Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

The Loving-kindness of God Reveals the Need to Repent of Covetousness and Idolatry

Series 6.12.8 – Letter #343

My loving-kindness is enough for you in this hour of failure and great falling away. I have more than a legal obligation towards you. I have generously expressed my mercy and loyalty toward you. My love toward you is steadfast. I am faithful. I have given you an everlasting covenant and the sure mercies of David. My kindness toward you is far beyond any legal agreement; therefore, I will always be merciful to you. Be merciful to others, and love it. You needed redemption from all the things that were against you, and I abounded toward you in loving-kindness.

My love will last forever. It will preserve you and cast out all your fears. I have called you and chosen you. I do not forsake my covenant because you have been unfaithful. Although you will be disciplined for your unfaithfulness, you can count on my faithfulness. I will abundantly pardon you and have mercy upon everyone that returns unto me. My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, for as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. I have sent my word out of my mouth, and it shall not return to me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I send it. My going forth is prepared as the morning. I have come forth unto you as the rain. Be merciful to others as I am unto you, for I desire mercy and not sacrifice.

Many people who call themselves priests murder the names of the innocent. This is lewd. There is whoredom among the people, for the horrible things of idolatry are committed without a conscience that is grieved. I will bring conviction in the midst of my people again. By the mercies of God, conviction will grasp the hearts of the people again. I am the Lord, who is merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. You have found grace in my sight. I desire to give this same unmerited favor to others though they are stiff-necked. My people are covetous and idolatrous. I am a jealous God, for my name is Jealous. They cannot worship any other god. They call upon me, but their hearts are far from me. Go and declare my realness and the need to repent.

RE: The Loving-kindness of God Reveals the Need to Repent of Covetousness and Idolatry

Romans 2:4 is the principle of repentance that never changes in all our lives from the time that we are saved until we go on to glory. The riches of his goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering are the components of the goodness that leads us to repentance. Repentance because of his loving-kindness will cause us to forsake and abandon our pursuit of selfish advantage and egotistical mania that seize so many in this hour. Repentance is the glorious liberty that many refuse because it makes us to see ourselves as we really are without his mercy and forgiveness. We will forsake the idolatry of the false gods of the flesh when we behold the One who is altogether lovely guiding our lives. Revelation produces spiritual relationship in mature believers. If revelation does not produce relationship, it can eventually produce rebellion in those who are immature and refuse to grow up in his love and faith.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Deception is rampant. If it were possible, the very elect would be deceived by the power of the wicked one. Do not give any place to the devil in your life, and do not allow your good to be evil spoken of. Shun the very appearance of evil, for in evil appearances, the testimony of Christ becomes a shadow of suspicion and complexity. Many of the young and unbelievers are stumbling over the blocks of evil appearances that have been used to build walls which keep some out of the kingdom. Do not be a stumbling block for others. Go and be an epistle known and read of all men unto salvation, peace, and holiness.

INSPIRATION

By Don Grigsby

RHEMA

I was in prayer and the Lord brought this to me.

My eternal power brings to you words that the waves cannot whisper and the thunder cannot shout. Mighty waves of the sea sit in tranquil silence at the voice of their Creator. Listen, you instruments of praise, and hear the mystery of the end times. So many voices have said, "no" to what I have said, "yes" to again and again. Only those listening for my expressions of greatness will have these treasures whispered in their ears. Every structure and association that wraps itself around the things that will be dissolved will melt in the destruction that is inherent in itself. All those who have attached themselves to the arrows of my light and the shock waves of my thundering voice will ride in the chariots of war with me. These have lifted their voices, and the winds of the critical and cynical have tried to howl them into silence. Those who have tried to silence them will be held up for rebuke because their own failures that they tried to cover up will shout louder than any trustworthiness they would try to set forth in themselves. The thunder of my power will cause them to stand in muted silence in awe of my displayed power. They will fall into the streets as the casualties of the waves of promises fulfilled come riding down the streets in the chariot thrones of my salvation. My salvation will ride upon the wings of grace to the ends of the earth and sweep away the lies and derogatory statements.

Feel the wind of my greatness now as it descends into the deepest pits of failure and reveals the treasures I had hidden there. Statues of the efforts of men will crumble into dust before the shock waves of my words of power. I say to all you that think you have it figured out, who is holy and who is righteous, "Think again." You have no righteousness except I give it to you. If you cannot accept the words of righteousness that would be uttered into your lives, then you will have nothing at all unless I preserve you with righteous words of my prophets that you have banished to the wilderness of rejection.

All those who set themselves as learned shall appear as fools. All those who think they know will be left with their own empty thoughts because they cannot grasp one event of my power. All those who have tried to extinguish the influence of the inspiration of prophecy will be destroyed by the flames of inspiration they have tried to put out. All those who have said, "God did not say it," their words shall be burned across the face of their own shame as they look for a word of help but will not find it because they have seared their own sensitivity to that which would be the way of deliverance out of their own despair.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ I am your Creator, and I have designed you to become a glorious creation in my kingdom where I am glorified. The words that I am speaking in your ears contain the same creative power that created everything in existence. Go and give the listeners hope, for hope does not make one ashamed. You will not have the faith that I desire you to have without hope, for faith is the substance of things hoped for. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

272. Can you communicate a message by means of music?

◆ You have been faithful to proclaim the words that I have given you to confess. Now it is time for the fruit of these creative words to come forth unto the reality of my promises. There is nothing that is impossible; therefore, allow these everlasting arms to lift you above these natural limitations that have plagued you for years. Run through the open doors before you. The shadows before the doors are not real. They are the efforts of the enemies of success that are sent to hinder the force of success, which is propelled and empowered by my love.

273. If I loved you enough to die for you so that death would not be a hindrance to you, then why not believe that I have eliminated every barrier to your success, your victory, and your glorious outcome?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Marco Mendoza

Lord, I am so thankful for your goodness that leads me to repentance. It is such an awesome, unchanging love, and it puts a smile on my face just thinking about it. The riches of your goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering constrain me from fleshly desires that try to arise in my life. Repentance because of your loving-kindness causes me to forsake and abandon my pursuit of selfish advantages and egotistical passions that seize so many in this hour. I am grateful for the glorious liberty that repentance produces. I offer you praise for your mercy and forgiveness. The fact that you commended your love toward me while I was yet a sinner causes me to forsake the idolatry of the false gods of the flesh as I look to you, the one who is guiding my life. I lift up my voice and shout Hallelujah for the revelations that you give to me that produce in me a spiritual relationship. I bless your holy name!

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God's goodness that leads to repentance is often misunderstood by those who ignore the basic principles of grace. God starts with nothing and creates everything. In the beginning, the creation of the heavens and earth were the picture of grace. It was without form and void. Our lives are a formless and empty space without Jesus Christ. As a new creation we are filled and formed into a vessel that will mirror our Creator. Heaven and earth are the mirrors of the Creator. All this together brings us to his feet in repentance for our shortcomings and failures, but it does not bind us but blesses us with liberty from our mistakes.

Grace Has Supplied You with the Ability to Succeed

Series 6.12.9 – Letter #344

My grace has always been sufficient for you. Have you come to this point in time to doubt my grace?

Do not allow doubt to enter into your heart. My grace is truly sufficient for you. Grace entered into your life to perform a complete work, and grace will never exit your life. I have given you the ability to finish what I have told you to do. This is not a fellowship thing that I have given you to do. You are on assignment from me. It is a holy calling. I am pouring more grace into your life that you may accomplish things that are not possible by your own ability. I am able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. Look to me. I am the author and the finisher of your faith. I am living my life out in you. Just as I came and successfully finished the work that I started in my own body, I will finish the work that I have started in you. Do not doubt. I have sent all things that pertain unto life and godliness into your life when you were born again. My divine power has supplied you with all that you need. Go to nature, and learn of the ability given there to all of the creatures in existence. I created every creature so that they may adapt to their environment. Have I not created you to live successfully in your environment?

For you to live after the flesh is as futile as fish attempting to live outside of water, for I created you to live after the Spirit. My people are attempting to live after the flesh and expecting the rewards of a spirit-filled life. Go and teach my people how to live after the Spirit. I have designed you to fast and pray, but you do not access the natural ability placed within you at your new birth to fast and pray. This ability is not accessed without the crucified life of Christ. You must be crucified with me that I might live my life out through you. Hear the voice of Paul as it echoes in your ears, "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." Do not frustrate the grace of God by living by laws, for if you do, you shall make my death for you a vain thing. If you would only allow your natural instincts to be manifested in you to care for your young, then many more of them would reach maturity. Go to nature and study how the young are naturally nurtured. Too many of the young die by the mouth of spiritual predators; therefore, I am sending you to diminish this great loss among my people.

RE: RHEMA - Grace Has Supplied You with the Ability to Succeed

Grace has given to us exceeding, great, and precious promises that by these we have been given all things that pertain to life and godliness. His grace has abounded to us that we would always have all sufficiency in all things that we abound to every good work. We are a people that God has chosen to be zealous of good works. Good works are not to obtain a spiritual merit badge but that others would see Jesus Christ in us and be blessed. Paul went to the heart of the matter when he said that by the grace of God I am what I am. He said that it was the grace that was in him that labored more abundantly than all. When we recognize that it is the grace of God in the garments of unconditional love that works daily in our lives, we will have nothing but kindness and blessing for others everyday of our lives. If we sow to our fleshly pride, we will reap corruption. If we sow to the Spirit, we will not only reap spiritual gifts but the mind-set of letting go of everything that distracts us and pulls us down.

Lift up your voice in thanksgiving. Open your mouth in faith. As you have received me, so walk in me. Be rooted and built up in me, established in the faith and abounding therein with thanksgiving. Walk into the new dimensions before your face and feet. The door of joy is set before you. An enemy has veiled it with a cross of fear. I have not given you a cross of fear or a cross of error. I have set before you an open door, yet there are many adversaries. Do not halt because of the spirit of error and the spirit of fear. These spirits cannot hinder the power of enduring grace that labors for you. Fear and error have combined as a mighty team to detour you in a false and misleading path. Receive of this new anointing and abundance of grace that shall cause you to endure the cross of Christ for the joy that is set before you. There is joy unspeakable. There is joy that is full of my glory. There are buckets of joy to draw water out of the wells of salvation. Be lifted by the power of the resurrection, and be assured of sufficient grace to abound unto effectual ministry and a pleasing walk of faith. Walk on in the light of my love. I am with you always, even unto the end.

RHEMA

I was praying and this came to me.

Darkness has been the cloud of dread and the printing paper that my people have received their messages on long enough. Take the pages of light that come from the words I have already spoken. Pens with the ink of love await those who will let me write across the tables of their mind. Grace will take the precepts of my power and dance with them across the paragraphs of promises. Satan has been able to get people to listen to the music and the words of death long enough for them to be blinded to the sunrise of the day of my power. I will swallow up death in the joy of the celebrated victory of the prophetic worship of my people. Satan will try to tell you that you will only speak and write nonsense, but he will become the one following the only path that makes no sense. My people are lifted above the power of death by the feast of life I have already proclaimed. I will not give you the pauper's seat but the seat of the wealthy and confident. Those who have invested themselves in me will receive the true hundredfold blessings in this world now.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

◆ I made you wonderfully and fearfully. If you understood how fearfully and wonderfully that you are made, great rejoicing would be expressed because of the knowledge that you would have. Study the human body and gain a greater appreciation for your body. I have come to live in your body.

274. Do you think that I came to live in a dilapidated place?

◆ If you understood the body and its purpose, you would take better care of it. Ignorance and lack of knowledge is rampant. Go and learn about your body, for it is my house. You are not your own. I purchased you with precious blood.

275. Why do you treat my property with such dishonorable care?

By Thelma Hightower

Lord, I thank you for your exceeding, great, and precious promises that your grace has given to me. I know that it is by your grace that I am saved. I did not deserve anything from you, but you willingly gave of yourself to me because of your love. I am grateful that your grace has abounded to me so that I may always have all sufficiency in all things that abound to every good work. You have chosen me to be zealous of good works. I know that these works that you do through me are not for me to obtain a spiritual merit badge but that others may see you through me. I am confident that I am what I am only by your grace and nothing more. I recognize that your grace works through me in the garments of unconditional love. Thank you for your grace that works through me so that I will not succumb to fleshly pride. I recognize that if I succumb to fleshly pride, I will reap nothing but corruption. Thank you for the mind of Christ that keeps me on the straight and narrow way so that I may be directed around the things that would distract me and pull me down. I appreciate your love and the holy calling that you have on my life so that I may accomplish things that are not possible by my own ability. All glory and honor be to your holy name Jesus.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Grace teaches us to deny ungodliness and to live righteously in this present world. Grace explodes the selfish flow of pride in the heart of man. Grace is so lavish that it causes the rewards of any ego trip of the flesh to pale compared to its liberating light. Promises were given to us in his grace before the world began. As we go through time, grace and peace are multiplied to us in the promises that we obtain from the King of grace as he never stops creating more grace in our lives as we live. Grace is the fountain-head that living waters flow out of into the lives of those who cannot stop being thankful.

The Simplicity of the Gospel and the Resurrected Life in Christ

Series 6.12.10 – Letter #345

Praise the living God with all your heart while there is time. I have brought my presence into your midst. Rejoice in your salvation. Do not be ashamed to worship me with all that is within you. You must cast off shame, which has come to keep you from rejoicing in me. Pride watches from every corner of your being. Unless you humble yourself before me, pride will speak and command you to worship self instead of the living God. Pride is the child of your flesh. If you give yourself to wed pride, then you will beget children that look to your flesh as a parent of tremendous strength rather than children who look to humility as a strong virtue held in honor by me. Humility is reigning in this hour without you, for humility cannot be dethroned. Humble yourself under my mighty hand that you may produce sons and daughters in the Spirit that are worshippers and soul winners. When have you played before me?

When have you worshipped in spirit and in truth?

If you give birth to pride's children, you will inherit the fruit of destruction; therefore, refuse the attitudes of pride and selfishness before they bring ruin to your houses.

RE: RHEMA: The Simplicity of the Gospel and the Resurrected Life in Christ

Grace was given to us in Jesus Christ before the world began. Jesus Christ preached the gospel in Abraham and to those in prison before it was preached by the apostles. It is the good news of the judicial pronouncement that was made by grace on our behalf at the only judgment seat that matters. Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, righteous judge, interceding witness, and testimony on our behalf. We have been declared justified or not guilty by the precious blood that we could never buy or obtain by any other means but grace. When we preach and teach the gospel of love and grace on a constant basis, it will produce other worshippers who will stand at the foot of the cross and weep and rejoice at the extravagant love that has been bestowed on us. Boasting is excluded by the living rivers of grace that baptize our lives.

Be as Job who saw creation's graphic beauty sweep the night sky of his pain with the canvas of spoken power. Be as Ezekiel who saw the vaulted ceilings of captivity retracted to see the open door of heaven where the universe poured out glittering and shimmering jewels of a billion points of power.

Behold John as he lifted his face from the sandy granite hardness of isolation to see the one who took him and the church with one hand and with the other hand opened the door of time and carried them into an eternity where no harsh hands would ever inflict suffering on his body again. Look as Moses when he lifted his eyes above the limp tents of the groaning, complaining masses to see me mobilize days of creation like troops on parade to march down into the formless void of the beginning of time. See David as he grabbed angels and stars as he danced in his dreams across fields of battle that others had never fought on before. Isaiah saw the heavens filled with the measureless greatness of my ability to mete out the heavens with the span of my hand and stretch out everything out of the closet of nothing. Daniel wept for home but soon beheld the builder of the houses of eternity push down kingdoms and build temples and kingdoms that only kings could dream of. In the lion's den, he saw his Creator cradle lions like kittens and feed them with the milk of silence. When David looked so painfully into the mirror of his own disappointments, he saw the face of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow fill a glory cloud with the presence that picked him up like a shepherd would a lamb and anointed his pain with oil and his empty cup ran over with the blessing that had seemed to run and hide from him.

By Debbie McBee

You, my King, are the faithful witness, and I give you praise. Cleanse my heart and renew a right spirit in me so that I might worship with everything within me. You have brought your presence into my life, and I am grateful. Thank you for your precious grace and mercy. I am comforted knowing that they follow me all the days of my life and I am rejoicing in my salvation. When I think about your precious blood that was shed for me, my soul cries out Hallelujah. I thank you for saving me, and with your help I am pushing past pride and selfishness as they attempt to shut my mouth and hinder me from worshipping you in spirit and in truth. You have freely given your extravagant love to me, and I thank you. You have made me glad, and I love you. Now, I am free to worship you without restraint. When I think about your goodness and mercy unto me, I must push everything else aside in order to reverence you as my Savior. You did not hold back your love for me; therefore, as you strip me of my misguided priorities, I will not hold back my worship and adoration unto you. All glory and honor belong to you, for you alone are worthy

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Love is liberating, and in it is no bondage at all. Fear and condemnation are full of torment. Perfect love has cast out every fear and torment. We can feast daily on the spiritual feasts of God's provision without fear of any kind of retribution from him. Love and grace are the irreversible mandates of the perfect law of liberty. Mercy has rejoiced against judgment and has won. This victory is ours every moment of every day as we walk in his triumph and thanksgiving to him. His love constrains us from doing anything that would soil the precious blood that cleanses us daily.

Humility Will Dethrone Pride and Its Children

Series 6.12.11 – Letter #346

Allow the sounds of thanksgiving to flow out of your innermost being. These sounds shall make a way through the dark things that have surrounded you in an attempt to frustrate you and bring you to ruin and despair. Continually give thanks, for I have been good to you but most of all because of who I am. I have revealed myself unto you. No man knows who I am unless I reveal myself unto him. The revelation of Jesus Christ has been given to you. Cherish this revelation. Wise men and prudent men have desired to hear and see the things that you have but have not heard, nor seen them. My love has abounded toward you, and the light of the glorious gospel has flourished in your midst. Continue to offer thanksgiving for my goodness, and you shall be translated into new dimensions of understanding. Many are shut off from true understanding because they are not thankful. Many stare at images of idols because of the view given them by unthankful hearts. Many who have known me have turned unto the gods of this world and bow at the altars of error; therefore, false spirits rule in their lives. Look unto me while I may be found, and be thankful. I will continually rule in your heart as your praises enthrone me.

You have been blessed beyond measure. Offer praise and thanksgiving for the many blessings bestowed upon you. Be an example of humility during the times of blessings. Special grace is being imparted unto you at the station of humility. Do not leave this station, for it is the place where abundance of grace is poured into your lips. You have been blessed with an ornament of grace in the time when many have been rewarded disgrace. You were not disgraced, for my love saved you from transgressions. My love lifts you high above the iniquity of the hour, and the power of the resurrection held you up when you should have fallen.

Express gratitude for my love, for I have loved you as a friend. A spirit of peace is upon your home. Do not invite evil spirits into your home by transgressions. I have given this home to you as a blessing. Now do not allow it to become a curse because of sin. Cast out all ungodliness, and reprove every evil work. Peace and confusion cannot dwell together, for they oppose each other. Follow peace with all men and holiness, for without these two, no man will see me. Continue to abide in me, and I will abide in you. You shall surely ask what you will, and it shall be done unto you. If you abide in me, offer the sacrifice of praise unto me continually, that is, the fruit of your lips giving thanks unto the name of Jesus.

RE: RHEMA - Humility Will Dethrone Pride and Its Children

Paul writes to us in Colossians 3:12, "Put on therefore as the elect of God holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, HUMBLENESS OF MIND, meekness, longsuffering;" If we allow the humbleness of mind that we spiritually put on to rule our lives, we will be blessers instead of blasters. We will not devour and blow away others with our thoughts or tongues, but we will bless them. True humility out of gratitude will cause us to be healers with hope for the hopeless and not predators with a bone to pick with everyone that we see. If we see how much we need mercy and forgiveness, we will change the oil of the engine of our actions and thoughts from the sludge of pride and in what we have done and replace it with the oil of forgiveness and grace. Ingratitude will always produce the fruit of egotism that is spiritually manifested as a superior tone even in our prayer before God as the Pharisees that Jesus talked about in the New Testament. True humility and the gratitude of thanksgiving to God will evaporate the garbage of pride in the intense heat of our incense of worship in spirit and truth. Peace will rule and rein in the lives and homes of those who do not dance to the tune of pride's agendas but are shouting joy in the arms of the dance partner of grace.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

The god of the world has sent forth lust and pride. Do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If you love the world, the love of the Father is not in you. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. Cleave to me. The world shall pass away and the lust thereof, but those who do the will of God will abide forever. You are born from above. You are of God. You have overcome the world and all things in it because greater am I who is in you than he that is in the world. You are an overcomer. You can subdue all things. You can overcome every enemy in battle.

By Rigo Toledo

I am grateful for the grace that has met me this day. It has granted me the desire to sound the shouts of thanksgiving that flow out of my innermost being. I must continually give thanks to you Lord, for you have been good to me but most of all I appreciate what you have done for me on the cross of Calvary. I praise you for revealing yourself to me, and I understand that you are absolutely ONE and there is no other god but you. My heart rejoices over the revelation of Jesus Christ, and I cherish this revelation. I know that wise men and prudent men have desired to hear and see the things that I have been given. Thank you for allowing your love to abound toward me everyday. I continue to offer thanksgiving for your goodness. As I offer you praise, my heart leaps for joy for the many gracious acts that you have displayed in my life. My desire is to always express gratitude because of your great love. I want to continually follow peace with all men and holiness with you, for I understand that without these two, I cannot see you. I acknowledge that only through true humility and the gratitude of thanksgiving towards you will I be able to evaporate the garbage of pride in my life. You have given me the example of humility and provided the enabling power to walk in your love. I give you praise.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Just as the seven strongest men in the kingdom were slain by the heat on the outside of the furnace that the three Hebrew children were thrown into, so will every gainsayer be negated and erased by the statements of God's power in the mouth of his people. We are all chosen to be the prophets of the Lord. Adam should have been the first in the line of prophets, priests, and kings.

He listened to the wrong voice and ate of the wrong tree. We have become the tongue of the righteous that is a tree of life. We speak the mysteries and majesty of the kingdom within us and Jesus Christ displays it on the outside in our world. God has given us a mouth and wisdom that none of our adversaries can deny.

Series 6.12.12 – Letter #347

I was accused falsely for you. The people rejected me that you may be accepted. Those who were persecuted for my sake were blessed. Those who are mine are persecuted for my name's sake. The servant is not greater than his master. I was sold for 30 pieces of silver. The weight of betrayal was too much to bear for the one who was disloyal to me; therefore, death claimed his life. I was called a blasphemer, and this claim was laid at my door. The princes of this world did not know who I was; therefore, I was crucified but for your sakes. If my kingdom had been of this world, my servants would have fought. I was born to bear witness of the truth. I bore witness of it, and now everyone is made free by the truth. For the truth, I was mocked. A crown of thorns was placed on my head for the truth. I forgave my tormentors because they did not know what they were doing. I was despised and rejected of men. I was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief as I bore your grief and carried your sorrows.

The expense of your salvation had to be paid. Though it was expensive, I paid for it willingly. My soul was made an offering for your sins. The travail of my soul was seen, and justice was satisfied. By my knowledge, I justified many as I bore their iniquities. Many cried out for me to save myself, but they did not know that I was saving them. Look to my crucifixion again, and draw strength and understanding from it. There upon the cross, I surely bore your grief and carried your sorrows, was smitten of God and afflicted. I was wounded for your transgressions. I was bruised for your iniquities. The chastisement of your peace was upon me, and with my stripes, you were healed. I became as a worm, was reproached of men, and despised of the people. They laughed me to scorn. They shot out their lips and shook their heads. All of this was for your sake.

As many bulls compassing one about, they beset me round about. They gaped upon me with their mouths. As ravening and roaring lions, they opened their mouths against me. They poured me out like water while my bones were out of joint. My heart became as wax and was poured out in the midst of my bowels. I had no strength left, and my tongue cleaved to my jaws as I was brought down to the dust of death. As dogs, they compassed me about, and they pierced my hands and my feet. For your sake, I paid all the expenses that you are charged with now. Rise up and lay hold on all that I bought for you by my cross. The currency of my blood is never devaluated by unbelief and the assembly of the wicked. Look to my sufferings, and behold the reason for faith.

RE: RHEMA - Offer Thanksgiving unto God, and the Sounds of Praise Shall Make a Way Through the Dark Things That Surround You

Calvary will always be the foundation of the economy of grace. As gold was the standard for our currency, we have blood that is so precious that it cannot be equaled by anything on this earth. We are bought with precious blood beyond the ability of man to establish its value. Our Savior was sold and crucified for the pittance of thirty pieces of silver. His agony and suffering went beyond blood shedding and purchased for us the peace that passes all understanding. Unbelief has staged many theatrical productions to entice us away from his grace and blood bought salvation. We will not listen to its deceitful lips because they are filled with corruption and fraud. He was crushed and bruised for our failures when we did not even ask him to do it. What will he do if we ask him?

If we will continually behold the cross as Paul instructed us to, we will never be moved away from the faith that has been given to us by the Lord's precious blood. If we deny him, he will not deny himself. He will never say, "It was not worth it." He will never unlove us. He will never go and retract his blood. It is finished, and doubt is finished in the process.

Do not allow him to snare you with your tongue. You are snared by the words of your mouth. You are taken by the words of your mouth. RE: RHEMA - The Design of Faithfulness Has Incorporated the Finished Structures of Victory and Satisfaction

Providence has carefully put into the structure of the universe all the details of eternity. Infinity, if embraced with boldness, throws wide open the possibility of anything. If the universe seems to swallow up massive structures in destruction, they are just recreated in another dimension hidden from natural sight. Every hard, weary, and worrisome event that comes to our lives should encourage us to look through the keyhole of its paradox at our ultimate triumph. Every problem is just a parable of our prevailing. Seeming defeat and disappointment are just the dawns of discovery peeking out from under dark horizons. Rejection's ruin is just the fresh revelation of the renewing power of the Holy Ghost. We spend numberless nights thinking we are in need when all I will ever need has been nailed under my name on his cross. Ghosts, gallows, graves, guilt, and grief may try to crowd out our joy, but grace gathers our graphic shortcomings and erases them and leads us into the gallery of God's goodness.

Tony Johnson

Lord, I offer thanksgiving unto your holy name this day, and I praise you for who you are. Though dark things trouble me on every side, I am not in distress. When perplexity stalks me, I am not in despair. Though my enemies persecute me, you will never forsake me. When I feel cast down, I know of a truth you won't let me be destroyed. In all these things, you have made me more than a conqueror through you, and for this I am so very grateful. You paid the ultimate sacrifice in the laying down of your life on Calvary, thus establishing the economy of grace. Thank you for shedding your priceless blood for me. Thank you for giving your all when I had absolutely nothing to give. My soul is overwhelmed by all that you did for me when you didn't have to do it at all.

Such a small price was paid to betray the only innocent life in the world, but I am so glad to be one of those who reap the everlasting benefits of your precious blood today. You were a man of sorrows so that I could have joy, and you bore my griefs so that my load would be light, and for this I am grateful. Knowing that all of the words I could say or the energy I could exert would amount to nothing in comparison to the awesome price you paid for my freedom, I still attempt to worship you with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength in order to show your worth in my life. I rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory for the salvation you have freely given me. I bow in reverence before you, my Prince, and I thank you for the peace you have established in my home though the world is in utter chaos. Gratitude is what I am filled with this and everyday that I live because you are worthy of all praise, glory, and honor for suffering so much for someone so wretched as me. Thank you Jesus!

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Our God is a very present help in the time of trouble. Trouble in the Hebrew is the word tsarah. It means distress, trouble, adversity, affliction, and anguish. It is spelled with the Hebrew letters Hey, Resh, and Tsadik. Resh stands for our head, Hey means behold, and tsadik stands for a fishhook or other hooks. In other words, the letters mean a man that is hooked like the ancient

The Assyrians would put hooks in the lips of prisoners and pull them around and hold them by these hooks and puncture their eyes out with a dagger. It speaks of a prisoner held captive by an extremely hurtful hook and anticipating the punishment that is to follow. In Psalm 107:6, four times we are told that men cry to the Lord and he delivers them out of their distresses and troubles. Four areas are covered in that chapter. The wilderness, darkness, the gates of death, and the depths are listed. In the depths, it is described as mounting up to heaven and down into the deep. Many times, we have felt the lifting power of Jesus Christ only to feel like we go down into the depths. Yet, he is still the presence that hides us in the time of trouble. We have the bold confidence from John 14 to not allow our hearts to be troubled or to be afraid.

The Currency of His Blood Is Not Devaluated by Unbelief

Series 6.12.13 – Letter #348

The light of love shined in your heart and face again. The spectrum of love presented you with the awesome power of my manifold character. I have revealed to you that I am love and light. This love and light have presented you with all that I am. My wisdom is a part of this love-light. My righteousness is a part of this spectrum of light. My counsel and might are part of this spectrum that allows you to be clothed in a garment of righteousness. This garment is of many colors. You have been given favor and position above all the principalities and powers. The rulers in the darkness of this world cannot lay claim to what you have been given, neither can their images boast of the emblem that you wear. Lay hold on this emblem of eternal life, and do not be ashamed of the good news within you. The power of God unto salvation cannot be annulled. It is an eternal expression that has stamped its emblem of life in the earth. I have drawn my line in time and stamped the proof of my love on the enemy's door and taken away his keys. Lift up your voice in praise, for I have made you glad again in the presence of spirits of sadness and misunderstanding.

The voice of praise shall not cease because many do not love in their times of trouble and misunderstanding. I have a people who will praise me at all times and whose praises shall continually be in their mouths. Choose to be a part of those who have understanding and not with those who abide in ignorance and pride. The pride of the foolish shall bring them to shame and destruction, but the thankful and the wise shall abide in the courts of life with adornments of victory. Choose to abide with the victorious people of faith, for my household shall rally in the face of defeat and impossibility. The household of faith is precious in my sight; therefore, do good unto them as you have the opportunity. Cast your bread upon the waters of their lives, and do not fear criticism and rejection. You have been wounded in the past because of the ignorance of men; however, do not allow past hurts to become walls and barriers that prevent you from sharing the good word of faith that you bear. I have chosen this hour to present many things unto those hungry for righteousness. Allow the word of life and the word of my grace to flow unto the mouths of those who are opening their hearts unto my expression in this hour.

Do not allow misunderstanding or presumptuousness to be your guide, neither monitor your thoughts for the evidence of direction. I have not sent these enemies to instruct you in any way, for I am understanding and victory. I have given unto every man the measure of faith, and I tasted death for every man by the grace of God. Now by the grace of God, I do bring the benefits of faith, faithfulness, and grace to their lives that they may continue to taste and see my goodness. My goodness shall abound. It shall reach for people and bring them unto the bosom of safety in my tower. Send the expression of the tower, and join in the celebration of salvation. Do not be a spectator in the sanctuary and give way to appearances of ingratitude and spiritual pride, but be a participant in the celebration of my body, for I have sent a blessing unto my people by means of epistles known and read of the people.

Lift your eyes unto the joy of the Lord in you. Lift your face unto the scepter of righteousness, which has been stretched forth unto you. I have made you glad. Now go and serve me with it, then will you behold the power of the word on behalf of my name and my Spirit. Go and proclaim the good word of God that is in you.

His counsel and might are part of this spectrum that allows me to be clothed in a garment of righteousness. This garment is of many colors. I have been given favor and position above all the principalities and powers. The rulers in the darkness of this world cannot lay claim to what I have been given, neither can their images boast of the emblem that I wear. I have laid hold on this emblem of eternal life, and I am not ashamed of the good news within me. The power of God unto salvation cannot be annulled. It is an eternal expression that has stamped its emblem of life in the earth. Jesus has drawn his line in time and stamped the proof of his love on the enemy's door and taken away his keys. I have lifted my voice in praise, for he has made me glad again in the presence of spirits of sadness and misunderstanding.

The voice of praise has not ceased because many do not love in their times of trouble and misunderstanding. God has a people who will praise him at all times and whose praises shall continually be in their mouths. I was chosen to be a part of those who have understanding and not with those who abide in ignorance and pride. The pride of the foolish shall bring them to shame and destruction, but the thankful and the wise shall abide in the courts of life with adornments of victory. I have chosen to abide with the victorious people of faith, for his household shall rally in the face of defeat and impossibility. The household of faith is precious in the Lord's sight; therefore, I am doing good unto them as I have the opportunity. I am casting my bread upon the waters of their lives, and I do not fear criticism and rejection. I have been wounded in the past because of the ignorance of men; however, I am not going to allow past hurts to become walls and barriers that prevent me from sharing the good word of faith that I bear. God has chosen this hour to present many things unto those hungry for righteousness. I am allowing the word of life and the word of his grace to flow unto the mouths of those who are opening their hearts unto his expression in this hour.

I will not allow misunderstanding or presumptuousness to be my guide; neither will I monitor my thoughts for the evidence of direction. The Lord has not sent these enemies to instruct me in any way, for he is understanding and victory. He has given unto every man the measure of faith, and he tasted death for every man by the grace of God. Now by the grace of God, he is bringing the benefits of faith, faithfulness, and grace to their lives that they may continue to taste and see his goodness. The Lord's goodness shall abound. It shall reach for people and bring them unto the bosom of safety in his tower. I am sending the expression of the tower and joining in the celebration of salvation. I am not a spectator in the sanctuary and giving way to appearances of ingratitude and spiritual pride, but I am a participant in the celebration of his body, for God has sent a blessing unto his people by means of epistles known and read of the people.

I have lifted up my eyes unto the joy of the Lord in me, and I have lifted my face unto the scepter of righteousness, which has been stretched forth unto me. He has made me glad. Now I am serving him with it; therefore, I will behold the power of the word on behalf of his name and his Spirit. By faith, I will go and proclaim the good word of God that is in me.

RE: RHEMA - The Currency of His Blood Is Not Devaluated by Unbelief

"God is love" is the most powerful statement in the scripture. If that is the most powerful conduit of power into our lives, then the favor and position that we have received from him makes all principalities to bow before us as conquered. His name is far above all the principalities, power, and every name that is named in this world or the world to come.

Love is eternal. The fullness of eternity and all that God desires for us makes mansions of heaven and gates of pearl as mere faint ripples upon the waters that cover the depths of his love that he invites us to plunge into. Love is the many faceted crown of light and life that cannot be removed by all the distracters around us. They may ridicule and cast disparagement upon the relationship we have, but we will never turn loose of this unconditional love.

In the time of difficulty and trouble, we will be held even closer. When trials come, he is not trying to push us away but draw us closer to him. Our praise to him shall continually be in our mouth. When troubles and problems come, he will stand with us in his loving embrace. We must refuse to be spectators at the celebration of his love and grace but be part of the dancing, rejoicing multitude proclaiming his greatness. We are the epistles of love that have been indelibly engraved upon hearts. We will continually declare the words of love and grace that have been on the manuscripts of eternity but now are on the pages of our lips. Our confession will be the pen of grace to those who are in the end of this race.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

There are unbelievers among the people of God. They do not agree with me; therefore, they will not agree with you. I have allowed them to grow among you. They will not agree with you. Many of them are consumed with covetousness. They are idolaters. What agreement does the temple of God have with idols? You are the temple of the living God. Come away from these unbelievers and be separate. Do not touch the unclean things from their tongues. They have spoiled the faith of many. Rise up and lead, and do not follow these strange fires.

RE: RHEMA - Publish the Lord's Goodness and Blessings with the Voice of Thanksgiving

Gratitude is the fire of worship that will consume every bit of our resentment, bitter hurts, and pain that try to affix themselves to our lives. As we declare his goodness, the symphony of body, mind, soul, and spirit begins the harmony of thanksgiving that will break the gravity of every negative force in the earth. The voice of rejoicing and thanksgiving fills the tabernacles of those who have been delivered by his grace. In everything, the Lord has chosen to bless us. If things are going from us or coming to us, we are still blessed by his purpose and wisdom. The same lips that bestow thanksgiving and praise in the courts of the Lord are turned into the platters of plenty that come back to our table of need. Our adoration of him creates an atmosphere that is conducive for feasting rather than the dry emptiness of famine. As we worship, we not only enter the gates of his presence, but we have executed the displacement orders of heaven on the enemies of our peace. Instead of feeding on the tables of anger and anxiety of the day, we eat the daily bread of his goodness.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

By Moses Hightower

◆ There is no other way to realize my love the way it really is unless it is viewed through the lens of my sacrifice for the sins of the world.

284. Now that you have perceived the love of God because I laid down my life for you, shouldn't you lay down your life for the brethren?

◆ There is no greater love than for a man to lay down his life for his friends. I came as the man Christ Jesus and purchased you with my own blood. While men were yet sinners, I died for them. I commended my love toward them.

285. Now that I have justified you by my blood, will I not save you from wrath?

By Cindy Mesa

I am thankful for the light of love that has shined upon me today. You have revealed yourself to me through the spectrum of love and I am grateful I know and believe that as I dwell in love, I dwell in you because you are love. You are rich in mercy, and I am kept by your power through faith unto salvation. No enemy can lay claim to what has been given to me. I rejoice in this eternal life and praise you with the knowledge that your name is above every name and all principalities are conquered before me. The troubles and misunderstandings do not stop me from praising you. My praise shall continually be in my mouth. I adorn myself with the garments of thanksgiving and remove the odious garments of pride that brings shame and destruction. I am delighted to dwell in the house of faith with victorious people. This household of faith is precious in your sight, and I will not allow the past wounds and rejections to halt me from sharing the word of faith. I will allow the word of life and grace to flow unto those that have open hearts. Your grace will bring the benefits of faith, and we will taste and see your goodness. Your goodness will abound and I will fully participate in the celebration of this great salvation. I lift my eyes unto the your joy and my head unto your righteousness, which has been stretched forth unto me. The confessions of love and grace have been placed upon my lips, and I will dance and rejoice proclaiming your greatness.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God's love is that of a true father. To understand that Jesus is our heavenly Father is just as important as understanding that he is the mighty God. In the parable of the lost son, the picture is one of graphic love. The father runs to meet the filthy, defeated, failure of a son and embraces him without condition. He kisses his face until all the filth is kissed away. Jesus Christ will meet us and embrace us in the midst of our worst failures and kiss our dirt away with his love. Our hearts overflow with profuse thanksgiving for such undeserved kindness.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

The Love of God Has Given Us Favor and a Position over All the Principalities and Powers

Series 6.12.14 – Letter #349

Many wise and prudent men have sought what I have given you. Now embrace the truth of this communion and fellowship more than you have ever embraced it. Make it precious in your sight, and do not lose the preciousness of it unto worldliness. Do not allow the cankerworm of worldliness to invade your temple through any of your gates, and you will be given a harvest of inspiration that will feed multitudes. Many have lost their entire harvest because they have allowed the invasion of their temple to occur by lack of love for the precious crop of the word of God. My word is enough for you. Go to nature, and behold the diet of the animals. They do not eat outside of their natural instincts. Come away from the table of devils, and do not eat anything from their hands. I am feeding you the bread of life and the meal of sufficiency for new creatures in Christ Jesus. In the meal of sufficiency, there is everything that you need.

Many spiritual appetites have been spoiled by the subtlety of worldliness. Go and teach the people from my word and nature, then will you find newness in the Spirit and in your congregations. I will strengthen you with truth from nature that shall teach you. I will grace you with fresh knowledge that shall develop a love and respect for holiness. I will turn that which has been looked upon as ugly and despised unto beauty. The beauty of holiness shall come forth in these last days, and the voice of the church shall trumpet, "Holiness unto the Lord." Unto me, give your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and then will you taste of the natural sufficiency that is in me. As you give all unto me, I will also give unto you a love for the truth. Receive that which I am giving this day, for it is your daily bread.

RE: RHEMA - The Love of God Has Given Us Favor and a Position over All the Principalities and Powers

Everyone in the earth wants to be accepted and be a part of an inclusive group. Our fellowship with the beloved is the most precious acceptance and camaraderie that exists in the universe. Without relationship, we are easily removed from our commitments to God. Our feelings and emotions become the directives of our actions. We are up and down and happy and sad. No consistency exists to keep us stable. We easily capsize in the smallest storm that comes into our lives. The relationship that enfolds us in his love is like the threefold cord that cannot be easily broken. Our relationship in the prophetic ministry and its inspiration would be the crown jewel of many lives if they would not be frightened by the scare tactics of men. Our treasure is running over every day with abundance of all he desires for us to receive. We should treasure every Rhema that he has given to us. Many have set down to a table full of vile corruption or vain tradition. Their bitter past of resentment has never been swallowed up by the love that has embraced those who diligently hear his words. Stale, cold, and wormy diets are the fare of those who have no treasure in their lives from the mouth of the Lord. If we fail to treasure the word of the Lord, we will have a messenger from the liar that will give us words that sound good to our flesh but will lead us into destruction instead of the creation that is ours daily as we cling to him who is the lover of our soul.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Beware of the tares and the goats, for they build images of unconquerable things. Out of the abundance of their wicked hearts, their mouths speak and spread contagious unbelief and fear. Many masquerade as weak believers but are really evil workers in disguise. Many are wolves in sheep's clothing. If they are allowed free course among you, they will make impotent the faith of some. They are murmurers and complainers that are walking after their own lusts. Their mouths speak subtle words and have advantage over others, usually by their friendships. They are sensual, and do not have the Spirit. Beware. Beware but do not fear.

RE: RHEMA - Walk into the Finished Works of Jesus Christ, and Worship with a New Expression of Faith and Confidence

Since we have already seen the vision of the end of the thing and have spoken it, we will rejoice to walk in its property lines. Harassing spirits of questioning and fear have come to give us false images in our minds and disruptive communications of a negative nature. All things were created in him in sum total from the beginning. My next miracle existed in him before the foundation of the world, and I will worship in the ascending incense of expectation for it to come to pass today. My promises are not for sale at some market to the highest bidder. They have been reserved for me by his precious blood and deposited into my spiritual account. Grace is the river that brings all these things to my life. My gratitude in humble thanksgiving is the position that I receive his very best for me.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME By Moses Hightower

◆ I have given you persuasive faith and irreversible promises. Allow this persuasive faith to abound in you, and it shall seize the promises that I have made to you. Faith always moves forward with abounding ability and reasons to believe my promises. Faith is speaking. It will convince you to believe. You have seen faith on trial many times. Invest in the faith of Jesus Christ, and you will never be a loser, neither will you be a spiritual pauper in this age where faith can hardly be found.

286. When I return, will I find faith on the earth?

◆ Invest in faith. Allow love to manage your life, and you will have a management that does not have to be persuaded of the truth of my word. My word has gone out of my mouth, and it will not return unto me void.

287. What advantage do you have in doubting my promises?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, as I grow in grace and in the knowledge of you. I realize the importance and the supremacy of your word of blessing. Whom you have blessed is blessed and cannot be cursed. Whom you have endowed with power from on high and anointed should not be touched. I have been called and chosen for such a time as this. I am your child and your sheep. I have the privilege to hear your voice and I give you thanks for this position, which brings about a greater and deeper relationship between us. You are the king eternal, immortal and invisible. There is nothing that you cannot do, for all things are possible with you. I love the fact that I am accepted in the beloved, who is Christ. Simply and only because of the price which Jesus paid for my salvation do I get to experience the fullness of your covenant with Israel.

Now that you have brought salvation into my life, I am in a right relationship with you. You know me and dwell in my mortal body. I am excited to have the King of kings living inside of me. I believe your prophetic expressions unto me, for where the word of a king is there is power. Daily, your Rhema word brings me life. It motivates, inspires, and enables me to be victorious over all the obstacles I am facing. Because you live, I know that I can live also. Because you reign supreme over all of your creation, over all power and principality, I am more than a conqueror through you, for greater are you who is in me than he that is in the world. I am exactly where I am supposed to be right now. I am in your will and living out your divine design for my life. I am not missing out on anything; rather you are adding everything that I need as well as granting me the desires of my heart. As I seek your kingdom first and your righteousness, you are supplying all of my needs according your riches and glory. I bless your name, for you feed me with the fresh bread of life everyday. You have been so gracious unto me, and your mercies have never ceased to intervene on my behalf. You are faithful, just, and true and I glorify you in the midst of the congregation of the righteous. I sing unto your name as I twirl about and rejoice in your presence.

PRAYER INSIGHT

Revelation is good but unless it becomes a deep and intimate relationship with Jesus Christ it is no more than a transit experience. Jesus talked with the disciples about having his joy and that it might remain. Power and purpose are the dynamics of his working in our lives. God's word was not meant to just touch our mind and heart with a momentary inspiration but to be the spiritual oxygen and food that is carried to every part of our being just as the red blood cells accomplish in our physical body. Even in our problems and pain, God has shown us that we can draw water with joy from the wells of salvation.

PROPHECY

*This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them
mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18*

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared,
who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken,
who can but prophesy?
Amos 3: 7 – 8*

CONFESSION OF FAITH

*The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith,
which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness;
and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.*

Romans 10:8-10

*Fight the good fight of faith,
lay hold on eternal life,
whereunto thou art also called,
and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
