Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

The Shadow of False Peace Manifested While the Bridegroom and the Bride Prepare for Departure

Series 6.10.20 – Letter #294

The greatest hope of man is not enough to overcome the greatest sin of mankind. Because of the great transgression of man and his continual walk with the darkness that he has fallen into, the greatest hope of human peace is annulled by sin and transgression. Hostilities cannot be held back by the signing of a man's agreement. Not even the law could bring peace to man. Only the signing of love in the heart of man can bring true peace. Now shall you see the light of blinding judgment as I send a sword upon the earth, not peace. When they shall say, "Peace and safety," the murderous hearts filled with sin shall say, "Bloodshed." The evil doers cannot be stopped by the stroke of a pen, but the evil doers shall now wax worse. Even my wrath shall not convert the hearts of sinners, for they shall blaspheme my name as I pour out my wrath upon the earth and the ungodly.

The books are opened, and now shall the world know that I am God, for I shall demonstrate the accuracy of my word. Its unfailing nature and divine providence shall be demonstrated. Israel shall dwell within unwalled cities, and a false peace shall come into the world. Do not be deceived, for the enemy shall beguile them. As Eve was drawn to the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, so have they been drawn to the tree of man's peace. Man cannot make peace for my son Israel, for he has broken peace with me. Until blindness is removed from his eyes, he will not see the enemy at his door.

Now are the walls of hostility taken down, yet the sword of death and judgment is drawn. Hidden under the cloak of man's tongue is the sword of death and judgment. With chief subtlety, the sword of death and deception is drawn to come forth upon the throat of those who have sought peace outside of the Prince of Peace. Can a man do what the Prince of Peace has not done?

Do not be beguiled by the appearance of peace, but know of a truth that a war does rage within. The war is hidden by the tongues that are forked. Man could not wrestle away my gift of the land, but by subtlety has the enemy forged a method for prying away the land of promise. It is given unto the sons of Israel. Before the throne of man's peace have they been drawn, and now shall they see that the Messiah has come. He came unto them, yet they did not know him. Now shall the pressure of false peace bring them to their knees that they might cry more for Messiah to come. Messiah shall not come again until they shall say, "Blessed is he who does come in the name of the Lord."

Will man undo the word of the Lord, which is forever settled in heaven?

False peace has attempted to pry from my lips the word of God that has gone forth into the earth. My word will continue to work and bring Israel back to me. I have beckoned with my finger and bid them to come. They have continued to resist, for they are blind and do not have the ability in their minds to come back. Blindness in part shall be removed when they shall say, "Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord." They shall cry soon to be led to Zion. Zion shall be incomplete until they come.

The dust of antichrist is coming in the distance. The light of his countenance is hidden by the fog of his dust, yet his face is revealed unto the angels who have seen his face up close. Do not be amused by the talks of peace, but know of a truth that this expresses the time of refreshing that shall come from my presence. As the dust of the horses approaches you, know also that the times of refreshing are also here. Lift up your voice on high and blow the trumpet of alarm in the city. Shout for the glorious triumph of my word, for it has waxed great and without err. The voice of false peace cannot be understood by man, yet the interpretation of its voice is clearly understood by those who know me, the living God.

Do not utter these words without the expectation of persecution. These words are from divine origin and from the knowledge of eternal understanding. I have brought you forth for such a time as this. Do not be silent and think that you shall save yourself, for the light within you cannot be silenced. It is a speaking light, not a dark, dismal light that cannot speak. Men who destroy the lives of the innocent now proclaim, "Praise God."

Why say, "Praise God" with your lips if you destroy me in my innocence?
When have you destroyed me in my innocence?

(Abortion and the innocence of those in the womb of their mothers came to my mind.)

When you have done it unto the least of these, then you have done it unto me. If Mary had sought an abortion, then she would have threatened the life of redemption. Redemption cannot be destroyed, nor killed.

(In my spirit, I began to perceive redemption in the womb, and the Spirit began to speak in regard to Christ, the redeemer being born.)

Redemption had shaken the hands of mercy and was destined to walk out of the womb of grace. Light was destined to come into the world to make a way in the darkness of sin. Through the sea of sin, light walked. Light walked through the counselors of darkness and made its own way through the corridors of darkness. The waters of light made a way in the valley of human flesh and came forth through the broken waters of wasted life. Through the womb of my mother, I came with love in my heart, not peace to a world of sinners but peace to those who would seek me with a whole heart. I have said, "...think not that I have come to bring peace upon the earth, rather I have come to bring division." I have come and set variance. The setting of this variance shall produce the need for crying and lamenting, which I shall hear.

I shall hear the voices of those who come to me and not to man. Man did not save you, but I saved you with the mighty hand of redemption. Do not lift your voice to the arm of flesh, for man's flesh is withered and drawn up in impotency. My arm is not shortened that I cannot save, but I have lengthened my arm, and the bed is also lengthened. It is not shortened, neither is it cut off, but the bed of salvation is ready for those who will come to the bed of rest for the yoke of the Lord. Come and learn of me again, and I shall show you of the easy yoke and the light burden.

Prophecy is fulfilled this day. Also, prophecy is laid wide open for a new knowledge of my judgment. This gate was a necessary gate. Now look to the table set before man, and see that judgment is also coming. Peace shall be hidden, yet false peace shall come forth in the light of the false gospel. As the false gospel has captured many, so shall false peace capture and create a death chamber for those who do not love the truth.

I do now go forth and show of the truth of my name and my Spirit. I will make the hearts of Israel burn, and the light of the vision of the latter times shall be given to them. I will forgive their iniquity, and their sins shall not be found. Zion shall become the place of their hiding, and the gospel shall be proclaimed from their mouths. Prepare for your departure, for you shall not be here, neither found. I am coming out of my chamber. Now you prepare to come out of your closet.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Shadow of False Peace Manifested While the Bridegroom and the Bride Prepares For Departure

It has always been a sign of false prophets even in the Old Testament to cry peace when there is destruction that is really coming. God has not appointed us unto wrath but to obtain salvation. In the world, there is war that was to continue according to Daniel until the Lord comes and stops it for a thousand years. Men are changing laws and becoming more permissive and perverted. The church is making herself ready, perfecting holiness in the sight of the Lord. All of the destruction and nation against nation is flowing over the earth like the seas. Yet we are promised that the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the seas. Our promise as the body of Christ is the revival that will bring the only peace that will last in the souls and hearts of men and women. Men will have their peace pacts and treaties, and they will not be worth the paper they are written on. Our promise is for the seventh mystery of the kingdom to be fulfilled in that the net of the kingdom will be so filled that the angels will have to separate the harvest. The antichrist is coming, but where iniquity abounds, Jesus Christ will much more abound. God's word and every prophecy will be fulfilled, and every lie of man will come crashing down.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

I have made my yoke available unto you. Take it upon you and learn of me. As you learn of me, the desire for lowliness and meekness shall flourish, and rest shall be your reward. Do not struggle with the unnecessary burdens carried by so many. They have taken unto themselves another yoke and are made to bear heavy loads. I have supplied grace to follow me. The enemy will place his yoke upon you if you allow him. Do not be joined to him by the collar of unbelief. The burden of an evil heart that promotes departure from me is given to everyone that wears his collar. His collar is an unequal yoke designed to steer you away from love.

RE: RHEMA - The Obligation of God to His People

Sennacherib was the prototype of the enemy that would decry our trust in the faithfulness of God. He said for us to not allow God to deceive us. He indicated that we would not be delivered from his hand. God spoke to me last night and said three short lines. “Out of the eater came forth meat. Out of emptiness came forth everything (creation). Out of your exhaustion, my faith will enforce your promises from me.” Storms of lies are being spewed out by the devil and the false imaginations and mouths of men. They have no idea how God will hasten his word to perform it. In Isaiah 60:22 and Jeremiah 1:12, we are told that God will hasten it in its time. This means in the Hebrew that “he will hurry with eagerness and excitement to perform it.” Many times it indicates that God would have destroyed or done something else, but he remembered. How does God need to remember if he knows everything?

There is either a contradiction or a powerful truth hidden here. The truth is that God made some promises that are like huge monuments or memorials in heaven. (This is what the Hebrew word means). In sparing Lot, it was not Lot that was the reason but the promise to Abraham (Genesis 19:29). In preserving his people and man, he remembers that we are but flesh and like a vapor. What will grace do with a vapor?

He looks all the way back to the beginning when he took some dust and filled it with a small vapor. His eternal covenant will always cause him to have mercy from everlasting to everlasting. Even if we believe not, he abideth faithful. God cannot deny himself. God will stand up for us before the face of every false accuser. He will defend us as his children beyond the jurisdiction of spiritual Herods and Pilots.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

◆ You are advantaged, not disadvantaged. I have given you power, for the Holy Ghost has come upon you. Now believe on me as the scriptures have testified of me and overcome all these limitations. The Holy Ghost is a detriment to the devil. He is the one that is handicapped, not you. I have already won for you. You do not have to involve yourself in a demonstration against evil or the power of the devil. I took all the devil's grievances and nailed them to my cross.

152. Why argue with the devil over what has been given to you?

◆ By my cross, I moved every obstacle and arrested all the spirits of darkness. There is no barrier before you. Only the illusions of the enemy stand before you. Illusions are tricks of the devil. Many have been handicapped by the delusions sent from devils. Do not allow these things to become deterrents in your life. The obstructions that you have looked upon are not problems for me; therefore, do not be inhibited by them. Walk on in faith. I have already worked out every problem. The rainbow of my promises is always with you. You dwell in heavenly places.

153. How can earthly hindrances obstruct heavenly things?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Rigo Toledo

I awaken with praise on my lips and gratitude in my heart, for your great love has made the way of escape from the wrath that is to fall upon the earth. Your great sacrifice upon the cross has paved the way for me to walk in total freedom and confidence in your great love. I have made my calling and election sure. Your mercy and awesome grace is allowing me to work out my own salvation with fear and with trembling. The pains of departure shall not linger, neither shall my departure with you be a telecast, but suddenly you shall come and embrace your bride, and we shall dash away into the night above the known elements and nature of the night. I am elated that I will be taken to a divine dwelling place, a home prepared for a chaste virgin. I am thrilled, and I magnify you, for you will take your bride the church, and there shall she be adorned with the reward for faithfulness.

You are the faithful witness, and your testimony has spoken better things than the accusation that comes from the accuser that is before you day and night. I understand that your coming is quick and your reward is with you. Thank you for rewarding me according to your mercy and great love. I praise you for the angels that are preparing for the glorious celebration because of the exceeding, great number that you do save. I embrace you today and am grateful for your loving-kindness towards me. I understand that the exact day of your coming cannot be pinpointed, but the signs of your return are evident; therefore, my Lord, I praise you for the grace that is making me ready. Thank you for calling me and providing the necessary grace to put on the armor of light and to put off the works of darkness. You have granted me strength, and the Holy Ghost is given to grant me the power to overcome. I am grateful for your blood and the testimony of victory you have given. Blessed be your name.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Jesus Christ is coming for his bride, and he has included us in the grandest event of the ages. His bride has been his desire and passion before the foundation of the world. His sacrifice for us and the price of redemption speaks volumes of his great love for each of us as individuals. His plan is not for us to fail but to succeed in being ready to meet him. Every sign of the events of this hour just lets us know that we are only a split second away from his eternal embrace. We will leave all the sorrow and trouble here behind, and so shall we ever be with the Lord!

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

The Approaching Night of the Evening Time

Series 6.10.21 – Letter #295

The night of the evening time approaches with speed. The velocity of the end times rushes in with the unexpectedness of my nature. Suddenly shall the night come. My bride shall vanish from the eyesight of those who do not know her, and her space shall create a vacuum in the earth. The vacuum created by her departure shall create the necessity of wrath to take her place in the earth. Without her presence among the sons of men, there will remain no other restraint to hold back the night. Hold back the night if you can. It has been done in times past, but now the night does not come with the attitude of a gentleman, but the night comes as a thief and a murderer. The night shall come as a destroying force upon all the inhabitants of the earth that do not know God and who do not obey the gospel.

Make your calling and election sure. Work out your own salvation with fear and with trembling. The pains of departure shall not linger, neither shall the nature of my departure with my bride be a telecast, but suddenly I shall come and embrace her and dash away into the night above the known elements and nature of the night. I shall take her to a place, a home prepared for a chaste virgin. I shall take her, and there shall she be adorned with the reward for faithfulness. Do not lie to yourself, neither deceive yourself, for I will not include the liars, the thieves, the whoremongers, the whores, the idolaters, and the ungodly in my bride. No sin shall enter into this glorious wedding garment that I do place on her. Make your calling and election sure, and remove all spots and wrinkles from your garment. I do come quickly, and my reward is with me.

Angels are preparing for a glorious celebration because of the exceeding, great number that I do save. Though the number will be great, yet it will be few in the light of the multitudes that go in unto the broad way of destruction. Lift up your eyes unto the hands of rapture, and see that they are coming to embrace a bride of faith and faithfulness. Make your calling sure. Make your election sure. I do come quickly.

RE: RHEMA - The Approaching Night of the Evening Time

Our catching away unto him has been preached all of our lives. It will come when men are least expecting it. Many have tried to pinpoint an exact day but that has not been given to anyone on this earth. We have been called to put on the armor of light and to put off the works of darkness. Our society is trying to redefine the family and to undo the threads of every moral fabric in our lives. Technology has opened a Pandora's Box of evil that people can be involved in every hour of the day and never leave their homes. We must compel ourselves to be sober and vigilant of the deception that is on every hand. We should be the most excited people on the earth because everything that you can feel and hear in the Spirit is pulling us upward. Heaven is anticipating our arrival. Our goal should be to stay ready and not to be getting ready. We will march triumphant out of this world.

I have offered you my yoke. It is a frame that is designed so that your load will be light and that the steering of your life would rest in the hands of love. You are steered by love, so do not despise the constraints that are for your benefit. You are given rest from the many days of adversity. Rest here in my easy yoke while the pit is dug for the wicked that oppress you. I will not cast off my people. They are my inheritance, and I am their help. Your soul is dwelling in silence. You have looked backward and beheld how your foot was slipping. Behold how my mercy held you up, and my voice of comfort delighted your soul.

RE: RHEMA - Grace Is a Dependable Anchor; Therefore, Do Not Fear the Wind of Condemnation and the Effects from the Rage of Sin

Legalism, condemnation, works, law, and the fear complex all have their roots in religious pride. Each wants to be seen and noticed to the extent that others pay attention to what they did instead of what his grace accomplished in our lives. They negate the glory that goes to God and take it to themselves. Their idol worship will cause a swift downfall. Only those who are founded and anchored to grace will stand all the force of fear's fantasy and emotional short-winded space. Emotion does not last or establish. Our faith and sustaining power is his grace. His blood has purchased, beyond the cheap trinkets of works, a holy and excellent relationship for those who are consumed with the choice of loving the one who so graciously embraces us in failure and in success. His words to us sweep along on the sea of life beyond the ability of the tides of modernism and fashion to alter our course. Political winds of religious origin may raise a stormy caldron, but the one who walked on the water without any support but himself is our sure and steadfast line of security and the pilot of our ship.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

By Moses Hightower

◆ No power can be against you if I am for you.

154. If I am against you who can be for you?

◆ Your understanding has not limited my peace, for my peace is infinite. The endless realm of my peace is beyond your finite understanding. It is unlimited. You cannot measure it, for it is immeasurable. If my people understood how vast and immense my peace is, they would trust me with all their hearts. I have given you peace that is gigantic and colossal. Give thanks for my peace. I am insignificant in the hearts of many believers. Their faith is minute and diminutive.

155. When I come, will I find faith on the earth?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Marco Mendoza

O Lord, I am so thankful that in you I am safe and hidden from false peace and the destruction that shall come upon this world. I am comforted because I know that you have not appointed me unto wrath but to obtain salvation. Your word has opened my understanding to realize that there is war in the world, and I shall have tribulation. I have cheer today because you have overcome the world; therefore, I have victory. While men are changing laws and becoming more permissive and perverted, I am joyful to be a part of the church, which is making herself ready and perfecting holiness in your sight. I am grateful that although destruction is rampant and nation is rising against nation, we as your people have a promise that your glory will cover the earth as the seas, and for this I give you praise. I thank you for the revival of your eternal peace that lasts in my soul and heart because it is not of this world. I am so glad to be a part of your kingdom that is ever increasing. No matter what is happening in the world, I am assured that the gates of hell will not prevail against your church! Although the antichrist is coming and though iniquity abounds, it is encouraging to know that your grace will much more abound. I can fight the good fight of faith and war a good warfare by this solid truth: Your word and every prophecy will be fulfilled, and every lie of man will come crashing down. Hallelujah!

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Our peace is not as the world gives but it is the peace that flows out of the Spirit of the Lord. In the midst of the upheaval of this world's wars and changes, we have a Savior that remains the same in our lives. Peace is more than the absence of conflict. Peace is the Hebrew word shalom. It has to do with restoring, making whole, or making complete. As Jehovah Shalom, the Lord restored to Israel all the years that the Midianites had stolen from them. In Joel, the same word is used to tell us that he will restore all the blessings that different plagues of insects had destroyed. It is also the word used when the walls were finished in restoration under Nehemiah. God will finish his work in us and present us to himself with great joy!

The Fingerprint of Innocence and of Justification

Series 6.10.22 – Letter #296

I awaited your praises. I desired fellowship and communion with you. You came, and now are you rewarded with the benefits of communion with divinity. I am the divine Savior, the everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace.

The freshness of love has embraced you and placed you in a secret place. The light that is here in the secret place is your hiding place from the storms of life. Life has come to you. Eternal life is yours. The expression of eternal life is not filled with chaos and destruction. Eternal life is filled with righteousness, peace, and joy.

I have saved you by my grace and placed you in this hiding place of my hand. The master's hand cannot be broken into. This hand is your pasture of safety and of peace. Lift up your head from the fear tactics of the enemy and rejoice in your salvation. The enemy cannot break into these hands. Each finger of my hand serves a purpose. Go and learn of the hand of God. If you cast out devils by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come nigh you. Lift up the finger of God, and see that even your enemies have discovered the design of my fingerprints. Do not let ignorance to the finger of God be your demise. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Do not reject knowledge, for by knowledge have I justified many. I have come that you might have life and that more abundantly. Turn the hand of God around in your mind, for you have perceived me in many false ways.

Allow the light of the spirit of wisdom and of revelation to shine in your heart, and then will you see the hand and the finger of God that I am revealing unto you. The fingerprint of God is revealed. The characteristics of the design of my fingerprints are made clear in redemption. Calvary did not mar the fingerprint, but the fingerprint of God was revealed, and I vindicated myself in the eyes of my accusers there on the cross. In hell, I showed the fingerprint of innocence and snatched away the keys of death and the grave. The fingerprint of holiness and righteousness has been examined, and neither fault nor transgression was found. I have given you this fingerprint of innocence and justification. Now you may stand in the presence of your accusers without guilt or condemnation, for I have justified you by the finger of God. Cast aside your doubts and raise up the standard of faith. I have come looking for your faith. Now lay aside the doubts and the fears that were fostered and sown by an enemy.

I have come that you might have life. Look to life, and see that the effect of death and all of its conspiracy has been stopped by the hand of the Lord. I hung on the cross with holy blood dripping from my holy body for your justification. You are not guilty because of my righteousness. Now reckon your faith unto my works and not your own, and then will you have the same relevation that Abraham had. He believed me, and his faith was accounted to him as righteousness.

I have stood in your stead and paid for your sins. The penalties have been canceled, and now are you freed by my holy and sanctified blood. Set yourself apart from guilt and condemnation, and come for the cleansing of the precious blood, for there is always a fountain filled with blood that flows from my veins. The veins of Emmanuel were let for you. The flow of the crimson stream yet flows without hindrance and without respect of persons. Whosoever will, come and be cleansed of your sins. Come to the fountain of cleansing, the fountain that lives and the living fountain of sanctified blood. Through my name, this fountain flows to whoever will call upon that name. Call upon the name of Jesus, and I will make you whole.

RE: RHEMA - The Fingerprint of Innocence and of Justification

If Jesus took one eighth of an inch of God and cast out devils, what could we do with all of God? Measures of the Old Testament were in comparison to body parts. In the temple, there were pillars that were so many fingers wide. If Jesus took the devil out with that small measure of his unlimited power, then how much more can he take our guilt of sin away?

Justification is to declare not guilty. The heavens are declared to be his handiwork. In the heavens, every galaxy has his voiceprint. Each galaxy vibrates with the energy that he touched it with when he spoke. If God washed the universe of the formless void in original creation, then we who are new creatures in Christ have been purged of the guilt and fear of sin. We are the people of his hand and the people of his pasture. If we know no one can pluck us out of his hand, then our hiding place is in the hollow of his hand. The same fingers that wrote in the sand to the exoneration of the woman taken in adultery has written in the sands of life around us and taken away our guilt. He is able to keep us from falling and to present us faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy. His blood did not only cleanse us one time from sin, but it cleanses us daily from all sin as it continues to flow in our lives.

RE: RHEMA - God Performs With Complete Fidelity and a Performance of Obligations That Coincide with His Duty as Our Lord and Savior

We did not choose to be born and have to live in the same neighborhood where the devil is running loose. God knows that and is a responsible Father. He will provide more than enough power for us to defeat the enemy on his home turf. God's capacity to give to us far exceeds our inability to receive. Even though Moses smote the rock instead of speaking to it, the water came out for their thirst. God gave them quail in their lust. He will be the answer to every quandary as we come to him in faith. When Jesus told Peter that the children were free, he meant that we were exempt from the obligations to be ruled by the mindsets of this world. We are not subject to the prognostications and the forecasts of doom and gloom here. We have been given the directions of eternal joy and peace as our daily bread. Laws of death are not our prison, and the demands of sin are not our captors. Liberty has proclaimed our pardon. We have been whisked back to the pristine state of blessing in the beginning before sin. We do not have to look over our shoulder because the Lord has carried every guilt and demand on his shoulders to the cross. Many purchased Roman citizenship but our Father purchased our citizenship and birthright with his blood. We are citizens of a commonwealth that has nothing in common with this world. We are free and fruitful in the planting of the garden of his lavish love. God will never lie to us about his promise. He will never tease us with any misleading statements.

156. Where would you be without it?

◆ Accept faith's choice for your life and do not settle for things on the right hand of evil. I have called you to be first in line. You were last, but now I make you first. Patience is given to you. It is a virtue of my Holy Spirit. In it, you possess your soul. Now glorify me and give me honor. Allow this day to be a special day in your life. I awakened you and removed sleep from your eyes so that I might commune with you. This morning is special to me.

By Rashall Sanchez

Lord, I am so thankful that you have already cast out the devil for me. I am grateful that you have given me the privilege to access all of your power and to cast the demons out of my life and the lives of others. You are unlimited in power and strength. With a clear conscience, I offer praise today because your power has taken the guilt of my sin away. You have justified me and declared me not guilty. The heavens are declared to be your handiwork. In the heavens, every galaxy has your voiceprint. Each galaxy vibrates with the energy that you touched it with when you spoke. I am so thankful that my life now vibrates and has been energized with the voice of your forgiveness and justification.

I rejoice in your goodness and in your mercy for you have purged me of the guilt and fear of sin. I know that I am safe in you, for I am in your hand and a sheep in your pasture. No one can pluck me out of your hand, for my hiding place is in the hollow of your hand. I shout with exuberant praise for I have been redeemed by your hand. I go forth rejoicing in you, the God of my salvation, for I know that the same fingers that wrote in the sand to the exoneration of the woman taken in adultery has written in the sands of life around me and taken away my guilt. You are more than able to keep me from falling and to present me faultless before the presence of your glory with exceeding joy. PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Jesus Christ has already destroyed the working of Satan. Destroyed is from an original Greek word means to bring to a termination. It also means to make as if it had no influence or effect in our lives. We have been given power and authority over all the power of the enemy. Nothing shall by any means be able to harm us. This power and authority includes the ability to not be condemned by the lies and accusations of the enemy. Jesus came not to condemn the world, but he commended his love toward us while we were yet sinners. Why should this commending be less or not increase after we are saved? His love overflows and supersedes any lie or condemnation of our enemy. We can shout to the heavens that there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus!

The Everlasting Word Is Throughout the Ages

Series 6.10.23 – Letter #297

I have never left you, and I will not leave you now. My word has gone out of my mouth and spoke words of faithfulness unto you. I am committed unto my word and my promises to you. You can depend on my faithfulness. I will never go back on my word unto you. When I give a word, I give myself. I am my word. The expression that came into the earth as the word of life, which was handled by man and seen of men, is the word that I have sent unto you. You have been given more than a letter, more than just a promise, but I have given you myself. I live in you throughout the ages. The demise that shall come to man shall not be realized by you, for I do change the strategies of the world and reveal myself in the dark places of the earth. I shall cause men to see me who has not been seen of men and cause them to worship me, the living God. Do not be disgruntled with the time frame of my choosing, but be lifted up unto the hills from whence cometh your help. Your help is in the name of the Lord. Receive of that help, for I have brought it unto your hands.

RE: RHEMA - The Everlasting Word Is Throughout the Ages

In the beginning was the Word. Every commentator agrees that before the existence of anything all of the word existed. It was not yet manifested whether in speech or flesh. All of the word was in existence before Jesus and the apostles lived it out in manifestation. The accumulated total of God was already therein before the beginning. When we wake up and realize that the word is eternal then we will know that the promise that we needed or will need tomorrow existed in him before the world began. This lets us know the fantastic thoughts and plans that he has always had for us. Time will not diminish these plans and events will never be able to erase them. His word will be fulfilled in its season. It will come to pass in men that did not even ask to be a part of the fulfillment of his promises. We can rejoice in the fact that he has made us the linchpin of the wheel of his prophetic word.

I was reading in the Song of Solomon, and the Lord spoke these words.

“Love's breath has sent forth the invitation to come into my embrace through the night of difficulty that will try to overshadow the light of revelation that shines in your life. Many do not have any relationship with me. All their lives are filled with closed doors. Love opens the doors of not only the miraculous but the doors of incredible opportunity for those who will hear my voice. this pressure. Greater am I who is in you. I continually work on your behalf. I have caused the author of pressure to bow. Go on in the will of God and do not be distracted by the enemy's tactics of warfare. I have built a bridge over distraction.

October 23, 2008

I give thanks unto you the Lord of hosts for greeting me this day with your word. In the beginning was the Word and the Word that was with you and it is the same Word that will never leave me nor forsake me. You are the Word, and my heart is comforted knowing that your word is faithful and you have committed your promises to me by it, and for this I do rejoice. The power of your word is eternal, and it is more than a promise. It is the breath of life that you placed in me. I am grateful to have a sure word of prophesy and delighted to know that your light will shine in the dark places of the earth. The beauty of your word will cause men to see you and worship you, the living God. Your grace will not allow me to be frustrated by time, but I will look to the hills from whence cometh my help. RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God created everything by the spoken word. We have been made new creatures in Christ as the Word (which is Christ in us) speaks through us by the Spirit. Our lives will continue to be victorious as we speak and allow God to speak through us. Romans 1:20 tells us that God's eternal power is seen by looking at the results of what he has spoken into existence. This same power will bring to pass for sure the very things that he has spoken into our lives and will not fail to come to pass.

The Effect of the Living Spirit

Series 6.10.24 – Letter #298

You are the light of this world. Do not hide your light under the bushels of the age, for I must shine in you. You cannot be hidden any longer, for the hour has approached for my manifestation of the good things and the glad tidings of the gospel. You say that good things and glad tidings have already come, but I say, "You have only seen and known in a measure. The measure that I have designed has not been seen." Allow me to remove the bushel that covers you, and then shall you see the manifestation of the power of the gospel.

Good news is within you. Glad tidings are waiting to usher from within you. I am the Christ within you, the hope of glory. Allow me to express the hope that I am, and then shall you see the redeemed flourish as new plants. You shall see the lost exit from their prison houses. You shall see the sick come forth healed, and those who are bound shall be loosed.

I desire to do a work in your midst that you would never believe. Allow me to work a wonder in you and through you, and then will you truly know of my faithfulness to express the power of the resurrection. I am the resurrection and the life. There is no dead thing that I touch that shall not live. I will make the people live. Allow the free flowing of my Spirit to work, and then shall you know of the power of the resurrection that is in you. I am in you to do a work, a work that you would not believe, no, not even if a preacher told you. My new thing is already being done in the earth. Allow it to be done in you. By my Spirit, I desire to speak unto the people. The message is already in your heart. The desires of my Spirit are already in you. The desires of my Holy Spirit are already in you unto the working of miracles and of all that I have said that I would do.

My word has already worked on the things that I sent it unto. My word has gone out among the people, and now it has come back to me to show forth that which I have done. As Lazarus came forth loosed from the jaws of death, so has my word gone forth and loosed the people from their bondage. Grace has been given to them for this space, and now bondage has no part with them. I have placed the tongue of the redeemed in your mouth. The light of my word is in you. Now open your mouth wide, and I will fill it with inspiration that you have not heard. I am the light within you. It is the hour in which I do show that what you have received in prayer and at this computer can also come forth from the same fountain while you preach. Prepare your mind for that which I will do, for I will speak a word in due season through your lips. Believe on me as the scriptures have declared of me, and know that I will bring forth that which is needed by my Spirit.

RE: RHEMA - The Effect of the Living Spirit

God's measureless Spirit will give us a measure that will break every mold and crush every limitation. Lazarus is the type of the power of the Spirit that will dawn on the true believers in the last days. The apostles in a boat that was in the full blast of nature wondered what kind of man could command the laws of nature to obey him. In the last days, the Spirit that moved on the face of the deep will bring about the day of demonstration that we never thought was possible.

Phenomenal events were the common things of life in the ministry of Jesus Christ. He has told us that we would do greater works than these. We will see this come to pass in the last days. If God gave his people billions of quail in their lust, what will he do in the full measure of the dimensions of righteous requests?

In one of our recent prison meetings, the Lord spoke and said, "You are thrilled at the deliverance of Peter, Paul, and Silas from the prison, but I will, by my Spirit, deliver even the unrighteous to righteousness for my name's sake. It will not be for them to have a liberty to sin but for the liberty of my Spirit to be manifested to the world that does not believe that I am changing the convicts into conquerors."

We should tear the limits off our minds and imaginations, for the expanse of what God is about to do by his Spirit is beyond us but has come to us.

There are earthquakes all over the world. I will not allow the sorrows in the earth to alarm me, neither will I allow these things to seize my faith. God has brought me out of the pit of fear by the blood of the covenant. The pits of fear have no water. Spiritual prisoners reside in pits of fear. I will proclaim the truth unto the prisoners of hope, and they will turn to the strong hold of peace.

RE: RHEMA - The Blueprint of Faith

Faith's blueprint is the infallible instructions of victory. If we will follow the schematic of the one who imprints the perfect design into every living cell, we will never fail. Abraham was shown the alternate plans of the enemy. He was persuaded that neither his body nor Sarah's was dead when faith was doing the designing. Every step that Abraham took was a step that would not only fulfill the promise of God in his life but bless all the families of the earth. Our pattern of justification was established in Abraham. He heard the Rhema word and moved and acted on its every command. If we will look at the life of faithful Abraham who declared that he and the lad would return from the sacrifice, we would do the same. God has opened the door of miracles to us, and he will not take away the key of faith that he has trusted us with even when we fail. Consider the 16th and the 17th chapters of Genesis. After the failed step with Ishmael, God still declared that he was the Almighty and that Abraham would be the father of many nations. We are the seed of Abraham through Jesus Christ. We are the heirs to all the promises of faith.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I am thankful that your measureless Spirit will give me a measure that will break every mold and crush every limitation. You command the laws of nature, and nature obeys you. You have all power in heaven and in earth. I am grateful that you have made me the light of the world; therefore, I will not hide my light under a bushel, but I will allow your light to shine in me. I know that phenomenal events were common in your life, but you have promised that greater works than these shall I do.

With all the things happening in the earth, I know that you have plans for me to succeed although crisis prevails.

I will keep my focus and my trust in you. You are my righteousness, and I love and trust you to keep me in my hour of temptation. I believe in your miracle working power, and I am confident that you have not stopped performing miracles. I have been healed from my sicknesses and my diseases; therefore, I give you praise. You are the healer of all my sicknesses and all of my diseases. With your stripes I am already healed. You are my deliverer from all the things that have plagued me. I will keep my faith, my hope, and my trust in you. I will take the limitations off of my mind and rejoice in all that you do and are able to do. You are able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that I am able to ask or think. I offer praise and thanksgiving to you because you are faithful.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Our enemy would like for us to doubt and consider the possibility of every kind of negative outcome. God recently spoke to me and pointed my attention to Romans 4 where we are dealing with the God that calls those things which be not as though they were. Every promise has a built-in miracle with it. We are told in verse 19 that Abraham considered not his own body. We need to never consider any kind of natural circumstances that may be around any circumstance that we need a miracle in. Abraham gave glory to God and was fully persuaded that God would perform what he promised. We will stand and give glory to God for the miracles that are coming our way, and we will refuse to hear the voices of doubt that reach for our faith. Our faith is in the name of Jesus that will never fail us.

Eyesight from a Heavenly Head

Series 6.10.25 – Letter #299

I have not come to place a blindfold of tradition upon your mind, but rather I have come and given you spiritual eyesight that comes from the head of Christ. I am your head, and the eyesight that ushers forth from me is the true eyesight given you by the grace of God. You have spiritual vision because of my love and my holiness. I have not expressed a confused doctrine unto you, but I have expressed that which is of peace. I am not the author of confusion, but I am the author of peace. Follow the peace of God. The peace of God leads you to be at peace with all men. You cannot walk after the tradition of men and after me at the same time. I have said, “Come unto me all you that are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me for I am meek and lowly and you will find rest for your souls.” I am the light that shines and complements the eyesight of the Spirit. Vision is possible because of eyesight and light. Without light, what does your eyesight produce?

Without eyesight what will light produce?

I have come and given you a true vision of the end times. Now walk in the light of my word and my Spirit, which is the spirit of truth, then will you know true freedom. Do not be disturbed by the confusing voices and the many uncertain things that have come to surround and enslave you. You cannot be enslaved. Simply rest and be content, for I know where you are, and I have an appointed time for you. Do not be anxious about any of these things, for they are foreordained and destined to come to pass. Simply rest, and trust in my faithfulness to free you from all uncertainty and confusion.

I am the light of the world and the light of your life. Do not be disturbed by the elements of contention and confusion among brethren. These things must be, for I must bring forth those who are approved. The light is not shining in vain, neither is the spiritual eyesight given you expressed for a vain purpose, but with the meaning and purpose of God, have I given you spiritual eyesight and perception. Do not be discouraged. Simply worship, and trust in my love for you.

I have already proven many times that I will not fail you, and I will not suffer you to be destroyed. You believe on me, and now you have the promise that you will not be confounded, neither ashamed. Trust in me with all your heart, and do not lean to your own understanding. I am the light of your life. Receive of the freshness of hope and trust that I am sending forth unto you. I am bringing into your bosom that which you need that you might go on unto the purpose for which cause I sent you into the world. Only believe.

RE: RHEMA - Eyesight from a Heavenly Head

Optics that are made by man will cloud up and are limited. God has no limited frames of reference to offer the church. We need not only to have our eyes anointed, but we need a new point of reference. Heaven looks at what is happening around us and is not disturbed. We look at it, and we are in turmoil and uproar. What seems to be a major storm to us is just a dusty footprint of heaven. Jesus is the light of our revelation. Our inspiration and illumination is shining from him who has dawned in our hearts with a light of greatness brighter than the sun. Without a prophetic vision, we will become so loosely connected to the promises of God that we will not be able to grasp any of them. As the head of the church, he has told us already what he has seen with eyes that are like a flame of fire. His eyes of love have already seen our final victory. We should not hear other voices or look at any images from any other source except from Jesus Christ. Our hope and expectation is flowing from him in a continuous video stream from the throne.

Emmanuel has come. The governor and ruler of Israel has come. I have sent you forth as sheep among wolves. I will cause the blind to receive their sight among the wolves. Among the wolves, I will cause the lame to walk, the deaf to hear, and the dead to be raised. Among the wolves, the poor have the gospel preached unto them. Do not be offended in me, and you will be blessed. Do not be shaken as a reed in the wind. The enemy has observed you and looked for reasons to discount your testimony. Clothe yourself with the garment of righteousness and the garment of praise.

RE: RHEMA - The Voice of the Evening Time Guarantees the Birth of Miracles

The Rhema that came to Mary was certain that nothing was impossible with God. As God created in the beginning with his voice, so is he doing in the last days.

The Spirit of the Lord came to me and said,

Light and sound will demonstrate a demonstration of my power in a magnitude never before seen in the earth. Revelation will remove the walls of obstruction and tradition. My utterance sends forth hosts of heavenly hosts to defeat the foes that have been assembled against my church. What will be uttered in the ears of my faithful servants will become more powerful than any technology man has ever considered. My words will not only sweep aside oceans of resistance, but they will absorb the deep seas of hurt and pain that have tried to drown multitudes. All the words you have uttered that have not seemed to bring forth will bring forth fruit overnight as the rod did before my oracle. Prayers that have seemed to be stored in forgotten files will be the front-page story of heaven's declaration. All of this I will do for my great name's sake. All the lies and skepticism that have been cast into your face will be swept away like dust before the wind. Do not fret of the loud voices of those who declare that miracles are few and far between. Soon, even they will be amazed at the multitude of the miracles that will multiply throughout the land.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

I am so glad to know that you look down upon the things happening around me and you are not disturbed. Though turmoil bombards my mind, I take comfort in knowing that everything is under your control. I am grateful for the spiritual eyesight that comes by the grace of God. I am blessed to be under headship that sees with the vision of love and holiness, and for that I give you praise. Your inspiration and illumination shine brighter than the sun and always comes bursting through any major storm of life. I give you praise for the peace that leads me to be at peace with all men, and I glorify you for giving me the grace to forsake the world's traditions and to follow you.

I worship you in the beauty of holiness for giving me the final victory over all of the forces against me. As I lay in your arms of love I rest with the new yoke you have placed upon me, and I rejoice in the hope and expectations that I see flowing from your throne in a continuous video stream. Your word has declared the perishing of those without a vision, and I am so glad that is not what you have ordained for me. I appreciate your faithfulness and the promises you shower me with continually. When I think of your goodness and all you have done for me, I shout a victorious Hallelujah in the face of uncertainty and confusion. Thank you for proving over and over again that you will never fail me or suffer me to be destroyed. You have given me all that I need to go forth to fulfill your purpose in the earth, and for this I am grateful.

Psalm 23:5 has been the comfort to our hearts many times. To the Hebrew mind they find that this verse means the name of Jehovah Nissi. Nissi is the Hebrew word nace or nac. It is the word used in Exodus 17 where Israel was warring with Amalek. Amalek is a type of the wars that we fight in the flesh. It is clear when Moses hands were lifted up that Israel prevailed. When hands were let down the enemy prevailed. When we worship we prevail. Nissi or nac means to the Hebrew that we are announcing that "My miracle is happening right here!" When we look at Psalm 23, the word for enemy is not of an armed invader but every kind of oppression, depression, and trouble that one could encounter. Before me is best defined as "In your face devil!" Table here is the Hebrew word that means to cast out or evict. Prepared is the word in the Hebrew that seals it. It is like setting the battle in array under flags, banners, or standards of their fathers according to their armies. In other words, he prepared a table before me in the presence of my enemies would be something like this, "In the face of your enemies or in your face devil, the Lord has prepared a table that makes you vanish because he has lifted up the standard against you with all his armies that will defeat you!"

The Bright Light of the Walls of Salvation

Series 6.10.26 – Letter #300

Today is the day that I have made. Rejoice in this day and be glad. I have made the day for you; therefore, leap for the joy of your salvation. The walls of salvation have come and enjoined themselves unto your life that was fallen down and without any walls for a defense. Now are you within the walls of salvation. Many are outside of these walls, and many shall remain outside of these walls. Go and declare the entrance way into the walls of salvation. I have made a gateway into these walls that was opened by my cross. Open up your mouth and declare the truth of the gospel, and I will confirm the truth of my name and my way.

The light of this glorious gospel is shining brighter than ever before. Men's eyes have been dull of sight, but now I do shine my light in the faces of men that they also may see the great light of the last days. Do not be hindered by the assumptions that issue forth from your body. The body is only a part of what I am doing. Do not be fearful to go and proclaim the gospel in your body, for I reside in you. You are weak, but yet are you strong, for I am the strength within you.

Lift up your head on high, and see the glory of the gospel and my name. This name that I have given you is the name that is above all others. Go and declare the name of Jesus unto the people, and expect the glory of my Spirit to come and enjoin itself unto the hearers of the word. I will show you my glory.

RE: RHEMA - The Bright Light of the Walls of Salvation

If we have gates of praise, we will have walls of salvation. Praise illuminates the name that is above every other name. Today is more than today. He has made today, but in today is the overflow of yesterday and the coming tide of tomorrow. He is the eternal God, and when he makes a day, there is past, present, and future blessings in it. We can live in the overflowing blessings inside the strong city of habitation that God has provided for us. We are told that gates need to lift up their heads. We are the representatives of the gates of the city. We can stand in the door, or we can become a wide open door into the blessing of God for others. We were not sent to hide the light of salvation but to place it on a hill to illuminate the city of grace that has been built by the Lord in this hour. There were cities of refuge in the days of old. Now, there is a city of grace for both refuge and healing for the hurting and broken. As we exalt him, there will be an endless parade of those who have found victory through Jesus Christ.

RE: RHEMA - Beware of Deceitful Workers Who Are Transformed into Ministers of Righteousness

Satan is no longer a detestable looking figure with a tail and horns. He uses a designer suit and has the latest technology with him. We should never be fooled by the presentation or the appearance of the enemy. He will come into the camp just like one of the best. Discerning of spirits is our weapon of choice at this time. When the word goes forth and the normal operation of the church is engaged and there is disharmony in the Spirit, then we know we have an enemy presence. God will act to prevent the disarray of the enemy even when we are not hearing the lies that he is speaking. His libel and slander may be believed by many who are easily persuaded. God knows those that are his and they will not hear the voice of a stranger. Sheep should flee from the voice of the stranger into the shepherd's arms. Jealousy is a monster that will rise up and try to destroy love. Those who walk in love and love the truth will not be embraced by the tentacles of jealousy and pride. Some ministers of light could be the agents of the enemy. Let us be careful what we hear and how we hear.

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I am so grateful that you called me to be a part of the parade of praise! You are the great God of glory, and I will magnify you in unison with my brothers and sisters. We will collectively open up our gates of praise to let you in. Today is the day of salvation. You are salvation, so it is your day. It is your day every day, for you make every day; therefore, I rejoice and I am glad each and every day. You are the dayspring that has arisen in my heart. I worship your mighty name, for there is no other name under heaven, given among men, that brings salvation. You are the Savior of the whole world, and you saved us through your sinless life, crucifixion, death, burial and resurrection.

I believe in you and in the completed work of Calvary. I have died to my old lifestyle, been buried with you in baptism through your name, and you sealed me with your Holy Spirit as your purchased possession. Now, I lift up my head from all of my problems, difficulties, frailties and shortcomings, for you have imputed righteousness unto me through my faith in you and what you already did. I am so thankful to have a wonderful Savior who is full of compassion and is touched with my feelings. I appreciate your expressions of mercy and grace unto me. No longer do I live in the castle of condemnation, but now I live in the city of grace. I am no longer counted a sinner, but I have your righteousness imputed unto me. Death and hell are not my lot but heaven and life everlasting. I celebrate your holy name, for you forgave me, reconciled me, and saved me by laying down your life and taking it up again.

PRAYER INSIGHT

If we have gates of praise in our lives, we will have walls of salvation and protection against the attacks of every negative influence in our lives. As we live in the atmosphere and the realm of worship and praise, we will see the King come through the gates into everyday of our lives. When he comes in, we lift up our heads and our spirits. We are not left to wallow in the mud holes of worry. We are standing on the wonders of his word, and we will forever praise him. Judgment and condemnation are strangers to our dwelling places, and we will not hear the voice of strangers!
