Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

The Power of the Identity Factor in Our Relationship with Christ

Series 6.11.17 – Letter #322

I have brought you into a new fellowship with me. You will experience newness and freshness in the Spirit. You will grow to truly understand the power of the gospel and what it has done for you and others. I desire you to truly understand your identity in Christ. There is more to the identity of the believer than you understand. There is much more to the identity factor than you realize. You have looked to your humanity and the world. Look again to God and his Christ. The image of God has moved throughout the earth. I have not left you without an image of the proper identity. Many are shackled because of the crisis in relationship to identity. The icons of the hour proceed from the spirit of error, the spirit of antichrist. The spirit of error does not rule. The spirit of truth rules. I have sent the Word of life as the supreme icon for your example and identity. Do not be conformed to the icons of the world. Be transformed into a true son of God by the renewing of your mind.

Many are frustrated because they do not know who they are. Spirits and mental attitudes of the world have fostered the images of frustration. Do not be spoiled by the mental giants of the world. I have not chosen the minds of men as a source for your thoughts. I have chosen the mind of God as your source. You have the mind of Christ. Many are serving another Jesus. Many serve a Jesus without a cross. Many serve a Jesus who allows man to rule as lord of their lives. This is not of the kingdom of God but of another kingdom. My kingdom has come. It has brought my will to you, and it now abides in you. Let my will be done in you, and then it will be done in the earth.

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Power of the Identity Factor in Our Relationship with Christ

The Lord spoke to me and said,

You do not need anymore icons in your life. Many people have substituted coming to church, praise and worship, and bible reading for seeking me. I have commanded that all who would come to me should seek me. Men have substituted "its" for me. Israel said, "The ark it will save us." You cannot live for me on impersonal things that are associated with me. You must have that burning, breathing, listening relationship of being face to face and mouth to mouth with me. This is the relationship that I have desired from the beginning, not man's stale arrangement for a prayer meeting or the stilted and dead ceremony that so many have for a service that tries to experience me. I have yearned for those who would not limit me and allow my people to stretch beyond themselves to the beginning of a powerful walk that would project them into a dimension where they would be in control of their lives, and life would not control their emotions or faith.

Everywhere we look, there are images of God that are passed off on us as the real thing. We must refuse to bow down or to worship the false images of powerless creatures and their ideas that reach for our worship. The Lord's spiritual image beckons to us on the limits of our fleshly horizons like a 21st century burning bush or pillar of fire that stands beside the door of a promised land that flows with the milk and honey that has already been prepared for us. We must determine to keep him as our focus as he goes before us in a shekinah or power that will only give us the proper image for us to be constantly changed into from glory to glory by his Spirit.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Lift up your eyes unto the accomplishments of the Son of God. Behold them, and note that there were no failures or shortcomings. Your faith is not in your accomplishments, nor your failures. Your faith is of me and in me. I have sent forth faith as fruit is sent forth from a tree. Your faith will not wither. It is growing exceedingly great because of my grace that I have given. Grace is laboring mightily. Behold this mighty laborer on your behalf. It is capable of achieving all things. My grace is sufficient. It is not lacking in any way. It is an expression of my love and holiness. Be assured that grace will not fail; therefore, be not distressed about the future or the things that are beyond your control. Trust me to solve all things for you. When you asked me to be the Lord of your life, I entered in to exercise my ability for you in all things.

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Flames of Faith and Love Are an Inferno of Victory Over Insecurity and Unbelief

Whirlpools of doubt and fear have tried to swallow up believers in their journey to the fountain of living waters. Living waters flow out from the throne in the heavenly city and they flow out from the throne of worship that has been established in the earth. Every facet of our lives is subjected to the attack and threat of disaster from the propaganda centers of the enemy. As we put our flesh on the altar of commitment to God's word, the fires of faith and love will still fall from heaven and consume the sacrifice. Faith worketh by love. Love has always been unconditional from God. He is love; therefore, his faith is in operation in our lives.

Every time that discouragement and despair would try to unload their trash and garbage in our lives, faith can have a bonfire of power and demonstration. God's promises are the guarantee of the promise. Our security does not stand in our goodness but in his faithfulness. Our voices need to be in concert or agreement with the certainty of the words that will be fulfilled in the feast that the Lord has prepared for us on the face of supreme cynicism in the world. Love does not mutate the meanings of the statements that it makes. Its words are not full of matter but of the meanings of the promises. Love is the hyphen between heaven and earth. We need never fear becoming the lighting rod of hope in a land that is filled with a famine for words of love and faith. Words of anger and terror have created intensely destructive factories of toys for the recreation of the unbeliever.

We are not in the market for any device of the enemy. We have the treasure of power in our vessels of hope. Worry may be the small bag of hope that some wait to receive from the Lord with, but we stand with the unlimited container of faith expecting to receive all that he has promised. We are the match that God will use to ignite the inferno that will light the night. Many are cold and weary in the vacuum of any good news. We are consumed with the ringing cries of liberty that are being constantly shouted by love. Our focus is upon the faithful One of eternity. God's providence is not a hidden commodity in the closet of religion but the open supply of heaven's best. Phony messengers of gloom and riders that bring the fears of imaginations will be defeated by the marching, riding hosts of those who will not be silent about the words that he has spoken to us. As Samson set the Philistines fields on fire, we will set the fields of fear and doubt on fire, and see the victory as we dance in worship with the Lord.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

◆ Make a joyful noise unto your God, and be strengthened in this time of weariness and regret. The light of joy confronts you. Give way to its expression in the morning of your prayer and not unto the election of your flesh. The flesh is weak indeed, but the spirit is willing to be joyful and full of praise. I have come that you might have life.

The life of Jesus has come to your house with the abundance of his expression. The economics of worship and praise are opened unto you. Now rejoice, and be glad in the day of the Lord. I have brought the day of the Lord to your horizons. Now leap for the joy of your salvation.

215. *Why do you wrestle with condemnation when my word tells you that you are not under the law but under grace?

216. *Why do you struggle to obtain when I have obtained for you?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Debbie McBee

Lord, I love you and I thank you for who you are. Surely you have known me and kept me in all of my ways. You alone are worthy of all praise and glory. I thank you for changing my heart and mind and giving me new eyesight. I desire to have your will to be done in my life as it is being done in heaven. Forgive me for trying to run my own life, especially when I didn't have the first clue as to what is best for me. I am delighted that you always have my best interest at heart and that you will never forsake me.

Thank you for your longsuffering and patience with me. It is so good to know that you continue to love me and that you have chosen me to have fellowship with you. Even now, I am experiencing a newness and a freshness in my relationship with you. Because of your loving-kindness toward me, I no longer look for icons or other substitutes of the hour. I am rejoicing, and I am glad because I have the real thing with you. You are my source and my supply, and I am strengthened by your fresh word that is working in my life. Day by day you are showing me of your tender mercy and great grace that is revealing my true identity in this love relationship with you. I look to you, my King, for you are the author and the finisher of my faith. I am in awe at the burning, breathing, listening relationship that you have brought into my life, and I thank you and give you praise.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

We are admonished to remember our Creator in the days of our youth. God is so full of purpose about all that we do. As we get older, our lives are filled with so many activities and responsibilities that we are smothered by the crushing rush of life. In the middle of all the business, we need to stand up and clear the table of all that is there and realize that the One who has saved us and kept us is directing our path and destiny. His thoughts and imaginations for us are so detailed that it is impossible to delineate everything that is part of the tapestry of our days. Salvation and continued redemption into the vessel of honor that God has destined us to be is so awesome that no book could be written that would adequately describe even part of a phase of his plans for us. We stand with thankful hearts and open spirits as we behold the majesty of the artist of eternity applying the bold strokes of grace across the detailed outlines of the completion of his directives for our lives.

By Moses Hightower

As a Light That Shines in a Dark Place, the Holy Ghost Has Moved Upon You to Enable You to Go and Prophecy

Series 6.11.18 – Letter #323

I am your burden-bearer. I care about you. I have not cast you aside because men are angry with you. I am true to you. I have given you precious promises, and I will bring to pass all of them. Only believe. I will fix all of your problems. Your burdens are being borne by the Almighty God. I have come to lighten your load and grant you peace that passes all of your understanding. I have come to make everything right. Remember, I have all power. No one can contend with me and win. I have taken up your battles. I am fighting on your behalf. I do not fight on both sides. Though there are two sides to every story, there is only one truth. I am on truth's side. Though you had been in doubt if I would come through for you, behold the power of the resurrection on your behalf. You have not prayed like you once prayed because weakness overcame you. Yet I heard your faintest cry. I heard your heart cry out to me. I have answered your heart's cry. I have not stood aside and observed this war against you. I am active in this war. Do not be discouraged any longer, for I am bringing closure to this problem.

When everything is said and done, you will be standing on victory's hill. Take this mantle that is wrapped in the Rhema word, and stand on the hill of promise and victory. Do not worry about how long the trial will last. I am with you all the way through it. I placed a hook in the jaws of your enemies and brought them against you that I might judge them according to their evil hearts. Behold the heads of your enemies once more. I showed you years ago of your enemies' heads along your pathway. Behold their heads once more. Everyone that you see in the vision shall be headless, for their heads shall roll because of their attack against you. You have shaken the dust off your feet. Now do not rejoice that their heads shall roll, neither waste your words on them. They shall only say that you are prophesying out of your own heart. Pray for them. Pray that this alienation from me shall bring them to repentance and a restoration of the truth in their lives.

Come and follow me into the harvest field. There are souls that are waiting to hear the living word. I have placed life in your tongue. You are anointed, and the Spirit of the most High speaks in you. I am the God of Israel, their Rock. Remember, he that rules over men must be just and must rule in the fear of God. Keep your word to those that you rule over, and you shall be as the light of the morning when the sun rises even a morning without clouds. You shall be as the tender grass that springs out of the earth by a clear shining after the rain. I have made an everlasting covenant with you, ordered in all things and sure. I have spoken in your ears and made myself known to you in love. This is a speaking relationship; therefore, your tongue speaks the language of my word, which is forever settled in heaven. Sit down and rest while I make your enemies your footstool. Enter into my rest, and do not be disturbed by the magnitude of the accusations against you. I will confirm my word in you by miracles, wonders, and signs by which I shall do in your midst. The determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God delivered me up as wicked hands took me, crucified me, and slew me. I was raised up as the pains of death were loosed because it was not possible that I should be held of it. Behold me always before your face. You shall not be moved; therefore, let your heart rejoice and your tongue be glad. I have made you to know the ways of life, and I shall make you full of joy. Though it seems as though you have gone down to the grave, know of a truth, you are raised and kept by the same resurrection of Christ, for his soul was not left in hell, neither did his flesh see corruption.

I am both Lord and Christ. Go and preach me, Jesus, unto the world, and do not be distracted any longer by these imps that have come against you. There are bigger things to do. There are greater things to accomplish rather than observing the judgment of your enemies. There are souls to be won to the kingdom of God. There are sick folks to heal. There are lame people who wait to walk. There are blinded eyes that must be opened. There are multitudes that wait to be fed the living word of God. This is not a cunning fable that you are following. Go and make known unto others the power and the coming of your Lord, Jesus Christ. As a light that shines in a dark place, the day star has arisen to shine unto the world. I have moved upon you by the Holy Ghost. Now go and prophesy. There is a fire burning in you. It is a consuming fire. I have made your bones fat by the fire that dwells in you. Go in my name, and be a flame. The word in you shall light your path. The eternal flame of Jesus Christ is in you. No devil can put out the flaming word. It is a living word.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - As a Light That Shines in a Dark Place, the Holy Ghost, Has Moved upon You to Enable You to Go and Prophecy

Our problems are not impediments but opportunities for God to display his greatness. Trials are not the terrible test of our ability but the tremendous blessing of God robed in drab clothing. What we see coming against us is the wave of the shadow of the great victory that will soon immerse us in a flood of triumph. In the midst of the darkest situation, the light of truth is hurling the powerful announcements of that which is to come. Every foe and innumerable host that will rise up against us will be washed away by the sweeping defense of the power of his mouth. All the darkness and emptiness of the beginning never gave him pause for even breathing hard. God is not breaking out in a sweat on our behalf because he has already put every adversary of the mission and message we proclaim under his feet. God would like for us to see that we do not have to fight any battle against these naysayers, but they are standing on a battlefield filled with the mines of their own destruction in their paths. If they continue their tenuous pursuit of the things of God, they will fall prey to the devices that they have fashioned for others.

Our vision in this hour should be seeing ourselves speaking before great men and women. We should not be afraid of what we have been given by the utterance of the Holy Ghost. We are empowered to speak beyond the gravity of all the interference that would try to divert us from God's purpose for us. God is about to break forth in an avalanche of fulfilled pages of prophecy that will cut the enemy into pieces with its edges. All of hell will shiver at the sight of what God has said and is presently performing. Boldness should be our anointing, and excitement should be our chariot as we cast the fire of the fresh word all over the city. So many are hungry for the miraculous portion that we have been entrusted with. We will stretch forth our hands and open our mouth, and the multitudes will be fed. All that say they are full will go away empty.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

The present apprehensions cannot nullify my promises to you; therefore, do not be distracted by pain and worry. Though a host should encamp against you, do not allow your heart to fear. Do not be anxious for anything, but in all things, by prayer and supplication, let your request be made known unto me. I have peace that passes all understanding. I have peace that rules over confusion and uneasiness. You have allowed your mind to roam through the atmosphere of imagination. If you release your mind to venture into these territorial imaginations, you will be influenced by subtle ideas that foster dread and fear. Relinquish these territorial imaginations to me. Cast all your cares upon me. I care for you.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Dance in the Invisible Rain of Blessings of the Future

We have only to remember that the prophet described him as the God who hides himself. Habakkuk 3:4 describes the hiding of his power. The latest 2 Micron All Sky Survey shows by the invisible infrared a fantastic view of 1.5 million galaxies that most are hidden by dust. One of the latest X-ray images by the X-ray Chandra probe shows us the brilliant colors of oxygen burning in the darkness that is mirrored in visible light. It just lets us know that even when things look dark, God is in the curtains about to burst forth with tremendous demonstrations of his power. In Job 38:9, the darkness as a swaddlingband indicates that God stands just beyond our sight with a brand new creation wrapped in a baby blanket for us!

God spoke to us recently and said,

I can take all the things that you see and turn them into all the things that do not exist because I am the existence of the unseen. Yet I have already seen all the things you do not think exist marching triumphantly on parade through the door of your nothing. Your problem is the parable of your prevailing. Fear has drawn you sketches of what it says is coming, and you have started a picture gallery in your mind. My presence is the hallway out of your mind and brings you into my courts of miraculous supply. My Spirit has hidden behind sunsets, ridden on the edges of storms, hovered above the dust of battle, and is just inside tent doors. Just remember that the trouble that you are so alarmed about is just putting up the tent for the arrival of your victory celebration.

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ Do not sell the truth that you have bought, and do not miss the suddenness of departure, for I shall come quickly. I will prepare my bride and persuade her with commandments. Those in my bride shall willingly obey the ministry that prepares and perfects her for departure. He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying in this hour, for these are not vain words spoken by the mind of a man, nor from the origin of human reasoning and preparation, but the Spirit speaks expressly and authoritatively to those who will hear. Hear what the Spirit is saying unto you, for my hand reaches to take away that which is not needed in my bride and to add to the bride that which is needed.

217. How will you soar with the redeemed if you cannot deny yourself the false things of the age?

218. How will you prepare for such a bride as the chaste virgin that I come for if vanity and pride is your altar and your god?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

November 18, 2008

The beauty of your love is expressed by the light that shines in dark places. You are my burden-bearer and you care for me. The anger of men towards me does not dictate the delivery of your precious promises given to me. You are the Almighty God, the one who grants peace that passes all understanding. You are the way, the truth, and the life, no lie can contend with the truth.

The battles are yours, and you are fighting on my behalf. It is comforting to know that you are not standing on the outside watching this war against me, but you are active in this war and preparing a place for me on victory's hill. The length of my trial is not for my discouragement, but it is for the judgment of the evil hearts of my enemies. I pray for their repentance and the restoration of the truth in their lives. I will rejoice in display of your greatness through this trial.

The harvest field awaits the voices of your living word. I thank you for giving me power from on high to speak beyond those things that would divert me from your purpose. I am grateful for the speaking relationship that brings me rest in the midst of the accusations against me. You will confirm your word by miracles, wonders, and signs that you will do. My heart rejoices and my tongue is glad that I have been given the ways of life. I am overcome with joy knowing that I have been raised by your resurrection and my soul has been delivered from hell. You have raised my head and focused my eyes upon you and not on the judgment of mine enemies. You have placed the flaming sword inside of me, and it will direct my path. You are the day star, and I shout joyfully and give praise.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We are not victims but victors. We are the chosen children to the generation upon whom the ends of the earth have come. Just as God took all kinds of beasts into the ark and the last parable of the kingdom is the net that is gathering so many that the angels will separate them out in the harvest, we stand as the light in the midst of the darkness. God has given us words of grace and power to hold forth in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. Our lives and witness are the miraculous burning bush that God has placed between the promised land and the wilderness of captivity for this world. We can lead people across the Red Sea of impossibility into the land he has promised by the words that he has given us to hear.

Behold the mercy and the grace that you have found. If I had not been on your side, you would be fallen and destroyed. Be thankful, and always bless my name and my people. My people are precious in my sight. They are redeemed by precious blood. The great price that I paid for them is an expression of their value to me. The fact that I laid down my life for them is how my love for them is perceived. There is no other way to realize my love the way it really is unless it is viewed through the lens of my sacrifice for the sins of the world. Now that you have perceived the love of God because I laid down my life for you, shouldn't you lay down your life for the brethren?

I did not come into this world to be ministered unto but to minister and to give my life a ransom for the sins of the world. I so loved the world that I gave myself for it so that all who believe on me should not perish but have everlasting life. No one took my life from me, but I willingly laid it down for the sheep. You must know my voice so that you can go forth and bring the other sheep, which are not of this fold unto me. I have many people out there that shall hear my voice. Go and declare unto them my great love. There is no greater love than for a man to lay down his life for his friends. I came as the man Christ Jesus and purchased you with my own blood. While men were yet sinners, I died for them. I commended my love toward them. Now that I have justified you by my blood, will I not save you from wrath?

I will save you by my life. I reconciled you to me by the death of the Son. I save by my life. You must know of the sweet smelling savour that was offered as an offering and a sacrifice to God for you, or you will never have a right concept of love. I loved the church and gave myself for it. If you understand this, then love your wife in the same manner. You are redeemed from all iniquity. I am purifying unto myself a peculiar people who are zealous of good works. With the same blood that bought you, I am purifying you. Obey the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren and complete the purification of your soul. Love one another, for love is of God. Everyone that loveth is born of God and knoweth God. He that does not love does not know God, for God is love. Open your hearts to me, and allow me to manifest the love of God through you. I must live my life out through you, and you must live through me. I have given you my Spirit. My Spirit is love. Allow me to love through you, and then will you enter into new dimensions of fulfillment and powerful ministry.

RE: RHEMA - Christ Must Live His Life Through You, and You Must Live Through Him

Calvary spoke volumes of the speech that man could never utter. God is for us and with us to the ultimate degree. Ideas of fear and abandonment should be strangers and trespassers in our lives. God cast the dimensions of his plan of redemption before the world began. Everything that I will ever need was created in him before I would ever exist. Now that we occupy a part of this stage, the director of the ages will make everything work for us to be a living testimony of his faithfulness. Mercy paid in full before hand any debt that I would incur. I am free from the fears of being held hostage to any situation that would come my way.

Love commended our position in the relationship we now walk in before him. No wonder he said that no man could pluck us out of his hand. We have his design and imprint upon our lives. God continues to develop a people zealous of love and good works. Faith worketh by love is the watchword of our lives. Love will demonstrate his greatness and unfailing character to others. As it has been written that love never fails, so his word and purpose in us will never fail.

RE: RHEMA - Your Heart Shall Not Fear When Men Come Against You

Battles may fill the spectrum of our lives, but the light of revelation fills our vision with the bold image of the cross always defeating every enemy. Every attack of man or spiritual being will always fail because we are promised continual triumph in the name of Jesus Christ. Just recently these words came to me.

"Armies shall flee before you. I will scatter multitudes like the dust before the wind. The most immense giants will be as cinders in the fire of the intensity of my love for your defense. Mountains will be removed as quickly as the morning sun lifts the fog from the valleys of despair. Men's words will become the fleeting shadow of the birds of prey blown along by a mighty wind of my power. Every force that is against you will be confused, and I will put defeat in their hearts so that they will run at the sound of your footsteps. Be not dismayed by the forces before you for I, the Lord will bring my breath against all their threats, and you will have peace and assurance as my covenant with you."

As sure as we are his, he will not fail to cause us to ride in the chariots of his victory.

◆ There is no human reasoning available for the work before you. Do not think to say for yourselves that you shall do it, for you cannot add one cubit to your stature by thought or reasoning. You do not know the things of tomorrow, but I know all things. ## PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, you have endowed me with the multiplicity of your grace. I am so thankful that you expressed your love to me by laying down your life and picking it up again. I perceive your love through the power of redemption. Now I am called your friend. You are truly a friend that sticks closer than any brother. You have proven your loyalty and friendship by paying for my sins in full. I am in awe as I experience your faithfulness, your unending mercy, and your ever-enduring forbearance. You are love, and it is the ultimate operating and motivating force in the midst of the multitude of your attributes. Your love is immeasurable in depth, length, width, and many other dimensions unknown to me. One day I will understand the mystery of godliness, which is all the things you can do with yourself. I bless your holy name, for you saved me from myself, my own worst enemy. Surely, I was set on a path of destruction and eternal damnation. Now I am a new creature in you, and I have a new direction, a new life, and a new mark. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for including me in your kingdom and calling me out of darkness as you placed me into your marvelous light. You are the true light, which lights every man. Your love is in my heart, and I thank you for the ability, the desire, and the power to yield unto your Spirit that I might be pleasing unto you. I hear your voice; I am called by your name, and I have been forgiven, reconciled, and restored to my destined position in the kingdom. I do not come up short in any gift, any opportunity, or any blessing. I have full access to all of your creative power, unlimited wisdom, and resources; therefore, I cannot fail in any endeavor as I am powered by love. You are building living testimonies of the great blessings, victories, and successes in store for all of your people, and for this I give you praise.

Our failures are never final. God has the ability by his grace to turn our tragedies into triumphs and our mistakes into marvelous miracles. Make no mistake that we are the impediment that is often in the way of the purpose of God. Yet in his loving-kindness, he picks us up from our failures and carries us across the finish line. When we are stumbling, he is steadfast and steady. When we do not know what to do, his grace proceeds to do a marvelous work and wonder that destroys the wisdom of the wise.

Series 6.11.20 – Letter #325

I have given you persuasive faith and irreversible promises. Allow this persuasive faith to abound in you, and it shall seize the promises that I have made to you. Faith always moves forward with abounding ability and reasons to believe my promises. Faith is speaking. It will convince you to believe. You have seen faith on trial many times. Invest in the faith of Jesus Christ, and you will never be a loser, neither will you be a spiritual pauper in this age where faith can hardly be found. When I return, will I find faith on the earth?

Invest in faith. Allow love to manage your life, and you will have management that does not have to be persuaded of the truth of my word. My word has gone out of my mouth, and it will not return unto me void. What advantage do you have in doubting my promises?

My promises are not schemes sent forth into your hearing. Have faith in the promiser, and then will you be assured of receiving the promises. You must be persuaded by the promises made to you and embrace them with a heart filled with confidence. Open your mouth, and allow the Rhema of God to speak unto you, then will you hear a persuasive testimony that will convince you to trust me.

The adversary has attempted to persuade you to make purchases at the table of unbelief. Do not be deterred from the table of faith. Adopt a belief in me that will not be changed by the influences of other people's double minds. Do not listen any longer to the negative campaigns that are ushered from unstable souls. Listen to the constant efforts of faith and love, and you will be fully persuaded of unfailing promises. Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. It is not from the voice of opinion, neither is it from the voice of reasoning. Faith is from the voice of persuasive and prevailing love. Hear it. My word has gone forth, and the author of the word will cause you to receive the promises made unto you. Do not be swayed to doubt, neither be influenced to seek the approval of another's vain promises. You will reap the fruit of the promises. Simply do not faint.

RE: RHEMA -The Power of Persuasive Faith and Irreversible Promises

Faith has taught us that God will not and cannot lie. The facts of the laws of the earth pale before the certainty of the declarations of the infallible word of God. Faith will never leave us as a pauper. Our investment of faith will bring dividends beyond the door of our own lives. God has not woven some clever scheme together to deceive us, but he calls us now to higher dimensions of faith to boldly declare what faith has spoken in our hearts. He has lifted us beyond the stretching hands of fear into the arms that will always lift us higher than doubt can see. Enemies wait in the way and in the hedges to defile us with negative thoughts. We have not and will not eat at the table that the enemy has prepared to feed us all the negative propaganda that he fuels in this system. Our orders have come from the throne, and we will not wallow in pity, but we will walk in the power of the Potentate. Faith addicts us to the presence of God and the fellowship of his communion. Other voices need not apply. We have canceled all other audiences except those with the King. His throne is established in the surety of his promises. He has set us upon his throne to declare to this generation the great works that he has done.

I give glory and honor unto your holy name, and I thank you for the measure of faith you have given to me that causes me to trust in your promises. I am so glad to know that you are not a man that you should lie and that your promises are irreversible. Your infallible word declares that your promises are yes and amen; therefore, I consider them already fulfilled in my life. Because of your sacrifice, I am able to invest in the faith of Jesus Christ knowing that it will pay dividends when all is said and done, and for this I give you praise. I am grateful for every time you have delivered me when my faith was on trial, and I rejoice in the new higher dimensions of faith you have called me to. What a joy it is to know that what you have already spoken will come to pass and no force of darkness is able to stop your word from accomplishing what you sent it forth to do.

Though enemies lie in wait to steal my faith and to bombard me with negative thoughts, I am fully persuaded that what you have promised, you will perform. I shout with the voice of expectancy knowing that faith will get the job done so all other voices need not apply. Thank you, Jesus, for allowing me to hear your Rhema word spoken in my ears with clarity and assurance. Thank you for canceling my reservation at the table of doubt and for giving me priority seating at the table of faith. Romans 4 boldly declares Jesus Christ to be the God who calls those things which be not as though they were. In the mind of God, the things that he has spoken are already done. We need to receive them as past tense. It is difficult to stand in the midst of the raging sea and declare that we are going to the other side, but it is true nevertheless. Romans 4:16 declares that the promises are sure and certain. Verse 21 is the clincher for us. Fully persuaded is the phrase that we should live by. Persuaded is from a two-part Greek word that means to carry us from where we are in our fear and doubt to the place of complete fulfillment of the promise. We do not have to feast on fear, but we are feasting on the faithful words that God has spoken to us!

Your prayers have been set before me as incense, and the lifting up of your hands is as the evening sacrifice. I have set a watch before your mouth, and I have kept the door of your lips. I have overthrown those in the courts of evil and deception, but I have kept your eyes upon me. You have made me your trust, and your soul shall never be destitute. I have kept you from the snares that your enemies have laid for you. They shall fall into their own nets. You shall escape the bondage that they have prepared for you. What they meant as banishment for you shall become a paradise.

I have made you the apple of my eye and a priest unto me. You shall not be slain in my sanctuary, for I brought you into it to minister. Go and minister, but first minister unto me. Lift up your heart with your hands unto me, for I am God. Though your enemies have opened their mouths against you, no fear or snare has come upon you. I have removed desolation and destruction far from you. Though your eyes run down with rivers of water, your heart has been kept from bitterness and resentment. By my grace, I have kept you and revived you in this evening time. Behold the dungeon that they prepared for you. It shall be the place of their dwelling. I shall cut them off in the places prepared for you. I shall hang them upon the gallows that they erected themselves. From the low place of rejection, you called upon my name. I heard your voice. I did not hide myself from you, but at your cry I drew you near me and held you within my bosom. I do continually speak in your ears and say, "Do not fear, for I will plead the cause of your soul." I have redeemed your life from destruction. I have washed you in my own blood from all of your sins.

Lift up your eyes from the dungeon prepared for you, for that is not the path chosen for you. Though you have done wrong, you found mercy and forgiveness in my sight. I saw the vengeance and all the imaginations that were against you. I heard their reproach and all the imaginations that were against you also. The lips of those that rose up against you shall not sing the music of joyful songs. I shall turn their planned joy unto sorrow, and their sitting down shall be a hell for them, for I shall render unto them recompense according to the works of their hands and the voice of their evil hearts.

Lift up your eyes unto me, the Holy One of Israel and of the church. To whom will you liken me unto?

Who is equal unto me?

By the greatness of my might, I do bring you out of this dilemma. I am strong in power. I am the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. I do not faint, neither do I grow weary. There is no searching of my understanding. You almost fainted, but I have given you power in your time of fainting. You had no might of your own, but now I have increased your strength. You waited on me, and I renewed your strength. Mount up with wings as eagles. Run and do not be weary. Walk and do not faint. I have given you more grace that grace might cause you to overcome and conquer.

RE: RHEMA - Overcome and Conquer by Grace During the Time of Banishment

Our destiny is not in the hands of men or the enemy of our soul. We have been bought with the price of the blood that preserves and cleanses us from the toxins that would set up spiritual infections in our soul. Grace has come to pour fresh oil on every wound or hurt and to lift us up to the arms that will shield us from the attack of the rejection and the banishment that is trying to captivate us. As Jesus walked through the crowds that would have stoned him because it was not his time, we have an anointing to walk through all the false accusations that would be hurled at us because it is the time to speak. Hurtful words and opinions may be thrown upon us like the nets of some that would try to prevent us from speaking, but we will not fail to declare his word. We may weep and be filled with pain, but our deepest pain will become his highest praise in the mouth that grace has healed.

Our heads will be lifted up above our enemies. Hell and the dungeons that they thought they had the power to hold us in are open, and we are free because the living Word still has the keys. Our lips shall arise to the task and not turn back. God has put a burning fire in our hearts, and none can put it out. Banishment did not keep John from speaking the greatest revelation of Jesus Christ up until that time. It will not close the door on the revelation that he has placed within our mouth.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Do not take any heed to the eye of anxiety. It is fearful to the natural mind. Pierce its eyes with the words that are in your tongue, and go on from the considerations in your mind. Your mind will become a womb for apprehension if you do not swing the sword of the Spirit. Swing it. It is accurate and filled with my power, which shall destroy all the fearful concerns of the mind. Behold the defeat of doubt and anxiety. My capacity to conquer has been given to you. Now do not be anxious any longer about these uncertain outcomes. I have created panic among your foes, not inside of you. Only believe.

RE: RHEMA - Choose Whom You Will Serve, the Idols of the Age or the living God

Our hearts should not lust after the bright luminaries of this age. Even in the field of religion, we should not desire the fame and recognition that is in the portfolios of those who are constantly in the light of mass media. All their apparent talent and ability is just a vapor compared to the anointing of the Lord. They cannot worship or even pray like those who really know who Jesus is. Their sounding brass is like a trinket in the wind of fads and fashion. God has designed us to be the unique one of a kind vessels that fit the infinite details of glorifying him that no earthly ability can even copy. Counterfeits will always abound, but God has given us an original design that is like the master artist's signed limited editions. We are so soon impressed and caught up in the hero worship that validates the filth of Hollywood for our own virtual reality. We substitute placebos of this age for a style of vicarious living that has no substance at all. As we worship the Lord in a relationship that flows in spirit and truth, we flow into the throne room of worship that lifts us above and beyond the reach of the corruption of the cheap copies of love in life. Wisdom will teach us the error of our misplaced adoration. We will not dance around the golden calves of others, but we will worship only at the feet of Jesus.

◆ I have brought you life and that more abundantly. The life that is within you is not as the life in this world, but this life is eternal. Eternal life abides in you and with you. Do not be removed from the hope of the glorious gospel. Its light has shined in your heart and brought you out of darkness into the glorious realm of eternal light. I am more than enough for the things that have arrayed themselves against you. Do not be concerned with the army of spirits that are against you.

223. *You did not fend them off while you were asleep did you?

◆ Lift up your voice, and proclaim the truth of my nature and my identity. The revelation of Jesus Christ shall bring total light unto the minds of the people. When you preach me, the living God, then the LIVING LIGHT shines into the hearts of the hearers. Do not be afraid to preach and teach me, Jesus Christ. I am the God of the Old Testament, and I am the God of the New Testament. The New Testament is in effect because of my death under the Old Testament.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

November 21, 2008

Lord, I am thankful that my destiny is not in the hands of men. You bought me with the price of your blood that preserves and cleanses me from the toxins that would set up spiritual infections in my soul. Your grace has come to pour fresh oil on every wound or hurt and lifts me up to your arms that shield me from the attack of the rejection and the banishment that is trying to captivate me. I have confidence that my prayers have been set before you as incense, and the lifting up of my hands is as the evening sacrifice. I am grateful that you keep your eyes upon me and have overthrown those in the courts of evil. Lord, I keep my trust in you and my hope in you. I know that hope will not make me ashamed, and I will escape the bondage that has been prepared for me. By your grace, I will not fail to declare your word. The dungeon that my enemy prepared for me shall be their own dwelling place. Thank you for removing desolation and destruction far from me. I am grateful that your grace has kept me and revived me in this evening time. I give you honor and praise because I have confidence that there is no failure in you, and I am assured that I can do all things through you.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Pits and dungeons are not the domicile of the delivered. We are the conquerors of the heavenly Lord of hosts. We are in the company of angels that will fight for us in every battle the enemy would try to pitch against us. We are breathing the fresh atmosphere of heaven's help and not the burning ashes of the afterburner of desolation. Jesus Christ is the firstborn of every creation. In other words, he is the firstfruit of every victory in every trial that we will ever be part of. God has knit us into the tapestry of his purpose and the enemy has no power to unravel the threads of destiny that are woven into our lives. When rejection would be like the roof of our lives crashing in on us, Jesus removes us from the place of hurt into his healing abode. We are sheltered from the strife of tongues by his faithful testimony on our behalf.

I have given you power over all unclean spirits; therefore, do not worry about them. They cannot harm you. You are in the light, and they are in the darkness. Walk in the light as I am in the light, and my blood will cleanse you of all sins. Do not be disturbed by the war all around you. You live in a war zone, but there is peace for you, for I placed my kingdom here on earth. Do not listen to the sounds of war, neither the many voices that are in the earth. Listen to my voice and be at peace. My blood speaks better things on your behalf. Hear the voice of my blood. It is the blood of sprinkling, and it does speak better things. I put away sin by the sacrifice of myself. Now that blood that was shed is speaking. Draw near to me with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having your heart sprinkled from an evil conscience and your body washed with pure water. Hold fast your profession of faith without wavering. I am faithful. I promised, and I will perform.

Do not worry about your enemies. They will drown if they attempt to follow you into this place of refuge that I have brought you unto. They must crossover the Red Sea of my blood to get to you. I made no passageway for them; therefore, do not fear. I have brought you out. Now do not fear. I am with you. You are among the elect according to the foreknowledge of God through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace has been given to you and peace. I am multiplying these things unto you now. Remember, you are begotten unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead to an inheritance undefiled and that does not fade away. It is reserved in heaven for you. Your inheritance is kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

Rejoice greatly. Your salvation is secured. This is the trial of your faith. It is much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, honor, and glory at my appearing. In each trial, keep this in focus: praise, honor, and glory unto me; praise, honor, and glory unto me; praise, honor, and glory unto me. Rejoice with joy unspeakable, for at the end of the trial, you are saved. Those who are against you have missed the opportunity to rejoice. While they persecute you, they have taken their eyes off their joy and me. Turn your eyes from all these things, and do not be distracted with them. They are your persecutors. Your persecutors are instruments of distraction. Pray for them, and be about my business. I have spoken to you in times past of the persecution that would come because of the word. Now do you think it strange because what I have told you has come to pass?

I have girded you about with grace and given you a great gospel to preach. Angels desire to look into these things. I desire only that there will be men that would go forth in obedience unto me. Gird up the loins of your mind, and be sober. Hope to the end of this grace that is given to you. It will see you through to the end. Trust in my grace. It is sufficient.

RE: RHEMA - The Same Grace That Started You On This Journey Will See You unto the End

Grace will lay the course of the race so that we will be the conquerors that God ordained us to be. We have been fitted for victory and not for defeat. We are in the battle of the ages, but the Lord God mighty in battle will march into the gates of our city through the gates that will lift up their heads. Battle and war may arise until we are almost shaken, but the shaking will be God sending an earthquake of his power among the enemies of our soul. His blood cries the sounds of testimony in our behalf. We are embraced by the very armor that we have been fitted with.

Even the earth will swallow up the flood of the enemy as it did to the flood of the dragon that he sent after Israel in the book of Revelation. God has multiplied grace by the knowledge that we have of Jesus Christ. He will multiply our strength and the overwhelming victories that we experience through the grace that succeeds grace perpetually. He was full of grace and truth, and if we are full of him, we are full of all the provision that the enemy would say we are lacking. We are not lacking in grace but overflowing with its abundance. Persecution may hold us up for ridicule, but as the Lord defended Job to the devil, he will defend us vigorously as well. Weariness may try to get us to relinquish a little, but we will not be weary in the well doing that grace is working in our lives to the end. Boldness and obedience should be our anointing. A crown of victory is laid up for those who will endure the rigors of the race. His righteousness will rush us past the forces of evil and into the presence of the celebration of grace and love as they embrace forever.

I have paid for you to be reconciled unto me. The currency used to pay for you to be here was valid in the courts of divine justice. The currency that I used cannot be devaluated by anyone. My blood is the currency that was offered to buy you from the pit of sin. It has been accepted in heaven. My blood bought you out of slavery where you were sold under sin. My blood was the vehicle by which you were sent forth out of the prison of captives. Your lies and sins had alienated you from me. You were estranged from righteousness, being conceived in sin and shapened in iniquity. Your fellowship and communion with the god of the world had placed you in line for the honor of fools. The emptiness of his rewards brought you to the brink of suicide and murder. You hated your brothers. You betrayed your friends. You lied to those who loved you. You disappointed the people whose confidence in you held you in high esteem among men. Your path of sin was a path of death, yet you thought you were living. Down the rivers of degradation and putrefaction you floated unconscious to true consciousness. Without God and without true life, you floated as a corpse awaiting the departure of your spirit. Then, I saved you.

While chastening for the moment is not pleasant, it works righteousness in those that are disciplined in it. Even the higher schools of learning are called disciplines. Our mind, heart, and spirit have to be trained in the pursuit of righteousness. Prayer and fasting are a joy to those who have submitted themselves to the hand and mind of God. They are a miserable effort to the unrestricted flesh. Holiness will eliminate those things that are not pleasing to God. Pure silver and gold of grace and redemption are what remains as we are purified by the obedience of faith.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Marco Mendoza

I thank you, Lord, for the grace you supply in this race that has been set before me so that I can be the conqueror that you have ordained me to be. Knowing that I have been fitted for victory and not defeat gives me strength. I may be in the battle of the ages, but I am confident because you are with me. Battle and war may arise on every side, but I trust you to send an earthquake of your power among the enemies of my soul. I am thankful for your blood that speaks better things than that of man and which sounds the testimony on my behalf. I am grateful to be embraced by the very armor that I have been fitted with. You have multiplied grace by the knowledge that I have of Jesus Christ, and I praise you for this. My strength has been multiplied by the overwhelming victories that you cause me to experience through the grace that succeeds grace perpetually. You are full of grace and truth, and as your child I am full of all the provision that the enemy would say I am lacking. I am not lacking in grace but overflowing with its abundance. I thank you for defending me when I am persecuted or ridiculed just as you defended Job to the devil. You are my strength; therefore, if weariness tries to get me to relinquish a little, I will not be weary in well doing because your grace is working in my life to the end. It is only by your grace that I can stand being anointed with boldness and obedience. I shout Hallelujah for the crown of victory which is laid up for us who will endure the rigors of the race. I believe that your righteousness will rush me past the forces of evil and into the presence of the celebration of grace and love as they embrace forever.

PRAYER INSIGHT

We were not created to be sinners but saints. Our lives were made to hold the flood waters of victory and not the back water of defeat. Grace is the enabling flood that fills our lives with more than enough power and provision to be the real warrior of the Spirit. Satan is an impostor, just as sin is a fraud. Every dirty lie and detail that Satan tries to spread will come to naught. Our report of faith is from the mouth of the Lord and it shouts victory! God not only commended his love toward us while we were yet sinners, but he has also created great victory for us in every battle that we will fight.

Series 6.11.23 – Letter #328

You have waited on me. I have waited on you. Have you not read that the violent take it by force?

I have given you power over serpents, over scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. When will you rise up and use the power within you?

The enemy taxes the people of God everyday with things that they do not have to be taxed with because they do not exercise their rights as the children of God. I have given you power. You have power against unclean spirits, to cast them out and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. The kingdom of heaven is in the earth. It is within you. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and cast out devils. Do you believe my word?

Then why are you acting as though you are servants to these things?

Rise up and exercise your rights as a citizen of heaven. Go and cast out these things that have hindered you, for I am in you to confirm the words that you speak. The word within you is powerful. Speak my word with power. You have power over all evil and everything in the earth. Open your mouth, and tell the devil to cease his talk and to hold his peace. Command him to withdraw his hand from your situation and to come out of your business. You have been hindered long enough. There is work that needs to be done. Open your mouth, and speak the words that I place in your mouth.

The devils know who I am. It is time that they know who you are. Command them to come out and to hold their peace. The power of the Lord is present to deliver you. Speak the word, and I will confirm it. Do not rejoice that you have power over the devils, but rejoice that your name is written in heaven. Behold, I give you power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing by any means shall hurt you. Unless I give it from above, no power at all can be against you. I have placed power in your possession; therefore, exercise the power given you. You have watched as a spectator long enough. Now become a part of the war. The violent take it by force. You are not without power. Rise up and seize that which is yours. Press your way into that which I have freely given to you.

RE: RHEMA - The Power of the Lord Is Present to Deliver You; Therefore, Speak the Word, and He Will Confirm It

This was so on time. God began to speak to me and said, Much of what I would like to say to you will not fit the framework of the words that you design. My power is only revealed in the words of power I speak to you and through you by prophetic utterance. If you look into my word, I have already spoken much of the power all my people speak about before the foundation of the world. What have I been doing since then?

I have continued to speak but not many have listened or dared to speak what I would give them. I would have, a long time ago, swept the stage of all the interference that the church wars with today, and you could have had a much different stage to work on if men would have continued the relationship I have always desired for them. All the things that I would have done are kept in store to be released in an accumulated total in the mouth of my servants the prophets. Why will you continue to look at my power and speak of it on the most narrow end of the spectrum of revelation?

It is time to speak of the widest and unlimited end of the spectrum. I tell you that the beginning of my power in its pristine state will outrun the ending of this dispensation and will stand at the end of it and boldly declare that all that they see could have been theirs from the beginning. I have so many plans for you to unroll that will not fit on the charts of human syllables but must be placed on the endless tables of the words fashioned by my Spirit beyond the reach of the hands of reason that now vandalize the best from my people's minds.

Behold, I walk the galaxies of power looking for a window for my words and plans of grandeur to be displayed. Even the oceans of the earth are just puddles that are not large enough to place my feet in. All the empty space that men call darkness in the universe is just the first page of the announcement of my power that will shortly be revealed. To Mary, it was spoken, and the question arose of the possibility of this promised birth even happening. Remember, with God, nothing shall be impossible. That is truly stated as the Rhema that I speak will never be without power to perform it. Out of that which is spoken will always be the performance of it. Why would I promise anything and not package the performance in that which is spoken?

All the universe that men cannot see is merely the space for me to speak into existence the yet unmanifested, creatively spoken power. How long will you wait to release the things that will come in a flood of victory so immense that you will not be able to innumerate it?

The impossibility of your escape was news among the demons that you had ignorantly worshipped. The god that you served had seized all that you had lived for. He renounced you as his own and demanded your death by his true accusations that contained your guilt. I listened intently and seized his writ. The truth concerning you and your sins were nullified as mercy met truth over love's agreement concerning man. The truth concerning you and your sins was abolished as righteousness and peace kissed over love's design for man's freedom. The law of the spirit of life has made you free. # INSPIRATION

RE: RHEMA - If You Can Believe, All Things Are Possible

Prophecy is the framework of creative miracles. It could be said that the worlds were framed by the prophetic word. In eternity, God exists beyond all the time that we can see in the future. Prophecy, in one sense, is God looking back from his eternity in the future and telling us what he has already done. Impossible does not appear in the dictionary that gives the words of God's existence. "All things are possible" is the open door into the treasure rooms of eternity. Beyond our imaginations and our greatest extended reach is the beginning of what God is doing. There are things that are hidden from our view that will burst into sight at any time. God has done and is doing many things that we did not ask for. If he is constantly involved in these things, how much more will he do what we ask?

God's power to give far exceeds our inability to receive. When God asked the question about his hand being shortened, he was indicating that his power would never reach the limits of possibility. This statement was tied to a Hebrew term of harvest that even when it looked like a planted crop would fail, he would not plow it under. He still reaps where he does not sow. God said that he would hasten his word to perform it. This means in the original Hebrew that "he will hurry to keep his word to fulfill it with excitement and eagerness." We do not seem to have understood in many cases how eager God is to do miracles in our lives and to answer our prayers. Faith is the pure form of God's foreknowledge. Faith has planted us in a fruitful field, and the insects of destruction will not be able to destroy the harvest. Impossibility is not our assigned poverty, but the riches of all things are ours. Our report is the report of faith. Faith has declared every negative mark against us to be just an exclamation mark that is not finished yet and is slanted in the direction that faith is leading us. Faith has loaded a fleet of trucks that are arriving at our residence as we speak. Our great physician has pronounced that faith is healthy and vibrant in our lives.

I am one. I have one name, and it is Jesus. It is the highest, most glorious name ever revealed or named. Cherish the revelation of my name, and depart from iniquity, for everyone who names the name of Christ cannot be a part of iniquity.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Rigo Toledo

November 23, 2008

I praise you and delight myself in you, the Almighty God. You possess all authority in heaven and in earth. All things are possible with you; therefore, I believe in your miraculous hands of deliverance. I am grateful and I place my confidence in you and understand that you dwell in me, an earthen vessel of imperfection. I thank you for granting me the grace to have power over serpents, over scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Sickness has no authority over my body. I am in you, and by your stripes healing has already taken place. I rise up with thanksgiving knowing your kingdom dwells within me. Now I exercise my right as your child and rejoice in your many benefits. I believe your word, for you have given us power to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and to cast out devils. I have allowed the enemy to tax me with things of no importance.

I exercise my right as a child of God and my heart rejoices because you make the difference in my life. I remove my focus from the enemy's taxation and focus on your blood that has paid every debt and wrong decisions that I have ever made in my life. I am grateful to be born again by your incorruptible word, and I rejoice because I am receiving the washing of water by your word. You have regenerated my life by your mighty Spirit, and I thank you for granting me divine rights as a citizen of heaven. I receive your instruction to speak of the widest and unlimited end of things in your spectrum. You have instructed me to speak those things that be not as though they were; therefore, I speak FREEDOM, HEALTH, PROSPERITY, and LIFE. Glory be to your name Jesus!!!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Salvation is the meaning of the name of Jesus. Salvation is first of all our deliverances from the penalty of sin that is eternal. We have entered into the joys of deliverance and victory in his kingdom. More is meant by the Hebrew word for salvation. It includes our health and prosperity. When we look in the New Testament, we see the mirror of this meaning when we read that we prosper and are in health as our soul prospers. We are not delivered and blessed on a one time basis. We are daily loaded with his benefits and blessings. Grace assures us that any failure is not the finale. Jesus Christ is the finisher of our race and we will win!

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
