are justified and counted righteous. Sin cannot rule over you. Sin must bow to my name. Do not continue in the altar of prostrated sin. Grace shall only abound as you continue in righteousness and holiness.

Do not take your relationship for granted, but realize that which is available to you is a blessing and a free gift. Do not use the blessing of forgiveness as an opportunity and occasion to sin and serve the flesh and the world. Many have lost their relationship with me and become slaves to another master because they took me for granted. Come to the altar of repentance and be broken on me. Repent and acknowledge your helplessness to live victoriously without my grace and me. Do not deceive yourself and say that you do not have any sin, but be honest, and you will not miss the grace that looks for you in this very hour. You can do nothing of yourself, but through me you can do all things. Do all things by grace, and then you will not falter and stumble over your own efforts and failures. Do all things by grace, and then will you seek to please me and not seek the gratification of your flesh and self. Today, I have touched you with my mighty grace. Now stretch forth your hands and touch the scepter of righteousness. I have beckoned you to come into the throne room; therefore, receive of mercy and grace. It is enough for every dilemma and all circumstances. Look beyond your circumstances, and behold the victory now and at the end of the circumstances.

Words of Light upon the Face of Entrapments, Judgment, Mistakes, Sins, Snares, Temptations, and Trespases

Series 7.1.7 – Confession #7

Jesus has called me to testify concerning the resurrection. I have done it with the power of his Spirit, and great grace is upon me. His grace labors and enables me to accomplish solutions to the complex and simple problems of the hour. I am leaning on him and not on myself, and I am experiencing the fullness of his grace. He has a fullness that I have never experienced. He has a testimony that I have never expressed. He has a light that I have never beheld. I have looked again to the favor given me, and I am finding the benefits in the gift that I have overlooked. The Lord is refining my experience. Abundance of mercy is at work on my behalf. Though I deserved judgment, he has given me an abundance of his mercy to lift me and bring me out of the consequences of my mistakes and entrapments by the enemy. He is very rich in mercy. When I was dead in trespasses and sins, he expressed his extreme kindness toward me. This same kindness is expressing its nature and victory toward me. I have experienced the victory that comes by his kindness toward me. I should have perished, but the riches of his grace rained kindness upon me. Now I am allowing the enabling grace that has made me acceptable in his sight to abound. Enabling grace is leaping with me in its arms. God has carried me. He brought me out of darkness and into his marvelous light. He brought me out of the devil's family and into the family of the most High God. Jesus will bring me out of every snare and every temptation.

I am not a minister of the gospel because of my human achievements. I am what I am by God's grace. The grace that he has given is an effectual grace, which is laboring abundantly and effectual unto total victory and success in the kingdom of God. I will not fear the threats of the enemy. I have abounded unto a good work. The Lord expressed his fullness to save me. Now he is expressing his fullness in keeping me and enabling me to accomplish the fulfillment of his vision; therefore, I do not fear, neither am I afraid of failure's threat. He has sent forth an expression of grace that has transformed me. By his grace, he is doing more than I could ask or think. I am a new creature in Christ. Now I have lifted up my eyes from the tree of man's knowledge, and I look to the knowledge of God Almighty. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. In him, there is no darkness. In him, there is no defeat. With every trial, I am growing in his grace and in the knowledge of him, my Lord and Savior; therefore, I am strong in this grace and I am showing forth the testimony of his victory. Though I have sinned and fallen short of his glory, I am justified and counted righteous. Sin cannot rule over me. Sin must bow to Jesus' name. I am not continuing in the altar of prostrated sin. I purpose to continue in righteousness and holiness, and I am fully persuaded that grace shall abound.

I am not taking my relationship with God for granted, but I realize that which is available to me is a blessing and a free gift. I am determined not to use the blessing of forgiveness as an opportunity and occasion to sin and serve the flesh and the world. Many have lost their relationship with Jesus and become slaves to another master because they took him for granted. I came to the altar of repentance, and I was broken on him. I have repented and acknowledged my helplessness to live victoriously without God's grace and him. I am not deceiving myself and saying that I do not have any sin, but I choose to be honest and not miss the grace that looks for me in this very hour. I can do nothing of myself, but through him I can do all things. I am doing all things by grace, and now I will not falter and stumble over my own efforts and failures. I am doing all things by grace and seeking to please the Lord and no longer seeking the gratification of my flesh and self. The Lord has touched me with his mighty grace. I have stretched forth my hands and touched the scepter of righteousness. God beckoned me to come into the throne room; therefore, I have received of mercy and grace. It is enough for every dilemma and all circumstances. I have looked beyond my circumstances, and I am beholding the victory now and at the end of the circumstances.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - Enabling Grace Leaping with Us in Its Arms to Bring Us Out of Every Snare and Temptation and unto Total Victory and Success

Grace leaped with Noah in its arms out of the crest of the flood. He found grace in the eyes of the Lord. God leaped with Lot in his arms of grace because Abraham had more grace to pray with than Jonah. Grace turns our prayers into manifestations instead of massacres. Snares even of our feelings will lay the worst trap for us. Pride will dig the deepest hole for our arrogance to fall into. We must always consider ourselves and our weaknesses lest the thing that we may despise in others is beheld and comes to harvest in us. The scripture has an answer for reaping even the bad things that we would in our lives. If we will sow in righteousness, we will reap in mercy. We are admonished that we are nobodies when it comes to condemning others. What we condemn in others, we do the same things. I fall short every day. I do not want to do despite to the spirit of grace by taking it for granted and using it as a license to sin. We need to exercise its liberating power in the lives of others that we not be meted the same bondage when we refuse to bless others with the freedom.

Temptation waits around every corner to make inroads into our spirit. It will never be able to get a hold of us if we remain tender and open to the Spirit of God. We should daily search our hearts to see if there be any pride in us that would turn into a pursuit of selfishness and sin that we would dress up as righteousness. Victory flows out of our lives as we flood the lives of others with the marvelous enabling grace that holds and rescues us. We will, by the same grace, lay aside every weight and the sinful pursuits that so easily sidetrack us as we are lead by him.

Remember: I have placed my blessing upon my people; therefore, do not fear their fear, and do not be afraid. The enemy has sent a campaign of fear and intimidation against you daily. The enemy intends to hamper your testimony by intimidating you. The stares of the spiritual enemies in dreams are terrifying. He has penetrated your dreams and attempted to corrupt the atmosphere of your peace and rest.

The intimidating figures and icons of your dreams are real and so am I. I am sanctified in you. I am the Lord of hosts. Allow me to be your fear. Allow me to be your dread. Do not draw back because of the beasts who come to war against you. Paul fought with the beasts of Ephesus. Do you think that the enemy has sent house cats to fight against you?

RE: RHEMA - The Light of the Glorious Gospel Shines with a Colossal Profit

Good news always brings about the rejoicing of the human spirit. Emotional economies are shaken and run bankrupt by the news of the tragic and devastating. In his infinite goodness, he has brought to us an everlasting decree of blessings that continues in our ears and hearts all the day long. Its reverberations linger even when the silence of all other voices create a vacuum of anything good to rejoice about. In arenas beyond the church, there are multitudes awaiting a word from God that is greater than all the death interludes that prey upon their souls and drives them deeper into their pits of despair. We have the Voice speaking in us with the only reason to be optimistic in this negative hour we live in.

By Debbie McBee

Lord, I thank you today for your amazing grace that holds me in its arms. You have not left me alone with temptation all around me, but you have already made a way of escape before I ever reach the snares to come. I am rejoicing because of your goodness unto me, and I acknowledge my sin. I ask you to forgive me and to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I am leaning on you and trusting you to see me through. There is no ability in me except that which comes by your Spirit. I am grateful and I purpose to be quick to give mercy to others as you have bestowed mercy upon me. I know that your mercy is at work on my behalf, and every situation is already solved. Even those things that are complex are already taken care of in my life. In your infinite wisdom, you have filled me with power, prosperity and solutions for every need. Thank you for not leaving me to my own devices. Thank you for showing me the light of your favor that is encompassing me right now. You have illuminated your greatness in my life, and by your grace I will continually look to you for all sufficiency. Though I deserved judgment, you gave me mercy and an abundance of victory. I should have surely perished but the riches of your grace rained your loving-kindness upon me, and now I have success in your kingdom. I praise you and bow before you my great and glorious King.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jesus Christ continues to display his provision and supply in our lives. Grace gives us all sufficiency in all things. We trust and have confidence in his loving-kindness. When God comes on the scene of any of our trials or problems, joy stands to its feet and begins to sing and worship as victory is crowned! We do not have to hide in fear, but we stand in confident faith as we face the challenges of life.

The Same Grace That Saved Us Is Abounding Toward Us to Labor in Us As an Effectual Work Is Performed

Series 7.1.8 – Letter #8

This is the day that I have made. Rejoice and be glad in this day. Allow the gladness that I have placed in you to be expressed, for I have created you to worship me with such gladness. This is the manner in which I am to be served; therefore, articulate this expression in adoration toward me. There is power in your expression toward me. Your faith is loosed when you express love toward me. I have shed my love in your heart. It is abroad your heart now. Allow the contents of your heart to be emptied out to me as a pail of water is poured out, and I will show you new dimensions of worship that you have not known. There are undiscovered dimensions within you. The kingdom of God does not come by observation. The kingdom of God is within you. I have flooded your innermost being with love, even a love that caused you to pray for your enemies. This is the love of God, the same love that caused me to go to Calvary for man. My love is working the faith within you, for faith works by love.

Your motives shall now be pure, and the outcome of your efforts shall be unto my glory and not your own. With great grace, I have come to you. The same grace that saved you is abounding toward you to labor in you to perform an effectual work. I am able to make all grace abound toward you that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. My righteousness remains forever. I have dispersed it abroad and have given it to the poor. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. I am the God of all grace, who has called you unto my own eternal glory by Christ Jesus. Arm yourself with the mind that I was armed with. Be armed with a mind to suffer. After that ye have suffered a while, I will make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, and settle you. Do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you as though some strange thing happened unto you, but rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that when my glory is revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy. You were reproached for my name and my word. The spirit of prophecy is my testimony. Be glad. Be happy, for the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part, I am evil spoken of, but on your part, I am glorified. The grace given you is how you are ministering. Continue to minister the way you are, and you shall continue to minister the glory of the same Lord. Minister as a good steward of the manifold grace of God. If any man speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God gives that I will be glorified in all things. You are giving praise unto me. Continue to minister in this fashion.

It is I, the Lord Jesus, that is speaking within you. Do not be turned away from this relationship. In this relationship, you are laboring together with me. You are my husbandry. You are my building. According to the grace of God that I have given you, be a wise master builder. Lay the foundation so that another may build thereon. No other foundation can man lay that is laid except that which is Christ Jesus. There are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which works all in all. I have given you the spirit of prophecy. It works by the selfsame Spirit that the other gifts work by. Do not let any man despise your gift. By the grace of God, you are who you are, and my grace has been bestowed upon you richly. You labor, yet not you but the grace of God that is with you, labors. Worship.

RE: RHEMA - The Same Grace That Saved Us Is Abounding Toward Us to Labor in Us As an Effectual Work Is Performed

Grace will lay the course of the race so that we will be the conquerors that he ordained that we should be. We have been fitted for victory and not for defeat. We are in the battle of the ages, but the Lord God mighty in battle will march into the gates of our city through the gates that will lift up their heads. Battle and war may arise until we are almost shaken, but the shaking will be God sending an earthquake of his power among the enemies of our soul. His blood cries the sounds of testimony on our behalf. We are embraced by the very armor that we have been fitted with. Even the earth will swallow up the flood of the enemy as it did to the flood of the dragon that he sent after Israel in the book of Revelation. God has multiplied grace by the knowledge that we have of Jesus Christ. He will multiply our strength and the overwhelming victories that we experience through the grace that succeeds grace perpetually. He was full of grace and truth, and if we are full of him, we are full of all the provision that the enemy would say we are lacking. We are not lacking in grace but overflowing with its abundance. Persecution may hold us up for ridicule, but as the Lord defended Job to the devil, he will defend us vigorously. Weariness may try to get us to relinquish a little, but we will not be weary in the well doing that grace is working in our lives to the end. Boldness and obedience should be our anointing. A crown of victory is laid up for those who will endure the rigors of the race. His righteousness will rush us past the forces of evil and into the presence of the celebration of grace and love as they embrace forever.

RE: RHEMA - Great Grace to Look Beyond the Circumstances and Behold the Victory Now and At the End of the Circumstances

Circumstantial joy is blind to the eternal. Tomorrow is not in the portrait of the walls of fear. Grace will assemble the focus sketches of the supernatural to fill the galleries of our lives. Victory is in the mind of the architect of our lives, and he will never design a day of our lives to be filled with defeat. Defeat will never rule over the heart that was created to sing the songs of triumph. Truth will never act out the demeaning role of the downtrodden. Grace will take us beyond the reach of being judgmental and unmerciful to others. As we are filled with his grace, we will empty out all the false images of failure and the pride that will swallow us up. As we are bathed in his forgiveness, we will behold the proper position of our hope and faith. We will fall on our face in repentance for not seeing his providence, and we will acknowledge our own resentment of life's intrusions. How fickle is the heart that is not rooted in the throne of grace?

We are as changeable as the wind that is blowing in the seasons of life. Grace will establish us and settle us on the foundation that will never be destroyed. It is the foundation that reaches higher than any other because it dared to bow lower than them all. From the tops of the sacrifices of the ages to the Lamb of the cross, we can see the victory in every circumstance of life.

Lord, I bow in adoration and I worship you as you march through the gates of my praises unto the victory. Knowing this is the day that you have made causes me to rejoice with gladness and joy unspeakable. My heart is filled with your love being shed abroad by the Holy Ghost, and it has caused new expressions of praise to issue forth faith to move the mountains that stand in my way. Thank you for sending an earthquake of your power to subdue the enemy of my soul. As I wear the armor you tailor-made for me, I march forward in full confidence that you will deliver me from every snare, and for this I give you praise. I appreciate the flood of love you so graciously filled my innermost being with as you open up the undiscovered dimensions within me. Thank you for multiplying and renewing my strength and for causing me to soar high above the traps and pitfalls of the darkness that the enemy laid before my feet. I am so grateful for the provisions and supply you so freely give me each day as I walk through this life hand in hand with you. You are the God of all grace, and it is a blessing to know that you are always there to see me through each and every trial of my faith as I draw nearer the crown of victory with every step I take. I stand in your righteousness with my hands lifted up in worship to you, my holy King.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jeremiah said that the Lord has opened his armory and loosed the weapons of his indignation. These are the weapons of his mouth that is on fire against all our enemies. Esh is the Hebrew word for fire. It is spelled with the aleph and shin. Aleph stands for the Almighty one God and shin stands for the fiery power of God's glory and Spirit. In other words, Esh is God's leaping, dancing, and intense love for us. From the top of Carmel to the places of our hearts, we are consumed and encircled with the love that will consume our enemies and will be a wall of fire around us. Our praise is set aflame and is the incense of our soul that goes over the mercy seat in heaven before the very throne of God and sets us in heavenly places with him. His love goes before us to fight for us and behind us to guard and protect us.

I have given you a heart of thanksgiving. The gratitude that you feel is of me. I have sent my grace your way and caused it to abound unto thanksgiving. You can of yourself do nothing. The thankful heart that you have listened to is of your Lord. Worship me, and fall at my feet, knowing that I am with you even unto the end of the age. I am for you, then who can be against you?

Look to the end and behold my grace yet working for you. I did not begin a good work in you to end in a bad work. I started this work in you, and I will finish it. There is work to be done. Do not be distracted by men who seek your hurt. Go on winning the lost, and do not be distracted by the schemes of men. Forget the things which are behind you and reach forth unto the things that are before you. There is a prize awaiting you. Reach forth unto the prize of my high calling. I have lengthened your reach. Now do not doubt, but allow your faith to soar. Now unto the Spirit within you there is ability to do exceeding, abundantly, above all that you are able to ask or think according to the power which works in you. I will do a work in your day that you will not believe, even if a preacher told you. Prepare for the wonders that I will do in your life. Only believe.

All the numbers in the book of Revelation assure us that everything that is averse to God and his people has been numbered and limited in its ability to effect us. Our friend, Jesus is so close to our shortcomings, and he knows the things that pull us down and break in on us easier than others. He has established walls of grace and provision that fortify us against their attack. We will feast on his enablement in praise and worship. As darkness becomes more rampant in the earth, the greater dimension of his light and revelation will be more concentrated in his true people. As we run on in this race, we will become more vividly aware of his ability over our puny attempts to do anything in the Kingdom. Many attacks will come against us personally and in our minds and spirits. The Lord has already defeated them all so that our spirits are already rejoicing and we can clap our hands ahead of time in victory over them all.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By the exceeding and precious promises that we have been given, we are partakers of the divine nature. By the grace of God we are what we are and, it labors more abundantly than any other energy in our lives. Freely we have received grace, and now we freely give it away to those whom the world may consider the worst among us. Grace sees the next prophet and teacher under a bridge and on the streets. We are the dispensers of the only real life giving bread in the earth. The name of Jesus opens the doors to the mercy seat of acceptance to those who have been rejected. God has turned our rejections of the past into the rejoicing of the present.

Be Assured of God's Faithfulness in this New Day, a New Hour, and a New Thing

Series 7.1.10 – Letter #10

I have not sent you without provision and sufficiency. All that you need is resident in you, for I am your sufficiency and your provider. Look to me, your source, and cease looking upon the things of others. I have loved you with an everlasting love. My promises to you are not empty, vain promises. My promises are sure and reliable. Look to me, for I cannot lie. It is impossible for me to lie. I am not as the gods of the world who seek to destroy. I came to save men's lives, not to destroy them; therefore, trust me with all that you have. Trust with all your heart, and know that I am faithful. I will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able to bear. With every temptation, I make a way of escape that you may be able to bear all things. I am full of purpose. You must return to my purpose and not your own. Your purpose in the land is not the same as men of darkness. Though the children of darkness are wiser than the children of light, I have not sent you to live after their purpose. My purpose has been clearly declared and made known to you; therefore, rise up from man's way and return to my way. I have restored your prayer relationship with me and magnified the relationship many times. Now shall you see the many things that have been foretold by prophecy. I shall show you that the spirit of prophecy is not a ministry that cannot be trusted but that the spirit of prophecy is the same as the spirit of prophecy of old. As the Holy Ghost moved upon holy men of old, so is the Holy Ghost moving upon holy men of today. I am moving upon the church.

Now write the things that I say. "Do not fear, neither draw back because of criticism and condemnation. As the people of old despised the prophets of their day, so shall the people of today despise my true prophets. Do not think it strange when they cast you out of their company and separate you from their groups. Do not think it strange when they cast your name out as evil for my name's sake, but rejoice for the great reward that you have inherited. The evidence of their rejection of you is testimony of their perdition. Now rise up in faith and proclaim all that I place in your mouth. This is a new day, a new hour, and a new thing. Behold the new thing that I do, for I do show myself strong on behalf of my name. Hear the voice of the Spirit, and be assured of my faithfulness. I have promised, and I will perform continually. Continue in faith. Continue in love. Continue pressing toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Forget the things which are behind, for they have passed on to their destination. All that you did not store up in heaven shall be as dung; therefore, do not look back for anything."

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word will not pass away. The word of the Lord lives and abides forever. Listen to the voice of faith in your ears and know that the way is made plain. Walk in these paths of righteousness for my name's sake. These paths are paths of victory and safe havens for your family. Continue to look unto me, the author and the finisher of your faith. I have not forgotten my promises to you. Reach forth the hand of praise, and receive the blessings promised by the mouth of the Lord. Only believe.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - Be Assured of God's Faithfulness in This New Day, a New Hour, and New Thing

God's plans for us are not plays for our disappointment. As he moves us into new dimensions and new days filled with that which we had never thought would happen, we should not be shocked but filled with expectation. New things were never intended to be pitfalls but opportunities to stretch out our faith. Our provision will not fail. Our enemy will try to convince us that God will not come through or that we should just give up because the way is too hard. We have made up our minds to ascend into the heights of the blessings of God. We are told that in the heights there are lion's and leopard's dens, but we know who has them on a short chain. Destruction is not our residence. Satan has always attacked the credibility of God's promises and our own susceptibility to failure. As the Lord told Peter, he has done the same for us. He has prayed for us that our faith fail us not. Our faith is not on trial; we are living by the faith of the Son of God who loved us and gave his life for us. Faith worketh by love. God does not start a work of any kind and then leave it to chance in our lives. New things will be formed in our lives, and the hand of the distracter cannot defeat the purpose of God in our lives. We shall walk in confidence and know that he will continue to bless and lead the church and our families no matter what other lying spirits say.

RE: RHEMA - Experience the Opportunity and the Success of Jesus Christ upon the Face of the Impossible

Our inheritance is in the light and not in the kingdom of darkness. Light has ushered us into treasure vaults of revelation that excite us every waking moment. As joint heirs with Christ, we have the victory and the restored relationship that he has won for every child of Adam. Everything that was lost in Adam has been regained in Jesus. Eternity's infinite flow has been started again in the second man Adam. Treasures await those who will not allow themselves to be limited by earthly thinking. All our impossibilities have been placed on the work table of heaven's workshop. Our certain defeat at the hands of the enemy will be fashioned into the greatest triumph in the power of the cross. As we boldly declare the greatness of the working of the Lord in the earth and our lives, we will be catapulted into the dimension that we were fashioned to dwell in. Every whirling and confusing spirit will be caught up in the whirlwind of God's power and swept into oblivion. We are a tailor-made success in Jesus Christ.

◆ My forbearance in relationship to you cannot be calculated. I have spared you although you should not be spared. The delay in punishment cannot be measured.

347. How much is it worth to you to receive deferred payment of sins?

◆ Do not think that the situation that I have allowed into your life is a strange thing. This is the trying of your faith and a new dimension to your life. The enemy meant this for bad, but I meant it for good.

348. Do you love me?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Marco Mendoza

I am thankful, O Lord, to know that your plans for me include thoughts of peace and to give me an expected end. This assures me that you will move me into new dimensions and new days filled with expectancy of things I can't even begin to imagine. I am grateful for the continual doors of opportunity that you open and for the provision that you provide in my life to express the faith that you gave me. Although the enemy tries to convince me that you will not come through or that I should just give up because the way is too hard, I know that you are faithful and will not allow me to be tempted far more than I am able to handle. Thank you for giving me the mind of Christ so that I can ascend into the heights of your blessings. All things are held together by the word of your power, and I know if you allow it, it's all going to work out for my good.

My hope is in you; therefore, I am assured that destruction is not my residence. I rejoice because your promises are sure and the attacks from the devil on your credibility and my own susceptibility to failure do not determine the fulfillment of your promises. The very thought that you have already prayed for me that my faith fails not encourages me, even more so is the fact that I am living by the faith of the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me. I praise you, and I am glad that you started a good work in me. You are the Creator of all things, and I wait in anticipation for the new things that will be formed in my life by your creative power. My confidence is in you, and I rest in assurance that you will continue to bless me and lead the church and our families no matter what lying spirits say. I magnify your wonderful name for the privilege to serve you!

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Recently God spoke to me when many people were having difficulty with thoughts of what would happen next. Even if God had healed and delivered them from one event, there was worry about what would come next to battle them. I was pointed to John chapter 14 and then back to chapter 13. We are encouraged that we should not let our hearts be troubled. Troubled is from a Hebrew word that is a picture of captives of war with terrible hooks in their jaws or lips. It also pictures the head of that same captive looking at the knife of the captor about to punch the captive's eye out. What a picture of trouble not only feeling the pain of your present trouble but looking for what will happen next. Yet Jesus said to not be troubled in our hearts. He would not leave us comfortless. This means in the Greek that he would not leave us like a fatherless orphan! He had just got through revealing himself as our heavenly Father. This revelation that becomes a relationship is the most powerful thing in the kingdom. God is so full of purpose that we have to ask ourselves why this is where it is in the book of John and in the Bible. Look at the previous chapter. It contains the betrayal by Judas and the denial of Peter. When we add it all up, this is the message we receive. "I will never leave you as a fatherless orphan. I will never betray you into the hands of trouble, and I will never deny you as my own into the hands of trouble!"

The Power of God Is Not Limited by the Spirits of the Age

Series 7.1.11 – Letter #11

Do not let your heart be troubled. Though the earth be filled with violence and the way of the wicked seems prosperous, I will manifest my glory in the presence of all this. Lift your eyes unto the finisher of your faith. I have not started a good work to end in a bad work. Hope does not make you ashamed. Go and learn of the true faith of the father Abraham. Know of a truth, that I have not allowed you to come to this point in redemption to allow the force of the curse to flood your life. I have brought you out of bondage and into light that is marvelous. Lift your eyes from the pit of voices that beckon your faith. Lift your eyes from these things, for these things have no power over you. Though they threaten you, they cannot enforce their threats; therefore, lift up the voices of praise in the sanctuary and in your temple. Now let all speak of my power and speak of my glory. My glory is filling every appointed place. Do not allow the strange spirits of the age to intimidate you, but abound over these things in thanksgiving. Allow your legs to leap with the expression of the mountain creatures. I have given you power, and that power is not limited by the spirits of the age, but my power is greater than all power of the enemy. Come from your corners of fear. Come from your pits of depression. Come from your wayward journeys. Come from your distressful human efforts. Come from your self-willed employment by the enemy. Come to me. I have rest for you. Enter into my rest, and I will show you my works.

RE: RHEMA - The Power of God Is Not Limited by the Spirits of the Age

"Greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world" is not a trite expression. It is just as fresh as the first day it was spoken. Our culture and times are immersed in the spirits of the enemy that are permeating everything that is around. His kingdom is not of this world. Its power base is above all the daily confusion that clouds the horizon. Current trends and fashion do not affect that which is eternal.

Everything here on earth and in our time is temporary. We are not looking at the seen things of the natural but at the unseen, eternal power of the Almighty. We are not the hostages of the spirits of depression and negativism of this day. We have been delivered by everlasting joy that is not limited by circumstances. Ever flowing in us is a fountain that the drain holes of this age can never compare to. We will arise every morning with joy in our hearts and faith-filled eyes and look beyond the smog of the spirits of this age. Our eyes have seen the King of kings! We will begin the celebration of victory ahead of time in the face of all our enemies.

RE: RHEMA - Walk in the Light of Righteousness and Confidence in God

Traps and snares await those who are not in tune with the voice of the Lord. Because we hearken to his voice, the curse is exposed and the blessing of the Lord is made clear. We are not ignorant of Satan's devices. He uses pride for the trap-stick or that which triggers the trap. God will exalt the humble with the grace to realize that everything that comes to our life is through him. Victory is the position of relationship that we have as long as we always remember the battle is the Lord's. Effectively, we crush the incursions of the enemy when we put our hand in the hand that designs every moment of our yielded lives.

◆ The accuser of the brethren has brought you before my throne and accused you of loving another more than me; therefore, this trial was sent your way. You must prove the worth that grace has supplied you with.

350. Are you worthy of me?

◆ Do not think that the situations that have happened unto you are unusual. These things are not out of the ordinary. You should expect these things, for I have told you of them in my word. Though these things have brought unto you great pain, disappointment, rejection, betrayal, and sorrow, they are the ingredients of greater good that is in the making. These things are alien to the mentality of some Christians, for they do not know me in the fellowship of my sufferings.

351. How can you rule over disappointment, grief, sorrow, rejection, betrayal, and impossibility if you have not overcome them?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Rigo Toledo

I lift up my eyes unto you Lord, the author and finisher of my faith. I am glad you have not started a good work in me to end in a bad work. I am complete in you, and faith and hope in your eternal promises will not disappoint. You have brought me out of bondage and into your marvelous light. I lift up my eyes and praise your name and glorify your wonderful works of grace. Praising your name has created the stepping stones of success that I need in any arena of life. As I focus on you, I see the stairway of angels ascending and descending upon situations in my life. Your kingdom is not of this world. Its power is above all the confusing clouds of this world. Your love abounds upon the horizon of my life because you are faithful, and I am grateful. The trends and fashion of this world do not affect that which is eternal. You are eternal from everlasting to everlasting. I am not looking at the seen things of the natural realm as my assurance of your love, but I look unto you the Almighty. You are the same yesterday, today, and forever. Your blood has spoken better things than the voice of my foe. I rejoice for the speaking blood of the Lamb has spoken deliverance on my behalf. I call on the name of Jesus and rejoice in the deliverance that can only come in your name. I understand that there is no other name under the heavens in which I can truly find deliverance. Thank you for your delivering and saving name.

PRAYER INSIGHT

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

When we look at the heavens, we see the bold declaration of the glory and power of God. In Romans, the creation displays the unseen, eternal power of God clearly. Because of distance that is light years beyond our imagination there are things that are happening in the universe and that are coming our way that will not be here in our view for years to come. It exists and is in operation, but it has not arrived yet. God's power of promises is eternal. If they have not arrived, they are on their way and nothing can hinder them. Just as tomorrow's sunlight is just beneath the surface of the sun so are our God-given promises and provisions for tomorrow. We do not see them yet, but they are on their way. We stand in thanksgiving and praise for them as they are about to arrive on the ladder of grace that is in our life from heaven to earth.

1 Timothy 1:18

The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
