Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

The Defense and the Offense of Grace in the Time of the Oppressive Attacks of Betrayal

Series 6.11.10 – Letter #315

Do not worry about the spirit of betrayal, for it is already conquered. I allowed betrayal to work that it might be entrapped by its own plan. I see all and know the end of all things. Watch and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The flesh is weak, but the spirit is indeed willing. You have come to this time in your life for this cause. Now be bold and full of faith always willing to allow the grace of God to conquer your weak flesh. Prayer shall be at the center of your relationship with me. Come unto me with prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, and let your request be made known unto me. The bitter cup of the trial shall not overwhelm the grace that is within you. Do not be disturbed about the evildoers and the evil talkers, for their plans are known of me. Cast yourself at my feet in prayer and know that I, the Lord, did hear you.

Everything that happens has a purpose, whether it is good or bad. Even the spirit of betrayal that has subtly worked has a purpose, but know this that I was betrayed by a kiss, and therefore, beware of those who sow discord with craftiness and with subtlety. Their words are sweet like honey, and their actions are smooth like a trained dancer, but their end is destruction and corruption. Seek me with a whole heart, and avoid the crafty sowers of discord, and then will you avoid the pits that are laid for a snare unto your own life. I was interrogated by the leaders of my age. I accepted the sentence that was handed down to me. I was led as a lamb to my slaughter and did not defend myself. Do not defend yourself, but yield yourself unto me. You have an angelic defense led of angels. Your adversary and those who would condemn you cannot bring an accusation that will cause your bondage. I have accepted the judgment of the whole world, and now your freedom is real because of my righteousness. Seek continually my kingdom and my righteousness, and then shall all the things that your heart desires be added.

I have taken the judgment. Now peace be unto you in the trial and in the belly of impossibility, for I have made the way out of every trial. There is no impossibility that can be made sure, for I have made a permanent door in the belly of impossibility. Be true to me, and the truth shall warrant your freedom. I was accused for your sake. Do not be afraid of the interrogators of the darkness, for their voices are silenced by the blood that I shed for you. Do not tempt the Lord your God, but walk according to the righteousness that is set before you steps. Mercy and truth have met together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Lift up your voice on high, and proclaim the victory that I won for you when I was scourged, wounded, and bruised for you. I guaranteed a resurrection before I submitted myself to death by my perfect life. I have already lived perfectly for you. Now you can walk according to faith in my perfection. I deemed myself worthy by my faultless life. The interrogators could not find any fault in me, yet they falsely accused me. Their false accusations could not stand in the court of divine justice. A crown of thorns about my head grants you peace in your mind BY FAITH. I took the judgment necessary for your peace. My crown of thorns was taken for you, and now there awaits you a crown of life.

Press on toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God that is in Christ Jesus. Those who reject me choose a murderer. As the people chose Barrabas instead of me, then those who do not choose me, choose death and eternal damnation. He that shall save his life shall lose it, but he that shall lose his life for my sake shall save it. I laid my life down and had power to take it up again. He that shall know life must be willing to deny himself, pick up his own cross, and follow me. The pathway to life is not the broad way, but it is the narrow way of the crucified life, a life of denial, and submission to the only Lord God. Do not watch from afar as those who are committed unto me fall under the weight of their crosses, but draw nigh with your own cross, and fall under its weight, then shall you know sincerity and truth. Truth shall spring forth to help you bear your cross, and freedom shall be expressed in death to self. Come and follow me, for I have already trod this path of denial. Do not preserve yourself, or your tomb shall be a tomb of eternal woe. Give yourself to me, and your grave shall be the place where a body of clay is placed that only holds the form and the image of your eternal, incorruptible body.

Come to the cross again, and behold the suffering of Messiah. Know of his love that was expressed by death and the laying down of precious life. Fear God and love good. I have remembered you because you have believed. Now hear the utterances of the voice of Messiah in your ears. I have remembered you and the covenant I did make. The way out of impossibility was made by the hammer and chisel of love. I fashioned a way out for you by my resurrection and victory over death and the grave. My Spirit that raised up the body of Christ is in you. Now do not feel forsaken any longer, for I am with you. The weight of impossibility has squeezed your flesh and attacked your faith, but faith yet speaks in this time of oppressive attacks.

I shook the entire earth with thundering and lightning, and with earthquakes, I responded to the attack of death. I swallowed it entirely and conquered it in my belly. I swallowed up death, but in victory was it swallowed. Death could not conquer righteousness. Death could not conquer holiness. Death could not conquer the power of life. My body was placed in a tomb. It was not a permanent abode, but it was a temporary journey for your sake. I journeyed there willingly. The power to lay down my life and the power to take up my life could not be taken away. My power to lay down a life and to take up life is now yours. The power of change is yours. I entered into your life to change you so that the circumstances and the impossibilities do not hold you. Release yourself into my hands as I released my Spirit into the hands of the Father, and then shall your death to fear of bondage be conquered. Rest in this dilemma, and know that my death, burial, and resurrection have purchased your victory over this impossibility. Do not be ashamed of this gospel, for in it is the power of your God unto the victory that you need now.

I am not worried about the spirit of betrayal, for it is already conquered. God allowed betrayal to work that it might be entrapped by its own plan. He sees all and knows the end of all things. I am watching and praying so that I don't enter into temptation. The flesh is weak, but the spirit is indeed willing. I have come to this time in my life for this cause. I am bold and full of faith. I am willing to allow the grace of God to conquer my weak flesh. Prayer is at the center of my relationship with God. I have gone unto him with prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, and I have let my requests be made known unto him. The bitter cup of the trial shall not overwhelm the grace that is within me. I have not become disturbed about the evildoers and the evil talkers, for their plans are known of the Lord. I have cast myself at his feet in prayer and I know that the Lord has heard me.

Jesus was interrogated by the leaders of his age. He accepted the sentence that was handed down to him. He was led as a lamb to his slaughter and did not defend himself. I have purposed in my heart not to defend myself but to yield myself unto God.

I have an angelic defense led of angels. My adversary and those who would condemn me cannot bring an accusation that will cause my bondage. ## PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Defense and the Offense of Grace in the Time of the Oppressive Attacks of Betrayal

As we pray and are in the arms of the intimacy of infinite love, nothing else will really matter. Everything else will become just a cinder in the flames of the love that many waters cannot quench or drown. It is true but not trite that where there is iniquity and rebellion that grace will abound to the overflow that will fill every dry streambed with the rivers of overflowing abundance. Confusion comes in many forms and from many sources. Our enemy would know that we would fight with an almost ferocity against that which attacks those we love and hold dear. Attacks of the enemy will try to lay bare our emotions and our hearts with the sword of insults and insinuations of our character. Every fiber of the character of Jesus was insulted and blasphemed. Our place in his stead is not and will not be exempt from these desperate attacks. Our enemy knows to not attack us on the issues where we have a clear dislike and are dispassionate about. God has promised to deliver us and keep us through these almost brutal assaults of the enemy. We will have our faith purified by the heat of the fire of rejection. We are almost paralyzed by the unthinkable insults that come our way. Then, we remember how the Lord stood in judgment for us and that grace has already vicariously taken our place in every public and private forum that can or will ever exist. Grace has defended us and cleared us of all the lies and false charges. We have been justified and stand innocent before the only tribunal that matters. We have been accepted in the Beloved before the foundation of the world. It matters not who rejects me. We will surrender ourselves into the safe hands of the counsel of grace that has never lost a case that it defended. Grace is our advocate and vindicator.

I knocked on your heart this morning. Grace woke you up, and my Spirit drew you to the door of prayer. I entered into your praises and inhabited them. I tasted your sacrifice and your prayers. I consumed them as a sweet savor. Now sit and taste of the words of my mouth. They are words to live by, for this is the Rhema of the Lord.

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Positioned in the Secret Place of the Most High and Abiding Under the Shadow of the Almighty

As our life is hid with Christ in God, the extension of his creation is exposed to attack and has a permanent shield in the manifestation of God in the flesh. Our Lord is truly not the shadow of any mountain here on earth but the extension of the influence of the mountain of God upon which his throne sits in heaven. So massive is the power centralized in the throne of God over the universe that when its shadow extends to cover us, it is more than a shadow and it appears as the cyclone-like storms of wind that are prominent in the tropical zones of the earth. All that the enemy can see is a great dust storm that he has to eat because the feet of the Lord are all about his hidden people. Our defenses are not unequal to our offensive weapons of battle. Not only is the sword of the Spirit lifted in the mouth of his prophets, but we become the state of the art weaponry in our transition to songs of worship and prayer, ICBM's that are hurled with prophetic anointing into all the installations of the forces against us. Men may mock and ridicule but will be consumed in their own exposure because when they do this, they are casting away their own covering. They open the city of their own dwelling to the attack of the enemy because God says, "If you do not like what I am doing, let us see what you can do on your own." Our feet shall be on the necks of our enemies. Eternity is now hearing the triumphant cry of a victorious people who know their God and his voice. Their stride will echo throughout the heavens.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Marco Mendoza

Lord, I am so thankful to be in your arms of intimacy. It is an infinite love, and just knowing this makes everything else unimportant. Everything else is just a cinder in the flames of the love that many waters cannot quench or drown. Although iniquity and rebellion may abound, your grace does much more abound to the overflow that will fill every dry streambed with the rivers of overflowing abundance. Confusion comes in many forms and from many sources, but I rejoice to know that you keep us in perfect peace when our mind is stayed on you. Thank you for showing me the example of how to react when I am insulted. I realize that I am not exempt from these desperate attacks on my character by the enemy. I am grateful for your promise to deliver me and keep me through these almost brutal assaults of the enemy. It is encouraging to know that insults and trials will not bring me down to defeat but will purify my faith. When I think about how you stood in judgment for me and that grace has already vicariously taken my place in every public and private forum that can or will ever exist, I am filled with appreciation. I praise you for your grace that defends me and clears me of all the lies and false charges. I have been justified and stand innocent before the only tribunal that matters. I have been accepted in you, the Beloved before the foundation of the world, and I am truly grateful for that. It does not matter who rejects me. I am a blessed person because I am in the safe hands of the counsel of grace that has never lost a case that it defended. I thank you for your grace that is my advocate and vindicator, and I owe it all to you my loving Father.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Our enemy loves to try to threaten and insult us. We have learned not to take it personally. It is the Lord Jesus that Satan is doing his best to attack through us. We are not threatened or insulted unless we stop to CONSIDER THE FALSE STATEMENTS OF THE ENEMY. Abraham considered not his own body. We need never stop and consider the false threats and insults of the devil. His slander can never change the love and grace that came to us before the world began. Eternal love and power will prevail in every circumstance of our life. One version of 1 Corinthians 13 says that love can outlast anything. Our redemption is more than being purchased out of the servitude and shame of sin, but it is the justification and vindication of our record and life before God. We are exonerated by the blood of Jesus Christ. Love has taken the marred canvas of sin and erased the graffiti of confusion and taken the oils of grace and the brushes of everlasting love and painted a portrait of beauty and sweeping grandeur of our life through the sacrifice of the cross. All the other negatives have been removed from our file!

Abundance of Grace from the Mouth of a Scavenger

Series 6.11.11 – Letter #316

Today is another day that I made. I made the day and all that is within the earth and the heaven. I am your Creator. All things are possible with me and by me. I am from everlasting to everlasting, and my truth endureth unto all generations. There shall not come a generation in which my truth shall not reach. No one is out of my reach, for these long arms of salvation have been revealed. Have you read, “To whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?”

Do you really know what that means?

I came unto my own, and my own received me not, but you received me, and many have received me. All who have received me have been made sons of God, possessed of power. You have received power that surpasses all the power in the universe. The living Creator is abiding in you, and now shall the things spoken in my word come to pass in your life.

I am no respecter of persons. I am not a man that I should lie. I have called you righteous and imputed all that you need unto your life that you might stand free and without guilt or condemnation. Where there is no law, then no transgression is imputed. You are not chained up by failure and faults, but you have been made free by the law of the Spirit of life that is in me. There is a law that works in me that supersedes all other laws. Remember that you are blessed, and because you are blessed, you have privileges that the world does not have. There is light in me when there is darkness in the world. There is peace in me when there are plagues and confusion in the world. There is liberty in me when there is bondage and confusion in the world. Lift up your eyes unto me, and see that I care for you. I have not made a mistake in ordering your steps. Your steps are ordered of me. Rely on my faithfulness, and know that I have not designed you to be a failure, nor a reproach to my name, nor the body of Christ.

I have designed you to be a success and an honor to my name. Gird up the loins of faith, and “roll up your sleeves” of tenacity. I am more than enough for all these things that threaten. I have not taken my eyes off you in your dilemma. You will not drown in the sea of confusion. Hold fast to your confession of faith, and do not waver in this time of trial and misunderstanding, but hold fast to me and my faithfulness, and know that my strength is your strength; my prosperity is your prosperity; my health is your health; my righteousness is your righteousness; my wisdom is your wisdom, and now allow my vision to become your vision.

Behold the wonder that I do in your life. A prophet, neither a preacher has not foretold that which I shall do in your life, but today, I do tell you that I will do a wonder in your life that you will not believe. No, not even if a prophet or a preacher told you. Lift up your eyes unto the hills of salvation, and see that there is a blessing in the clouds of liberty above your head. The clouds cannot be harnessed, neither can a storm be tamed, but I have commanded the impossibility to feed you. Now shall you come out of this dilemma unscathed by the fire of it. You will not drown, neither will you sink, but you shall arrive at the dry land of deliverance and of prosperity in time unto my glory. Make your calling and election sure, for the wonder of the Lord’s hand has come nigh unto you this day. Know that and believe. Believe on me and not on yourself, for you can of yourself do nothing, but through me, you can do all things. All things are possible to you if you believe. Only believe.

RE: RHEMA - Abundance of Grace from the Mouth of a Scavenger

The royal law of liberty has declared the verdicts of every dimension of time in our lives. His determinations for us are not of ruin but of total redemption. Grace has already crowned us with his loving-kindness as the winner of the race. We will not be weary in well doing, for he has ordained us to be zealous of good works of love and reconciliation. His plans are not those of drought or famine but a harvest of the best bread of his presence that we have ever feasted on. Plans have been unrolled like a carpet for the blessings that will roll in like the tide of the sea of his supply. Every distraction will vanish like a shadow in the strength of the sun of his grace that will shine through our thoughts as the noonday without clouds. God will supply the excellence of his blessing in our lives from the most unsuspecting sources. We have been called to a feast of grace of the wine that has been saved for the very last. The wineskins of our limited expectations will burst with the unlimited deluge of fulfillment of his promises. He will show us that not only will every a and z of every word spoken come to pass, but they will multiply in their meaning as we eat the fresh words of power from on high. It is high time that we cease looking at the limited horizon of our own ability and see the sunrise of the day of his power that will always increase into his eternal kingdom. We are not looking into the mirrors of past defeats but through the windows that have been opened to pour out a blessing that we cannot contain.

My voice is not silent in the earth. I have given you a mouth and wisdom. The gainsayers cannot resist what I have given. Go forth in confidence, and speak the words that I place in your mouth. My word is in your tongue. Go and preach. It shall be given you in the very hour of speaking what you shall say. It will not be you that speaks but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. Open your mouth wide. I will fill it. Go preach.

CONFESSION BITES

By LWWC CONFESSION WRITERS

God's voice is not silent in the earth. He has given me a mouth and wisdom. The gainsayers cannot resist what he has given. I am going forth in confidence and speaking the words that God places in my mouth. His word is in my tongue; therefore, I am now preaching. It is given to me in the very hour of speaking what I need to say. It is not me that speaks but the Spirit of my Father who speaks in me. I have opened my mouth wide and the Lord has filled it; therefore, I am now preaching.

RE: RHEMA - The Fashioning of Grace Creates a Satisfied Vessel of Peace and Power

Hands of destruction reached for us, but the hands of grace covered us. Defeat drew designs of defeat in secret chambers, but grace shouted its plans from the housetop of safety that we resided on. Grace has begun a good work in us, and God will not allow the attacks of the forces of the enemy to destroy what he has created in us. Vessels of power that pour out peace are rare treasures in the hands of the potter. Novice hands of apprentice level workers are not allowed to touch the unique vessels fashioned for the special demonstration of grace. God has filled the vessels of power by the supply of grace with the wealth of body and soul. On every hand, there is a constant flow of blessing that sends vapors of peace into every room of our dwelling. God will not cast aside the radiance of creation that his hands have formed. Even when he pushes down on the clay of our vessel, it will only cause the vessel to rise higher and create more volume to contain what he desires to pour out of our lives. Grace has not closed down the center of artistry that creates one of a kind pieces. We shall behold greater dimensions of larger capacity than we have ever seen before. More than a drink of water, grace will supply an entire spiritual ecosystem with living water! Our world and the culture that is vapid of the words of power and peace will have reservoirs of its flow available through the yielded vessels of this hour.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you that you are the creator of all things. You made me fearfully and wonderfully. I am thankful for your creativity. You are from everlasting to everlasting, and your truth endures to all generations. Your royal law of liberty has declared the verdicts of every dimension of time in my life. I am grateful that you have not allowed ruin in my life but you have granted redemption. Your grace has crowned me with your loving-kindness as the winner of the race. I will not be weary in well doing. If I become weary, it shows that I haven't fully trusted you. Keep me in my right mind so that I will not lean to my own understanding. You have designed me to be successful. You have not taken your eyes off me in my dilemma, and you will not allow me to drown in a sea of confusion. You have called me righteous and imputed all that I need to stand free of guilt and condemnation. There is peace and liberty in you; therefore, I will lift up my eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help, for I know that my help comes from you. You are the living Creator abiding in me, and I am confident that all things spoken in your word shall come to pass in my life.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Creation's art is not on the pages of the past only in Genesis. The rest of scripture unrolls like a gold edged scroll that never ends as it races across the pages of words filled with mercy and grace that sweeps away the finger of blame and judgment from our lives. Not only are we made new creatures in Christ, but we are placed in an atmosphere where we mature free of the gravity of guilt and are nourished by the soil of grace. Our growth is not stunted by the wind storms of fear and doubt because the roots of grace are in the living Rock that is deep beneath the surface of all the subterfuge that would confuse us. We know the vaults of treasure and blessing are open to us because the One who has the keys of hell and death opened the gates of power and prosperity to those who have learned to lift up the swords of the word in the brilliant light of worship's revelation.

The Vitality of the Words of Grace

Series 6.11.12 – Letter #317

If I were recording or marking down your iniquities, you would not be standing, but you would be fallen and trampled by the enemy of your soul. Have you read, “Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity?”

Do you comprehend the beauty of that expressions?

Do you really understand the gospel and the meaning of my grace?

Do you believe what Abraham believed, or do you believe what your traditions have taught you?

Go back to Abraham, and find out what he believed. There will you find a renewing and a fresh start in life. I have come to you with a refreshing and not the stale bread and water of traditions. I have come to pour out upon you the freshness of myself. I am not stale, but I am vibrant and truly alive.

Do not be filled with dismay and regret because of anything. I am your God on the inside of you, and nothing can take that away from you. I have given you a right relationship with me, and now I do show you the power of a right relationship with your Messiah. You have been brought into right-standing with me. Now there remains no enmity between you and me. I am the Lord, and I do not change. The law did not nullify the covenant of Abraham and me. The law declared man guilty that he might be brought to me and receive the grace that was not available to him anywhere else.

Lift up your eyes once more unto the beauty of my words of grace, and then shall you find true liberty for yourself. I am the bright and the morning star, the root and the offspring of David. I am the Lily in the valley, yet the Rose of Sharon. I am the wheel in the middle of a wheel. I AM THAT I AM. Let this day begin a new day in your life. I am with you to do a work that you will not believe. Come. Let us go on. There are mountains to conquer.

RE: RHEMA - The Vitality of the Words of Grace

Words were not intended to break any bones but to heal and mend that which is broken. Words of the pure are as health to the bones. As marrow flows through the bones, so does the healing power of grace as it speaks wholeness to that which is shattered. O, how the flowing streams and fountains of strength and restoration surge from the words of hearts that are filled with grace. Jesus was full of grace and truth, and we have received that fullness in the new birth. Yet in many, the operation of the words of grace lay dormant. We have to exercise the use of the words of grace just as we exercise the works of the gifts of the Spirit. The words of John that say, In the original Greek “grace for grace” means that grace will perpetuate grace continually.” We are reminded that the merciful are blessed by the unbroken flow of mercy. Grace will channel down into our lives a healing stream of power that has flowed out of eternity and back out into infinity again. Strength and stamina are the elements of the fiber of the words of grace. Abram rejoiced to see the day of grace when the Word was made flesh in Jesus. He was seeing the day when we would partake in a desert on the feast of prophetic words of grace that would launch us into unlimited dimensions of God.

RE: RHEMA - The Grapes of Wrath Trodden by Jesus Have Resulted in Us Having Access to the Wine of the Last Days

Joel tells us that the mountains will flow down with the new wine of the kingdom in the last days. Jesus suffered often from the foundation of the world but at the cross made the perfect offering for sin. Our judgment seat is the cross where we can be viewed in the light of his expiatory (atonement) offering for us. Propitiation stands on top of the mercy seat and says, "Grace has prepared a feast for all who will come to partake of it." Our eternal gratitude flows out of our hearts that we do not have to stand before a judgment seat without mercy. However, there are those who will forsake their own mercy. They will hearken to the wrong voice and follow their own pride into a court where they have no advocate. Our righteousness is of no value in any court, but the righteousness of his appropriation comes through the obedience of faith to him. As we do his will, we mirror the inward working of the soul that is fleeing the wine of the lust of this world and running after our Beloved.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I magnify your everlasting and inexhaustible grace. As I come before your throne of grace and access the mercy that is here for me in my time of need, I am overwhelmed by the blessedness I have received of you. I deserved to be banished to an island of loneliness and to die the death of a fool for all of my sins and my transgressions, yet I am standing today because of the price you paid in redeeming me. I am so thankful that you have given me mercy and grace instead of judgment. I sing your praises in the midst of the congregation of the righteous, the people called by your name. I worship you, for your miraculous power has been expressed my way as you looked at me with the eyes of compassion and deep concern. When all had turned their backs on me because the cup of my foolishness was full, you never gave up on me. You have invested your life in saving a wretch like me, and now I have been redeemed and restored by your unrelenting power of reconciliation. All of my debts and sins are PAID IN FULL. I have been born again, and I am free.

Your perpetual and consistent grace is multiplied in exponential measures. There is no end to the multiplicity of your love and grace. You are eternal and immeasurable. You are continuing to expand in every attribute as you create new things and dimensions in the Spirit as well as in the natural. You are unlimited and uninhibited by time, space, or eternity, and I am humbled by your Spirit and will in my life. Who am I that you would be mindful of me? I am but a worm in your presence, yet you treat me as a priceless diamond. Lord, you are so good to me. I am in awe at your unrelenting, forceful expressions of victory, power, and peace. You are truly a miracle worker. You took this no good, unwanted reject and made me a minister of your precious gospel. May you be glorified in the expressions of grace as your body is edified, fortified, strengthened, and inspired to make it to the end. The goal is not too far off, and your commandments are not grievous. Salvation is at hand through the power of your Spirit. Hallelujah!

Grace is the divine energy of the universe. Redemption is the spiritual DNA that is in every molecule of grace that flows like red blood cells into our spiritual being. Just as oxygen is carried by red blood cells to every part of our body, so does redemption carry grace to every part of our experience and relationship with Jesus Christ. We are not brought into the courts of judgment and condemnation, but wrath becomes just part of the smoke of the incense that covers the mercy seat and blots out all of our transgressions. We hear the highest dimensions of God's voice in ineffable tones from above the mercy seat that has moved from heaven to earth because of the cross.

The mighty God of Israel has spoken unto you in times past and now in this present time. My voice speaks with clarity of expression and purpose. My voice is the sound that you hear, and its vibrations are not distorted, neither is they illusionary. My voice speaks and proclaims truth to your inward parts and to your spirit. I have not left you without a comforter. I have come and brought you life abundantly. The fellowship and the communion that has been granted to you is real and without any leaven or hypocrisy. I am pure and undefiled. I am the one, true living God, the everlasting Father. I have called you and chosen you. Now rise up from the dust of discouragement, and set your affections on things above. If you give your affections to the things of this life, you shall be spoiled by the dust of this life.

Do not set your affections on the things that are upon the earth, for these things shall perish. If you set your affections on the things that are temporal, then your vision will be clouded and without true purpose. Set your affections on things in heaven, and then shall my purpose rule in your understanding. I have sent forth the understanding that fashioned the creation. Now allow my understanding to fashion your purpose, then shall you see the fulfillment of my design in your life. I have not chosen you to fulfill the design of defeat. Adam experienced defeat because he obeyed the creature instead of his Creator. Obey and then shall you escape defeat's net and snare. I am the giver of life and the author of eternal redemption. Trust in my grace and my love, for this love and grace shall not fail. I have given you freely all that you need to be an overcomer. Take this rope of grace and love and climb over this wall of resistance before you. You were not created to be stymied by the walls of resistance, but you are more than a conqueror through me. All of these walls cannot keep back the grace that I have given you. This grace that I have given is sufficient for you. This grace speaks unto your walls and declares, "Grace, grace, unto these walls." Now follow grace to the walls of resistance, and climb over them. There is the fulfillment of many promises on the other side of these walls. Come and allow goodness and mercy to be your support as you leap by grace over these walls.

The walls of resistance have been built high, yet grace is endowed with legs that leap higher than all the heights of spirit-built walls. Do not look back, neither look down to doubt and unbelief, but look to the author of grace who has extended you the ropes of love and grace. Come and follow me. I have blessings waiting on your arrival over the walls of resistance. Humble yourself under my

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Ropes of Grace and Love for Spiritual Walls of Resistance

Our walls of salvation are for our protection; however, a person can be walled in or walled out. Jesus removed the middle wall that had partitioned off the Gentiles from access to God. Our desires turn into lust and will lead us into a maze of walls that we cannot find our way out of. The same One who tore down the walls of Jericho will tear down the walls of resistance that will keep us from his promises. The same One who empowered Samson to tear down the gates of Gaza will overwhelm the gates of hell for us. If God is for us, there is no person or weapon that can separate us from the grace that flows to us by his love. He will not only pull down strongholds, but he will lift us above the dangers on the surface of life as ropes on a stage in the theater lift massive props. His words were never intended to only be footholds on the ledges of life but they were meant to be a stairway full of wide safe landings into the great things he has prepared for us. Defeat has already heard its summons to depart. God is calling all the triumphant elements of eternity to our side. Our efforts are the flowing purpose of grace in our lives. He has not chosen us to be vessels of wrath but of mercy. We will leap over the walls of certain defeat and run through the troops of temptation with the armor of light. Revelation and light have come to expose the lies of the enemy and show us that his threats of demolition are fake and hollow. We have the weapons of demolition that are powerful through grace and our confessions of faith.

RE: RHEMA - You Walk by Faith, Not by Sight

Faith does not arise out of observation. The unseen is the palate of the artist of the invisible. What appears obvious and apparent are the myopic lenses of clouded vision. Faith has prepared the path that is revealed by the word that is like a torch burning in the night. Burning bushes of the supernatural appear to those who are looking for the things that are not. Circumstances will cause us to cease to declare the vision of the prophecy that has been given to us. Whirling images of kaleidoscopes of fear will fill our minds with fearful thoughts. We are looking to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. He has already seen us marching triumphant over every situation. You, O Lord, are the mighty God, the Prince of Peace, and the everlasting Father. In you do I place my trust. I rejoice and I am grateful, for you are pure, undefiled, and full of glory. Your magnificent voice speaks unto my inward parts and declares the truth of who you are. I cannot resist the drawing of your voice that speaks unto me with clarity and purpose. I give you praise, and I desire to please you with my all that is in me. Let your design and perfect plan for me come forth. I am glad, and I yield myself to your love and grace. I am rejoicing, for you have freed me from the snare of lust and pride that was vying for my attention and affection. Thank you, Jesus, for choosing me and not leaving me without a comforter. I am full of joy because you love me and have a plan and direction for my life. You have granted me the desire to be obedient to you, and by your grace, I will not succumb to the lure and temptations of the hour. You are my delight, and I rejoice in your loving-kindness and tender mercy toward your people. Today, I stand as an overcomer, for your love has declared it and made it so. I give you praise, and I lift my voice in triumph and adoration. There is none like you, for you alone are the one true living God, and all honor, praise, and glory belong unto you.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

John 15:11 tells us that Jesus spoke these things to us that our joy could remain and be full at the same time. The lesson on him being the vine and us the branches is full of so much revelation. The bottom line is that if we abide in him, we will bear much fruit. Joy is just one of the fruits of the Spirit. When we mix all of the other eight fruits of the Spirit with the joy of the Lord, then we have abundance of joy that is unbelievable. Joy without peace and love is less than if they are part and parcel of one another. Our joy is even more abundant in the One who is not only the Savior but the everlasting Father. He who died for us is the same One who fights for us. Our joy is overflowing when we realize how much and how many facets of deity are constantly and repeatedly working in us presently as we worship him.

Freedom in the Trouble Zone of Spiritual Hooded Robbers

Series 6.11.14 – Letter #319

I am not a man that I should lie, neither am I the son of a man that I should fail, but I am the living eternal Spirit, your God and Abraham's God. There is one God, the Father. My name, Jesus, has been revealed. I manifested my name by the word of an angel and have shown forth my name in my son, Jesus. The Son of God inherited his name from me, the Father. I am the eternal God, the Spirit of Christ, the one, true living God.

Lift up your head from the troubling things of the day, and walk with me in the cool of the daytime. I have drawn you out of "the trouble zone" that you might enjoy the fellowship that Adam enjoyed. Do not think that this fellowship is earned by good deeds, for there is nothing that you could do to merit this grace that is so freely given to you. Lift up your voice in praise for the fellowship and communion given you by the Spirit. I have never forsaken you. The experience that you are living is the experience that I desire with all my sheep. Many will never have it because they do not understand the redemption and the benefits of it. I bought you back from slavery and made you a son of adoption. You are no longer an alien from the commonwealth of Israel, but through Christ, you are blessed. The curse is ineffective against you, for you are redeemed. Refuse to carry the baggage from the curse in your body, for it is not your baggage, but it is the baggage of the evil one.

Lift your hands and be healed, for I have paid the price that you do not have to carry the weight of sickness through this life. I healed you many years ago. Now refuse to pay with pain, sorrow, distress, worry, despair, and time. These are very expensive coins. Do not pay the enemy, any longer, the currency of your mind and heart, but lift up your voice to your Savior, and be delivered from the hand of this robber. The robber who came to steal your peace is also a liar. I have not subjected you to this thief's desire and will, but I have ordained healing and victory for you.

Look again to the scene of my trial, and see that I willingly accepted all the accusations, the lies, the wounds, the bruises, the chastisements, the stripes, the shame, and the curse. I purposed that the joy that was set before me was greater than the horror of the judgment of justice. I have not brought you the judgment that you deserved, but I have brought you the judgment of God, which is with mercy. I have stood in your stead and paid the expenses of sins, sicknesses, and damnation. Lift up your head from this hooded robber, who has come to rob you of that which faith is able to afford. Do not look again to the flesh of man, neither lean on his arm. Lean on the arm of the Lord that is revealed unto you by the Spirit. I am the Lord, your God, and the Lord who is strong and mighty in this battle. This is not your battle, but it is mine. Now lift up your eyes from the valley, and let us go on to climb this mountain of victory.

You look and see the long distance to travel before you reach the top. I will walk with you every step of the way. The time shall not be long, for the fellowship of the Spirit shall consume the time. Look unto me, the author and the finisher of your faith. I am on time. I knocked on your heart. Do not shut the door because of pride. Open up your heart to the ministry of the word of the Lord, and I will do a wonder in your life that you will not believe. No, not even if a preacher told you. Lift up your eyes from the valley of indecision. I have said, “Come and follow me.” Then follow me, and do not regret the path that I lead you down. I am with you. Now walk with me, and do not be concerned about the scenery, the villages that you must walk through, nor the things that you do not understand. Simply walk and follow. Defeat, Distress, Indecision,
Judgment, Pain, Pride, Robbers,

Trouble, and Worry

Series 6.11.14 – Confession #319

Jesus is not a man that he should lie, neither is he the son of a man that he should fail, but he is the living eternal Spirit, my God and Abraham's God. There is one God, the Father. His name, Jesus, has been revealed. He manifested his name by the word of an angel and has shown forth his name in his son, Jesus. The Son of God inherited his name from God, the Father. Jesus is the eternal God, the Spirit of Christ, the one, true living God.

I have lifted up my head from the troubling things of the day and walked with the Lord in the cool of the daytime. He has drawn me out of “the trouble zone” that I might enjoy the fellowship that Adam enjoyed. I have not thought that this fellowship is earned by good deeds, for there is nothing that I could do to merit this grace that is so freely given to me. I have lifted up my voice in praise for the fellowship and communion given to me by the Spirit.

My God has never forsaken me. The experience that I am living is the experience that he desires with all his sheep. Many will never have it because they do not understand the redemption and the benefits of it. Jesus bought me back from slavery and made me a son of adoption. I am no longer an alien from the commonwealth of Israel, but through Christ, I am blessed. The curse is ineffective against me, for I am redeemed. I refuse to carry the baggage from the curse in my body, for it is not my baggage, but it is the baggage of the evil one.

I have lifted my hands, and I am healed, for Jesus has paid the price that I do not have to carry the weight of sickness through this life. He healed me many years ago, and I refuse to pay with pain, sorrow, distress, worry, despair, and time. These are very expensive coins. I have not paid the enemy with the currency of my mind and heart, but I lifted up my voice to my Savior and am delivered from the hand of this robber. The robber who came to steal my peace is also a liar. God has not subjected me to this thief's desire and will, but he has ordained healing and victory for me.

I have looked to the scene of Jesus' trial and saw that he willingly accepted all the accusations, the lies, the wounds, the bruises, the chastisements, the stripes, the shame, and the curse. He purposed that the joy that was set before him was greater than the horror of the judgment of justice. He has not brought me the judgment that I deserved, but he has brought me the judgment of God, which is with mercy. The Lord has stood in my stead and paid the expenses of sins, sicknesses, and damnation. I have lifted up my head from this hooded robber who has come to rob me of that which faith is able to afford. I have not looked again to the flesh of man, neither leaned on his arm. I am leaning on the arm of the Lord that is revealed unto me by the Spirit. Jesus is the Lord, my God, and the Lord who is strong and mighty in this battle. This is not my battle, but it is his. I lift up my eyes from the valley and climb this mountain of victory.

I looked and saw the long distance to travel before I reach the top. Christ is walking with me every step of the way. The time shall not be long, for the fellowship of the Spirit shall consume the time. I have looked unto Jesus, the author and the finisher of my faith. He is on time. He knocked on my heart. I have not shut the door because of pride, but I opened up my heart to the ministry of the word of the Lord, and he is doing a wonder in my life that I will not believe. No, not even if a preacher told me. I have lifted up my eyes from the valley of indecision. God has said, "Come and follow me." I am following the Lord, and I will not regret the path that he is leading me down. Jesus is with me. I am walking with him and will not be concerned about the scenery, the villages that I must walk through, nor the things that I do not understand. I am simply walking and following. Jesus is teaching me new things that I have not known.

RE: RHEMA - Freedom in the Trouble Zone of Spiritual Hooded Robbers

Our enemy has always been a thief and a robber. His ploys of fraud and duplicity have woven their web and traps around so many. We are not ignorant of his mind-sets and ways of thinking. Our mental disposition is not that of victims but of victors. Goliath's spirit will defraud the people of God and fill them with dismay. There is a cause, and it is the triumph of good over the evil intent of the wicked one. God has called us out and cleansed us from all sin. We will not play in the darkened streets and alleys of fear where shadows harbor their own attackers. Although the mobs of discouragement and depression may come with their vehicles of stealth, the Lord has sent his host of armies marching down into our lives. The forces against us will be swept down the drain like a flash flood. Floods of joy that fill our lives are the enemy's worst enemy. Troubles may set themselves in array against us, but we will not fear, for we have been set up on the rock of salvation that will never be shattered by the attack of the enemy upon our faith. We will boldly declare in the time of trouble that the very present help that we have is embracing us as we speak.

Do not be disturbed because of the ailments incurred during this present time. The disorder and irregularity shall not dim my light of blessings. I have kept your blessings intact. The turmoil and upheaval shall not shake them from your heart. My word has gone out of my mouth. All of the pandemonium of your enemies shall not cause a reversal of my promises. Turn from the force of derangement and look to the order of my promises. They are sure and steadfast. You will receive them in due time. Allow love to shine through you so that your hands are not tainted with confusion when I place the blessings in your bosom. Our help and expectation cometh from God alone. All other sources are synthetic counterfeits. Therefore, all our praise will rise to him. As long as we keep the laser beam of intense praise focused on the Lord, all of the false and confusing things will be exposed for the lies that there are.

I could not but think of the word the Lord gave me on praise a little while back. As a shell (for a gun) is packed with powder, so is the weapon of praise packed with power of performed promises. Praise is packed with promises and prophecies possessing plenty with princes and priests proceeding and prevailing to put principalities in their place!

Our praise is the high impact weapon in the region of hell. When we get to really praising him, hell runs in terror because it knows part of the blessing is its destruction.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tony Johnson

I enter your gates with thanksgiving and into your courts with praise. You are the same, yesterday, today, and forever. Jesus is your name. The eternal Spirit, the one true living God. Blessed is your name. I am elated because you have revealed your name, and now I can lift up my head from the troubling things of the day. It is not by anything that I could have done to earn the grace that brought me out of the trouble zone. I lift up my voice in praise because of the fellowship and communion given to me. I worship you in the freedom that I can now experience because of the redemption that was paid for me. I am no longer a slave to sin, but you bought me back and made me a son by adoption, and for this I am forever grateful. There is no weapon formed against me that will prosper. I am not cursed, but I am blessed. I lift up my hands in gratitude, and I am receiving the healing that was paid for me at Calvary.

My immune system is strengthened and is rejecting the attacks of sorrow, pain, distress, and worry and I give you praise. Though the enemy is a liar, I am at peace, and my body is at rest because of the deliverance supplied by you, the great physician. I am not a victim, but I am a victor, for you are the author and finisher of my faith. You looked at the joy that was set before you, despising the shame, and your judgment bought me mercy and freedom from the robbers of my faith. I am no longer indebted to the arm of flesh, but now I lean on you, my Lord who is strong and mighty in this battle, which is no longer mine. I lift up my eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. Lord you are my help, and I rejoice as I climb the mountain of victory. Floods of joy have filled my life and have troubled waters for my enemy. I will not fear because I have been set upon the rock of salvation. I will not regret the leading of your Spirit, nor shall I be concerned about my journey, I will simply trust in you the Savior of my soul. You are my help in the time of trouble, and I rejoice with exceeding joy.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our worship in thanksgiving and praise is the spiritual dynamic that fills our life with true liberty. Sin is so selfishness so that it never is thankful. A believer is deeply appreciative and full of gratitude so that living waters flow in the channels of living water. Our liberty in the Spirit is directly proportional to the depth of our worship and praise. With joy, we draw water out of the wells of salvation. His joy is the spiritual defense against depression and despair. Doubt runs to the shadows of night, and the day star dawns in our lives with such brilliance in thanksgiving that shadows of every kind disappear. Just as Jesus responded to the devil and let him know that we should worship the Lord and him only, the devil will flee from us and leave us alone as we rejoice in praise.

The soil of holiness was the substance that I used to mold you from. As Adam was fashioned from the dust of the earth, so were you fashioned from the soil of holiness and righteousness. I brought you out of the soil of my nature and created a new creature that was created without spot and without wrinkle. All the old things passed away in my new creation of you. I have truly begotten you again to a new hope, a lively hope unto my own resurrection. Do not be another statistic for ungodliness and reproach, but make a statement for godliness and holiness in these last days. Do not be a monument for the hall of fools and the museums of reproach, but be a beacon of righteousness that my light might shine with the purity that it really is.

I am the light of the world, and I have taken up residence in you. I have joined myself to you, and now the ability to shine as a great light of truth and a great light of freedom from sin and ungodliness is yours. The ability is there, and the desire is there, for I am the author of the desire. I have given you the will and the power. I have said in my word that it is I who does work in you, both to will and to do of my own good pleasure. It is my good pleasure to cause you to shine for me and not to represent the graffiti originator of the darkness. I have given you an opportunity to glorify me, the King of kings. Holiness is a transparency. Glorious light that is in us is so arrayed that everything we do and say points to God. What we put on and what we put off removes the questions of doubt about the God we serve. He deserves all the glory. We will refuse to call attention to ourselves and our own bodies. We will lift high the identity of the Creator. As we are transformed into his image, the images of lust and sin fall to the ground as tattered garments. He has clothed us with the garments of praise and the robe of righteousness. The morning sunrise and salutation of the evening are not as dazzling as the bride that is wrapped in the Creator's arms in the beauty of holiness. We were not formed to be the tarnished tin cans of the times. Eternity made us its everlasting beauty and broke the mold so that we would be one of a kind.

God's good word will not change. His immutability lets us know that he will not change sides. He is for us, and all the things that rise to do battle against us will be consumed by the same power of his mouth that will end the ages of history as we know it. His goodness is the eternal character that endures in his mercy and love. God wills unconditional benevolence for its intrinsic value. We are never more correct when we declare that he is good all the time! He will not take all his goodness away even in the judgment of sin because he remembers that we are but dust and a vapor. His covenant of creation is everlasting to the extent that the promise to have dominion did not die with the sin of Adam but it is alive in the power of the second man Adam. Our future is not in the hands of defeat and difficulty, but we have been fashioned to be more than conquerors. God's goodness not only leads man to repentance but into a realm of gratitude that will liberate him from the selfishness that is the acid of the soul. Days of dark shadows may try to fill our horizon, but the sunlight of his goodness brings us the day that the night would not promise. His promises are already prepared in the ovens of heaven and heaped high on the platters of plenty. Disgrace and disappointment are standing on the outside as uninvited guests to the feast of fulfilled promises. Noises of the fight will not nullify the "yes" that has been spoken on our behalf. The gospel is the good news. It is really good declarations on our behalf. The gospel is only the beginning of a litany of volumes of promises that must come to pass in the lives of the believer that is in the city of goodness. Our residence is not in the uncertain slums of sour sarcasm but it is in the halls of inspiration's dance floors.

Lord, I worship you in the beauty of holiness today, for you are a holy God. I am so thankful that your holiness is transparent. I give thanks that you have arrayed me in your glorious light and allowed everything that I say to point to you. ### RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Holiness is the unmarred reflection of the image that our Creator endowed us with. Holiness is not bondage, but the bountiful blessing of liberty to exhibit the divine nature that our vessels were made to hold and pour out like incense and perfume in the atmosphere that we live in and worship in daily. The Hebrew word for the word beauty when it is used with holiness is the root word hadar. It means the magnificence or majesty of the King within us. Holiness is more than an ornament. In 2 Chronicles 20:21, the beauty of holiness became the power of the praise of God's mercy that won the battle. In the 29th Psalm, we see that the seven thunders of God come to testify and work for those who will worship in the beauty of holiness. In Isaiah 62:9, we are promised a feast in the courts of holiness of the tables of salvation that has no comparison in the courts of this world. We are as the morning without clouds and the dew of the earth that waters the thirsty ground when we step out into the world with his holiness as the robe that we wear.

You were at a point of doubt, but I have renewed your confidence. The confidence in you is mighty, for it is of me. Do not cast away your confidence. I am paying a great reward for confidence in this hour. Because of the weariness of the trial, you looked into the mouth of doubt. Doubt opened his mouth, and you found that he was a deep pit. I have not given you a deep pit to walk into. I have given you a highway to walk upon. It is a way, the highway of holiness. There are no lions here, neither are there any beasts here. Only the redeemed are walking here. Gird up the loins of your garments, and run to the end. I will show you the end of this trial.

I have made you a prince in the earth. You are a prince that has power with me and with men. I gave this gift to you and none can take this gift away from you. From the excellency of my power and my dignity, is this reward given to you. I have raised you up to show in you my power and that my name may be declared in the earth. By my right hand, I will be glorious in power for you. I will bring you out with my great power and with a mighty hand. I will show my great power on your behalf according as I have spoken.

Remember, I am longsuffering, of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means, clearing the guilty. Those who oppose righteousness shall find that I am a terrible foe. Lift up your voice, and cry out for mercy unto them, for I will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. I have sent them messengers. Now they rejoice in their iniquities and in the fall of their brethren. What they have desired for others will return upon their own heads. Many have become lifted up in their hearts and have forgotten the Lord, thy God. I will show them that it was I who blessed them and that they did not get the things that they have because of their own power and the might of their own hand. It is I that gave them power to get wealth that I may establish my covenant, which I swear unto the Jewish fathers. I am not a respecter of persons. All shall perish that stop here and begin to glory in their own works. I brought them out by my mighty power and by my stretched out arm.

I am your lamp, and I have lightened your darkness. Come now, and run through this troop. By me, you may leap over this wall. My way is perfect. The word of the Lord is tried. I am a buckler to all them that trust in me. You have trusted in my word and have recorded these sayings spoken in your ears. Trust in them, for they are from that which is forever settled in heaven. They will not fail, neither will they return to me empty. They will go forth and do that which I have intended for them to do. I am your strength and your power. I make your way perfect. It is I that makes your feet like hinds' feet and setteth you upon your high places. Look before you, and see that I have enlarged your steps under you so that your feet do not slip. I am pursuing your enemies and destroying them; therefore, lift up your head as a gate, and be lifted up as an everlasting door. I have entered into your gates of praise this day. Lift up your head, and fight the good fight of faith. Your enemies have sought counsel one with another. I have smitten them, and they cannot rise up from the blow of my hand. I have subdued them under you. I have given you the necks of your enemies. I have delivered you from the strivings of the people. I am your God that avengeth you. I am the tower of salvation for you. I have showed mercy unto my anointed. Rise up, and offer praise, for I have truly brought you out with my outstretched arm.

RE: RHEMA - With Great Power and a Stretched Out Arm, the Lord Does Bring Us Out

"Is my hand shortened that it cannot save?" is a question we relegate to before salvation, but it is inclusive of all time.

As I was praying, the Lord said,

Why are you so concerned with what you see around you?

Look beyond the walls and barriers. As you view me, you will see that I pass through them as if they are not there. You are with me, and I will not allow you to be at the mercy of the visible as you are in the hands of the Invisible. The impossible has no claim on you, but the hands that make all things possible are leading you forth. I will do, multiplied times, more than you seek. You will lift up your eyes beyond what you think you behold.

All the realms of interference would like to bluff us, but we have the assurance that God will not leave us in bondage or without help. No enemy or voice will swallow us up or will diminish the power that is operating in us. We have been created and formed to be the prophet, priest, and kings of the kingdom of heaven. We have power with heaven and the restored power of Adam on the earth through Jesus Christ. We are to show forth the power of him who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light. Stages are prepared for him to display his greatness. Blessings, honor, and prosperity are part of salvation in the Hebrew language. We are the heirs of all these things. God will see to it that we are hard to ignore as he pours out his best and richest blessings upon us. Every person that would try to taunt us will discover that God will turn their own denials into dungeons of despair. We will stand upon the components of his suffering and know that it was all in our behalf. We will shout the liberty that has been given to us as an anointing.

God will speedily avenge his elect. All those that are in the place of mockery and debate will have the bar of decision placed over the grave of their own demise of the supernatural in their lives. Those who rail against the miraculous demonstrations are as those who forsake their own mercy. They forsake the birth place of the supernatural in their lives as they try to dispel other manifestations they do not agree with. We will rise to praise and declare the counsel of God in the face of the opposition, but the morning without clouds is dawning on those who have waited for it.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Light of Love Guides Us in the Way of Peace

Light shall overwhelm and swallow up the darkness. Light will become so brilliant in the evening time that the shadows of darkness that hid many deceptive events will be boldly exposed. We must fall before him and repent of any propensity toward darkness. As children of light, everything that is born in us or of us should have the seed of the light of revelation that will cause us to rise from its planting the dawning of the day of the Lord in every heart. His knowledge will cover the earth as do the seas. All that desire to hide their lust and false works will be swept away by the winds of revival and fresh inspiration.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ Do not be discouraged because some do not believe in my voice in the earth. It is their loss. Do not be distracted by their criticism. They have fenced themselves in a prison of their own words and locked themselves up with their own tongues. Lie down on your bed and dream. I will open your understanding as you journey with me in the secret chambers of the Spirit. I have not saved these experiences for Abraham, Joseph, Daniel, Elijah, Elisha, and the Old Testament prophets while excluding people. I have saved the best for last. The first shall be last and the last shall be first.

212. To which of the Old Testament prophets did I say, "Greater works than these shall you do"?

◆ My creative power is working continually. As I add to the church daily, I am making new creatures in Christ Jesus. The newness of your heart is my doing and not your own. The impossibilities that have confronted my people are no match for my power.

213. What did I use to hang the earth upon?

214. What will I use to hang your miracle upon?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tony Johnson

November 16, 2008

It is so good to know that because you are for me no one can be against me. I am thankful for the peace I have found resting in your confidence and not in man. Thank you for exposing the lies and pretense of man and for giving me a love for the truth. What joy fills my heart just knowing that you never sleep during any dilemma that comes into my life. You have promised that all things are working together for my good because I love you and am called according to your purpose, and for this I give you praise. I rest in you and I anticipate the outcome that will be unto great joy. Though the enemy comes in like a flood, I am so grateful for the arsenal of weaponry you have placed at my disposal. No weapon formed against me will prosper nor will the earthly designs of man overcome me, but they will be blown back in the face of the enemy as sand is blown by your breath, and for that I am eternally thankful.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God has promised to fight for us. We are encouraged that none can lay anything to the charge of God's elect. Our adversary may come with his spiritual libel and scandalous false charges, but we have already been cleared and made not guilty by the court of heaven. God sent his angels to smite the enemies of Israel over and over again. God consumed companies of soldiers that came to arrest his prophets. He turned the dry jawbone of an ass into an assault weapon that has never been equaled. All this was done in the shadow of the brilliant light of the weapons of our warfare that are spiritual. God will fight for us in ways that we will never observe. We can rest in the fact that he never ceases to fight on our behalf.

THE WAY WE LIVE: BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
