Bread for the Children

*The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

With Great Power and a Stretched Out Arm, the Lord Does Bring Us Out

Series 6.11.24 – Letter #329

You were at a point of doubt, but I have renewed your confidence. The confidence in you is mighty, for it is of me. Do not cast away your confidence. I am paying a great reward for confidence in this hour. Because of the weariness of the trial, you looked into the mouth of doubt.

Doubt opened his mouth, and you found that he was a deep pit. I have not given you a deep pit to walk into. I have given you a highway to walk upon. It is a way, the highway of holiness. There are no lions here, neither are there any beasts here. Only the redeemed are walking here. Gird up the loins of your garments, and run to the end. I will show you the end of this trial today.

I have made you a prince in the earth. You are a prince that has power with me and with men. I gave this gift to you, and none can take this gift away from you. From the excellency of my power and my dignity is this reward given to you. I have raised you up to show in you my power and that my name may be declared in the earth. By my right hand, I will be glorious in power for you. I will bring you out with my great power and with a mighty hand. I will show my great power on your behalf according to what I have spoken.

Remember, I am longsuffering, of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means, clearing the guilty. Those who oppose righteousness shall find that I am a terrible foe. Lift up your voice and cry out for mercy unto them, for I will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. I have sent them messengers. Now they rejoice in their iniquities and in the fall of their brethren. What they have desired for others will return upon their own heads. Many have become lifted up in their hearts and have forgotten the Lord, thy God. I will show them that it was I who blessed them and that they did not get the things that they have because of their own power and the might of their own hand. It is I that gave them power to get wealth that I may establish my covenant, which I swore unto the Jewish fathers. I am no respecter of persons. All shall perish that stop here and begin to glory in their own works. I brought them out by my mighty power and by my stretched out arm.

I am your lamp, and I have lightened your darkness. Come now, and run through this troop. By me, you may leap over this wall. My way is perfect. The word of the Lord is tried. I am a buckler to all them that trust in me. You have trusted in my word and have recorded these sayings spoken in your ears. Trust in them, for they are from that which is forever settled in heaven. They will not fail, neither will they return to me empty.

They will go forth and do that which I have intended for them to do. I am your strength and your power. I make your way perfect. It is I that makes your feet like hinds' feet and setteth you upon your high places. Look before you and see that I have enlarged your steps under you so that your feet do not slip. I am pursuing your enemies and destroying them; therefore, lift up your head as a gate, and be lifted up as an everlasting door. I have entered into your gates of praise this day. Lift up your head, and fight the good fight of faith. Your enemies have sought counsel one with another. I have smitten them, and they cannot rise up from the blow of my hand. I have subdued them under you. I have given you the necks of your enemies. I have delivered you from the strivings of the people. I am your God that avengeth you. I am the tower of salvation for you. I have showed mercy unto my anointed. Rise up and offer praise, for I have truly brought you out with my outstretched arm.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - With Great Power and a Stretched Out Arm, the Lord Does Bring Us Out

"Is my hand shortened that it cannot save?" is a question we relegate to before salvation, but it is inclusive of all time. As I was praying yesterday, the Lord said,

Why are you so concerned with what you see around you?

Look beyond the walls and barriers. As you view me, you will see that I pass through them as if they are not there. You are with me, and I will not allow you to be at the mercy of the visible as you are in the hands of the Invisible. The impossible has no claim on you, but the hands that make all things possible are leading you forth. I will do, multiplied times, more than you seek. You will lift up your eyes beyond what you think you behold.

All the realms of interference would like to bluff us, but we have the assurance that God will not leave us without help or in bondage. No enemy or voice will swallow us up or diminish the power that is operating in us. We have been created and formed to be the prophets, priests, and kings of the kingdom of heaven. We have power with heaven and the restored power of Adam on the earth through Jesus Christ. We are to show forth the power of him who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light. Stages are prepared for him to display his greatness. Blessings, honor, and prosperity are part of salvation in the Hebrew language. We are the heirs of all these things. God will see to it that we are hard to ignore as he pours out his best and richest blessings upon us. Every person that would try to taunt us will discover that God will turn their own denials into dungeons of despair. We will stand upon the components of his suffering and know that it was all on our behalf. We will shout the liberty that has been given to us as an anointing.

God will speedily avenge his elect. All that are in the place of mockery and debate will have the bar of decision placed over the grave of their own demise of the supernatural in their lives. Those who rail on the miraculous demonstration are as those who forsake their own mercy. They forsake the birthplace of the supernatural in their lives as they try to dispel other manifestations they do not agree with. We will rise to praise and declare the counsel of God in the face of the opposition, but the morning without clouds is dawning on those who have waited for it.

EXCEPTIONAL EXPRESSIONS

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Lift up your eyes unto the accomplishments of the Son of God. Behold them, and note that there were no failures or shortcomings. Your faith is not in your accomplishments, nor your failures. Your faith is of me and in me. I have sent forth faith as fruit is sent forth from a tree. Your faith will not wither. It is growing exceedingly great because of my grace that I have given. Grace is laboring mightily. Behold this mighty laborer on your behalf. It is capable of achieving all things. My grace is sufficient. It is not lacking in any way. It is an expression of my love and holiness. Be assured that grace will not fail; therefore, be not distressed about the future or the things that are beyond your control. Trust me to solve all things for you. When you asked me to be the Lord of your life, I entered in to exercise my ability for you in all things.

CONFESSION BITES

By LWWC CONFESSION WRITERS

I am redeemed and filled with the spirit of adoption. I have cried, "Abba Father" from the depth of my being. Jesus is alive forevermore. He lives. I live because he lives. God's currency has not lost its value. I have spent the currency placed in my account on abundant life in Christ. My account is not a credit account. It is a spiritual record of God's sufficiency and provision on my behalf for all things. I have gone and exercised the power of this blood currency. It is excellent before all rulers and a powerful exchange for all that I need. The blood of Jesus has been spent for me. I have gone and gathered my benefits from the heavenly hands in the earth. Jesus has destroyed the hindrances and eradicated the restraints against me. I have leapt for joy, for Jesus has given me all things to enjoy. I am rejoicing in my salvation and his many benefits!

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Make Your Decision Concerning Life and Death at the Throne of Grace Today

Grace has been given the highest dominion of all the workings of God. It is truly the spiritual chariot throne of deliverance that all the prophets saw riding in the heavens. Even David saw a glimpse of it in the 68th Psalm. Grace takes any situation and issue of life and frames it in the proper perspective. If our attitudes in life are always directed from the throne of grace, then even the most negative situation will not rule over us. But we will reign in life through the judgments of his throne of grace. If Israel had harkened to his voice, they would have remained in the land forever. God would have subdued all their enemies before them, and they would not have remained to be thorns in their side. Gospel truth, couched in the terms of grace, leads us to the only righteousness that can be imputed to our account. Grace is the paradox in salvation and death. Death is turned inside out by obedience to the burial in baptism and the infilling of the spirit of grace. Mercy and grace are the open doors into deliverance from rebellion and into the freedom of the law of the spirit of life. Its chambers cause the rooms of pleasure to look like trash compared to the treasures of the Lord's blessing that we find there.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tony Johnson

I thank you, dear Lord, for bringing me out by your great power and outstretched arm. I glorify your holy name and magnify you with my praises this day. You are God all by yourself, and you are like no one else. You are mighty in all things, and your hand is by no means shortened that you cannot save. Thank you for reaching down and saving me from my sins. After redeeming me by your precious blood, I have total and complete confidence in your ability to do anything and everything else for me. Rejoicing and great joy are mine today because you have placed my feet upon a highway of holiness and not on the paths that lead into the deep pits of doubt and destruction. If I had hope in this life, I would be miserable and consumed by the things all about me. Instead you have given me hope in the life to come, and for this I give you praise. You are an ever present help in my time of trouble and a refuge in my time of storm. You moved and passed right through the walls and barriers of unbelief on your way to rescue me from the clutches of doubt, and now I am eternally grateful. What is impossible with man is more than possible with you. Thank you for granting me the ability to lift up my eyes beyond what I think I see into the realm of the Spirit to behold true faith working in the invisible realm.

You have given me eyes to see and ears to hear that are beyond the reaches of this world's gravitational pull and now I can see the end of this trial at hand. Hallelujah is all I can say in light of your awesome display of love in delivering me during the trial of my faith. I give glory and honor unto you, my King, for making me a prince who has power with you. I am no one that you are even mindful of me. Even though I am a wretch and undone, you still give me your best mercy and your deepest love each and every morning that I awake unto a new day. I could never thank you enough for all that you have done for me. With sincere gratitude, I praise you for who you are and for every blessing, every good and perfect gift, every bit of prosperity, and every well of salvation you have granted me in this life. It is your anointing that has destroyed every yoke off of my life, and I owe you a debt that I couldn't possibly repay. As I praise you this day, my heart is filled with the love of God that is shed abroad in my heart by your holy Spirit, and it has brought about new hope, dedication, and determination to press on through all the forces that are against me. You made a way for me to see through the darkness of uncertainty by shining the light of your word onto my pathway, and now I rest in full assurance and trust in you that by faith I will make it until the end.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We began in the Spirit, and we will finish in the power of God's Spirit. His Spirit is the love that is unconditional and awesome in our lives. We have been delivered from the power of the kingdom of darkness, and we will be kept by the same grace on a daily basis. We can be confident that the work that he has begun in us will continue on a daily basis. God has placed us on a higher plain of existence and hearing above the mundane murmuring of this world. Instead of the negative and evil, we have heard the new things that God has promised to do and is presently bringing to pass. Our lives are not crushed by the burdens and cares of those who observe circumstances, but we are carried in the arms of a gentle Shepherd who leads us in the paths of righteousness. He prepares us a table of victory for every need that we have in our lives.

Redemption Opened Up a New Avenue for Love to Be Expressed in a Greater Measure

Series 6.11.25 – Letter #330

The light of the glorious gospel is shining in the earth. It cannot be turned off. It shines with a radiance not known before. There is no light like the light of the gospel. Do not be ashamed of this light, for it is a powerful light of love. My love for you is wrapped up in the gospel. Hereby perceive you the love of God, in that I laid down my life for you. There is no other way to know love except through the cross of Calvary. You could not know my love except through the laying down of my life. It was a true work of love whose power filled the whole earth. The powerful manifestation of my strength and vigor of love was displayed on Calvary's tree. It is one thing to have the ability to lay down one's life and another thing to actually lay it down. I expressed a greater love toward fallen man when I actually laid down my life for him. I am the supreme authority in heaven and earth. My power has always been the same, but at Calvary, I magnified it. The magnification of my love is only seen through the act of love that I displayed. You may now, without doubt, express a dependent attitude toward me because of the love that I expressed. The gospel is the power of God to everyone that believes. There is no major power in the earth more powerful than preaching the gospel. What power can turn a sinful man into a righteous man?

Love powers the gospel. Love governs all that I do. Without the display of my love on the tree, there would have been a dimension of my love not revealed to man. Now the influence of my great love has been painted into a visible expression in the earth. Now all may know the color of love. No one made the choice for me. There is no external motive great enough to make up my mind for me. I chose to go to Calvary for you. In my flesh, I sought a way out of my commitment, but love motivated me to say, "Nevertheless, not my will, but let your will be done." I held on to the reins of love though I was tempted to allow them to be released. The power of love was greater than my weakness, and I remained true to the conviction of love. Inside of you that love is working now to make you into what you should be. Allow the power of love to work its will in your life, and you will obtain the crown of life. The power of my love caused me to die for you. The power of my love will see you through this present danger. The power of love will see you all the way home. Trust love. The need of redemption opened up a brand new avenue for the expression of my love to express how great it really is. Greater love hath no man than to lay down his life for his friends.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - Redemption Opened Up a New Avenue for Love to Be Expressed in a Greater Measure

Our measures are finite and so limited. Infinite love has a range that the supernatural would like to enlarge our understanding with. Measureless is a term that we stand and consider and are without a clue of what it truly means. Deeper than hell and higher than heaven, wisdom reaches with the love that endures forever. Judas could have waited three more days and could have seen the forgiveness that would have defeated even the design of the devil in his life. Every structure in the universe can be reversed or torn apart and rebuilt by the power of love. Darkness and the pits of hell cannot overwhelm the power of love to reach in and rescue the powerless from the overwhelming odds that seem to be against them. Our access and entrance into his grace has been made possible by the sacrifice of eternal love on the cross. Calvary spells love differently than the world. Our world spells love as lust. Calvary spells it as commitment. This is the commitment to stand by us and the paying the price in the face of all situations and events that may arise.

Love's power has attacked the gates of hell and won with all its keys in hand. Love leaves all other distractions powerless. We are empowered by his love to reach the lost and affect their deliverance. Every weakness and failure must give in and submit to love. Faith works by love. Dynamos of power are filling the universe but none compare to the intensity of the love that will always deliver and make a way of victory and triumph for his chosen people. Expressions of love never seen before will be uttered and demonstrated on the stages of the end time. God will exhibit in us the splendor of acts more beautiful than heaven itself as we near the finish of this race.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

If I had withdrawn my mercy from you, you would not be standing. If my longsuffering had been shortened like yours, then you would already be cut off. If my grace were not sufficient, you would be without the kindness that has greeted you. Offer praise, for the sure mercies of David have come to you, a child grafted into this tree. Be forever grateful and thankful. I have overlooked your unbelief and forgiven your sins many times. You have transgressed in the same areas many times, yet my forbearance has allowed you more grace for your feet. Look to my tenderness, and make a memorial in your heart for this moment of love and grace in your life.

RE: RHEMA - Miracles Blossoming in Hopeless Situations

Candlesticks of faith are fitted with the bowls like almonds. In the tabernacle, the almond shaped bowls that emitted light were the shadow of the great revelation that was to come in the vision of the prophets of the New Testament. As Solomon took items from the tabernacle and brought them into the larger dimensions of the temple, so does God multiply the greatness of our understanding. Instead of one candlestick, as was in the tabernacle, there were ten in the temple. They were all across the front before the oracle. We then have wall to wall light just before the oracle of his word. If the dead almond branch blossomed before the ark of the testimony, dead, forgotten promises will come to pass before the Rhema word of God. We are the planting of the Lord. If we are in the wilderness or the swamp, the Lord has designed us with the DNA that will cause the blossom of the harvest to flourish in our lives. Our lives are as the trees of righteousness. Limbs of faith will bear the fruit of sweet victory. Its leaves will be the healing medicine of the soul. Its intake of the toxic air around it will be replaced by the oxygen of grace. While our miracles are blooming, the enemy would like to sow a planting of deception. God will spray it with a pre-emergent spiritual weed killer that will not allow it to affect the blessing of God in our lives.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

By Cindy Mesa

I thank you for your forgiveness, restoration, reconciliation, and relationship O Lord, for these are all direct results of your eternal love expressed for fallen man. Forever we have the testimony of the cross in the sands of time, and your existence is undeniable and irrefutable. You came to seek and to save those who are lost and paid the ransom by your sacrifice. I magnify your name today, for it truly is the name of SALVATION. I glorify you in the midst of the congregation of the righteous, for we have been justified and redeemed. I am blessed to be a part of your last day ministry as you are continuing to reach for the one lost sheep. The power of your redemption is unmatched, and your love never quits or gives up. Though all men may turn their backs toward me and write me off, you have never given up on me. You have never forsaken me or left me alone. You are truly a friend that sticks closer than any brother or family member. You are my kinsman redeemer, and I give you thanks! You paid my sin debt in full, and because of your great love for me, you have given me access into the unlimited power of your grace and love. If it were not because of you, I don't know where I would be today.

I am compelled to follow you because of the abundance of grace and mercy that you have expressed toward me. You could have chosen not to be as good as you have been unto me and you would be justified. Yet you continue to lavish me with your eternal expressions of love in the form of provision, prosperity, health and life. I am overwhelmed with thanksgiving as I look back over my life and see how far you have brought me. I am filled with great anticipation to see the end, for I know that the best is yet to come. Life with you just gets better and better. Because of your love, I now have a new outlook in life. I am a new creature in Christ, and now the sky is the limit. I am not limited by any human factors. Social status and political arenas are all illusions propagated by the enemy to get me to feel intimidated and to limit myself in life, but by your grace I have the ability, the desire, and the power to be everything you have designed me to be. I will not accept anything less than your will in my life. Thank you, my King, for opening up the door to the fullness of every aspect of your kingdom.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Redemption that is wrapped in the gift of grace is justification, propitiation, imputation, forgiveness, sanctification, and glorification all in the One who gave it to us freely. Just as all the fullness of deity continues to dwell and live in us by the indwelling of his Spirit, so do all the dynamics of the works of redemption. Our hearts overflow with the abundance to others in this last day so that others can be as loved as we are. Redemption by grace and faith is the net of the seventh parable of the kingdom that will draw in so many that the angels will participate in the harvest. In the midst of it all, we stand in the rain of all this blessing as we sing and shout his praise.

The God of the Entire Earth Has Subdued All Things Under His Feet

Series 6.11.26 – Letter #331

I have preeminence in all things. I am the mighty Potentate. I have the highest position, all authority, and all power, for I am King of kings, Lord of lords, and God of gods. I am the ruler of the universe. When I give a command, it must be obeyed. There is a judgment for commands not obeyed. Do not be deceived. My commands are not suggestions. I will show that I am the blessed and only Potentate. My commandments should be kept without spot, unrebukeable until my appearing. Only I have immortality. I dwell in the light, and no man can approach unto me. To me, is honor and power everlasting. Clap your hands, and shout unto me with the voice of triumph.

I am terrible and shall subdue all things under you. All things shall be placed under your feet. I am exalted. I reign over all the powers of the earth. You have princes ruling and reigning with you. Gather them together, and offer praise unto me. I shall demonstrate that I am with you, for I shall confound and trouble your adversaries. I shall do this that they may know that I am the most High over all the earth. Offer a sacrificial praise, and I will accept your praise instead of the death of your dream. Your sacrificial praise has been held as a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. Take the sacrificial praise and offer it up to me, and I will accept it as a substitute for your blessings that were threatened with death. I am Jesus, the Lord who will provide. I have come to bless you. In blessings, I will bless you, and in multiplying, I will multiply your seed. Your seed shall possess the gate of your enemies. You are the seed of Christ. Now expect the blessing of Abraham upon your life because you have believed in my voice and obeyed my voice.

I have given you the kingdom. Now go, and possess the things that belong unto you. I have brought you out from under the burdens of the slave master, and I have rid you of his bondage. I have redeemed you with a stretched out arm and with great judgments. You have been taken unto me for a people. I am your God. Now know that I am the Lord, your God who has brought you from under the burdens of the condemnation. I have put my Spirit upon you. Remember, a bruised reed shall I not break, and the smoking flax shall not be quenched. I shall bring forth judgment unto victory. I have promised that I will not fail until I have set judgment in the earth. Judgment has come into the world. For this cause, I came that they which do not see might see and that they which see might be made blind. The judgment of this world has come, and the prince of the world is cast out. I have been lifted up from the earth, and I am now drawing all men unto myself.

The prince of the world is judged. He is under my feet. I am the Lord, and my glory will I not give to another, neither praise to graven images. Behold the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare. I am telling you now that I will do a new thing in the earth. Sing unto me a new song and my praise from the ends of the earth. Get ready to flourish like the palm tree, for you are planted in the house of the Lord. You shall now flourish in the courts of your God. You shall still bring forth fruit in your old age. They shall be fat and flourishing to show that the Lord is upright. I am your rock, and there is no unrighteousness in me. You shall not be ashamed, neither shall you be confounded, for you shall not be put to shame. Your Maker is your husband. I am the Lord of hosts, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, the God of the whole earth am I called.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The God of the Entire Earth Has Subdued All Things under His Feet

His rule and kingdom extends from eternity to eternity. Its never-ending scope of power and dominion never ceases. Over time in this world, it appears that things have risen up and taken control, but this is not true in reality. His power is declared to be eternal. This power has never declined or had to be increased. We have failed in our observations as humans because we look for the obvious manifestation of his rule. The kingdom of God comes not by observation but by declaration. God either allows or disallows every event. He is firmly in control, and when we speak his authority, we empower it to be manifested and it places all things under his jurisdiction. His commandments are the structure of the universe. His words are not suggestions of what could be, but the description of what exists.

Our celebration of worship and praise takes hold of the release of the magnitude of his greatness, as is described in the fifth chapter of the book of Revelation. As we praise him, that sacrifice is celebrated before the throne and affects all the inhabitants of the universe. Every atom quivers before the sound waves of the voice of our praise echoing the sound of the voice of Creation.

We have not been relegated to some second place finish. We are the centerpiece of the redemptive drama of the King. His greatest feast will culminate in the fact that we have finally decided that we have the authority to speak with our voice, and he fuses it with his mighty voice to bring about an explosion of power and control over all the forces of the universe with a display greater than all the stars of power in the universe. We will arise with the power of the morning star and declare the day that night says is his. Night will never occupy the throne that was created for the children of light who were created to write "finished and defeated" on the face of the darkness. God is not standing by as one who is uninvolved. He is our defender, husband, and Creator. As our provider, he will make sure that all those who would try to infringe on the sovereignty that he has shared with us is not vandalized. We are the certitude of end time expressions and none will fail.

Many have been named to man's list of fame. Rejoice that your name is written in the Lamb's book of life. The angels rejoice over one sinner who repents. Do not labor for the things that perish. This world shall pass away, and all the achievements of man shall become as a flower in the field. Do not seek to be recognized by man. Seek to please me. I have come to walk with you and to dwell inside of you. Make my journey with you pleasing. Seek a relationship with me that will warrant a testimony from me concerning you. Can I voice the testimony about you that I gave concerning Enoch?

He walked with me and was not, for I took him. He was translated and did not see death. My testimony concerning him was that he pleased me. The way you live before translation determines my testimony concerning you. How are you living?

Can I say, "This day you shall be in the presence of the Lord if death came for you?"

RE: RHEMA - The Promises and Blessings of God Are Not Diminished by the Thoughts and Actions of Men

Cold, hard logic is the graveyard for inspiration and any thought of the blessings of God. Every spirit of man or the enemy has amassed themselves at the borders of our spiritual existence, but God has already sent his hosts of good news to scatter them upon the mountains of highest praise and their own destruction. We will go forth with the mind of God, and they will flee in seven directions before the breath of his promise. Calvary did not pay the price it did for us to be defrauded by anyone. Truth has already stood before the seat of judgment for us, and the enemy has no jurisdiction in our case. Heaven has ruled that it is done!

◆ Rejoice in the way of your testimonies. Rejoice at my word. Praise me with your instruments. Sing unto me a new song. My word is right, and all my works are done in truth. The whole earth is full of the goodness of the Lord. By my word were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of my mouth. I require joy of you because I have given it unto you.

239. What do you expect from my Spirit?

◆ Clothe yourself with the garment of righteousness and the garment of praise. I have revealed truth unto you and hidden my secrets from the wise and prudent. I have delivered deep things unto you and revealed myself unto you. Come and receive of the rest that I am giving. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart. I have laid up rest for your souls. My yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

240. Why sit at the gate of peace and stare at the frustrating performances of the hour?

By Rigo Toledo

I magnify you O King of kings, for you are the blessed mighty Potentate. You have all power and authority. You are the ruler of the universe, the Creator of all things, and I worship you for who you are. I praise you, for you are full of light. I thank you for giving me the understanding that no one can approach you unless they approach you through the veil that is the flesh that you came in and through the blood that you shed. You are the great, awesome God, and all things are subdued under your feet. To you, is everlasting honor and power. I clap my hands and shout with the voice of triumph. All things are placed under your feet, for you are the exalted Savior and you reign over all the powers of the earth. Your rule and kingdom extends from eternity to eternity. I rejoice that your kingdom does not come by observation but by declaration. You are the one that allows and disallows every event in my life. You are firmly in control, and I praise you, for I know you are confounding my adversaries. I acknowledge that you do this because I am your child and you will not deny yourself. I am so grateful for your manifested victory for me. This day, I declare that you are the most High God over all the earth and your mercy will come and intercede for me and grant me the victory that is needed in every part of my life. I offer a sacrificial praise, and I thank you for accepting my praise instead of the death of my dreams. You are my Lord, the fulfiller of divine dreams and the one who provides for me. You came and blessed me with eternal life, and for this I am compelled to magnify you and speak of your glory and great grace. Praise be to the name of Jesus!!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Revelation 1:8 consummates the continual revealing of El Shaddai of Abraham and the mighty God of Isaiah. Not only does he have the keys to everything in the universe, but when he is announced as the Alpha and Omega, this is the Greek terminology for the entire universe. Jesus Christ is the all encompassing power of the macro universe around us and the micro universe within us. We are told that the potential number of synaptic connections of the neurons that are in the human brain rivals the number of the known stars. And just to think that he is able to do exceeding, abundantly, above all we ask or THINK!

The King Eternal, Immortal, Invisible, and the Only Wise God Sent Prophecies on Before for Warring a Good Warfare

Series 6.11.27 – Letter #332

I am the true God, the living God, and an everlasting King. At my wrath, the whole earth shall tremble. I made the earth by my power and established the world by my wisdom. I stretched out the heaven by my discretion. Men who ruled earthly kingdoms shall know the Most High rules in the kingdom of men and that I give these kingdoms to whosoever I will. I shall bring men low to show them that I rule in the kingdoms of men. They shall become as nothing as I show them that I do according to my will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth. None can stay my hand or say to me, "What doest thou?" I will abase those who have walked in pride. They will be humbled before my prophets within whom I have placed an excellent spirit, knowledge, and understanding. I shall exalt my wisdom within my prophets in these last days as they are brought forth to interpret dreams and to give hidden meanings in divers situations. I will do these things in the presence of the proud who have lifted themselves up against the Lord of heaven. I will do these things in the last days that the proud will know that the kingdom of heaven rules in the earth and that I give to rule whosoever I will. Do not be tempted by the tempter. Always pray, "Lead us not into temptation, and deliver us from evil and the evil one." The kingdom, the power, and the glory are all mine. I will not give my glory unto another. Purge yourself of all things that are contrary to sound doctrine according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God. I have committed to your trust this glorious gospel. I placed you into the ministry and enabled you to preach the gospel. You were a wretched sinner, but I gave you mercy and saved you by my grace.

I am the King eternal, immortal, invisible, and the only wise God. To me, there should be honor and glory, forever and forever. I have given many prophecies over you. These prophecies went on before you that you might take them, and by them, war a good warfare while you hold faith and a good conscience toward my promises. I am understanding. By me, kings reign and princes decree justice. I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me. My fruit is better than gold and my revenue than choice silver. I am Christ, the wisdom and the power of God. Believe on me, and your thoughts shall be established. Your words shall proceed out of your mouth, and they will not return to me void. I shall confirm the words that you speak with signs and wonders. You have found life and have obtained favor of me. You are blessed, for you hear me. Now continue to watch daily at my gates. Wait at the posts of my doors. Wait on me, for I will surely strengthen your heart.

RE: RHEMA - The King Eternal, Immortal, Invisible, and the Only Wise God Sent Prophecies on Before for Warring a Good Warfare

God has declared to the prophets his firm testimony of facts that would never be eroded by time or events. Kings and potentates have seen the futility of fighting against the dictates of the prophetic utterances of those they regarded with contempt. Under deeper scrutiny, they trembled at the words they knew would certainly destroy any force or army that would be raised to fight against God or his people. All that have ever risen against the Lord or ever will are counted as a thing of naught and as less than a drop in a bucket before him who has spoken.

Rulers and proud kings have eaten grass and been eaten by worms. They rose in their pride and found it to be a trapdoor into the pit of their own destruction. Nations have marveled, and their hearts melted within them as they beheld the destruction of those who chose to fight and belittle the magnitude of that which the Lord has spoken. We have blessings to declare and a gospel to boldly preach. We must not be afraid of the tempter who tries to get us to sit on the sidelines and not declare the utterances of the most High. Our own ministries were fashioned by the spoken word; therefore, we will not fail to continue to release the power of its creation. Our King will set his forces to fight for those who are not afraid to stand on the perimeters of the camp and declare to all the faithful words we have been given. There is no other king. All others are pretenders and frauds who try to frighten us with their challenges. His words that are spoken by the mouth that he has anointed will come to pass as sure as he sits upon the throne. We can watch it unfold as the days go by.

Behold the consuming fire inside of your body, my temple. Give me your body for fasting and prayer, and I will separate you from vile things of this life. RE: RHEMA - Instructions in Living (Part One) Distraction is the art form of the devil. If we can be sidetracked from the focus of our worship, we will daily get caught up on a detour that is full of the robbers of our joy. If the enemy can steal our worship or eviscerate it so that it is without our complete fervent love, then he will thwart our blessings to a limited amount.

Unlimited blessings flow all around those who are oblivious to the circumstances of daily living. Many are engaged in the battle of ideas and the competition of pride that causes us to devour one another. We are not in this battle because we know that the battle is the Lord's. We look into heaven and see wars going on in the earth. What is heaven doing? They are engaged in nonstop intense worship. His will should be done in our earthly tabernacle as it is in heaven. God's Rhema word has designed and created a hall of celebration. We need to be dancing with the Creator with his voice and song in our ear. We need to refuse to hear the false instruction of this age. We will not bow down to their images. Their threats, like a furnace, may try to intimidate us, but we will praise God constantly in the atmosphere of undisturbed love. Our praise is creative. We will not die and be buried by any circumstance of religion or ritual if we never cease to ardently praise the Lord.

◆ Do not worry about your life in this world. I have already sealed you with the spirit of redemption. The earnest of your inheritance is in you. No one can take it from you. Believe the prophets, and know that the ways of the patriarchs were ordered of me. I have also ordered your steps. Now rise up, and walk in the paths of righteousness for my name's sake and not your own. From a child, the Spirit of God has touched you. You could not miss this divine ordination because it was ordered of me.

241. Will you miss the providence ahead of you?

◆ I am building my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Go and wash my church with the washing of water by the word. I will present it to myself as a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing. My church shall be holy and without blemish. I love my church. I love myself; therefore, I love my church. You are members of my body, of my flesh and of my bones. The mystery has been revealed; therefore, abide in my love and allow my love to abide in you. I was put to death in the flesh and quickened by the Spirit that I might bring you to me.

242. Will I now lose you after having suffered for your sins?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I am so thankful that you have declared to your prophets your firm testimony of facts that can never be eroded by time or events. I am grateful for the prophets that are seers in my life. Because of the position that I am in, I cannot see the things that your prophets see in my life, for they are on the wall as watchmen for my soul. I give you praise for you alone made the earth by your power and established the world by your wisdom. I am in awe at how you stretched forth the heavens by your discretion. All that have ever risen against you or ever will are counted as a thing of naught and less than a drop in a bucket because they don't realize that their arms are too short to box with you. I am grateful for you, for you are the most High who rules in the kingdom of men and you give these kingdoms to whosoever you will. I know that nations have marveled and their hearts have melted within them as they beheld the destruction of those who chose to fight and belittle the magnitude of that which you have spoken. Thank you, Lord, for choosing us to declare your blessings and preach your word boldly. I am not ashamed of your gospel, for I know that it is the power of God unto salvation. I am thankful and full of joy because you saved my soul and continually grant me your tender mercies.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Just as the seven strongest men in the kingdom were slain by the heat on the outside of the furnace that the three Hebrew children were thrown into, so will every gainsayer be negated and erased by the statements of God's power in the mouth of his people. We are all chosen to be the prophets of the Lord. Adam should have been the first in the line of prophets, priests, and kings.

He listened to the wrong voice and ate of the wrong tree. We have become the tongue of the righteous that is a tree of life. We speak the mysteries and majesty of the kingdom within us and Jesus Christ displays it on the outside in our world. God has given us a mouth and wisdom that none of our adversaries can deny.

The Proof Described in Rhema Is More Binding Than Any Contract Made with Man

Series 6.11.28 – Letter #332

The riches of my wisdom and knowledge are past finding out. You could dwell in their depth for a lifetime and never exhaust the riches that are in them. No one knows my mind. No one has instructed me. By faith, you understand a small amount about me, but no one can find out all there is to my wisdom and knowledge. You can totally rely on me and be fully persuaded that I am the chief cornerstone of everything that you believe. You must accept the teachings concerning me to be true so that you may trust me completely. Without doing this, you cannot please me, for he that comes to me must believe that I am and that I am the rewarder of those who diligently seek me. The proof described in the Rhema is more than enough to persuade you to believe the things promised you. The volumes of proof have been expressed to you. Only believe the evidence presented to you. The title deed has been given to you through the Rhema. It has presented you with a contract that is more binding than any legal agreement. Only believe.

You need a good report given to you by a faithful witness. I have given you the best witness as the foundation of your belief. I have sent the testimony of Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, to bear record of the truth of my promises to you. Through this persuasion, you may now comprehend, with all your being, the truth of the report sent. This is a spoken persuasion that is full of life and power. It penetrates the darkness of unbelief and brings down the walls of doubt. There is creative power in my spoken words. In the beginning, the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters and I said, "Let there be light," and there was light. Is it a wonder that the Rhema sent on your behalf separates the light of my promises from the darkness of unbelief?

Do not be persuaded to offer up the arguments of unbelief as Cain was persuaded. Be persuaded to offer up a more excellent sacrifice of praise and then will you obtain a witness that you are righteous, for the effectual, fervent prayers of a righteous man avail much. Please me by your faith, and be translated out of this present dilemma that you have found yourself in. You are an heir of righteousness. Now show forth the works of a King's child.

Without doing this, I cannot please God, for he that comes to him must believe that he is and that he is the rewarder of those who diligently seek him. The proof described in the Rhema is more than enough to persuade me to believe the things promised me. The volumes of proof have been expressed to me. I believe the evidence presented to me. The title deed has been given to me through the Rhema. It has presented me with a contract that is more binding than any legal agreement. I believe.

I need a good report given to me by a faithful witness. God has given me the best witness as the foundation of my belief. He has sent the testimony of Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, to bear record of the truth of his promises to me. Through this persuasion, I now comprehend, with all my being, the truth of the report sent. This is a spoken persuasion that is full of life and power. It penetrates the darkness of unbelief and brings down the walls of doubt. There is creative power in Jesus' spoken words. In the beginning, the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters and he said, "Let there be light," and there was light. It is no wonder that the Rhema sent on my behalf separates the light of God's promises from the darkness of unbelief.

I am not persuaded to offer up the arguments of unbelief as Cain was persuaded. I am persuaded to offer up a more excellent sacrifice of praise to obtain a witness that I am righteous, for the effectual, fervent prayers of a righteous man avail much. I have pleased the Lord by my faith and am being translated out of the dilemma that I found myself in. I am an heir of righteousness, and I have shown forth the works of a King's child.

RE: RHEMA - The Proof Described in Rhema Is More Binding Than Any Contract Made with Man

When we consider the statement made in the epistle to Timothy that there would be those who would have a form of godliness but deny the power thereof, there is an interesting definition of deny. In the Greek language, it is the negative form of "erao." This root word is used when we are told that out of our bellies shall flow rivers of living water. It is the word flow in this verse, and it is the root word of Rhema. In other words, those who deny the power of God to keep his promise are those who do not speak or believe in Rhema!

As we see God perform to the letter the Rhema that has been spoken and written, we know beyond a shadow of a doubt that it is certain and sure. Its steadfastness remains unshakable in the face of all contenders. Men may arrive at covenants and agreements, but they are arbitrary compared to the Rhema declarations that cannot fail. We have the documents and deed to the entire inheritance by the handwriting of grace on the surface of our dancing soul.

Jesus Christ is not only our faithful witness, he is the testimony on our behalf in the face of all accusers. Our enemies are his enemies. He has told us that we will not need to fight, but the battle is the Lord's. His words that have been spoken to us are the state of the art weaponry that vaporizes all the attacks of the enemy. His creative word that created the universe out of nothing has taken our empty hopes that were like empty cups and turned them into full platters of visible power.

Cain offered only a token sacrifice in his feeble attempt to approach God. We have talking blood that contains the entire new covenant in its context. The Lord has spoken, and the heralds of heaven are echoing it in our ears. We are the children of present utterance; therefore, we stand beyond the reach of every hand and tongue that would try to pull us down.

I am not a respecter of persons. Many have men's persons in admiration. I do not consider any man's person. Their great swelling words do not move me. Man does not instruct me. No man can cause me to dislike you. Though you have experienced rejection, know of a truth that I have sent you; therefore, have they rejected me. Do not marvel at these sayings, for many are called, but few are chosen. Many of the called reject the chosen. The first shall be last, and the last shall be first. RE: RHEMA - Instructions in Living (Part Two) Hearts aflame with the unceasing gratitude of worship will never be quieted by the lies of this hour. We will never be silenced by the words of any source. We will refuse to parrot the plastic words of religion. Feigned expressions and synthetic praise feels like gravel in our mouth, and true worshippers will spit it out. Idols are just around the corner of the nearest block of our emotions.

Prostitution of our love for him is the saddest detail that could be written of us. We will prevail daily in our living only if we are yielded to him. We do not draw the picture and tell God where to fit in, but he draws the picture, and we are to fit our lives into his pattern for our lives. His pattern for our lives is that of a fervent and intense worshipper. We can go through the actions of a praiser, but the real worshipper will leave the smell of a singed and fried enemy in their wake. It is easy to feel and know who really has the victory. Our struggle will indicate our tangled warfare with our flesh. Flesh has to be totally consumed on the altar of worship. We can try to serve the desire of our flesh, but that relationship will empty our treasury of its contents. Our sacrifice is in the courts of praise with our hands and hearts lifted high.

◆ I am one who is just. You were unjust. I suffered and died for you.

243. Does that demonstrate my love for you?

◆ Come from the fears of the last days. These fears should not affect you, for you are saved. The world will live in fear, but my love is casting out the fear that has entered the lives of those who really believe. The spirits that have orchestrated these war tactics of fear have no authority to enforce their strategies. Come again to the cross and behold my sentence upon them, and then will you behold your freedom. I have made you free by the truth. Now rise up and preach the gospel. Rise up and preach Jesus. I have revealed to you the power of Paul's message. Now go to the written word and trace his message throughout the Bible.

By Michael Hannah

Lord, I give you thanks today for you have allowed me to be an epistle known and read of all men. Your grace has allowed me to awake and to be loaded up with the benefits and riches of your wisdom and your knowledge. Thank you Jesus, for surely this is too wonderful for me to know and past my finding out. I worship you and give you praise for I am comforted knowing that I can totally rely and trust on you completely. I am rejoicing because I know that you care for me. I am persuaded, and I believe in the Rhema word where more things are promised for me. The creative power from your spoken word brings glory to you as you speak; therefore, by the words of my mouth; I speak and believe in Rhema! I know beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Rhema is certain and sure. I believe the evidence presented to me that without faith it is impossible for me to please you; therefore, I diligently seek after you. I now comprehend, with all my being, the truth of the report that you are the only faithful witness and that you give testimony on my behalf in the face of all my accusers. I rejoice as a new creation that you brought forth out of the midst of chaos, even as the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters and you said, "Let there be light," and there was light. My darkness has now been turned into light. I will show forth the works of a King's child, and I stand beyond the reach of every hand and tongue of man that would try to pull me down. I am persuaded to offer up a more excellent sacrifice of praise and to obtain a witness that I am an heir of your righteousness. My heart is filled with gladness for the battle is surely yours. I am thankful for this power that I have been given as a child of the light. Hallelujah!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We are the letters of the Spirit written not on tables of stone that tend to be harsh and judgmental, but we are on the same tender tables of the heart that feel every weakness of humanity. Not only is Jesus touched with the feelings of our infirmities, but he has written in living letters that same compassion in our lives. Across the pages and the speaking of a heart that has been set free is the scroll of infinite power and the miraculous. We will ascribe unto him the glory and honor of his greatness. We will attest and testify of the power of all that he has said will come to pass. Freedom for others is released in the mouth of the thankful hearts that have been liberated by the power of the cross.

The Cross and the Finished Work of Redemption Is a Bridge Across Every Gulf

Series 6.11.29 – Letter #333

I made a bridge from darkness to light by the blood of Jesus and the cross of Calvary. You came into this marvelous light by my Spirit, not by might, nor by power. This bridge remains for all who believe to crossover the ravine between darkness and light. The gap between unholiness and holiness cannot be bridged without the bridgework of the cross; therefore, look to the finished work that I have completed for the foundation of your faith. I made the distance from darkness to light a short distance for you to crossover. This is a covered bridge whose passageway is protected by the light of the glorious gospel. No lion can walk here, neither any ravenous beast. It is a bridge for those seeking eternal life. Go to the overpass of life, and speak the words of life from this platform of the gospel. There are souls waiting to pass over the darkness into this wonderful light. I have suspended a bridge by the cords of love. I have anchored this bridge on all ends by the cables of love. This bridge is all the support that you need for going out and coming in. Come to this bridge of life, and crossover to the blessings that await you on the other side. No one can bar you from that which I have promised you as long as you use this simple bridge of my cross. Use the bridge of the cross to go to the house that I have given you instead of mental bridges designed by human reasoning. Give me your hand. I will lead you across the bridge of promise to the fulfillment of your desires.

RE: RHEMA - The Cross and the Finished Work of Redemption Is a Bridge Across Every Gulf

Chasms of fear and torment have long opened their mouth to swallow up the faith of the believer. Calvary sweeps these aside into one large pile like so much dust and packs them into the same hole that they came from and covers them with his grace. Darkness will always show us the depths that it says we must cross, but the bridge made from the cross suspends between the impossible and the miraculous is firm and unshakable. Its suspension beams are covered with the light of love's enhancing revelation. All of the images that play around the edges of our lives that want to dance around in a taunting cadence are flung from view by the presence of the cross. Love's immutable statement is pronounced daily even in the midst of storms and clouds that fill the horizon of life. His promises remain steadfast and sure in the face of all opposition. Lingering doubts of holiness may assault our minds, but when we step out on the support of the cross, it is a pathway that leads into dimensions of confidence above any reservation. Our arrival at the purpose of God will always be bridged by the enabling of the cross.

RE: RHEMA - A Work of God in Response to Rejection

Every lying spirit in the beginning lined up in mass and hurled the insult toward God, "It will never be!" God said let there be and there was. Nobody could have seen Genesis 1:31 "Everything that he had made was very good."...in Genesis 1:2 "...without form and void..." God saw it before, and he still sees all the created visible things coming forth from the invisible. The spirit of a liar opens up for every other unclean spirit to come and inhabit the vessel it lives in or around. Pride, anger, self justification, depression, and any number of destroying spirits would like to overrun the church. As overseers we must never allow those to hang around but send them back to the pit from which they came. Mighty works of God stand on our horizon, and the ingathering of the harvest of souls beckons us with open arms. We must never allow an intruder to abort the work God has destined to happen.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We live by the faith of the Son of God who loves us and gave himself for us. He will not regress from that benevolence, but he will give us more and more. Faith that reverberates in us by his love will never be overcome by fear. Faith that has been manifest with fruit and giftings of the Spirit cannot be diminished by our misgivings and concerns. David said in Psalm 34 that this poor man cried to the Lord and the Lord delivered him out of all his fears. Poor is from the Hebrew word that means helpless and not the traditional meaning of impoverished. We are not helpless if we have Jesus Christ in our lives. David said in Psalm 121:2 that his help came from the Lord who made the heavens and earth. If God made the universe out of nothing, then he can take all our nothings and make everything that we will ever need.

Return to Christ, the Focal Point of Vision

Series 6.11.30 – Letter #334

You have allowed your focus to shift from me to your problems. I must remain the main focus of interest, or your problems will become your definition of life. This causes discontent. You have food and raiment; therefore, be content. You have need of patience. Let patience have her perfect work in you that you may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. I heard you when you first prayed. I will answer in due time. I am working patience out in you. I am more concerned about what you are focused on than on you receiving things. You must keep me the focal point and not my blessings. I am the central theme of life, not your blessings. The important things in life can easily be distorted when you think on what you are receiving from me more than you think on me. I am a jealous God. I will not compete with your blessings. I am bringing focus back to your life so that you do not lose your vision and your purpose. Many visionaries lose sight of me when they began to focus on what I am doing, rather than focusing on me. I must remain the focal point at all times, or what I am doing will be out of focus to you. I am correcting you because I love you. Keep your eyes on me then will my purpose of seeking the lost remain intact and clear and not as a photograph of what I intend to do.

Allow me to remove the bandages from your eyes. You have worn the bandages of selfishness. I do give you fresh vision and anoint your eyes with eye salve that you might see clearly. Cease focusing on your problems, and you will not view my purpose through eyes of flesh. You will see my purpose through spiritual eyes that are focused by the Holy Ghost. You have halted between two opinions. You halted between the opinion of your flesh, and the reality of what is being revealed to you by the Spirit. This has brought about a controversy within you. Turn your concentration back to me, the Lord, your God and then will you see what I am doing instead of observing confusing imaginations. I have said, "The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do, for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. For the Father loveth the Son and showeth him all things that himself doeth, and he will show him greater works than these that ye may marvel."

I am the vine. You are the branches. Abide in me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine. No more can you except you abide in me. I am the vine. You are the branches. He that abideth in me and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit, for without me, you can do nothing. The servant is not greater than his master. I could of mine own self do nothing. I could only do what the Father did. Return to me as the focal point, and do as you see me do. You must work the works of the one who sent you, not the works of your imaginations. I am anointing your eyes again. Now wash in the pool of faith, and come forth seeing clearly. Open your mouth, and allow me to speak through you. I have given you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor resist. It is not you that speaks, but the Spirit of your Father that speaks within you. My grace is sufficient for you. Do not be discouraged because of the weakness that you feel, for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Do not be concerned about your problems. Focus on me. The power of Christ rests upon you; therefore, offer praise in all these things, and do not lose your focus to your problems, neither your infirmities.

RE: RHEMA - Return to Christ, the Focal Point of Vision

He shall appear the second time without sin unto salvation to those who look for him. The word "Looking" here in the original language is not simply a casual glance, but the steadfast fixed observation of the promise as the lens that we daily view everything in life through. If there is any other overbearing concern in our lives, it will surely distract us from that which we are steadily warned of so that our hearts would not be overcharged with the cares of life and the trivial pursuits that are all trivial compared to the pursuit of being ready for the coming of the Lord. If the enemy can get us to put that on the backburner of our thoughts or down on the list of priorities, he has defeated us. Nothing is more important than our utmost attention to the details of the coming of the Lord for the church. We must anoint our eyes with the eye salve spoken of in the book of Revelation. It is a pollutant remover. There are so many pollutants in our lives and so many available sources of that pollution. If we allow our eyes and mind to wander aimlessly, we will be filled with images that will be like blindfolds placed upon our vision.

It is of utmost importance that we daily seek the Lord to take away any and all impediments that hinder our view of his coming. Problems are always the flag that the enemy waves in front of our face to get our attention. Problems will always deplete our power level because when we surrender to think of them, we are caught in their depleting gravity that will pull us and our eyes downward. His power and zeal of purpose are the prescription for healing of the myopic vision that falls upon us in this hour. When we continually behold the exceeding, great promises that he has fulfilled and has continued to detail in our mouth, we are again caught in the whirling vortex of his power. It lifts us above the problems of the storm that kicks up dust clouds that dim our view. As we continue to allow him to speak through us, revelation will build a platform above the atmosphere of the toxic fleshly cloud to behold him in the morning without clouds.

Encampments of the enemies' discouragement seem to always dot the path of the faithful. Heavens hosts await the incursion of the attackers to stop them in their tracks because praise has already established shields and defenses around them. Our past is not even a good ghost to come and attack us. Failures of yesterday are the shadows of something that is a phantom of the night. It is not really there. It just tries to pursue those who will pay it any attention. Our eyes are fixed on the goal of things not seen in the natural setting of the battle. We have already seen and heard the end of the crusade. It is a victorious unbroken fellowship with the strength of our lives. Hidden in all these skirmishes are the jewels of the treasure of his providence all along our path. PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

I place my thoughts upon your glory and wonderful works O Lord, and I will not allow my problems to be my focus. I will press towards the mark for the prize of the high calling which is in you. I thank you for allowing patience to have her perfect work in me and I know in due time my prayers will be answered. I am so blessed to know that you are more concerned where I place my focus, rather than looking at what you are blessing me with. I am grateful for the vision and purpose you have placed in me and I am overjoyed that you will not allow me to perish by losing the vision of who you are. I greatly rejoice in knowing the beauty of your holiness. Your chastening lets me know how much you love me and that I am received of you and for this I am thankful.

I praise you as I maintain a visual of your appearing and I observe the direction you are leading me unto. Forgive me of my selfishness today, you did not give me blessings just to have them redirect my path and cause them to become distractions from the main purpose, which is winning the lost. I will not allow my eyes to sleep and my eyelids to slumber, but I will allow my eyes to observe your ways. I pray that you turn my eyes from what is worthless, and revive me again with your word. By your grace, I will not halt between two opinions, that of my flesh, and the reality of what is being revealed to me by your Spirit. You are the vine and I am the branch, without you I can do nothing; therefore, I must deny myself, pick up my cross daily and follow you. I can of myself do nothing; therefore, I purpose to do the works that you have sent me to do and not the works of my own imaginations. Thank you for opening my eyes so I can truly see the marvelous things in your law. I open my mouth which is the mouthpiece of the Spirit, for you have given me a mouth of wisdom which will speak on my behalf. Your grace is sufficient for me and my weaknesses are no longer a discouragement. I rely on your perfect strength and will continually praise you, and there I will find rest.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

If we allow our spiritual mindset to be carnal, we will relapse into the pits of selfishness. As we give out of his grace and a heart of gratitude, we become the vessels of mercy and honor that are a brilliant witness and attraction to the lost in this world. Today's world is utterly self-centered. When we become like Jesus Christ and give away the spiritual and material blessings that we have been given, we become the opposite of the negative culture around us. We hold forth the word of life in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. We become a literal dynamo or generator of the power of grace and peace by our lives and continual thanksgiving unto Jesus Christ.

THE WAY WE LIVE: BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
