Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

By Moses Hightower

The Revelation of the Light of His Word and the Identity of the Believer

Series 6.12.1 – Letter #336

I have come to save that which was lost. Do you have another purpose for being sent into the world?

There are many sick people in the world. Who will go and be a physician unto them?

You have spent much time on those who think they are whole. They that are whole do not need a physician but they that are sick. I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. Cease wasting time on those who think they are whole, and spend your time on sinners, and then will you fulfill the purpose that I sent you to fulfill. I am looking for lost sheep, not sheep that have been found. It is the sheep that are hungry and thirsty for righteousness that are ready to be filled. The hungry and thirsty are ready to worship me. They are crying out, "Lord, help me." They are not easily offended and will eat the crumbs that fall from my table. They are people who have great faith. Their great faith pleases me. Go and feed the hungry and thirsty. I have placed a great revival among them.

Do not spend your time biting and devouring one another. You will only be consumed one of another. Vengeance is mine, and I will repay; therefore, do not waste your time on vengeance. Only I have time for it. It will consume all of your energies and divert you from the purpose for which I sent you into the earth. The recent trial that I sent forth into your life was to show you many things. One thing that you should have learned is that everyone who seemed to be is not what they seemed to be. I sent my word into the midst of the people, and it divided them. Had they known me, they would have known my word. They rejected my word; hence, they rejected me. My word is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit and of the joints and marrow and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. There is no creature that is not manifest in my sight, but all things are naked and open unto my eyes. This is the condemnation that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. Everyone that does evil hates the light, neither do they come to the light lest their deeds should be reprov'd. He that does truth comes to the light that their deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in me; therefore, do not worry about those who do not follow you. The word, which is the light, has shined into their lives and condemned them. They love darkness rather than light. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. No man is able to pluck them out of my hand. If you cannot hear my voice now, how will you hear my voice after you are dead?

The hour is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of God, and they that hear shall live. The hour is coming in which all that are in graves shall hear my voice and shall come forth: they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. I know who has the love of God in them. You can only know them by their fruits. You look on the outward appearance, but I look upon the hearts. Leave judgment unto me, and be convinced by the testimony of my word. They do not understand my speech because they cannot hear my word; therefore, they are not my sheep. This is disappointing to you, but my word is true. He that is of God hears my words. They do not hear my words because they are not of God.

Series 6.12.1 – Confession #336

The Lord has come to save that which was lost. This is also my purpose for being sent into the world. There are many sick people in the world. As children of God, we must go and be physicians unto them. I have spent much time on those who think they are whole. They that are whole do not need a physician but they that are sick. God has not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. I have ceased wasting time on those who think they are whole, and I will spend my time on sinners; therefore, I will fulfill the purpose that Jesus sent me to fulfill. The hungry and thirsty are ready to worship him. They are crying out, "Lord, help me." They are not easily offended and will eat the crumbs that fall from the master's table. They are people who have great faith. Their great faith pleases God. I am going forth and feeding the hungry and thirsty. He has placed a great revival among them.

I will not spend my time biting and devouring others. We will only be consumed one of another. Vengeance is the Lord's, and he will repay; therefore, I will not waste my time on vengeance. Only he has time for it. It will consume all of my energies and divert me from the purpose for which he sent me into the earth. ## PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Revelation of the Light of His Word and the Identity of the Believer

Jesus told them that God went to a widow outside of the country and healed lepers outside of Israel because they thought they needed no help. Many times outsiders can do more with the crumbs of what the spoiled children leave than the children do with the whole loaf. It is time for us to arise and take the compassion to the lost coin and the lost sheep. Ingratitude and unthankful spirits have insulated many against the blessing of God and left them unmoved by the tender promptings of the Spirit. We have many who have lain daily at our gates lame and spiritually diseased from their mother's womb. They lay there looking and longing for what is inside the doors of plenty. Great revival is just an opening in the veil away from these who would die to eat what we pick at daily.

In the Old Testament, we are told because of the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart. Many will be revealed in this hour of great shaking. Everyone that is just a pretender will be shaken to the core. God is about to put some lean and hearty souls among us who come from the harshest environments possible. Their faith will be tough and enduring, and their hunger will have such a sharp edge that they will surprise even the leaders of their ability to process everything that is put forth. God's word will winnow the harvest and separate the chaff from the wheat. Its revelation will clearly detail those who are his and expose those who are fraudulent. Our difficulties in this hour are in wanting to bundle up everybody when God has chosen those who we must minister to and those that are not a part of it and are not part of his purpose. God will avenge and judge the hearts of men. We would like to pick and choose, but the Lord has chosen the rejected and the most unlikely. He has chosen those who are head and shoulders above the rest. He will send forth judgment unto victory.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Make sure that you are on my side, for he that is not with me is against me, and he that does not gather with me will be scattered. I will scatter your foes. Do not fear. I have not brought you this far to see you bewildered by the strategies of men. You have come unto this point many times and cried out to me. I have heard your cry in the past, and I hear your cry in this present time. Stand still, and see the rise and the fall of those who oppose you. Be a hearer and a doer of the word of God, for blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

CONFESSION BITES

I am persuaded to be on the Lord's side, for he that is not with him is against him, and he that does not gather with him will be scattered. God will scatter my foes. I do not fear. He has not brought me this far to see me bewildered by the strategies of men. I have come unto this point many times and cried out to him. He has heard my cry in the past, and he has heard my cry in this present time. I have stood still and seen the rise and the fall of those who oppose me. I am determined to be a hearer and a doer of the word of God, for blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Destroy All the Fleshly Appetites and Passions in the Sacrifice of Praise

When a sacrifice is totally consumed, there is nothing left but the ashes. Satan has nothing to build into an image of pride that we will sacrifice unto. God will take the ashes and give us the beauty of the morning of creation and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Our fleshly appetites will cry out for their selfish purposes, but we must silence them in our shouted worship. Condemnation does not have a seat in the congregation of the worshippers. It should always have an eviction notice shoved in its face. Altars of the flesh and passions of self-will result in our destruction. We will be buried in the corruption that eventually swallows up this kind of sacrifice. Our sacrifices of thanksgiving will always exalt the Lord and put our flesh in its place. Expressions of love are exhibited in different ways among many cultures. In the Song of Solomon, the bride is described as wrapped in his arms with one arm embracing and the other beneath her head. Intimacy has been prostituted to the extent in the flesh that we have missed its beauty in the worship of our Beloved. We worship him in the beauty of holiness. We are his and his alone. No other living entity has any of our attention. As we abide in his altars of praise, we will see the battles that would engulf us be engaged and won by our champion of love.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ Lift up your voice and cry aloud, for the days of the end have been ushered upon the earth. Violence has covered the earth as a blanket, and the only safety is the tower of safety, which is my name.

250. Why attempt to hide in my tower of safety if you will not wear my name in baptism?

◆ The light of the world is not insufficient, but it is all sufficient. Your sufficiency is not of yourself, but it is of me. Lift up your voice for the light of the world and proclaim the good news of my death, burial, and resurrection. My death was given to you as a present of love. By my love and my death, I have proclaimed to you my faithfulness.

251. Shall I give my life for you and not provide for you?

252. Shall I give my life for you and not protect you?

253. Shall I give my life for you and not guide you through this life?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Mesa

You have given me this day to rejoice. Therefore, I will rejoice and be glad, for you have called me to seek after the hungry and thirsty. You are drawing them by your Spirit and bringing them to the banqueting table of victory. They are ready to worship you, and their faith pleases you. I lift my voice in thanksgiving for the revival of faith and the feasting of the Rhema that you have sent forth in my life. You have sent forth your word to search the heart of man, and I will not waste my time waiting on vengeance to arrive at the door of my enemies, but I will worship you, the one who fights my battles and brings rest to my soul. Your word is a sifter that will separate the chaff from the wheat, and I am thankful. It is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword. You see all things and you know all things. Nothing is hidden from your sight. I am grateful for your word, which is a light unto my path and lamp unto my feet. I am being called by your voice, and another I will not follow. I praise you, the great Shepherd, for leading me unto victory.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We began in the Spirit, and we will finish in the power of God's Spirit. His Spirit is the love that is unconditional and awesome in our lives. We have been delivered from the power of the kingdom of darkness, and we will be kept by the same grace on a daily basis. We can be confident that the work that he has begun in us will continue on a daily basis. God has placed us on a higher plane of existence and hearing above the mundane murmuring of this world. Instead of negative and evil, we have heard the new things that God has promised to do and is presently bringing to pass. Our lives are not crushed by the burdens and cares of those who observe circumstances, but we are carried in the arms of a gentle Shepherd who leads us in the paths of righteousness. He prepares us a table of victory and every need that we have in our lives.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

Hope and Love Are With You to Walk On the Waters of the Stormy Sea by Faith

Series 6.12.2 – Letter #337

If you believe, then all things are possible. Do you believe? What do you believe?

You must believe that I am and that I am the rewarder of those who diligently seek me. With me, all things are possible. Your faith is small. Spirits have attempted to destroy your faith in me. I will not stand aside and allow this to happen. I am true to my word. I have made promises to you, and I will keep my promises. Do not allow the delays to hinder your faith. I am faithful. Do not lose confidence, for I will not allow those of faith to be alienated from my promises. This is the same faith of the apostles and Abraham. Abraham believed me, and I counted his faith as righteousness. Now you believe, and your effectual, fervent prayers will avail much. I am faithful, and I will not let you fall. Despite the persecution that is going on, remain faithful to your beliefs. Have you been loyal to your beliefs?

I made you a promise and said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." Can I lie?

Do you believe your marriage vows?

Do you believe me?

Do you believe that your wife is having a relationship with someone else?

Do you believe that I am having a relationship with the devil?

Why don't you believe that I am faithful to my vows unto you?

You are being persecuted for your faith. You must learn not to doubt my word and me when you are persecuted. Remain strong in faith, and give glory unto me. Do not stagger at my promises through unbelief, but be strong in faith. Be fully persuaded that what I have promised, I am able to perform. It is impossible for me to lie; therefore, trust me with all your heart. Do not renounce your faith because of the heat of the trial. You must have faith and not allow your faith to be destroyed in this fire. This fire is meant to build your faith, not destroy or minimize it. Stretch forth your faith into the fiery trial, and watch it grow into mountain moving faith. Do not be faithless but believing. You have collided with unbelief. This is no accident. Unbelief intends to run you off the highway of holiness and into the ditch where the blind are falling. Allow me to anoint your eyes with eyesalve that you may see during this time when many are reckless because they walk not by faith. You must learn that when you are confronted with unbelief, not to lose your focus. Unbelief never ceases its war against you. Unbelief is in the darkness, and you are in the light. What fellowship has light with darkness?

Your faith will be contradicted. Do not allow disloyalty to your faith to surface, for disloyalty is also of the darkness. I have revealed myself unto you. Now walk in the steps of Jesus Christ, and walk on the water of my word, and you will not sink. Now abides faith, hope, and charity. Which is the greatest?

I am the hope of glory and love. If I am love and hope, then where is your faith?

I have come looking for faith. I gave it to you. Now where is it?

Give it to me, and crossover this stormy sea while you walk on the waters of this storm.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Hope and Love Are With You to Walk On the Waters of the Stormy Sea by Faith

Hopeless waves crashed upon the shores of empty and void coastlines until a brilliant flash of creative words swept away the darkness and painted the portrait of creation on the canvas of despair. Our God still speaks the same words of hope and love into the storms that would drown us. It seemed that if he sent the disciples into the midst of the storm after he fed the 5,000, he would have provided safe passage. He had a greater purpose in that he did not want them to just handle a miracle but be the miracle in the midst of the storm. Now we can see on every hand the cry of many in the midst of the storms of life, but love put on robes of light in the midst of the night and glides down the stairs of hope to the location of the distressed. He speaks the same powerful words that he spoke that night, and they are brought to their desired haven.

In the storm, we can begin to hear the voices and questions that the enemy will taunt us with. We must arise and tell them to be silent and forbid them to speak into our minds that have been purified by faith. God has not and will not change. We will feel the pressure in our outer bands of imagination to have thoughts that will create even greater storms, but he is still there in the peripheral dimensions of our lives. He will not allow us to be dashed upon the rocks of destruction. His beacon of light welcomes us to a safe harbor. God will allow us to see if we can walk on the waters of the words and the actions of men that he said were like raging waves of the sea foaming out of their own shame. Peter has a word for us. He looked on the boisterous wind and waves and began to sink, but we know that there is a great hand that will lift us above the waves that would pull us under in this hour.

I crown you with joy today. Though you war with powers of darkness, be of great confidence in me. I have subdued all powers. I have given you many precious promises. Did you ask for these promises?

*I will pull back the veil over the lives of those that you behold in the captivity of sin. All you can see with your natural eye are shadowy figures laboring under their own deception. I pull back the curtains now to show you men standing with hands reaching out for something that is not a fraud. I want to remove the veil from your eyes to see the greatness in me that you have never seen, then I can be seen in you by the light of greatness they have never seen, and they will run to me. ## PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

Lord, I believe that you are not a respecter of persons. When you promised me and said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" that meant that you would be with me always, even unto the end of the age. At every turn, you still speak the same words of hope and love into the storms of my life to sweep away all the darkness and despair that would try to drown me. I am grateful, for your grace in not allowing spirits to destroy my faith in you, for I know that you have a greater purpose in that you will not stand aside and allow this to happen. I have a heritage to remain strong in faith and give glory unto you. When the fire comes my way, it is meant to build my faith. In the midst of the storm of life when I can't find my way, you are right there to provide a safe passage to my desired haven. I thank you for being true to your word. You have not and will not change. Your desire for me is that I look now at the impossibilities before me and see them for the last time, for you will show me of the power of your might and your wisdom. I now see on every hand the cry of many that are distressed in the midst of the storms of life. I am very grateful that you are taking care of all these things in the dimensions of my life and the lives of others. I worship and praise you for giving me faith to enter into the dimension of the miraculous. You will not allow me to be dashed upon the rocks of destruction, but I will crossover this stormy sea of despair into in the distant realms of possibility. For all this I give you praise.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God is a very present help in the time of need. When David said in Psalms that the Lord heard this poor man, he was not saying that he was impoverished in money but helpless against the thing that had come against him. Very here in the Psalms is the Hebrew word Meod. It means that God will take up every ember of a nearly burned out fire and pile more wood on it and build a bonfire of help that will consume the attack of the enemy against us. God's word is like a fire. The fire shut up in the bones of prophets these last days has been released in their mouths. In the midst of the storm, Jesus Christ will still speak to the winds and waves and bring peace to our troubled sea.

Series 6.12.3 – Letter #338

You received grace in my sight. What you are becoming is by this grace that you have received. You did not merit this grace. It was freely given to you because of my love. I did not have to give you favor, but I gave you favor because of my loving-kindness. I am constantly bestowing upon you protection, for I have sanctified you by my grace. You labor but not because you are good. You labor because of my grace laboring through you. I am always with you to do exceeding, abundantly, above all that you ask or think according to the power that is working in you. Unto everyone is given this grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. You found grace in my sight, and I dealt kindly and truly with you. You were a stranger, but yet you found grace in my eyes. Be thankful, and bless my name forever, for there are those who have ignorantly rejected this grace.

Many great men and women have been delivered to the sword, to captivity, to the spoil, and to confusion of face. I have shown you great grace and have enlightened your eyes and given you a reviving. Many great men did not receive this grace and favor in my sight but have received shame instead. I have given you a tongue of a ready writer and made you fairer than the children of men. I have poured grace into your lips and blessed you. I have looked upon your face and made my sun to shine upon you. I anointed you. I gave you grace and glory and caused you to walk uprightly that no good thing is withheld from you. You are blessed because my grace has caused you to trust in me.

I caused you to walk uprightly and to keep my instructions. My instructions have become ornaments of grace unto your head and a chain about your neck. You walk in safety because of the grace given you. Your feet do not stumble. When you lie down, you lie down unafraid, and your sleep is sweet. You are not afraid of sudden fear, neither the desolation of the wicked. All these things have come to you because of my love that I have poured upon your head. Wisdom has been exalted in your life. Wisdom has given you an ornament of grace. As a crown about your head, grace has been delivered to you by wisdom. You have been promoted by wisdom, and you have exalted me as Lord of your life; therefore, are you wearing the adornment of favor.

I have filled your lips with grace, and now shall the king become your friend. My gift within you shall bring you before great men, and the rewards of grace shall be bestowed upon you. I found you as a wretch undone and gave you grace. I loved you with an everlasting love and drew you unto me with loving-kindness. Rejoice in my presence, and adorn yourself with the garments of praise. Go forth in the dances of a warrior, and bring down judgment upon the governors of the earth. No mountain shall stand in your way, for I have spoken unto your mountain with the voice of grace. I have shouted to your mountains and cried, "Grace, grace unto your mountains." I have placed the grace of God upon you. Now go forth and labor by this same grace.

I received grace in God's sight. What I am becoming is by this grace that I have received. I did not merit this grace. It was freely given to me because of his love. He did not have to give me favor, but he gave me favor because of his loving-kindness. The Lord is constantly bestowing upon me protection, for he has sanctified me by his grace. RE: RHEMA - Great Grace Is Upon Us, and We Can Give Witness of the Resurrection

He has made all grace abound to us that we, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. He has created a people formed by the hands of grace that are zealous of good works. We do not do because we have to but because there is a burning love to complete what grace started in the earthly ministry of Jesus Christ. Grace propels us beyond our own abilities because it is the purest form of creative power. When we are not being constantly created and changed, we are in the power of something other than grace. We have found the grace that lifted us above the citizens of the economy of God. We were the foreigners, but he has given us abundant help and grace that far exceeds our needs. His promises have flowed to us when judgment should have buried us. Many have failed and have been cut off because they forsook their own mercies. We could have been destroyed or maimed beyond recognition hundreds of times, but grace painted our picture in a different frame. God has bathed us in mercy when we should have been abandoned to our own madness. Screaming creatures of the night should have been our companions, but angels and promises have been our pillow.

Grace has endowed us with beauty and glory that would attract others to us to behold the grace and the blessing of him who loves us. Wisdom and understanding beyond our reach has been our treasure chest of blessing. Infinite understanding has opened its doors to those who have been robed as the princes of mercy in the courts of grace. We have been washed by his blood and made prophets, priests, and kings now in this dimension of time. God has given us the tongue of the learned without all the years of training in oracles of speech. His storehouse of ability is given by grace to those who will prepare meals and feasts of it to those who so desperately hunger for it. He will open our mouths in fountains and rivers of grace to flow to the thirsty. Resurrection will be the daily event at the doors of lips that have been filled with the sweet nectar of grace. We will dance in triumph as the mountains are removed with shouting of grace all the day long!

◆ Do not be beguiled by the appearance of peace, but know of a truth that a war does rage within. The war is hidden by the tongues that are forked. Man could not wrestle away my gift of the land, but by subtlety has the enemy forged a method for prying away the land of promise. It is given unto the sons of Israel. Before the throne of man's peace have they been drawn, and now shall they see that the Messiah has come. He came unto them, yet they did not know him. Now shall the pressure of false peace bring them to their knees that they might cry more for Messiah to come. Messiah shall not come again until they shall say, "Blessed is he who does come in the name of the Lord."

256. Will man undo the word of the Lord, which is forever settled in heaven?

◆ Do not utter these words without the expectation of persecution. These words are from divine origin and from the knowledge of eternal understanding. I have brought you forth for such a time as this. Do not be silent and think that you shall save yourself, for the light within you cannot be silenced. It is a speaking light, not a dark, dismal light that cannot speak. Men who destroy the lives of the innocent now proclaim, "Praise God."

257. Why say, "Praise God" with your lips if you destroy me in my innocence?

Lord, I thank you that you have made all grace abound toward me. Your grace allows me to have all sufficiency in all things that I may abound to every good work. I know that I do not merit your grace, but you gave it to me because of your love toward me. I appreciate the favor that you have granted me and I am grateful that your grace propels me beyond my own abilities. You have sanctified me by your grace and bestowed your divine protection upon me. Thank you for your grace that is laboring through me. I know that I was a stranger to the covenant of promise but your grace allowed me to become a partaker of your covenant. Your promises flowed to me when judgment should have buried me. Your wisdom and understanding have been my treasure chest of blessings. I know that I could have been destroyed and maimed beyond recognition hundreds of times, but your grace sustained me and painted my picture in a different frame. Thank you for bathing me in mercy when I should have been abandoned to my own madness. I recognize that screaming creatures of the night should have been my companion, but angels and promises have been my pillow. I am grateful that I have been washed by your blood and all my sins are covered. Glory, honor, and praise be to your precious name.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Elijah the prophet told the king that three times was not enough to smite the ground with the bow and arrows. We are God's battle bow and weapons of war in this hour. Grace is represented by the number five in scripture. Three is the number of measures in the dimension that we see in. Grace is one dimension beyond the four that is beyond the ability of man. When we continue in grace it takes us beyond the dimensions of our limited ability and into the unlimited ability of God. In Ephesians 3:20, we read that God is able to do exceeding, abundantly, above all that we ask or think. In the Greek text, there are really five modifiers of the ability here. God's much more is always greater than anyone and anything that tries to rob us of the peace and power that grace had bestowed in our lives.

Series 6.12.4 – Letter #339

I am full of grace and truth. Of my fullness, you all have received and grace for grace. Moses gave the law, but grace and truth came by me. When I come into a person's life, I bring this same grace and truth with me. If only you had the right perception of grace, you would look upon it and be glad. My grace is sufficient and upon you. With great power, go and give witness of the resurrection. As you go, continue in the grace of God and speak boldly in my name. And I will confirm the word of my grace with signs and wonders by your hands. I am going to continue confirming souls; therefore, continue in the faith. You must, through much tribulation, enter into the kingdom of God. Do you have to be recommended to the grace of God over and over to go forth to do the work that I have given you to do?

The kingdom of God suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. Grace is working a holy violence for you. Do not be disturbed because of the attitudes of brethren against you, for brethren shall deliver brethren to death, and you shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. He that endures unto the end shall be saved. You were persecuted in one city. You fled into this city. Now accept this as the grace of God working in your life. You are not above me. You should be pleased to have suffered as I have suffered. If they have called me false, is it a wonder that they call you false?

Do not fear them, for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed and hid that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak in light. What you hear in the ear, that preach upon the housetops. Do not fear these men that can only kill the body but are not able to kill the soul. Fear me that is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. You are better than birds and not one of them fall to the ground without me seeing it. I tell you that the hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear, for you are of more value to me than birds. Do you have the faith of a bird?

Then rejoice that you are counted worthy to suffer shame for my name's sake. Many listen for the sound of peace, and they shall hear the sound of false peace, for when they shall say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. You ought to be at peace among yourselves, but all will not follow peace. There must be heresies among you that they that are approved may be made manifest. There are false brethren who have been sent in among you to spy out the liberty that you have in Christ Jesus so that they might bring you into bondage. Do not give place by subjection to them. The truth of the gospel must continue with you. I accept no man's person; therefore, these who seem to be should make no matter to you. They cannot add anything to you, neither can they take anything from you. I committed the gospel unto you, and I am mighty in you by the grace of God. Do not allow your soul to be subverted by these false brethren. They say that there are no prophets today, but I say, "I have given to my church apostles, prophets, teachers, pastors, and evangelists." Do not be troubled by their words. They are grievous wolves that will not spare the flock; therefore, take heed unto yourself and to all the flock. Teach my people the truth about my voice that these people speaking perverse things do not draw them away.

Hear ye the word of my grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. The word of my grace shall keep you from the false apostles and deceitful workers who transform themselves into the apostles of Christ. Remember that Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light; therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness. Their end shall be according to their works. You fell into perils among false brethren, but remember I said, "Do not believe every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God." Many false prophets are gone into the world. You know who are of God by the ones that hear you, for he that knows God hears you, but he that is not of God does not hear you. Hereby, know you the spirit of truth and the spirit of error. I have sent the sword of variance to separate the darkness from the light. Do not think that I am come to send peace on earth. I came not to send peace but a sword. I am come to set a man at variance against his father and the daughter against her mother and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's foes shall be those of his own household. If you love father or mother more than me, you are not worthy of me. If you love son or daughter more than me, you are not worthy of me. He that does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. He that finds his life shall lose it, and he that loses his life for my sake shall find it. Be prepared to lose your life for my sake, then shall you find it.

RE: RHEMA: The Sufficiency of Grace to Continue to the End and Avoid the Perils of False Brethren

Grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. We have received that fullness and grace for grace. Jesus was a prophet like unto Moses. He did all his works by speaking them. We are called to do the same and greater works. God promised in Luke21:15 that we would be given a mouth and wisdom that no adversary would be able to gainsay or resist. Gainsay is to speak against the word of the Lord. Mouth here is the Greek word stoma that means the edge of a sword. God has placed the sword of the spirit in our mouth and no adversity will be able to prevent it from coming to pass. All who interfere and make fun will be like the man that the king leaned on him that said if God should open the windows of heaven and the prophet told him that he would see it but not get to partake of it. Everyone who makes fun of or ridicules the prophet and his message will see it but will be run over by the stampede of those who are hungry to receive it! We do not have to fret ourselves with those who are in love with a fearful or negative report. We are as Joshua and Caleb that say that the Lord is well able to give us these promises, and we will crossover into the Promised Land as others wander in the wilderness of doubt and fear.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I praise you today because I have received a multitude of gifts and talents through the gift of the Holy Ghost. All of your gifts and talents operate through your grace and for your glory. I open my mouth and swing the sword of the Spirit valiantly, for I trust that you are guiding me through every swath with your divine ordination. Every word that you inspire me to speak has a divine origin and is filled with power and authority. You do not have idle words in your vocabulary. You say what you mean and you mean what you say. I have placed my trust in you, for your word reigns supreme over all other powers, dominions, laws or entities. All things are subject to your authority and headship. You are the ultimate thesaurus of living and powerful expressions. With every word that you breathe out, you create. I am so thankful to have you in my life, and I appreciate your inexhaustible grace, your love that never quits, and your mercy which never gives up on me. Though all men may hate me and seek my hurt, I am secure in the everlasting arms of the everlasting God. You are my fortress and my strong tower of safety. I accept your Spirit and direction in my life. Lead me and guide me, for I trust in your unlimited wisdom.

You are the God of all grace, and I am assured that you have my best interest at heart. When you make a decision in my life, you make it with all knowledge, all wisdom, and all love. You paid the most expensive price for my soul, and this assures me that I have an unlimited measure of grace backing me every step of the way; therefore, with great confidence do I come into the throne of grace and access the mercy that is here for me in my time of need. You are my kinsman redeemer, and you will bail me out of every situation, trouble, or dilemma. No matter what anyone or any circumstance threatens me with, I know that you have an unlimited supply of life, abundance, power, and ability for any of life's problems. My healing, my deliverance, my financial blessing, and my breakthrough are all only a word away; therefore, I am not afraid of the unknown, neither negative reports nor uncertainties. As I open my heart, mind, and spirit unto you, I believe that you will speak Lord and proclaim your report in my hearing. You have blessed me with the ability to hear your voice, and this is one of the most precious commodities in the salvation experience. I yield my vessel unto you today, and I desire to hear your beautiful, life-giving promises of victory and blessings that no man has ever heard, neither have they entered into any man's heart.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Moses had a difficult time speaking, and God asked him who had made man's mouth? God has made our mouth, and he will fill our lives and the treasure of our mind and spirit with the speech that is always with grace and seasoned with salt. Out of the heart that is inspired by the grace that we could not deserve issues the rolling sea of inspiration that will rise above all the floods of despair that may try to inundate our lives. Joshua was not afraid as Moses was to speak the impossible and commanded the sun and moon of his day to stand still. God asked Job if he could speak to the morning so that it would know its place, and we as the church have the authority to command the day and the night. Grace has shown us that we do not have to believe an evil or negative report. We have the mantle of Joshua to walk into the Promised Land and command the day to be where God had ordained it for us. Redemption has drawn the portrait of the perfection that God planned for us. We have been given the tongue of the just and the words of grace that will fly upon the eternal scroll of God's blessing for our lives in and unending saga of love.

Lay Up for Yourself Treasures in Heaven

Series 6.12.5 – Letter #340

Every man shall be rewarded according to his works. Lay up treasures in heaven where thieves do not break through nor steal. Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Do not lay up for yourself treasures upon earth where moth and rust corrupt. What have you gained if you have made gold your hope or said to the fine gold, "Thou are my confidence"?

What do you have if you have great wealth and hands that have gotten much?
If destruction from me becomes a terror unto you and you become the enemy of God, what do you have on your side?

Do not allow your heart to be secretly enticed, for I shall punish all evildoers. Do not deny me, the God that is above, by your works. Be careful that you do not secretly rejoice at the destruction of those who hate you or lift up yourself when evil finds them. Do not suffer your mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul, but pray for those who have despitely used you. Learn to keep your mouth with a bridle and to not sin with your tongue. Your days are as a vapor, and your age is as nothing. At your best state, you are altogether vanity. It does not profit you anything to walk in a vain show of pride, for if you gather up riches, who shall gather them up after you?

Place your trust in me, and wait on me. From me comes salvation. I am your rock and your defense. I will not suffer you to be moved; therefore, do not delight yourself in lies. Many people bless with their mouths, but they curse inwardly. Wait on me, your God. I am your hope. Place your expectation in me. I am your rock and your salvation. I am your refuge. Trust in me at all times. I am not a respecter of persons. Men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie, for when they are both laid in my balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. If your riches increase, do not set your heart upon them, for power belongs unto me only. Mercy belongs unto me, and I will render to every man according to his work. When pride comes, then comes shame, but with the lowly, is wisdom. Be filled with integrity, and it shall guide you. Only righteousness shall deliver you. Riches do not profit you in the day of wrath. A wicked man shall fall by his own wickedness, but the righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way. Lay up your treasure in heaven.

How much mercy and love have you laid up in heaven?

How much favor have you given others?

Series 6.12.5 – Confession #340

Every man shall be rewarded according to his works. I have laid up treasures in heaven where thieves do not break through nor steal. Where my treasure is, there my heart is also. I will not lay up treasures for myself upon earth where moth and rust corrupt. I have gained nothing if I made gold my hope or said to the fine gold, "Thou are my confidence." I have nothing if I have great wealth and hands that have gotten much. If destruction from the Lord becomes a terror unto me and I become the enemy of God, I have nothing on my side.

I purpose not to allow my heart to be secretly enticed, for the Lord shall punish all evildoers. By grace, I determine to never deny Jesus by my works, the God that is above, but I am careful that I do not secretly rejoice at the destruction of those who hate me or lift myself up when evil finds them. I will not suffer my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to their soul, but I will pray for those who have despitely used me. I have learned to keep my mouth with a bridle and not sin with my tongue. My days are as a vapor, and my age is as nothing. At my best state, I am altogether vanity. It does not profit me anything to walk in a vain show of pride, for if I gather up riches, there are many others who will gather them up after me.

I have placed my trust in Jesus and have waited on him. From God comes salvation. He is my rock and my defense. He will not suffer me to be moved; therefore, I am not delighting myself in lies. Many people bless with their mouths, but they curse inwardly. I have waited on the Lord, my God. He is my hope. I have placed my expectation in him. Jesus is my rock and my salvation. He is my refuge. I trust in him at all times. He is not a respecter of persons. A wicked man shall fall by his own wickedness, but the righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way. I have laid up my treasure in heaven. I need to lay up more mercy and love in heaven because to whom much is given, much is required. I must also give more favor to others as God has given me much favor.

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA: Lay Up for Yourself Treasures in Heaven

We have this treasure in an earthen vessel that the excellency of power is not of us but of God. Our treasures here are not the material items that can perish in flood or fire but the things that last forever. People in this world talk about the time they spend accumulating things. We talk of the time that we have spent with the King. We have riches of his grace that are in the treasure rooms of the throne room and not on the stage of fear and acceptance. In Matt. 13:52, we are the scribes that bring forth from our treasure things both old and new. Our tongue is as the pen of a ready writer. A ready writer was the Old Testament scribe. We have things that the Lord has spoken and done for us that we treasure, and we shall see the gold of the finished work that he has promised in our future. We are blessed and loaded daily with his benefits.

You are given grace to love me. I have called you according to my purpose, not the purpose of man. You are being oppressed. He who oppresses you, oppresses me, for I have sent you. Now behold the power of God working on your behalf. I shall overwhelm these things and subdue them under your feet. I have already conquered them beyond all of their resistance. Be confident. I have crushed your enemies and your foes. You know me, the one that is from the beginning. You have overcome the wicked one. I speak to you as one who knows the Father. The word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one. Be assured of total victory. The things against you have collided with me. ## PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Rigo Toledo

I come this day and magnify your powerful, mighty name, for you alone are worthy Jesus to receive all glory, honor, and power. My desire is to lay up my treasure with you, where the moth and rust will not corrupt. I praise you for granting the grace to have the desire to seek you on a continual basis. I can do nothing of my own power, but I can do all things through the power of your mighty grace. I am grateful that your mercy will keep my heart from being secretly enticed. Your great love restrains me this day, and I am held together by the word of your power. Your word O Lord is strengthening me, washing me, and preparing the new man that is created in righteousness and true holiness. I have been begotten of you, being born again, not of corruptible seed but of the incorruptible seed by your Rhema word, which lives and abides forever. Grant me the continual desire to love and not hate, not to rejoice in the destruction of those that hate me but that I may pray for those who despitefully use me and speak all manner of evil. You have instructed me not to suffer my mouth to sin by wishing the destruction of my enemies. You are love, and I thank you that you are enabling the aspiration to love my enemies. My days are as a vapor, and I must focus my life on you, the author of love. I thank you, Lord, for preparing me today while it is still called today. Amen!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our treasures are not of this life but treasures laid up in heaven before us. We are also blessed with the riches of his grace in our life here on earth with the taste of the powers of the world to come. We have the earnest of our inheritance here in the riches of his glory and grace. Mercy and forgiveness have been given to us in abundance on a daily basis. We are poor and wretched when we cannot forgive others no matter what they have done. Our lives have been liberated by the release from the condemnation of death in our redemption. His words come to us as the manna of grace daily. We should provide a feast with those who are around us of the words of grace that have been spoken into our lives.

Do not labor for the wind. You came forth of your mother's womb naked, and naked shall you return to go as you came. You shall take nothing of your labor that you may carry away in your hand. Do not labor for the meat that perishes. I give to every man a portion. Every man to whom I have given riches and wealth should rejoice in his labor, for it is all the gift of God. Trust in me always, for neither your silver nor your gold shall be able to deliver you in the day of my wrath. Why build more and bigger places to dwell in if you have not prepared your soul for eternity?

What will you do if your soul is required of you?

Whose things shall those things be that are in your bigger and better places?

Do not lay up your treasure for yourself, but lay up your treasure in heaven that you may be rich toward me. Your life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment. You are better than birds. They neither sow nor reap. They neither have storehouses nor barns, and I feed them. Can you add one inch to your stature by taking thought?

If you are not able to do that thing which is least, why take thought for the rest?

The lilies of the field grow. They do not toil. They do not spin, and Solomon in all of his glory was not dressed like one of these. If I clothe the grass that is in the field today and is cast into the oven tomorrow, will I not clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Do not consider what you shall eat or what you shall drink, neither allow your mind to doubt. I know that you have need of these things. Seek first the kingdom of God and my righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. You continue seeking the things that I naturally add to those who seek the kingdom and my righteousness. Cease wasting your time, and get busy in the kingdom. I will add all the things that you seek in due time if you seek the kingdom and my righteousness. I have given you a kingdom and placed it within you. Get busy laboring in this internal kingdom. You do not have to worry about thieves stealing your treasure in heaven, for no thief can approach this kingdom. Moth cannot corrupt this internal kingdom. You do not need to insure the treasure of this heavenly kingdom. Men do not have to insure that which they distribute to the poor and give away. You have insured earthly things, but have you laid up treasure in heaven?

Godliness and contentment are great gain. You brought nothing into this world, and you can carry nothing out of this world. Be content if you have food and raiment. They that will be rich fall into temptations, snares, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts. These things drown many, for the love of money is the root of all evil. Do not err from the truth and be pierced with many sorrows. Lay hold on eternal life. You have been called unto life eternal. Fight the good fight of faith, and flee the evil of the age, but follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, patience, meekness, and love.

We have not brought up an evil report of the land, but the message of faith is in our hearts and on our tongues. We are the weapons of God's indignation against sin and slander. We are his sword and battle bow. We will not be weary in well doing and sayings. Our purpose is not to faint. Faint here is to cause the string of a bow that shoots arrow to relax or go limp. We will shoot the arrows and strike the ground with them many times and not just a few. These Arrows are of God's deliverance. God has promised to bend Judah as our praise and to fill it with Ephraim. Ephraim is the Lord causing us to be fruitful in the land of our affliction. Affliction is the Hebrew word for beat down, brow beat, or depression. When the enemy would try to beat us down we will arise in faith, swing the sword of the Spirit, and shoot the arrows of praise. We are not seeking the things beneath but above. Our conversation is in heaven and our affections are on things of God. Lust is not on the lunch table of our lives. We are feasting on the unconditional love of God that works in our faith in a mighty way. We will not be absorbed in the trivial pursuit of the temporary pleasures here, but our faith tells us of the eternal things that will never pass away.

Eternal triumph is the symphony of our praise. His victory over death, hell, and the grave has loosed everything the enemy has tried to hide from us. The thief will have to hide in the shadows of the light of revelation. Revelation's lightning has lit the dawn of the morning of praise with the day star arising in our hearts. Love has brought its wind of refreshing to lift us up on wings of inspiration. Our paths drop with the fatness of his blessing. All of creation dances in harmony with the song of redemption. Through every event, we look into the unseen for that which is about to break forth into the spotlight of his grace. Our song and praise shall rise to him as the incense of our soul. God has already granted us the triumph for which we have longed.

It will embrace us in the arms of our friend as we worship at his throne.

I thank you, Lord, for placing faith within me so that I don't get caught up in bringing up an evil report of the land but will speak the message of faith which is in my heart and tongue. I am grateful for the privilege and the opportunity to shine for you and to be used as a sword and battle bow for your glory. It is encouraging to know that those that wait on you shall renew their strength; therefore, I will not be weary in well doing. I am thankful for the grace to run this race and to not faint that I may obtain the prize that is set before me. I rejoice at having received your precious promises, which assure me that I will be fruitful in the land of my affliction. It is strengthening to understand that when my enemies try to beat me down, I will arise in faith, swing the sword of the Spirit, and shoot the arrows of praise. It is a pleasure to be able to set my affections on things above and not on earthly things that are beneath. My conversation is in heaven, and my affections are set on you, my Lord and Savior. It is so fulfilling to me to be a part of the feasting table of your unconditional love that works in me in a mighty way. We will shout the arrows of praise in the bow of Judah according to Zechariah 9:13. Arrows here are the arrows of Ephraim. Ephraim means that the Lord will make me fruitful in the land of our affliction. Afflicting here in Genesis is the Hebrew word for depression. Joseph's fruitfulness was that God made him ruler and in authority over the very thing that would keep him down. Grace has done the same for us. I have magnified my mercy, and you have found grace in my sight. You should have died in your sins. Hell should have been your lot, but I allowed your soul to live. Do not look back at the world, for there is nothing there but the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life. Do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If you love the world, the love of the Father is not in you. The world will pass away and the lust thereof, but he that doeth the will of God abides forever. The world hated me before it hated you. If men hate you, then are they of the world or of the truth?

If you were of the world, the world would love its own, but because you are not of the world, it hates you. I have chosen you out of the world; therefore, the world hates you. You are not greater than your Lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they have not kept my sayings, why do you expect them to keep yours?

They are doing all these things to you because of my name's sake because they know not him that sent you. My sheep hear my voice. Why do you think that they reject the voice of God and the Rhema word?

I sent you to speak on my behalf. If I had not sent you and you had not spoken Rhema in their ears, then they had not had sin, but now they have no cloak for their sin. He that hates you, hates me also. I sent you to bear witness of the truth, and they refused you. You have done what I sent you to do. The truth has been preached, and the grace that I desired to give them has been prophesied. Do not think more highly of yourself because I have used you. Through the grace that has been given you, accept a right mind, and by the mercies of God, present your body a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind that you may prove what is that good, acceptable, and perfect will of God. Continue prophesying according to the proportion of faith. Show mercy with cheerfulness, and allow your love to flow without dissimulation. Be kindly affectionate to others with brotherly kindness, in honor, preferring one another.

I separated you from your mother's womb, and now I separate you unto myself for these last days. Come aside from the noise of brethren, and listen to the call of grace. I will reveal myself in you and those who follow you that you may preach me among the people of the world. Cease conferring with flesh and blood, and come and reason with me. I will make you a mighty fisher of men. If you go in the path of men, you will miss the outpouring of my Spirit upon the hungry and the thirsty.

Many people have not heard the Rhema from your mouth because men have alienated you from the people in your fellowship. I will send you in another direction that the multitudes that I have chosen to hear the Rhema word will be blessed by the words of my mouth. I am rich in mercy, for my great love wherewith I have loved you, even when you were dead in sins, have I quickened you together with Christ. I saved you by grace, raised you up together, and made you sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come I might show the exceeding riches of my grace in my kindness toward you through Christ. It is by grace that you are saved through faith and that not of yourselves. It is the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast.

Beware that you are not entangled in legalism in these last days. Beware of making things sin that I have not made sin, for where there is no law, there is no transgression. You will reap the wrath of God on yourself and those who follow you because you will make faith void and the promise of none effect. Remember, the promise that Abraham should be the heir of the world was not to him or to his seed through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If they that are of the law be heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of none effect because the law works wrath, for where no law is, there is no transgression. Hear my words. I make you free from the legalities of men. You have not won many souls because of this entanglement with things that I have not made sin. A little leaven leavens the whole lump. Lay aside your pride, and come walk with me by faith. I will show you new pathways of liberty.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA: The Blessedness of Man Is to Those of Faith, Not to Those of the Law

Against such there is no law, so says the word after enumerating the fruit of the Spirit. Spiritual life is the result of the indwelling residence of the one who is the law of his word, law of faith, law of the spirit of life and the perfect law of liberty. We are not at liberty to do whatever we want, but we are liberated to allow the desire to live holy and be like him to abound in our daily lives. We are not controlled by a "have to do" existence, but we are serving him out of the gratitude of our hearts. Our desire is not how little can I do and make it, but how much can I do in the kingdom? Whatsoever is not of faith is sin. Blessings and joy in abundance come in floods to those who do not buy into the negativity of this system, but they have been set free from above. Grace has appeared to teach us to deny ungodliness and to live righteously and godly in this present, evil world. We do not use our liberty as a cloak or a license. One of the rivers of living water that flows out of us is the faith that we live by. It is not our faith, but his faith that makes us more than conquerors in him. There are times that the enemy attacks our faith in strange ways. We have all confidence that the Lord does speak to us because it comes to pass and is confirmed by his word. Yet spirits of fear can come in and say things that sound spiritual but are based in fear and not in faith and bring us into bondage. We try the spirits, and then God testifies to us.

Recently, I was praying and the Lord said to me,

"You just do not realize how much that I am for you. I give you dreams about heaven, and you will listen to words and images of hell. I have anointed you when you speak of my power, love, and grace, and you would anoint thoughts of fear. Receive not them into your house. Realize how much I love you, and then there is more after that."

Legalizers may come in many forms and personalities, but we will not be entangled with them. Resentment will not rule our spirit because we have been redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus unto the dimensions that God has placed us in.

CONFESSION BITES

By Moses Hightower

Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. The anointing of my Spirit is upon the church, those called out by me and granted my name and my Spirit. This mighty anointing destroys every yoke. Go and say, "Come and learn of Jesus. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him. His yoke is easy, and his burden is light." Many are yoked to another spirit and do not realize it. Many are deceived in this hour. Go and turn them from darkness unto light with the words that I will place in your mouth.

I am walking in the Spirit; therefore, I will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. The anointing of his Spirit is upon the church, those called out by him and granted his name and his Spirit. This mighty anointing destroys every yoke. I am going and I will declare to all that will hear, "Come and learn of Jesus. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him. His yoke is easy, and his burden is light." Many are yoked to another spirit and do not realize it. Many are deceived in this hour. I am going and turning them from darkness unto light with the words that God has placed in my mouth.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - A Network of Worshippers Transmitting the Message of Victory Over the Waves of the Spirit

Eternity rolls out the schematic of the times. There is a framework that can be superimposed over the events of life. As the word of the Lord was line upon line to fit a framework together, we can create a framework of the Rhema word over the events of our lives. As God's people freely speak his words in praise and prophecy, we will draw the details of our lives in harmony with God's plan.

Darkness cannot swallow up the light that is in the words of those who are the light of the world. God is ordering our steps and directing our path as we acknowledge him. Our communication is not in the parables of peace but in the declarations of victory. We do not muffle the shouts of deliverance, but we boldly shoot them like arrows on the inspiration of the winds. We will broadcast the impulses that are greater than any electric generator. Our generator of praise and wavelength is the eternal light of our salvation. Jonah changed his tune from a leaving song to one that said salvation is of the Lord. God desires that we mature in all utterance. We are to become the master of the harmonies and dialects of the power of the infinite structure of the infinite one. Infinite victories are the inheritance of those who treasure him as the only treasure worth having in our lives. If our mouth is continually filled with his praise, then there will be no room for the negative statements that serve only to pull us down. Let us engage and agree together in a symphony of praise.

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ You will not miss what I have promised you. I have given you grace. My grace is sufficient. Grace is given to you so that you will not miss the catching away of my bride. If you believe that, then also believe that you will not miss the promise of abundant life. Do not sing, “I am going up yonder to be with my Lord” if you do not believe that you are here with me to receive abundant life and prosperity.

270. Am I a liar?

◆ Then I have promised both.

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tony Johnson

Lord, I am so grateful for the grace that I have found in your sight. Knowing just how wretched and undeserving I am, you still gave me the best that you had to offer in that you laid down your life for me while I was yet in my sins. Thank you for changing my carnal mind of death into a spiritual mind of life and peace. Because of your grace, I now have a spiritual appetite and a desire to serve you rather than chase after all that is in the world. I rejoice in the freedom and liberty you have given from above as blessings and joy flood my life in abundance. Your love has overwhelmed my soul and given me a new desire to strive to do more in your kingdom. Ninety-nine and a half just won't do. Your love lifted me higher unto and now I have a "get to" attitude rather than the "have to" attitudes of the past. Gratitude is what flows from my heart just as the rivers of living water you promised would come from the bellies of the believers.

By the faith you have placed within me, I am now able to present my body a living sacrifice, holy, and acceptable unto you which is my reasonable service, and for this I am grateful. Words cannot express the appreciation I have for the mercy, the grace, the right mind, and the renewed thinking you give me each day that I live. Fear has been defeated by your perfect love and bondage has been removed by the power of your blood. I thank you for reminding me just how much you love me by giving me dreams of heaven and removing the images of hell from my presence, and for anointing me to speak of your power, love, and grace while dispelling the thoughts of fear. Thank you for removing my feet from the courtrooms of the legalities of men and placing them in the pathways of liberty. I worship and praise your holy name as I walk on in faith believing you have already ordered my steps.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

Grace has healed and captured the runaway thoughts of our minds and captivated them with the love of God that is beyond belief. Our minds are not the manufacturing plant for the menacing mind-sets of fear. We have been set free from the spirit of fear by the love that casts out all fear. Jesus Christ came to deliver those who all their lifetime had been subjugated to the terrors of fear. By grace, we have been adopted into the family that does not fixate on false and erroneous statements. His Spirit has set us free from all the laws or mandates of the law of sin and death. Our conscience has been purged from dead works that include condemnation and judgmentalism. Legalism has been sentenced to oblivion by the light of grace that lit a bleak world in the beginning. All the residents of the formless void must have shouted toward heaven and attempted to declare, "It will never be!" Yet, God said in his grace, "Let there be and there was!" Jesus Christ who is in us is still silencing the voices that would claim otherwise. He is still bringing a continual new creation of good things into our lives.

*This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18*

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken,
who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8*

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
