Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

The Tracks of Redemption Along the Path of Cross-bearing

Series 6.10.13 – Letter #287

The time has arrived that I spoke to you of in times past concerning those whom I would bring to sit at the table of victory and eat the bread of victory. I have given you much bread that you might feed my lambs. Open your mouth wide, and allow the bread of life to be poured into their lives. The bread of victory shall satisfy their hunger. Many have poured the diet of the world into their lives, and their appetites are spoiled for spiritual things. Back away from those who are not hungry for righteousness that I might develop in them appetites for living bread by the fiery trials that I send their way. Leave them to me, for I know how to produce healthy appetites in them. I am the builder of the church. If you labor without me, then you labor in vain. If you stay awake to keep the house, then you will remain awake in vain unless I keep the house and the city. Look unto me, the author and the finisher of this faith. I have begun a good work, and I will finish this good work. I did not begin it to halt my building of this work in its unfinished stage. I counted the cost and deposited the necessary provision in the account of sufficiency aforetime. Now behold the faith of Jesus Christ, and do not worry about finishing the work. I have already finished this work. Now walk in the fulfillment that is before you.

My steps are marked. They are clearly marked and set before your face. Do not expect to find the tracks of redemption along the highway of worldliness and lack of sacrifice. The path of self-denial and the path of cross-bearing are necessary if you are to follow the blood stained tracks of redemption.

How will you follow me if you do not have a cross?

How will you follow me if you do not have a love for me?

How will you follow me if you do not have a love for the lost?

How will you follow me if you do not have faith?

How will you follow me if you do not deny yourself?

How will you follow me if you are a friend to the world?

How will you follow me without the true gospel message?

The message of redemption has gone throughout the earth. The message did not begin here. It began in Jerusalem. This is the uttermost part of the earth. Now shall the end come, for this gospel has been preached throughout the world. You say, "Has it really?"

Go to your map, and learn of the geography of redemption. There will you find that the gospel has come from Jerusalem unto this part of the world. Now I do return to those who rejected me, for they do fashion their lips to say, “Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.” I will reveal myself unto them and pardon their sins. I shall fill them with my Spirit and seal the new covenant in their hearts. My love for them does burn again, and now I do prepare for the end times with them.

Make your calling and election sure, for the hour has come for the quick work among the Gentiles. Look unto the stars, and see if you can discern the times. Look unto the news reports, and see if you can tell the time. The red sky of redemption has flashed across your mind, and the light of the glorious gospel has appeared unto you in this hour. Look to me now, for I do show you great and mighty things that you have never known.

Do not fear to trust me, for I am your source. Do not look upon your own things, neither upon that which appears to be secure. I am your source and your security. There is no security in things or in money. I am the source; therefore, trust in the source. Your present financial trial is to snatch away your trust in money, things, and people and to bring you back to total trust in me, the only Lord God. Lift up your head unto these hands of provision, and know that I have already provided for you and settled all the issues that the enemy desires you to entertain and focus upon. Do not focus upon your impossibilities, but focus your faith upon your God, the source of miracles.

RE: RHEMA - The Tracks of Redemption Along the Path of Cross-bearing

We have been seated at the table of victory. Our diet should never be received from the table of defeat. Defeat and despair are the kitchens that supply much of the world's menu. We have a continual feast of fat things because he has prepared his feast, and it always has living bread in abundance on the table that makes the hearts of men glad. The one who has redeemed us will never leave us to be poisoned by the spoiled food of this world. Our confidence in ourselves will always cause us to have spiritual indigestion. His promises are the predigested honey in our mouth. His pathway led him through storms and difficulties with his disciples, but he emphasized over and over again that he would be with them, and they would be victorious on the other side. It seems it is not a time to shout on this side of the shadow of our test and trial. The same one who walked in the path of suffering that we would not have to was tempted in all points as we have been. Our cross is not a symbol or piece of art or jewelry. Our cross is the killing of self that resides in our flesh. Our flesh will always contend to be its own god. Our suffering and trials are to crucify this disorderly resident. As we slay the flesh, the faith of the Lord that lives in this temple will illuminate the house with brilliant rainbows of provision already provided.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Do not boast against those who do not rise early. Simply come as a partaker of the strength of grace. Grace brought you here. Now speak of my glory, and talk of my power in your body, the temple of the Holy Ghost. The Father of lights and the Father of spirits summoned you. I removed sleep from your eyes and drew you to the throne of grace. A scepter of righteousness is granted you by imputation, and a hand of mercy is granted to you because of my love. The innocent blood of Jesus has covered you, and the renewing of the Holy Ghost has graced you with a sanctified presence.

RE: RHEMA - Make Your Decision Concerning Life and Death at the Throne of Grace Today

Grace has been given the highest dominion of all the workings of God. It is truly the spiritual chariot throne of deliverance that all the prophets saw riding in the heavens. Even David saw a glimpse of it in the 68th Psalm. Grace takes any situation and issue of life and frames it in the proper perspective. If our attitudes in life are always directed from the throne of grace, then even the most negative situation will not rule over us, but we will reign in life through the judgments of his throne of grace. If Israel had harkened to his voice, they would have remained in the land forever. God would have subdued all their enemies before them, and they would not have remained to be thorns in their side. Gospel truth, couched in the terms of grace, leads us to the only righteousness that can be imputed to our account. Grace is the paradox in salvation and death. Death is turned inside out by obedience to the burial in baptism and its infilling of the spirit of grace. Mercy and grace are the open doors into deliverance from rebellion into the freedom of the law of the spirit of life. Its chambers cause the chambers of pleasure to look like trash compared to the treasures of his blessing we find there.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ I gave you a heart of thanksgiving. Now express your appreciation for the things that I have done for you. You did not arrive in this place of yourself. I am responsible for bringing you here. Everything that I have allowed has been for your good. The devil meant things in your life for bad, but I meant them for good. I have allowed you to avoid many bad things that the evil one planned for you. Be thankful. Do not allow your gratitude to remain unexpressed, for appreciation that is not expressed is dead. The usual way of expressing gratitude is by thanksgiving. Your tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Write a thank you note with the voice of thanksgiving. You are blessed.

136. Who blessed you?

137. Can you really say that you are thankful if you will not give thanks to the one who did things for you?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I am so thankful to be called and appointed to be among those whom you have sat at the table of victory to eat the bread of life. I am one of your sheep, and I hear your voice. I appreciate the appetite for righteousness and the living bread you have instilled in me. I glorify your name because of your great fidelity, for I watch and labor in vain if you are not the one watching and keeping my house. Thank you for the grace to follow you. I count it a joy to be counted worthy to suffer shame for your name.

Now, by your grace, I strive to reciprocate the love you have expressed toward me. I will give it back to you and express it to others as well.

I strive to seek and save those who are lost. I strive to carry my cross and deny myself that I may stay in the middle of your loving grace. I do not want to be counted as your enemy; therefore, by your grace, I must keep under my body lest after I have preached to others that I would not be a castaway. I realize that the time is far spent and you could come back for your bride at any time. I take comfort in knowing that you are coming back for your purchased possession. I look forward with anticipation to your return. I have a renewed confidence in you, knowing that though I may die, yet with my eyes will I see you, my Savior. I praise you with a heart of gratitude for all the forbearance and patience you have exercised toward me. I rejoice with your mercy as it rejoices against judgment. Thank you Jesus!

PRAYER INSIGHT

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We have been called to be a burning light and witness in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. We hold forth the word of truth and shine as lights in the midst of their darkness. We are blessed when we are persecuted for righteousness sake. We are in good company such as that of John on Patmos for the testimony of Jesus Christ. Just as the disciples counted it all joy when they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name, so are we filled with joy when we are reproached for the name of Jesus Christ. We keep ourselves under subjection to the Spirit of God and do not allow the flesh to dictate our actions. Too many are lost, and the time is too short for us to indulge ourselves in personal fantasies. We are looking for the rapture and wanting to gather all that we can together with us unto him.

The Star Approaches with Sufficient Redemption

Series 6.10.14 – Letter #288

The day of the Lord shall come as a thief in the night upon those who do not know me and those who do not love my appearing. Arm yourself with the mind of Christ so that you are not found with a love for the world in your heart. If anyone loves the world, then my love is not in them. All that is in the world is the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of this life, which is not of the Father but is of the world. You must choose whom you will serve. I am the Master of redemption and the Prince of the kings of the earth. The day star has approached your house with plenteous redemption, and now there is no avenue for sin that leads to your door. All avenues are cut off because of redemption. Let us go on unto the day star and the catching away of the Lamb's wife.

Series 6.10.14 – Confession #288

The day of the Lord shall come as a thief in the night upon those who do not know the Lord and those who do not love his appearing. I purpose to arm myself with the mind of Christ so that I am not found with a love for the world in my heart. I determine to not love the world; therefore, the love of God will remain in me. RE: RHEMA - The Star Approaches with Sufficient Redemption

Every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father of lights. There is no shadow or eclipse of his greatness. Stars create their own gravity; therefore, if the day star has arisen in our hearts then, he has released us from the pull of this world and the lusts of this present world. Our redemption not only draweth near, but the one who is the author and finisher of our faith will complete his work in us. He will preserve us blameless, body, soul, and spirit until he comes. Sin is a trespasser on the streets of redemption. It will be arrested by the blood of the cross.

Righteousness belongs to me. Many have confused faces because they have sinned by pride and self-righteousness. Mercy belongs to me. Forgiveness belongs to me. Grant me glory and honor for what I have done, and cast aside the filthy rags of vain works.

RE: RHEMA - With Your Heart, Believe unto Righteousness, and With Your Mouth, Confess unto Salvation

Our confession and our profession are one and the same. They are translated from the same word in the original Greek but are used as two different words. Whether we hold it fast or we steadfastly continue to declare it, we will receive the abundance that is riding in its vanguard. Our confession will demolish the lies of the enemy. He would like for us to confess our worst fears. God's faithfulness is greater than the sum total of all our fears. Our heart is the avenue that expresses the depths of our being. Our mind only processes the thoughts of the heart. As we confess with our mouth unto salvation, we are launched into an arena of victory that will supersede the hand to hand combat fought by many. Faith calls light out of darkness. Love calls grace out of hate. Confessions of faith call creation out of condemnation. Flowing streams of peace are the fountains of the mouth that will never be silent in the presence of the Holy One. Trials are the trigger that we pull on the tests that turn into the targets that win the battle all at once.

Trouble wants to dictate the results of our lives. Truth liberates us from the failure that would blind our minds to the torture racks of torment. Our words flow like a stream into the statements that God and will be the notice that he nails on the gates of hell. Our bold assertion of power is, "We will prevail!" We will not confess sickness or defeat. We are not in the midst of sticking our head in the sand, but we are in the presence of the one who multiplies stars like the grains of sand. We will not sleep and slumber, but we will break the empty pitcher and shout with the sword of the Lord upon those horizons that seemed to be filled with the armies of defeat.

◆ It is impossible for thankless people to be divinely blessed. One secret to being successful is thankfulness.

138. If you will not give thanks for the things you have now, how will you be thankful if you are successful?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

October 14, 2008

Lord, you are good and you are perfect. I acknowledge that every good and perfect gift comes from you. You are the giver of life and I thank you for the abundant life that you have given to me. Keep me in my right mind so that I won't be caught not looking and loving your appearing. When you appear as a thief in the night to some, I want to be caught awaiting your arrival. You said that we should covet the best gifts; therefore, I covet the mind of Christ. I am grateful that you have released me from the pull of the world and the lusts of this present world. I know that if I love the world, then your love is not in me.

Thank you for deliverance from the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life. You resist the proud but give grace to the humble. Your plenteous redemption has approached my house and for this I am grateful. You are the author and the finisher of my faith, and you will preserve me blameless until you return. I will not blink at sin that trespasses on the streets of redemption, but I am confident that it will be arrested by the blood of your cross.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Jesus Christ is able to preserve us blameless until his coming as we walk in the Spirit with him. We are not standing in terror or fear but in anticipation of his coming. We remain on a daily vigil for his appearing. We are aware that we do not know the hour, but we can sense the nearness of his arrival to catch us away unto him. We have tasted of the powers of the world to come, and the world that is to come is speaking to us on a constant and consistent basis. We are determined to allow the operation of every gift that comes from him in our daily lives. Lust may try to divert our attention, but our eyes are upon our beloved, and we are looking at the finish line and the completion of his work here on earth. Sin will not have dominion over us, but we have been given the dominion over every foe by the sacrifice of the cross.

Look Up to the Name Which Transports the Blood of Redemption

Series 6.10.15 – Letter #289

I have delivered you by the hands of redemption. You are now bought back from all bondage. There is no payment due the lords of the house of bondage, for I paid them in full for your freedom. Do not look back to the house of bondage, neither be full of fear and regret, but look ahead to the arrival of your redemption that is drawing nearer each day. Your redemption draws near; therefore, love my appearing that you might be caught away in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, for I shall surely come for those who are called by my name. I will not come for those who are ashamed to wear my name, neither for those who reject this glorious name of the Father. I will take out a people from among the Gentiles for my name's sake. Those who will not wear the emblem of reproach that is in my name shall not be worthy of my Spirit, nor my kingdom.

I have revealed the glory of my name unto you; therefore, proclaim the power of my name in salvation and in living. I alone did redeem you. I spread abroad the earth by myself and stretched forth the heavens by myself. There are no strange, similar gods with me. I have not counseled with any other gods. I do not know any other. I, even I, am the Savior, and beside me there is no savior, nor any other gods. I am one. I have one name, and it is Jesus. It is the highest, most glorious name ever revealed or named. Cherish the revelation of my name, and depart from iniquity, for everyone who names the name of Christ cannot be a part of iniquity.

What fellowship does the light have with the darkness?

What fellowship does the temple of Christ have with the temple of idols?

What fellowship does righteousness have with unrighteousness?

Come from the disturbing fellowship of the darkness, and abide in the light of my love. I am the one omnipotent overseer of the church, which is called by my name. I am the head of all principality and power. Lift up your head unto the hills of salvation again, and behold the one Lord of the Jews. Abraham saw my day and was glad. Do not be a part of a false doctrine, lest you become an enemy of the spirit of truth. I am the truth, and there is no lie in me. Everything that is not of the truth is a lie and darkness. There is no darkness in me. I am the living God, and in me there is no variableness, neither a shadow of turning. I am the Lord, and I do not change.

Lift up your voice and cry aloud, for the days of the end have been ushered upon the earth. Violence has covered the earth as a blanket, and the only safety is the tower of safety, which is my name. Why attempt to hide in my tower of safety if you will not wear my name in baptism?

Do not be wise in your own eyesight and reject the truth of my name. The strong delusion of God is vented upon the minds of those who do not love the truth. Lift up your eyes and see that the coming of Messiah is more than a knock at the door, but the hands of redemption are reaching for the hearts of my beloved ones. Be accepted in the beloved, and walk in the light of truth. The darkness that covers the entire earth shall encase and cover all who do not walk in the light. The hour of truth is presented. The glory of redemption is proclaimed. Now shall the prince of the darkness rejoice as those who reject truth enter into his slave chambers of torture and torment. Lift up your eyes unto the blood of redemption and the name that bears this blood, for by this blood you walk out of the pits where there is no water. Hear the word of the Lord, for by my Spirit I have spoken. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah. Jesus is my name.

The strong delusion of God is vented upon the minds of those who do not love the truth. I have lifted up my eyes and seen that the coming of Messiah is more than a knock at the door, but the hands of redemption are reaching for the hearts of his beloved ones. I have been accepted in the beloved, and I am walking in the light of truth. The darkness that covers the entire earth shall encase and cover all who do not walk in the light. The hour of truth is presented. The glory of redemption is proclaimed. Now shall the prince of the darkness rejoice as those who reject truth enter into his slave chambers of torture and torment. I have lifted up my eyes unto the blood of redemption and the name that bears this blood, for by his blood, I have walked out of the pits where there is no water. I have heard the word of the Lord, for by his Spirit he has spoken. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah. Jesus is his name.

RE: RHEMA - Look Up to the Name Which Transports the Blood of Redemption

We have been ransomed out of the dungeons of condemnation and death. We have been redeemed from the feeling of the curse and fear. The Lord has delivered us from the spirit of bondage. The name of Jesus is the consummate meaning of the kinsman redeemer. He is not only the one who pays the price to buy us back from the servitude of sin, but he is the avenger of his people and our vindicator. We have been justified beyond the accusations of the liar. Our lawyer has destroyed all the evidence when he nailed it to his cross. When we run into the name of the Lord, the strong tower will shower the invaders of our lives with the arrows of truth that will put them to flight. The Creator that has stretched out the universe like a curtain will unfold his banner of love over us. His name is to be declared all the day long. It is like the trumpets of call to battle, worship, and the moving of the camp. Our fellowship is not with darkness or the false idols of the darkness. We do not lift up the icons of today, but we love the one who is the same yesterday, today, and forever. His name is still the blood covering on the door posts of life. Death is coming to those who do not believe in the power of his blood to cover us. We will eat the whole lamb with living bread and wait to go out of Egypt at midnight.

RE: RHEMA - Enabling Grace and Abundant Mercy Leaping with Us in Their Arms and Bringing Us unto Great Victory

Condemnation and judgment will always reach for us to throw us against the wall of punishment. It lifts its stones of accusation in the loud voice of torment. From above there is a voice that claims us as his own. He proclaims, "These are mine. They will not be judged by your courts of law but before the throne of grace." Heaven has purchased us with the blood that we could never afford. He who became poor for our sakes has graciously granted us the exemptions of the freedom from the jurisdiction of this world. Our destiny is in the hands of the heavenly courts. Grace always lifts us up above the crushing blows of condemnation. He never says, "O ye my sinners but O ye my children." Grace always lifts us above the mundane level of life into the throne rooms of power and love where the family of grace is enjoying his inheritance now.

By Michael Hannah

October 15, 2008

Lord, I am so thankful this morning for the knowledge of your truth that has made me free. My freedom resides in the banner of your name, where the door posts of my life are covered by your blood. I shall not go out of the door of my house until my confession of truth is presented, and the glory of redemption is proclaimed. I thank you for freeing me from the dungeons of condemnation and delivering me from the slave chambers of death. Although the covering of darkness is sent to encase those who do not walk in the light, because of your great grace I have the privilege to walk in the light of truth. I am elated to be part of the sheepfold of your pasture. By your hands of redemption, I have been bought back from all bondage. I rejoice that all the hosts of heaven have been sent to battle my enemies that have come against me.

I am grateful that your grace has granted me acceptance in you, my beloved. I am full of thanksgiving to declare your name all the day long, for I purpose not to be quiet and allow the trumpet of truth to be silent. I give you praise as your redemption is drawing me nearer, for in a moment and in the twinkling of an eye, you will catch away all those who are called by your name. I lift up my head unto the hills of salvation again, and I lift up my eyes to see your coming. I worship you and run into your name, which is Jesus. It is the highest, most glorious name ever revealed. I thank you, Lord, that you are knocking at my door today and reaching for my heart. I lift my arms and praise your holy name!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our Passover Lamb is the Lord Jesus Christ. We have been delivered by his blood and cleansed from all iniquity. His blood purges our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Just as the waters of the Red Sea delivered Israel and destroyed the world that was attacking them, so does the blood of Jesus deliver us and destroy the body of sin in us. God's grace has so delivered us and hidden us in him to be a testimony of deliverance to those who are in such torment and bondage. Our freedom from the pits of despair and the prisons of condemnation should ring out daily in a song that would encompass the land.

Wisdom's Recovery of Talents

Series 6.10.16 – Letter #290

The light of the world is not insufficient, but it is all sufficient. Your sufficiency is not of yourself, but it is of me. Lift up your voice for the light of the world, and proclaim the good news of my death, burial, and resurrection. My death was given to you as a present of love. By my love and my death, I have proclaimed to you my faithfulness. Shall I give my life for you and not provide for you?

Shall I give my life for you and not protect you?

Shall I give my life for you and not guide you through this life?

I gave my life a ransom for your sins, and now I do show forth the clarity of vision for the purpose of manifesting the fulfillment of my vision, which is given unto you by the Spirit. The Spirit within you knows where it is going. The gift within you leaps to arrive at its destination.

Lift up your voice in praise, and proclaim the good news of my death, burial, and resurrection, for the power of God unto salvation is in that message. The message of redemption is not an outdated message, but the message of the cross is fresh and vibrant in power and effectiveness. Those who are perishing despise the preaching of the cross and name it foolishness, but to those who are saved it is the power of God. Open your mouth wide, and proclaim the good news of my death, burial, and resurrection, for the shame of the world cannot be removed without the good news of this event in history.

I brought good news to this world. Now lift up your voice, and proclaim the greatness of the message of my name. I have not lifted you from the pits and stripped you of everything. There were gifts and talents in you when I saved you. Now take all that you have that is good, and use it for my glory. You have counted many things lost, but wisdom dove deep into the pit of shame and retrieved the things that I want to use in your life. The enemy cannot strip you of the things that I desire to keep in your "ability bank;" therefore, know of a truth that the things that I have sent forth in your life are working together for good. I love you, and you are called according to my purpose. Lift up your eyes now, and see the great things that I am doing. Do not fear the evildoers of the age, for you are hidden in me. Remain in this hiding place. Death and disease shall pass over. Poverty and pride will not find you in this hiding place, for they all must "check in" at the door of salvation. I will reject all the things that are not of me; therefore, prepare to unload, and cast out all the unwanted baggage that shall be stamped for rejection by my Spirit.

RE: RHEMA - Wisdom's Recovery of Talents

Jesus' prophetic voice within us has declared his intentions, and he will not lie. He has sworn that what he said will come to pass. We can of surety attach a double yes to every promise he has made. In the prophecy, he has given the vision. All those in the book of Hebrews saw the promises afar off. They embraced them and were persuaded by them even though they did not receive them. We, however, have received so many of the precious promises of the Lord. We have a bold assurance that he will never allow the enemy to spoil our camp but he allows us to recover everything as David did at Ziglag. We are hidden behind the walls of his protective power. The things that once brutalized our hearts and minds are withheld from coming into us. Everything that we count loss will be balanced by the blessings that he has loaded us daily with. Wisdom built a house, and we are part of the construction plans. Our fortifications have been reinforced by the voice of wisdom crying in the high places of the city. Wisdom can turn every failure into fabulous faith if we allow it to have its perfect work.

RE: RHEMA - The Inexhaustible Supply of God Has Supplied All Things for Now and in the Future

Peace is the result of eternal tidings that wrap our soul in its infinite plans. Eternity hides around the corner of our perception. His supply seems just out of our reach, but as we reach for him we already have our fingers on the door of his inexhaustible supply. If we were to divide by millions and subtract by billions, we would still not have enough words to describe all the things that he brings to one dimension of time. He opens his hand, and every living thing is fed. He opens his mouth, and every fiber of our being vibrates with abundant life beyond our capacity to hold it all. We are, many times, satisfied with our needs in this life being met. This is just the dust on the doorsteps of eternity. All our requests added together are just a spot on the windshield of the vehicle of his supply that is racing toward us. In his love, he has promised all things in this world and the world to come. Streets of gold and mansions are just faint ripples in the pool of Love's infinite supply. He has begun a good work in us. He will not fail to bring everything to the building site of our lives to finish the project. Tomorrow's sunlight is just beneath the surface of the sun. Yet, it is coming this way! Tomorrow's supply is on the landing pad as we speak. If God supplied 20 billion quail for Israel for their lust, then faith has an unlimited supply of promise on the train of love that is pulling into our station.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We have been given so many weapons of truth. God has opened his armory, and we know that it is the neck or the speaking mechanism of the bride. He has loosed the weapons of his indignation, and we are using the sword of the Spirit in prayer and in worship. His words are the arrows of truth that are shot from the bow of praise and worship. His promises in our life will not just hold the enemy at arm's length but destroy him. We will not lose anything to the enemy, but the enemy will have to repay seven times what he has taken from us. Our faces are not stained with the tears of terror, but we are ablaze with the reflection of the countenance of the one who is looking upon our every breath and action to keep us safe unto himself.

The Night of the Last Days Through the Lens of Prophecy

Series 6.10.17 – Letter #291

I have brought life into your vessels. This life is abundant and full of purpose. The resources of this life cannot be exhausted or depleted. Do not look to the economy of the world for your abundant life, but look to the economy of my grace. My grace is sufficient for you; therefore, rest in the blessed assurance of my love. I have not started a good work in you and then faltered in efforts to finish the work that I have begun. I am the author and the finisher. I will surely finish the good work I have started.

The night of the last days approaches the earth, and its darkness can be seen through spiritual eyes now. Look through the lens of prophecy, and see that the darkness of night hovers for a while over the horizon of my longsuffering. I must thrust the arms of grace through the earth again to bring out those who love my appearing. Come and follow me in sincerity and in truth so that I may use you as a vessel of honor and power to win the lost. Do not be selfish and keep the testimony of your salvation to yourself, but go and proclaim the good news of the gospel that saved you. I am the light of the end times. There is no other light.

Lift up your voice, and proclaim the good news to those who are waiting outside of the ark of my name. I will give you words that you have not heard. I will give you a mouth and wisdom. The gainsayers speak, yet their voices are as the voices that spoke when I walked the earth in the tabernacle of the Son of man. I shall put them to silence and pluck up everything that I did not plant. Go on unto the purpose, for I have a work to do in these end times that shall confound the gainsayers and the false prophets. I am your light and your salvation; therefore, do not fear. I am the strength of your life; therefore, do not be afraid. Go on, and preach the good news of my death, burial, and resurrection.

RE: RHEMA - The Night of the Last Days Through the Lens of Prophecy

Prophecy equips us with the perfect frame of reference to view the last days through. We are not looking at the famine, the earthquakes, the floods, or the disease, but we are looking at the one who has all power over the events of time. In the midst of trouble, there was blessing on Israel in the land of Goshen. While a flood swallowed up the world, there was plenty on the ark. Naomi fled the famine and found worse. We should not look for what to flee from but who to flee to. Gainsayers and false prophets will mock and scoff at the promise of bread in the time when people were eating babies, but they will get run over in the stampede for plenty. Our God is the God who gives plenty to his people in the wilderness. The world may seem empty on its table, but this is the perfect setting for him to give us abundance in the face of ambivalence. We are not looking for a smoking ruin, but we shall behold the skies running over with the glory of his coming.

RE: RHEMA - Authoritative Grace Labors Effectually and Prevents Sin from Ruling Over Us While Aborting the Menace of Failure

Thank you for this wonderful word of grace in dealing with failure. The Lord gave me this word on failure and dealing with it.

Receive a fresh revelation of my power and grace. In the difficulty, I will bring forth victory. Out of the deepest pit will walk dynamic deity. Out of the awful situation will be revealed my awesomeness. Out of your lowest points, I will cause you to ascend to my highest points of blessing. Be as Job who saw creation's graphic beauty sweep the night sky of his pain with the canvas of spoken power. Be as Ezekiel who saw the vaulted ceilings of captivity retracted to see the open door of heaven where the universe poured out glittering and shimmering jewels of a billion points of power. Behold John as he lifted his face from the sandy granite hardness of isolation to see the one who took him and the church with one hand and with the other hand opened the door of time and carried them into and eternity where no harsh hands would ever inflict suffering on his body again.

Look as Moses when he lifted his eyes above the limp tents of the groaning, complaining masses to see me mobilize days of creation like troops on parade to march down into the formless void of the beginning of time. See David as he grabbed angels and stars as he danced in his dreams across fields of battle that others had never fought on before. Isaiah saw the heavens filled with the measureless greatness of my ability to mete out the heavens with the span of my hand and stretch out everything out of the closet of nothing. Daniel wept for home but soon beheld the builder of the houses of eternity push down kingdoms and build temples and kingdoms that only kings could dream of. In the lion's den, he saw his Creator cradle lions like kittens and feed them with the milk of silence.

When David looked so painfully into the mirror of his own disappointments, he saw the face of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow fill a glory cloud with the presence that picked him up like a shepherd would a lamb and anointed his pain with oil and his empty cup ran over with the blessing that had seemed to run and hide from him.

I thank you Jesus for bringing life unto me, a human vessel. Life in you is abundant and full of purpose. RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our God calls those things which be not as though they were. From the very beginning of time, he has spoken the finale. Jesus Christ sits on the throne of eternal power as the eternal word. Out from him issues all the things which must come to pass. His word will not return void but will accomplish the very event that he has spoken and fixed in time. As sure as he spoke that he would raise up his own dead body and it came to pass, he will surely raise us up from every failure and disappointment to victory. His economy of grace will not allow condemnation to waste us. He will use us by the spirit of revelation to bring the hurting to the healing waters that continually flow from his words. We have received grace for grace. We have freely received, so we freely give to those who have been left in the ditch by the road of life by sin and the devil.

The Night of the Evening Time

Series 6.10.18 – Letter #292

The time is far spent, and the hour of rapture approaches speedily. Though one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as a day unto me, yet is the time short and a quick work necessary. I will do a quick work in the earth. My heart is burning for my sons of Israel. Jacob's trouble must surely come, and the time of peace must surely depart from the earth. I am the Prince of Peace, and I do prepare to lift off the only peace from this earth that I might judge all ungodliness.

The night of the evening time is approaching. These are not idle words entering into your hearing, but these are admonitions from your God. I speak unto you to warn you. As I sent a warning and a way out unto Sodom and Gomorrah, so am I sending forth a warning to you. To the world, I will come as a thief and as a bird caught in a snare. The world and its inhabitants shall be caught in the great tribulation, and my wrath shall be poured out upon them for all their ungodliness. Be sure of your salvation, and make your calling and election sure. I am the living God, who came as the man Christ Jesus and redeemed you from sin. Do not look back at sin, neither the things of the past, but press toward my mark of righteousness. I have said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness." Have you sought it with all your heart?

There are doors that you have not discovered in this kingdom. You have walked into the door of righteousness by faith. Continue in righteousness, and you will find many doors that are closed to those who do not walk by faith. Walk on, for there are other doors that you must open. I have brought to you the spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of me. By the spirit of wisdom and of revelation, you shall see the end of all things.

I have not left you to find your way to the end, but I have made you a visionary with seeing eyes. Lift up your head from the pits of this world, and behold the things of the Spirit that I do show unto you. I am your light in every dark place. Now lift up your eyes unto the hills of salvation, and behold the scene in the hills. (A vision appeared.)

That is not a drama that you see before your eyes, but it is the gathering of the horses of the tribulation. Come and see, for I do show you that they are prepared to enter into the world. Do not be here in the earth at their coming, for they shall usher in great wrath like this world has never known. Make your calling and election sure.

Words of Light upon the Face of Snares, Tribulation, Trouble, Ungodliness, and Wrath

Series 6.10.18 – Confession #292

The time is far spent, and the hour of rapture approaches speedily. Though one day is as a thousand years and a thousand years as a day unto Jesus, yet is the time short and a quick work necessary. He is doing a quick work in the earth. His heart is burning for his sons of Israel. Jacob's trouble must surely come, and the time of peace must surely depart from the earth. The Lord is the Prince of Peace, and he has prepared to lift off the only peace from this earth that he might judge all ungodliness.

The night of the evening time is approaching. These are not idle words entering into my hearing, but these are admonitions from my God. He has spoken unto me to warn me. As he sent a warning and a way out unto Sodom and Gomorrah, so he has sent forth a warning to me. To the world, he will come as a thief, and as a bird caught in a snare, the world and its inhabitants shall be caught in the great tribulation. God's wrath shall be poured out upon them for all their ungodliness. I am sure of my salvation, and I have made my calling and election sure. Jesus is the living God who came as the man Christ Jesus and redeemed me from sin. I have not looked back to sin, neither the past, but I am pressing toward his mark of righteousness. The Lord has said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness." I have not sought the kingdom of God with all my heart, but by the grace of God I will now.

There are doors that I have not discovered in this kingdom. I have walked into the door of righteousness by faith. I will continue in righteousness, and I will find many doors that are closed to those who do not walk by faith. I am walking on, for there are other doors that I must open. Jesus has brought to me the spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him. By the spirit of wisdom and of revelation, I have seen the end of all things.

God has not left me to find my way to the end, but he has made me a visionary with seeing eyes. I have lifted up my head from the pits of this world, and I have beheld the things of the Spirit that he has shown unto me. He is my light in every dark place. I have lifted up my eyes unto the hills of salvation and beheld the scene in the hills. The scene is not a drama that I see before my eyes, but it is the gathering of the horses of the tribulation. I have come and beheld it, for he has shown me that they are prepared to enter into the world. I am not going to be here in the earth at their coming, for they shall usher in great wrath like this world has never known. I have made my calling and election sure.

RE: RHEMA - The Night of the Evening Time

God has the ability to compress time or to extend it. In the world of Joshua, the day was extended for the purpose of victory. God will place in the whirling minutes of time a day of victory at the evening time. We should be convinced that all the shadows of the evening are not of the impending destruction, but some are the approach of the greatest days of the church and the greatest revelation of Jesus Christ that we have ever seen. Night is come, but so is the morning. In the Jewish day, there is the fact that the day was declared as the evening and the morning was the first day. This means that the day ended with them looking into the face of the morning. Sodom and Gomorrah could have had another day if Abraham had not stopped with ten. Now the days of judgment are hurtling down on the same sins and arrogance. Night is about to fall on this world and gross darkness on its inhabitants. There are those that we need to take by the hand and lead them out of the cities of sin. Night is surely come but so is the church that opens doors of deliverance and looks forth as the morning.

EXCEPTIONAL EXPRESSIONS

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Love greets all that love me. You arose to offer praise as you faced the rising of the Sun of righteousness. My love stood still for you. I have waited on my people to arise and praise the Rock of Israel. I desire them to know that I am as the light of the morning when the sun rises up. I am as a morning without clouds and as the tender grass springing out of the earth by the clear shining after rain. Teach the people my way so that they may learn to approach my invisibility with a greater confidence than approaching man's visibility.

RE: RHEMA - Saved from the Letter of the Word, Detained in the Master's House, and Fed a Diet of Life

Many times the pavilions of provision are hidden in the dark clouds of mystery. God has revealed the mysteries to his children that will listen to his voice. At the mountain of Sinai, God desired to give them a living oracle that would have created a nation of prophet-priests that would have ruled their world in more splendor than Solomon. Instead, they traded living words for dead letters. We look at the written word and determine that the letter killeth all our inspiration and faith because it is so seldom attached to the living voice. It is no better than embalming fluid on paper without the living voice. God has given us scrolls of treasure in the mouth of his prophets of this hour. The greater works that we will do is to declare the things that he did not get to declare for this current hour. Every work that he did was with the spoken word only. If we do the same works, then we will speak the living word in the house that the Father dwells in. One version of John 14:10 states that "the words that I speak are not ordinary words, but the Father that dwelleth in me fashions each word into a divine act." His table includes living bread that surpasses the strength that Elijah had to outrun the chariots of our evil times. Others may eat the crusts of the dried bread of past dead sermons of yesterday, but we are eating the new living word of today.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ You are blessed, for you have placed your trust in me. I am your shield, your sword, and your battle-axe. These huge things before you are no match for me. Look unto me, the author and the finisher of your faith. I have begun a good work in you.

147. Will I now finish in a bad work?

◆ I have given you the sure mercies of David; therefore, mercy rejoices against judgment. Your beginnings have been small, yet your latter end shall have great increase. You made supplication unto me, the Almighty. I have awakened you, and now I will make your habitation prosperous. I know that your life is as yesterday. Your days upon the earth are but a shadow. You are as a tree.

148. Can a tree grow without water?

149. Then how much better are you than a tree?

By Tony Johnson

I lift up my head unto the victory that you have extended to me at evening time. Though the time is far spent, I am so grateful for the forewarning in your word that Jacob's trouble must surely come. I am so glad that you chose me to partake of the greatest days of revelation from your Spirit the world has ever seen. Thank you for preparing me for the departure of your bride who will not see the wrath vented upon the earth and its inhabitants. Thank you for granting me grace to make my calling and election sure that I might behold you face to face when I see your glorious appearing. I appreciate the leading of your Spirit that has caused me to walk through the door of righteousness by faith with the spirit of wisdom and righteousness holding my hands. Now, by faith, I purpose to take those who are willing to flee by the hand and lead them out of the cities of sin into the waiting arms of the King of kings and Lord of lords. I am thankful for the visionary with seeing eyes you have placed in my life so that I won't have to try and figure a way out for myself. Thank you for the grace to redeem the time before the coming of the horses of the tribulation.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Revelation chapter four verse one calls the church to the open door in heaven. Just as the flood of Noah destroyed the world and delivered eight souls by water, so does the flood of God's Spirit in the last day come in like a flood and wash away all the thoughts and imaginations of hurt and problems.

I was praying this morning and the Lord spoke to me and said, "My people are deluged and flooded with questions of doubt and fear. I will not allow the enemy to overwhelm them with the floods of sadness, grief, distress, and hurt. I will pour out such a flood of my Spirit that the triumph and celebration on the other side of the Red sea will be in their hearts. They will set up their banners of victory and boldly proclaim the victory. The flesh will not prevail, but my Spirit will prevail mightily in them. It is time for my people to get more than a shower of blessing but an absolute overflow of my power in their lives. They need to come up to the open door of heaven and see the things that will come to pass upon every foe and force that opposes them. They will shout and rejoice as all heaven is right now as I show that the eternal power and reign of my kingdom has already begun and will never end!"

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

Night Peering Through the Windows of Time

Series 6.10.19 – Letter #293

The words that you have penned by this medium are not vain or empty words, but the words that have entered into your hearing are the words of the Spirit that were promised. I have said that I would speak in you and unto you. I am the living word inside of you, not a silent word but a living, speaking word instructing you in all things.

The night has come and peered through the windows of time. The night that peers in is from eternity. It is from eternal damnation's wrath that is reserved for the ungodly. I have brought to you an expression that will change your life, for the simplicity of the expression shall confound the gainsayers and the fools. Do not look to the cares of this life for your help, for these cares and the author of the cares are fruitless in the spiritual realm of true light.

Lift up your head from the structures that are before your feet. These things are meaningless to those who walk by faith. There are no hindering structures for the light. There is no comprehension by the structures as to what I am doing in you. Lift up your eyes unto the finished work of the cross, and note the expression of liberty that has come without condemnation. I am the grace that saved you. I considered all of the things in your life and rewarded you according to my loving-kindness, not according to the faults and failures. Lift up your eyes, and see that my love is greater than the forces that are in the world. I am the light, and I have given you more light that you might see how to proceed as you lead my people into new frontiers and dimensions.

RE: RHEMA - Night Peering Through the Windows of Time

Darkness is so complete that none can see a thing in it. It is so thick that one feels like a falling stone of great weight that is always falling and never hitting the bottom. This is the cruel figure that is looking hungrily in the window of time and selecting its prey. This kind of predator would normally be hunted down and destroyed. This, however, is the created destruction of the Creator of all things. As surely as righteousness is rewarded, sin will be punished. God has given us a message of deliverance that will be so irresistible that the gainsayers will not be able to refute it. Still some will be content to sit in their reserved seating of judgment. God's power to deliver is greater than the destroyer's ability to bring destruction. We have been given torches of light in the words that burn in our hearts and mouth. These words of power will show what kind of monsters sin and destruction are. We must not fail to illuminate the paths of righteousness for his name's sake for those who want to be delivered from darkness. Many are confused and are void of understanding in this hour. God has given us the understanding of the times and the knowledge of our God, and we shall do exploits in the window of light.

PROPHETIC BITES

I am their sun and shield. Grace and glory are given to them. No good thing will I withhold from them that walk uprightly. They have trusted in the rising of the Sun of righteousness. Now I will bless them. Go and announce the sunlight of blessings upon the morning of faith's expectancy. This sun shall not be darkened, and my moon, the church, shall keep her light. My name shall be praised. It shall be great among the people. Go and offer praise unto my name as a pure offering, for great is my name among the people of the earth.

RE: RHEMA - The Righteous Has Heard the Sound of Redemption and Accepted the Trumpet's Blast of Surrender

No notes of defeat or condemnation for the righteous. Their ears are tuned to the pitch of the silver of the redemption of grace. Many songs that are played within and without would try to lead us away from the announcement of liberty for the soul. We have decided the battle is the Lord's. His blood has not only paid the price of my redemption but won the battle over every false accusation that could ever come my way. Our will is resting in his will. We have ceased to struggle with the reservations and dreads of the flesh, and rest in the finished work of the cross.

◆ In the gospel is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith. Remember, the just shall live by faith. The invisible things of me from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even my eternal power and Godhead. I have filled you with all joy and peace so that you may abound in hope through the power of the Holy Ghost. Do not speak of things that I have not produced in you. I will reveal myself through mighty signs, wonders, and by the power of the Spirit of God. I am not divided.

By Debbie McBee

O Lord, I give you praise as the Creator of all things. You are the living word inside of me that speaks. I thank you for deliverance today and for not relinquishing me back to myself. You are all powerful and omnipresent, and no matter the situation you are right there. I am so grateful for your love for me. You could have left me in the pit where I'd fallen with no way out, but you saw my distress and answered with your mighty hand of help.

Truly you are great and greatly to be praised. I lift up my eyes unto you, my eternal Father who is my help and the lover of my soul. I am overwhelmed with joy because the finished work of the cross was for my liberty, and I shout with the voice of triumph for this precious gift of life that you so freely gave to me. Though predators have stalked me, I am rejoicing because of the angels that surround and that you have given charge over me. I am not alone, for I trust and believe your word that assures me that you will never leave me nor forsake me. You are the Almighty and due all honor and glory. I am delighted that you have placed a cloak of righteous upon my life. I do not have to abide with unrighteous or the evil of the hour, but my abode is with you the righteous judge, my King. You are the ruler of everything, and I do give you praise.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

His word is truth and verity. Truth has given us a freedom to fulfill the purpose that we were created to accomplish. Our eyes were blinded to the directive of grace that was in the mind of God from the beginning for our lives. We were not made to wallow in the worst of life's misery but to walk into worship wars with weapons of wonder. El Shaddai not only commands nature to do that which is contrary to itself, but he changes the nature of the most stubborn and violent among us. All that come against us are promised a demise that will be more than a retreat but a total vanquishing of their very being. All power in every realm is in the control of God's word and desire. He will not only fulfill all our petitions but he will cause us to prevail against the entire realm of hell and its minions.
