Bread for the Children

The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
But Jesus said unto her,
Let the children first be filled:
for it is not meet to take the children's bread,
and to cast it unto the dogs.
And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord:
yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
And he said unto her, for this saying go thy way;
the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

An Admonishment to Be Thankful and to Not Take the Lord for Granted

Series 7.11.30 – Letter #334

How are the mighty fallen?
I am faithful. Then how do the mighty fall?
I am faithful, but do not take me for granted. Take heed unto yourself. You are standing today. Will you remain standing tomorrow?

Take heed, for you can fall. Do not murmur and lust after evil. Seek to please me. With many of the children of Israel, I was not pleased, and they were overthrown in the wilderness. Do not allow the place of great blessings to become a place to fall. Be thankful. You know who I am. Let there be great joy in your soul, for your eyes are not lifted up to behold a false god. Some have corrupted themselves and likened me to the graven images of their ancestors. You were not a people, but now you are the people of God. You had not obtained mercy, but now you have obtained it. Regard your deliverance from sin and bondage as a great display of love toward you, and do not forget the pit that I dug you from. You should have died in your sins. With the hand of love, I drew you out of darkness and allowed you to be a part of a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, and a holy nation. Open your mouth and sound the trumpet of praise. You have offered great joy at the altar of gods that cannot see and cannot hear. Will you remain silent at the altar of the God who has kept you from perishing from off the land that you live in?

I preserved your life and prolonged your days. You were not destroyed when sin and iniquity held you. Do not come to the kingdom and fall in the midst of the battle. You have me, the King of kings and the Lord of lords as your commander. Do not fall with those who think that they stand. Take heed unto yourself, and do not take me for granted.

You are enjoying great victory. Do not consider this place a high place that you have attained by your own righteousness and goodness. I have lifted you out of the net of your enemies. I have drawn you out of the waters of death. I have shut the mouths of the lions that were about to devour you. Do not crown yourself with glory, for it shall only fall from your head. Reproach has been stayed, and an inheritance of a king has been given to you, an alien. Your head should have rolled with the heads of the damned. The light within you should have been turned off with the light of the wicked. You should have been hung up by your hands with the princes of the earth. I have given you joy in your heart and music to dance by. Your mourning has been turned to great gladness, and your heart is not fainting. Your eyes see and your ears hear. Your heart is changed and your mind is stayed on me. Your life is not desolate, and the spiritual beasts do not ravish your spiritual wealth. I am with you and speaking grace in your ears. I have remained with you while you coveted other gods. Will you come to the hill of victory and forget me?

You have not won anything of yourself. The weapons of your warfare are not carnal. They are only mighty through me. Bow down and worship with a newfound humility. Lift up holy hands without wrath and without doubting everywhere. Your friends did not prevent you from falling. Your knowledge did not preserve a right mind for you. Your works did not qualify you for a place in my presence. Your ability was not sought as a necessity in my kingdom. Take heed to yourself so that your heart is not deceived, and you turn aside to serve yourself. You cannot serve yourself and the living God. You must continually seek the things that are Jesus Christ's and not your own. Do not be self-willed. Humble yourself under my mighty hand and then will you resist the devil effectively.

Words of Light upon the Face of Bondage, Damnation, Darkness, Death,
Deception, Doubt, Enemies, Evil,
False Gods, Lust, Murmuring,
Reproach, and Sin

Series 7.11.30 – Confession #334

The mighty have fallen because they have taken their eyes off of Jesus, the one who is able to keep them from falling, but God is faithful. He is faithful; therefore, I will not take him for granted. I am taking heed unto myself. I am standing today and I conclude to remain standing tomorrow because I have placed my hope in Jesus. I take heed, for I know I can fall. By God's grace, I no longer murmur and lust after evil, but I am striving to please the Lord. With many of the children of Israel, he was not pleased, and they were overthrown in the wilderness. I am persuaded not to allow the place of great blessings to become a place to fall. I am thankful and I know who Jesus is. I have great joy in my soul, for my eyes are not lifted up to behold a false god. Some have corrupted themselves and likened God to the graven images of their ancestors. We were not a people, but now we are the people of God. We had not obtained mercy, but now we have obtained it. I regard my deliverance from sin and bondage as a great display of love toward me; therefore, I will not forget the pit that the Lord dug me from. I should have died in my sins. With the hand of love, he drew me out of darkness and allowed me to be a part of a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, and a holy nation. I have opened my mouth and sounded the trumpet of praise. In times past, I have offered great joy at the altar of gods that cannot see and cannot hear; for that reason, I will not remain silent at the altar of the God who has kept me from perishing from off the land that I live in.

God is preserving my life and prolonging my days. I was not destroyed when sin and iniquity held me, and now that I have come to the kingdom, I will not fall in the midst of the battle. I have Jesus, the King of kings and the Lord of lords as my commander. I will not fall with those who think that they stand. I have taken heed unto myself, and I will not take the Lord for granted. I am enjoying great victory. I do not consider this place a high place that I have attained by my own righteousness and goodness. He has lifted me out of the net of my enemies, and drawn me out of the waters of death. He has shut the mouths of the lions that were about to devour me. My life is not desolate, and the spiritual beasts do not ravish my spiritual wealth. He is with me and speaking grace in my ears. He even remained with me while I coveted other gods; thus, I will not come to the hill of victory and forget him. I have not won anything of myself. The weapons of my warfare are not carnal. They are only mighty through Jesus. I have bowed down and I am worshipping the Lord with a new found humility. I am lifting up holy hands without wrath and without doubting everywhere. My friends did not prevent me from falling. My knowledge did not preserve a right mind for me. My works did not qualify me for a place in his presence. My ability was not sought as a necessity in his kingdom. I have taken heed to myself so that my heart is not deceived and turns aside to serve myself. I cannot serve myself and the living God. PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - An Admonishment to Be Thankful and to Not Take the Lord for Granted

Unthankful hearts are the residence of toxic pride. Our hearts should always be overflowing with gratitude for the grace and the abundance of God's blessing in our lives. It is the height of arrogance to presume upon the blessings of God. We could never earn them or deserve them. His unconditional love has lavished them upon us. When the blessing of God gets so regular and abundant, we have a tendency as humans to take it for granted. Let not the blessing of God ever be common to us but always as a rare treasure. God has not blessed us because of our ability but in spite of our inability. We have been the worst of the worst at some time in all our lives. In our minds at least, we have committed the most awful sin. God could have thrown us away and never spoken to us again. He could have allowed us to become the prey of a thousand problems that we would have never recovered from. We could have been destroyed in the blink of an eye. We found grace in his eyes. He preserved us with an ark of mercy and did not allow the flood of our mundane apathy to swallow us up. Lethargy may swallow up this world, but we will leap in our worship to lavish our thanksgiving upon the One who has taken our place even though we never asked him.

PROPHETIC BITES

By Moses Hightower

Is anything impossible for me?
If I am for you, what can be against you?

These unusual things have no ending in this life. They will grow until the end of time. They are all the same to me. Trust me to take each of these designs and unfamiliar patterns and make beautiful and profound testimonies out of them. Though you do not understand the why of these things, rest in the fact that I am faithful. You continue to ask why. How many times must I repeat these lessons?

There is no fear in love. I am working grace out in your life. Grace is teaching you in a special school with misunderstandings and mysteries as illustrations. Rest in the promises of God. This school of higher learning will grant you the diploma of love, which is a symbol that you have learned to trust me in all things and at all times. I am faithful. Only believe.

There is nothing impossible for God. I believe that he is for me; therefore, nothing or no one can be against me. These unusual things have no ending in this life. They will grow until the end of time. They are all the same to God. I trust him to take each of these designs and unfamiliar patterns and make beautiful and profound testimonies out of them. Though I do not understand the why of these things, I rest in the fact that God is faithful. I am determined not to ask why and to this the last these lessons are repeated. There is no fear in love. The Lord is working grace out in my life. Grace is teaching me in a special school with misunderstandings and mysteries as illustrations. I am resting in the promises of God. RE: PROPHETIC BITE - #334

Our understanding is not the fertile field of revelation. Revelation leads us into arenas and vistas of life that we have never explored. God is working in all our lives the things that have been hidden from the foundation of the world. All that he promised will come to pass as he works in us his wonders and strange acts. We will not be left at the mercy of circumstances or events, but we will transcend their hold and walk in the liberty of trust and complete confidence in the Lord.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME By Moses Hightower

◆ All of your enemies shall be found liars. You shall tread upon their high places that they had reserved unto themselves. Out of the mouth of the false prophets shall come the word of blessings unto you, for no one can curse whom I have blessed. I have blessed you.

103. Now who is it that will cause me to take back my blessings?

◆ I am not a man that I should lie, neither the son of man that I should repent.

104. I have said it and shall I not do it?

105. Have I spoken, and shall I not make it good?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Michael Hannah

November 30, 2009

Lord, I give thanks unto you today for a word to the wise is sufficient. In spite of all my inabilities, you placed your blessings upon me by your hand of love and its ability to draw me out of darkness and prevent me from dying in my sins. You lavished your unconditional love upon me, and made me a part of a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, and a holy nation. I could never have obtained this mercy by myself, but only by your grace do I have it. I purpose to please you Lord, and to always remain thankful. I take heed, knowing that without you, I can fall. Keep me and don't let my human tendencies disregard your deliverance. Your great display of love toward me did not destroy me when sin and iniquity held me. Because of this admonishment to be thankful, my heart is full of gratitude. Your faithfulness and love for me are the keys to all things.

I will not forget the pit that you dug me from, for your faithfulness keeps me standing today. Thanksgiving and blessings are rare treasures and I am rejoicing that you will allow me remain standing tomorrow. I desire to please you and not to remain silent at the altar where you kept me from perishing. I appreciate the great victory that has come because of your righteousness and goodness. I will continually seek the things that are yours Lord, and not my own. I will be lifted out of the net of my enemies, and drawn from out of the waters of death. I am overjoyed, because you shut the mouths of the lions that were about to devour me. You gave me great gladness for my mourning and you did not throw me away nor have you refused to speak me. But you opened my eyes and now I can see. You have given me ears so that I can hear. I am glad that you preserved me with an ark of mercy that I may worship and lavish my thanksgiving upon you the One who has taken my place. Praise be to your holy name! Hallelujah!

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We have not been seated with the condemned to face the firing squad of man's judgment. Mercy has taken the stones out of the hands of our accusers. Just as Jesus told the woman that he did not condemn her so are we forgiven to go and sin no more. Our overflowing gratitude is the dynamic that drives our desire for obedience. We not only have read and heard mercy call our name in forgiveness, but we have a relationship with the lover of our soul that has written a love story that none can erase. Gentle hands of great grace have held us and seated us on the mercy seat of God's love and covered us with the atonement of his blood. We are washed and worshipping the One who has liberated us from the killing failures of our flesh.

THOUGHTS HIGHER THAN MINE CHILDREN'S BREAD PROPHECY

By Moses Hightower

The Unlimited, Unsearchable, Unrestricted Power of God

Series 7.12.1 – Letter #335

Your mind cannot perceive how great I am. Your mind is limited. I am unlimited. My greatness is unsearchable. A new respect shall arise inside of you, for I shall speak to you concerning my greatness and my unlimited power. Many do not ever think about me as being limitless. Many have perceived me as a man. Man makes another man his god and does not realize that I am not a man. I am endless, and my power is unconstrained and unrestricted. You have no means of measuring my vastness. Man is limited and restricted. Man can be defined. What words will you use to accurately define me?

Who will you compare me to?

You dwell in my kingdom. Who is honored in my kingdom?

I am the great glorious God, and I have no ego problem. I am expressing to you the greatness of my wondrous works. Your thoughts of me are too small. Your concepts of me are too weak. The enemy has stifled you many times because you do not understand how great I am. Behold my greatness. Behold how gracious I am. How will your children grow in grace and in the knowledge of me unless you express the abundance of my compassion and my mercy unto them?

Open your mouth and speak of the glory of my kingdom. Talk of my power unto the people. Express the tender mercies of the Lord in words that they can understand. I am going to fill the earth with my mighty acts. I shall show the glorious majesty of my kingdom in these last days. My kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and my dominion endures throughout all generations. Because the time is short does not mean that I am shortening my grace or my power. I am opening my hand and satisfying your desires for my good things. Call upon me, and behold the power of my name and its security. You are dwelling in a safe place. My blessings are abundant. They are flowing plentifully. Behold the great things being done for those that love me and seek me. I am doing great things, unsearchable things, and marvelous things without number. You once dwelled in low places, but now I have set you on high. You mourned in the past, but now I have exalted you to the safety in my name. The sword of the enemy was about to cut you down, but I saved you from the sword and from his mouth. I saved you from the hand of the mighty and those who hated you. I am the great God who does things past finding out. My wonders are without number. Behold how awesome I am. I pass by you, and you do not see me. I am a God who hides myself. I pass by you, and you do not perceive me. I speak unto you, and I allow you to hear me. I talk to your brother, and you cannot hear me. Behold my ways. They are past finding out. Can you understand my wisdom?

My secrets are too great to know. You cannot search and find me out. Do you know how high heaven is?

Do you know how deep hell is?

How much do you know?

You only know parts of my ways. You only know a portion of what I am. Humble yourself under my mighty hand, and I will show you unsearchable things that have not been known. I know you. I know your thoughts. I know your intents. All of your ways are known of me. I have not made a mistake by humbling you with these thoughts about my unsearchable power and greatness. You needed to be reminded that I am the one who placed my word in your tongue. I laid my hands upon you. What is expressed through you is knowledge too wonderful for you to know of yourself. It is high, and you cannot attain unto it with your limited mind. I am the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. I do not faint, and I do not grow weary. There is no searching of my understanding. Behold the depth of the riches of my understanding if you can. My judgments are unsearchable. My ways are past finding out. Can the limited search unto perfection the unlimited?

Do not be wise in your own heart, for I do not respect that kind of man. I am terrible in majesty, and you cannot find me out. I am excellent in power and in judgment. I know what you need, and I know your end. I am not here to afflict you. I am here to love you and instruct you.

RE: RHEMA - The Unlimited, Unsearchable, Unrestricted Power of God

When we consider the size of the universe, we can see with man's best instruments and compare ourselves in size to it, and we are totally overwhelmed. When we consider that one of the over a billion stars in our galaxy is 1,000 times more powerful than our sun, we are left gasping for breath. Yet, God has set us at the apex of his creation, and we can give him more glory than the stars when we compare ourselves to the size of the enemy on a one-on-one basis. Imperceptible or immeasurable is the small dust of his description. If teaspoons were as big as galaxies, then our words could begin to describe him.

When we behold the eternal power that is written in all that he upholds, then our greatest problem is not even a speck on the radar screen. He might be saying to us, "Is that all you are bothered about?" Yet, he never insults us or our limited ability to understand him. He considers our frame and knows that we are but flesh. He is the ineffable power that resides in us by the Holy Ghost. The same power that said, "Let there be" in the beginning is in us by the Spirit. Creative power is in our hearts and in our mouth. God has not come to embarrass us or expose us. He loves us.

Forget the things that are behind you. Reach forth unto the things that are before you. Press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God that is in Jesus Christ. You are one with me and the purpose that I came into the world to fulfill. Cleave unto me, for we are one. You have left the past. Now look unto the land that I will show unto you. I shall make a mighty congregation, and I will bless you. You will be blessed, and you shall be a blessing. Those who bless you shall be blessed, and those who curse you shall be cursed. Make a personal altar unto me, and call upon my name. I will appear unto you at this personal altar. Do not marvel because I have said that I will appear unto you. I appeared unto Abram, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Gideon, Samuel, David, and Jeremiah. I am not a respecter of persons. Do not limit your experience with me because of the unbelief of others. Expand your faith according to the standards in my word. Do not be robbed of the relationship that I am authoring because of unbelief fostered by the traditions of men. I will appear unto you. As of old, I will appear unto you. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore, with lovingkindness, I have drawn you.

Jesus promised the dimension of greater works than all that he did. His Spirit will reveal the things that none have seen and heard in our lives. Yesterday is not the yawning chasm that runs after us to swallow us up. Today is the stage of the power of the I AM. It started with the burning bush and it soon expanded on an almost daily basis to control all of nature with complete power to begin and release the plagues. Jesus Christ is the same God today and will not allow yesterday to be the only venue that we live in. Now faith is the realm that we rejoice and live in.

◆ You have heard it said in a man's world that a man's word is his bond. My word is exalted above my name. If a man speaks my word, it will never change, neither will it come back to me void of its intent or purpose. Man's covenants cannot disannul my covenants; therefore, behold how I will defend you in my court. I am the faithful witness. I will give my testimony for you.

106. If I am for you, then who can be against you?

◆ I am the Lord, your God. Jesus is my name. I came unto my own, and they did not receive me. Blessed are those who find the grace to receive me. I am pouring out grace in an immeasurable portion. Receive this grace and do not turn it unto lasciviousness. To you, a Gentile, there has come precious grace.

107. Have you ever considered what it would be like without my grace?

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Milton Rodriguez

Lord, I am humbled by the reality of your greatness. I am in awe at the glimpse of your unlimited power. Truly, your ways are past finding out and it is your glory to conceal yourself. I appreciate your caring expression of compassion toward me as I am as an infant before you, the ancient of days. Thank you for low-keying yourself and expressing your knowledge in words I can understand. I am also thankful that you have opened my understanding through the spirit of wisdom and revelation. Although I see through the glass darkly, I am comforted in the knowledge that one day I will see you as you are, even as I am seen before you. All things are open and naked before you and I look forward to knowing you even as I am known. Although I am not worthy of the least of all the mercy and truth you have shared with me, yet I am appreciative that you have shared your expressions and yourself with me. I praise you and give you glory. I celebrate you in the midst of the congregation of the holy. Thank you for covering the multitude of my sins and transgressions. Thank you for including me in the covenant of perpetual peace which was sealed by the shedding of the innocent blood of the lamb. Now I know that I can make it through all obstacles and situations because you live, I am assured that I will live also.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

One atom of coal if burned conventionally would produce 1.5 volts of electricity. If it were fused atomically it would produce 1.5 million volts of electricity. Who would suspect that God would hide that kind of power in such a small particle? The smaller you go in atomic particles the more powerful that they are. Jesus said the least of the most microscopic one in the kingdom of God is greater than John who was the greatest of the prophets. Ineffable power is hidden in the believer and released as we speak the words of binding and loosing. Revelation lets us see how helpless we were until the Lord intervened with his unlimited power that controls the universe. How or why that he who is bigger than the universe would come to see about us and rescue us from the tyranny of sin?

The Power of the Reigning King While Standing in Jeopardy and Subdued by the Hands of a Thief

Series 7.12.2 – Letter #336

Do not allow the thief to steal your spiritual wealth. Awake out of sleep. You know the time. Your salvation is nearer than when you believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand. I have not given you the spirit of slumber. Your eyes see and your ears hear; therefore, cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Do not involve yourself in strife and envying. Make no provision to defend yourself from accusations and subtle plots. Make no provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof, but put on the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no risk involved when you walk in the Spirit. Do not stand in jeopardy every day. I have not come to make you feel insecure or to declare that you are a liability to my name. Awake to righteousness and do not sin. Because some do not believe in my voice is no reason to abandon your relationship with me. This is the spirit of the thief attempting to break in and steal your spiritual wealth. Do not make your bed with those who bear the letter. They shall sleep the sleep of death. Their swords of death are swinging at you. Their henchmen climb into your life to burglarize your spiritual wealth. Do not be choked by doubt and fear. Awake and I will give you light. Walk circumspectly and do not be a fool, but walk as a wise man and redeem the time because the days are evil.

I have given you an understanding of what the will of the Lord is. Trust in my arms and my salvation. I have brought my righteousness unto you. My salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished. Do not fear the reproach of men, neither be afraid of their reviling. The moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool. Do not rise to defend yourself, but be confident that I am your strength. I will cut asunder the schemers and will render permanent wounds to those who subtly attempt to drive you away and speak to destroy your name. Place your total confidence in me. I am the same God who dried up the sea. The sea before you shall be dried up by my breath, and a way shall be made for you to pass over. I have planned everlasting joy for your head. Gladness and joy are waiting in the distance. Sorrow and mourning shall retreat.

Do not fight those who oppress you. Do not worry about the results of their schemes. You are my child. You have repented unto me, and my word remains in your tongue. Do not be afraid of men that shall die. Do not be afraid of the sons of men that shall be made as grass. Look unto me, the Lord, your Maker. The subtle fury of the oppressor cannot destroy you. Look to the end of all these things. Where is the fury of the oppressor?

The oppressor did not rob you, and my words were not removed from your mouth. I covered you in the shadow of my hand and hid you among those planted by the Lord in righteousness. I have removed the cup of trembling and placed it in the hand of those who attempt to afflict you. Shake yourself and arise from the dust of the dead. Life flows in you; therefore, awaken and loose yourself from the bands on your neck. Their hands cannot remain on you to subdue you for their own selfish cause. Shake yourself with the voice of praise and thanksgiving. Arise and carry good tidings that publish peace unto the people. Publish salvation and carry good tidings of good. I have hidden you in my word and in the cleft of my hand. The salvation of the Lord has manifested itself for you. Break forth into joy. Your Lord reigns.

By the Lord's grace, I have not, neither will I allow the thief to steal my spiritual wealth. I have awakened out of sleep. I know the time and my salvation is nearer than when I first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand. God has not given me the spirit of slumber. My eyes see and my ears hear; therefore, I have cast off the works of darkness and have put on the armor of light. I am persuaded not to involve myself in strife and envying. I will not make provision to defend myself from accusations and subtle plots. I conclude to not make provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof, but I have put on the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no risk involved when walking in the Spirit; for this reason, I have made up my mind not to stand in jeopardy every day by walking after the flesh. God has not come to make me feel insecure or to declare that I am a liability to his name. I have awakened unto righteousness; therefore, I will not sin.

Because some do not believe in his voice is no reason to abandon my relationship with him. This is the spirit of the thief attempting to break in and steal my spiritual wealth. PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - The Power of the Reigning King While Standing in Jeopardy and Subdued by the Hands of a Thief

Our enemy is a thief and a liar. Lies grow legs and feet in our minds if we are not careful. If we are exposed to a lie often enough and long enough, we have a tendency to believe it if we are not careful. We have been promised complete and final victory over all the traps and devices of the enemy. We have been promised power and authority over all the power of the enemy. Satan is the master of smoke and mirrors. As a Lion, we are told of the one who has no real power. If Jesus has taken all power from the enemy, and Jesus is in us then Satan has no place in our lives. Give no place to the devil. We should not give him any attention. We should refuse to live under the tyranny of his false accusations. He tries to foster condemnation and doubt with every breath. Faith's powerful proclamations will strangle his voice. He cannot steal what God has promised. People will come by our lives with all kinds of negative thoughts. They will try to sow the lies of doubt in our hearts. It is better that we cut our conversations short with them than to allow these thoughts to take root in our minds. No man can take our reward or our promise. We will stand and proclaim all his counsel and fill the air with our thanksgiving and praise.

You have been on a stormy sea for a long time. I stood by Paul when he tossed with a tempest. I have stood by you. Now be of good cheer. You have lost much on this stormy sea. Take the broken pieces that remain in your possession, and I will show you how they shall be multiplied. Do not despise your losses on the stormy sea of life. I am teaching you to count all things loss. I am teaching you to count all things dung. I have destroyed the chains of the enemy. Do not fret because of your losses, for every dollar that was lost shall be replaced with a thousand. Every person that was lost shall be replaced by a hundred. I have blessed you, and there is no one who can reverse what I have done for you. I am your Rock. I stand with you. I am inside of you teaching you my way. I have brought you to another level of living. Allow me to live my life out through you and then shall you behold the miraculous power that I am sending through your life.

Stormy seas are the platform for spectacular miracles. God raises up the winds and waves and we cry unto him and he brings us into our desired havens. Our hearts may melt with fear as we behold the wind and the waves but he takes us by the hand and we walk on the waves of intimidation and distractions that would steal our victory. Even men who are like raging waves of the sea are under the feet of all who keep their focus on Jesus.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Thelma Hightower

Lord I praise you today! You are my keeper and the lifter of my head. Thank you Lord I praise you today! You are my keeper and the lifter of my head. Thank you that you are Jehovah-Jireh, the Lord that provides. You are concerned about me and will not allow the enemy to steal my spiritual wealth. I know that the enemy came to kill, to steal, and to destroy, but I am confident that you are my shield. Set a watch before my mouth and keep the door of my lips and my heart, so that I will not have a tendency to believe the lies that the enemy tries to inject into my mind. I am grateful for the power and authority that you have given me over my enemy. I am grateful for eyes that see and ears that hear. I am thankful to know when your voice speaks. By your grace, I will not attempt to make provisions to defend myself from the accusations and subtle plots of my enemies. I am blessed to have you as my keeper. I know that your eyes are upon me and your ears are open unto my cry. I know that Satan has no place in my life; therefore, I thank you for keeping me from giving him any place or attention. You have given me power to refuse to live under the tyranny of his false accusations. I live by faith and am confident that faith's powerful proclamations will strangle his voice. I refuse to be bound by the lies sowed by the enemy. By grace, I will not allow Satan to burglarize my spiritual wealth. I purpose to walk circumspectly and not be fooled. I will walk as a wise saint and redeem the time because the days are evil. I will not fear.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Satan has been exposed as a paper tiger. God said that he would bring him to ashes on the earth for all those he had tormented to behold. He is pictured and a carcass that is trodden under foot and thrust through with a sword. God has given authority over all the power of the enemy and we are promised that nothing shall be any means harm us. We are private property of the King of kings and the devil has been served an eviction notice. The devil has been stripped and spoiled of all his armor. Therefore, he is naked, toothless and does not even have the keys to his own house. We have been promised that the gates of hell shall not prevail against the church. As we attack the schemes of the enemy, he will be exposed as the fraud that he is. Satan cannot plunder the prosperity of the people of promise.

The Father of Lights Admonishing the Children of Light about the Angel of Light and His Ministers

Series 7.12.3 – Letter #337

I am the Father of lights and the Father of spirits. The light within you is of me. It is an eternal light given by the eternal God. I have not erred in choosing you to be a tabernacle for this light. Now let your light so shine in the earth that it might glorify me your Father. Many are bearers of false lights. Satan is transformed into an angel of light. False apostles, deceitful workers, and false ministers are transformed into apostles of Christ and ministers of righteousness. Wicked lights are rampant in the earth. Satan has sent lights into the earth working after him with all power, signs, and lying wonders. Receive the love of the truth that I am granting you, and you will be preserved from all deceivableness of unrighteousness that is being sent forth from the angel of light. His ministers shall all perish, for my strong delusion shall cause them to believe a lie that they all might be damned.

Humble yourself and die daily. Do not attempt to serve me without denying yourself, taking up your cross daily, and following me. You will serve the angel of light without the love of the truth. Love me, and you will love the truth. Seek me with all your heart, and you will find all that I have laid up for you. I have riches and honor with me. Seek me with all of your heart, and you will find durable riches and honor. The things that I have stored up for you shall last. Follow the light of my word. Durable riches and honor await your arrival. The fruit of my word is better than gold. My earnings and my profits are better than the finest silver. Continue in the light of my word, and you will be my disciple and not a disciple of Satan. Remember, many started out in the light but have turned unto the darkness. I am the Light of the world. Those who love darkness rather than light do evil deeds. If your deeds are evil, you hate the light, and you will not come to the light, neither will you follow it. I reprove the deeds of those who hate the light. Do the truth. Do not simply speak it. Do the truth, and you will come to the light and remain with the light. If your deeds are works that come from me, then you will do the truth.

Beware of the lights of Satan, and do not walk in the counsel of his lights. Do not jeopardize your relationship with me. Do not lose your prosperity, your health, and my blessings. Do not walk in the counsel of the ungodly. Do not stand in the way of sinners, neither sit in the seat of the scornful. Allow your delight to be in the law of the Lord. In my law, continue to meditate day and night. You shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water. You will bring forth your fruit in your season. Your leaf shall not wither, and whatsoever you do shall prosper. Your due season has arrived. Continue in the path of righteousness for my name's sake. Continue to hope in the living word and that which is forever settled in heaven, then shall your heart be sound in the word, and you will not be ashamed. Hear these words and do these words, and you will not explode into the darkness with the wandering stars and clouds without water.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - The Father of Lights Admonishing the Children of Light about the Angel of Light and His Ministers

Every perfect gift comes down from the Father of lights. In him, there is no shadow of turning. This is the Greek description of the decline of an object in a constellation of stars. Entropy is the opposite of fusion in stars. It is implosion rather than explosion. If we are exploding with the Holy Ghost and fire, we will decimate everything false within striking distance. Fusion will swallow up entropy every time. We are the children of light, and we wear the garments of light. We have the God in us that called the light out of darkness. When John said in his gospel that the darkness comprehended it not, he was really saying that the darkness could not reach up and overwhelm the light. Darkness comes and it tries to bring its evil influences and lies to us. Light will expose and bear witness with us that messengers of the enemy are frauds and pretenders. Light's reality will flood the shadows of the darkness with such brilliant light that we will not go after it. Satan's light is like the foot lights of stages in theaters. It is cosmetic and artificial. Its power source is limited. Our power source is unlimited and like the sun. Light does not have to have a stage production. Light has already made the entire earth its stage. Our lives were so filled with light and rejoicing that the parade of darkness is like a funeral procession. It is imperative that we allow the gift of discerning of spirits to operate in our lives. We are told to try the spirits to see if they are of God. Our spirit will bear witness with the spirit of light and not of darkness. God's word will continue to come to us a light in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. Darkness is a distant second to light. We will not be attracted to its components as long as we stay out of the shadows of darkness. If he is in us, there is no darkness at all.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Debbie McBee

December 3, 2009

Forgive me, for not always honoring you as the Lord and the master of my life. Help me to humble myself today, so that I may die out to my own will and desires. Every perfect gift comes from you and I am so thankful. You are the Father of lights and the fruit of your word is better than gold. I love you; therefore, I love the truth. Create in me a clean heart so that I may seek you in righteousness and truth. Cleanse me that no wicked thing would prevail in my life and grant me the peaceable fruit that can only come from you. I glorify you as the King of my life and I give you praise. Today is a day that you made and I worship and honor you for who you are. Thank you for changing me and not relinquishing me back to myself. With you eternal life is promised and all the things you have stored up for me shall last.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

As we humble ourselves, we will be exalted in his kingdom. When we take up our cross and deny our self, we are free to walk in the liberty that has been promised to us. Death of the flesh is life and that more abundantly in the Spirit. It is the ashes of self that the New Testament priest needs to carry away so the fire of Spirit may burn on our altar of dedication to God.

Fresh Promises from His Great Love

Series 7.12.4 – Letter #338

Do not fear. I am love. I cast out fear and the object of your fear. I have thrown this thing far from you; therefore, lift up your eyes unto peace, compassion, and security. I have not brought you this far to cast you aside in the field of rejects. Many of those who are now shipwrecked found their fields of destruction because they lost faith in me. Man cannot determine your end. Look again to me and behold my nature. The cross of redemption describes my feelings and concerns for you. I did not endure the horrible bruising of the cross to lose you after buying you with a great price. I purchased you, and now I will keep you. There is no imbalance in my love. My love saved you. My love will keep you.

Listen to the voice of the Spirit through David. Listen to the voice of the Spirit through Job. They are not insignificant characters in a book. They are ensamples for your life and the outcome of your life. I did not include them in my word and set them out of reach in faith, righteousness, and holiness. I am inside of you to guarantee results greater than their results. I have redeemed you and given you mighty justification as a vehicle of surety.

Your journey in this life is propelled by my righteousness. Sin is a reproach to everyone, but righteousness will exalt you. The kingdom of God and my righteousness are yours. Now be lifted from your posture of discouragement and stand erect in the stance of encouragement. Do not be bowed in the presence of the loud voices of man. The attitude promoted by my righteousness is a mighty lift for your head and an enormous strength for your legs. I do not have any respect for man's filthy rags. Their garments of self-righteousness are odious in my nostrils and a stench hated by a holy God. Acquaint yourself with my love again, and be assured of my favor toward those who trust in me. Do not taint your life with hypocrisy. Do not speak with a forked tongue. Let your yea be yea and your nay be nay. By your words are you justified, and by your words are you condemned.

A great love has been given. Allow me to root and ground you in love, then will you be able to comprehend what is the breadth, length, depth, height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God. I am dwelling in your heart by faith. Be strengthened with might by my Spirit in your inner man. The riches of my glory supply all that you need. Be assured that I am able to do exceeding, abundantly above all that you ask or think, according to the power that works in you. Greater am I who is in you than he that is in the world.

Do not let your heart be troubled. My voice thunders in the earth with the voice of excellency. My thunder announces the rain of blessings upon you. I will seal up the hand of man and send the fearful beast back to their dens and their caves. I will chase away the whirlwind of destruction and send a fire against the cold threats of the enemy. My breath is upon you to furnish new life and vigor. My breath shall become a frost in the face of your enemies and a cloud to the vision of those who oppose you. You will not go unpunished for your sins and your iniquities, but mercy is the design of your correction. Behold my wondrous works. In a very cold time for you, I have supplied you with warm garments and set a new quietness in your midst. Your words are ordered of me. They trouble the darkness, but they will bring light to those chosen to hear.

The attitude promoted by God's righteousness is a mighty lift for my head and an enormous strength for my legs. God does not have any respect for man's filthy rags. Their garments of self-righteousness are odious in his nostrils and a stench hated by a holy God. I have acquainted myself with his love again, and I am assured of his favor toward those who trust in him. I determine not to taint my life with hypocrisy, nor speak with a forked tongue. I let my yea be yea and my nay be nay. By my words I am justified, and by my words I am condemned.

A great love has been given. I have allowed God to root and ground me in love, and now I am able to comprehend what is the breadth, length, depth, height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that I might be filled with all the fullness of God. He is dwelling in my heart by faith. I am strengthened with might by his Spirit in my inner man. The riches of his glory supply all that I need. I am assured that he is able to do exceeding, abundantly above all that I ask or think, according to the power that works in me. Greater is he who is in me than he that is in the world.

My heart is not troubled. God's voice thunders in the earth with the voice of excellency. His thunder announces the rain of blessings upon me. He has sealed up the hand of man and sent the fearful beast back to their dens and their caves. He has chased away the whirlwind of destruction and sent a fire against the cold threats of the enemy. His breath is upon me to furnish new life and vigor. His breath is a frost in the face of my enemies and a cloud to the vision of those who oppose me. I have not gone unpunished for my sins and my iniquities, but mercy was the design of my correction. I have beheld the Lord's wondrous works. In a very cold time for me, he supplied me with warm garments and set a new quietness in my midst. My words are ordered of the Lord. They trouble the darkness, but they will bring light to those chosen to hear.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

RE: RHEMA - Fresh Promises from His Great Love

In Hebrews the eleventh chapter, we are told that they obtained promises. It was not that they were already on the books but that they were created at the time of their need or asking. We need to stop and realize that the promises of the Old Testament and New Testament belonged to the people of God before they were ever written. When we plug into God's "it shall come to pass," we can receive what has always existed but never before has been revealed. Joshua had no precedent for the sun and moon stopping in their orbits. Naaman's captive servant had no record of leprosy being healed but spoke the promise of healing. God's love would turn hell into an iceberg and give us crushed ice if we needed it. We are not adding to the word of God; we are lifting the veil and embracing the voice that continues to speak. God's word has been given to us in the written form of over 700,000 words. It is all God's word. In the New Testament, the arrangement of the words that repeat what the Old Testament said is different. Yet, we still revere it as the word of God. When God personalizes promises to us and speaks them to us, it is still the word of God. God has not ordained us to failure but he has ordained us for victory. When we meet a crisis or problem, it becomes a tablet for God to inscribe fresh promises for us. Just as Job did, we may come to situations that we do not understand. God's love has already wrapped itself around the situations and limited the extent that they can affect our lives. Job had to stand up, talk, and listen to God above the gravity of his circumstances that were pulling him down. When he heard the questions of creation, he knew that God was promising him things that were too wonderful to understand. Even in our questioning of our circumstances, we are receiving promises of power that are too wonderful to understand now. No matter what men may say, the promises of God stand forever settled. Love's unfailing promises will never be retracted or cease. We must determine that we will listen to the original voice of love and be deaf to every other voice that tries to steal the fresh word from our hearts.

Do not be deceived by the quietness that is all about you. War has not ceased. The quietness that you are experiencing is because of the great victory that was wrought on your behalf. The enemy has changed his strategy against you. Beware of the spirit of Delilah that has been sent into the battle against you during this time of quietness. Do not become idle during this time of quietness. There is the temptation to become comfortable after a great victory. Many are entrapped during this time period because they are ignorant of the devil's devices. I have forewarned you so that you will not be victimized by ignorance. The enemy has planned to plant unbelief in your heart during this quiet time so that you will depart from me. He desires to put out your spiritual eyes and bring you to shame, bound with spiritual fetters and make you a slave in the prison house of religion.

By Debbie McBee

December 4, 2009

I cherish the love you have given me O Lord and I bless your holy name. I am overwhelmed by the peace, compassion, and safety you have given me. Your perfect love has cast out fear and I am no longer afraid. My total and complete trust rest in you, and I thank you for your precious promises unto me. By grace, you are allowing me to plug in to everything that you have declared will come to pass. I rejoice as I receive what has always existed and what you are now revealing. Grant me ears to continue hearing your word and to follow after your example. I thank you for your love that saved me and will ever keep me. All glory and honor to you. Amen.

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Faith works by love. Undisturbed love brings about confident and steadfast faith. God's love in an uninhibited flow in our lives will create the constant fresh inspiration to live in peace and joy in the presence of the Lord. When little questions arise in our hearts we need that fresh renewing of the Holy Ghost in our lives to wash away the fear that would defeat us.

The Voice of Grace and Understanding Speaking During the Time of Condemnation and Trouble

Series 7.12.5 – Letter #339

I have given you a gift. It is without repentance. I have not given it to you and revoked it. Do not fear rejection, for I have not come to reject you because of your sins or shortcomings. I have come to reassure you of my promises and my love. My love will not fail you. It is everlasting. It endures throughout time and on into eternity. It will not depart from the dimension of time without you. I am the living God, and I am faithful. I am honorable. The enemy wants you to think after his inspiration; however, I have caused you to hear and know my voice, and the voice of another will not be followed by you. The voice of condemnation has attempted to speak in your ear. Do not listen to it. If you begin to listen to it, it will push you into the darkness of error. The voice of grace is speaking. My people need to hear this voice, for many are discouraged in this hour. I have chosen you to be an encourager and a comforter. Hear the voice of encouragement.

Look into the distance. There is no storm coming. The bright light of my glory is shining brighter than all of the trouble the enemy wants you to imagine. Cast down all of the imaginations that are leaping out at you. Trouble is in another dimension. I have sent you to walk in the path of my people and turn them from discouragement. If they will turn to the stronghold that is always with them, the yoke of discouragement will be broken. By the anointing that I have given, their yokes are broken. Speak in their hearing and tell them of my desires for them. I wish above all things that they may prosper and be in health. Their souls have prospered. Now, I desire for them to be healthy and live the abundant life. You live in a good land. Prosperity is all about you. It is the hour of the great transferring of wealth. Extend your hands of thanksgiving and gather in the wealth that I have sent among you with the hands of faith. The gospel cannot be propagated without prosperity. I am shortening the days, and knowledge is increasing at an alarming rate. Why live as though you are in the Dark Age when transportation and knowledge has increased?

I have come to deliver the people from spiritual bondage. Many sleep in the daytime. Awaken them and tell them to put on Christ. Those who continue to sleep will awaken unto shame and everlasting contempt. Those who awake will be wise and shine as the brightness of the firmament. They shall turn many to righteousness and shall cover multitudes of sins. I am purifying my people. I am trying them, and they shall be made white. To the wise, I am granting understanding, but the wicked shall not understand. Therefore, do not worry about those who do not understand, for it is the evidence of their wickedness. Understanding is being imparted to you; therefore, speak with the voice of understanding.

RE: RHEMA - The Voice of Grace and Understanding Speaking During the Time of Condemnation and Trouble

Condemnation is the false evidence of Satan. God's evidence of grace has accepted us beyond the disclaimers and accusers. God looks at us not only through his blood of remission but through the plans he has created for our lives. As we pray, prophesy, and praise in terms of creative power, our lives are fashioned in new dimensions and manifestations beyond our explanation. Trouble has no authority over our lives unless we allow it. Our total praise through grace speaks the original intent that God ordained for our lives. We must not allow anything to obsess or possess us as far as its influence. When we view the 22nd Psalm, we see the most awful details of the emotional and mental suffering of the Messiah on the cross. Yet it begins and ends with praise that lifts the situation beyond the power of suffering to alter the voice of grace as it inhabits the praise of his people. When we look at Revelation 17 and 18, we see the ravages of material and spiritual Babylon. They are real and relevant. Yet the response of grace is overpowering. The Lord, God omnipotent reigns. Grace reigns over the attack of trouble and condemnation.

Religion is full of pride and egotistical agendas. God's only plan is to redeem us and keep us pure unto himself. He will present the church to himself without spot or wrinkle. Jesus Christ has the only spiritual clothing line that has an unwrinkled robe of righteousness and garment of praise. Our worship that is in spirit and truth will wash away the spiritual Philistines that are in the land today. Carnality is crushed on the altar of selflessness. When self is absent in our worship then we are free.

It is such a comfort to know that you look at me not only through your blood of remission but through the plans you have created for my life. I praise you for your goodness. Trouble has no authority over my life because all things are under your feet. Therefore, I have the power not to allow anything to obsess or possess me as far as its influence in my life. I can't help but smile when I think about how you inhabit the praises of your people. I understand that you delight in our praises and your joy is our strength and for this I rejoice. RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Condemnation is the cancer of the spirit that will dry up our joy. Our hearts need to be free from condemnation for us to freely rejoice in thanksgiving for the provision that he has promised. Adversity has no resident privilege in our lives. Trouble cannot sit on the throne of our lives that was created for grace to reign on. In the mildest of trouble, the Lord will deliver us when we cry out to him. His power and might do not only give us power over sin but to rise above the trouble and intimidation that try to arrest the joy of the Lord.

Hidden Treasures and Riches in Secret Places of Dark Trials Viewed from a Gazebo of Worship and Praise

Series 7.12.6 – Letter #340

The voice of redemption speaks in you. No one can affect the waves of my voice. The voice waves of my blood speak of things out of the range of all voices. I have penetrated the darkness and commanded its submission. It has bowed in your presence because of the commanding waves of my blood. My blood has declared better things for you. The light of my blood has revealed excellent things. You shall see and obtain the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places. I will bring these things to pass that you may know that I am Jesus, the God of Israel who has called you by name. Do not worry about the defense of the devil or the giant structures erected to resist you. I will make the crooked places straight. I will break in pieces the huge structures and will cut through the bars that hinder. I am with you and I go before you. I am the God of Israel. I made the earth, the man, and the beast that are upon the ground. By my great power and outstretched arm, I am giving you these things because I have determined to do it. You have not persuaded me by anything that you have done. I decided to bless you as a child of Abraham through Christ Jesus. Do not worry about the hindering things. I have sent a sword against those who hinder you. I am drying up the flood of trouble. The spiritual beasts that have roared with the voice of fear have been silenced. You shall rest in peace and tranquility, for I have banished these creatures of your dreams onto islands surrounded by my consuming fire. My secret is with you. Behold the peace that you have because of my secret and the secret places of the Lord. I have sent spoilers against the crafty ones. Angels shall take the mighty and break their bows that were once effective for them. Continue to dwell in my presence.

Look unto my beauty and look away from the fearful things manifested by your adversaries. Behold the beauty of the Lord. Within your body, which is my temple, make inquiries of faith and confidence. I have not summoned times of trouble to bring dark times of destruction. Inside of trouble, I have hidden treasures and riches. While many are retreating at the sight of trouble's darkness, I have hidden you in my pavilion. I have made my pavilion a gazebo for worship and praise. I have made it a garden house for my beauty and the secret things that I have desired to share with you. You are hidden in the secret of my tabernacle. The distasteful manner that some observe and perceive you is the intentional manner that I have covered my tabernacle. Do not despise their view of you. It is in my plan to use this to hide my secret things from them. Offer sacrifices of joy and sing praises unto me. Your head is lifted up above the enemies 'round about you. I have given you a rock higher than yourself. Behold the goodness of the Lord that is laid upon the rock. Upon this rock, you are hidden in the secret of my presence from the pride of man. You are kept secretly in a spiritual gazebo from the strife of their tongues. This gazebo is a strong city where I am sharing with you the greatness of my marvelous kindness. Look into the distance and behold the many inhabitants coming to the secret gazebo prepared for those chosen to eat the living bread and the living water. They will not turn it away. They are hungry and thirsty. I am preparing these things; therefore, remove your shoulder from the burden. You are not carrying this thing anywhere. I am the burden-bearer. You called out to me. I have heard you during this time of misunderstanding. The darkness of the dilemma shall not shroud your blessings and treasures. I have answered out this darkness from the secret place of thunder.

You are being secretly pursued. Suspicion is rampant on every side. A sea of darkness is your pathway. Walk on in faith. It is your enemies that shall drown in this sea of darkness. My light shall trouble them and bring great peace from the secret place of thunder. Weak, sinful vessels have accused you. Their sins shall be their snares and their chains. The subtlety of their efforts shall be used to bind them with fear from out of the unknown. Those who have secretly arisen in the dark shall be opposed by the fear in their dark chambers of secret plots. All shall know that the God of Israel is fighting for you. Behold the pathway of faith through the walls of darkness on the left and on the right. Come. Walk hurriedly in faith and holiness. You shall not drown. I have held back the walls of these dark waters. Those who seek to drown you shall drown. Pray for them and save yourself from their demise. Man looks from without with his dark schemes from the mind. Look within to the secret of my presence. The brightness within you shall become the lightning of my thunder. The lightning shall discomfit every opposition and my voice shall utter great and mighty things. My voice shall create channels of fresh waters. These waters shall carry you unto places of prosperity. They shall carry you to deliverance from the strong enemy and things that were too strong for you. I am the hand that will cause your stability. I am the one who will bring you into a large place. Deliverance is yours. I will reward you according to my righteousness. The kingdom and my righteousness have been sought. Now behold the treasures and riches in secret places of the darkness of your trials.

PROPHETIC INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: RHEMA - Hidden Treasures and Riches in Secret Places of Dark Trials Viewed from a Gazebo of Worship and Praise

X-rays, infrared, and microwaves have already shown us that there is much that we cannot see in the darkness that is there. In the universe, when we use the near infrared part of the light spectrum, (this part of the spectrum is not visible to the natural eye) we can view two-thirds of the galaxies that we cannot see because of cosmic dust. We, as dusty natural man are limited to see the things that are hidden in the darkness unless God opens our understanding. God makes the darkness his pavilion of power. On display in the tent of what appears as darkness are weapons of power that we cannot imagine. Darkness is just a baby blanket for a brand new world. It is in the dark phase of photosynthesis that plants grow. In the daytime, they are taking in the sunlight. In the darkness, they are making food and growing. Darkness is really just the shadow of the great miracle of light that is coming. In the Psalms, David said that the light and the darkness are alike unto God. When God is there, light is there. There is nothing that is hidden in darkness that will not be revealed. Nothing that we have to do with is hidden from the eyes of the God. Problems are only platforms that God will demonstrate his power on.

One scientist said that darkness is only light that we cannot see with the natural eye. Even when scientists look at black holes in space, the event horizon is blazing with power and light. Darkness has treasures that we will receive if we will let him light the darkness. Our words can call those things that be not as though they were. Faith sees past every negative and into the provision that God has already set before us in every trial. Trials are only expanding our capacity to receive greater things.

The enemy has seen my power manifested many times. The unbelievers, the mockers, and doubters have never beheld the power that I am about to manifest in the earth. All these forces against you shall fall. They shall crumble before my presence. Do not think it strange that I have allowed walls of impossibility to come before you. Stand at the wall of impossibility, and see the salvation of the Lord. The wall of impossibility shall be as water parted by my right hand of power. The wall of impossibility shall cover your foes and your enemies. They shall fall beneath the parted wall that I shall bring down upon them. Do not fear their many voices and the forces of their power. None of these things shall prevail against you. The right hand of my power is against them, and they shall perish. Look to me, the finisher of your faith. I am faithful and will not suffer you to be moved. The enemy has been stifled again. I have triumphed for you again. I am your God, and you are my children. Who is like me?

Who is mighty as I am?

I reign, and none can bring me down. Be assured of the power of God that is with you. Has my power ceased to work?

Will it work for you?

Am I for you or against you?

Why do you doubt the miraculous during this time of uncertainty?

Am I reduced to the stature of a man by the present uncertainties?

All these things are the platform for the miraculous. Only believe.

CONFESSION BITES

By LWWC CONFESSION WRITERS

The enemy has seen God's power manifested many times. The unbelievers, the mockers, and doubters have never beheld the power that he is manifesting in the earth. All these forces against me are falling. They are crumbling before God's presence. I do not think it strange that he has allowed walls of impossibility to come before me. I have stood at the wall of impossibility and seen the salvation of the Lord. The wall of impossibility is as water parted by his right hand of power. The wall of impossibility is covering my foes and my enemies. They are falling beneath the parted wall that God is bringing down upon them. I do not fear their many voices and the forces of their power. None of these things shall prevail against me. The right hand of God's power is against them, and they shall perish. I am looking to Jesus, the finisher of my faith. He is faithful and will not suffer me to be moved. The enemy has been stifled again. Jesus has triumphed for me again. He is my God, and I am his child. There is none like him. No one is as mighty as he is. He reigns, and none can bring him down. I am assured of the power of God that is with me. His power has not ceased to work, and it is working for me. The Lord is for me, not against me; therefore, I choose not to doubt the miraculous during this time of uncertainty. God is not reduced to the stature of a man by the present uncertainties. All these things are the platform for the miraculous. I believe this!

INSPIRATION

RE: PROPHETIC BITE - #340

Jesus promised in the book of Timothy that in the dispensation of the fullness of time that he would show who the only Potentate is. His power is above all kingdoms and personalities. None can limit him or restrict him in what he has said would come to pass. In the Old Testament, the word for miracle is made of the letters in the Hebrew that mean that if we will speak what he has said that he will do it. In this last day, he will lift his sword high in the mouth of his servants the prophets of this hour. Explanations to the contrary will be silenced by the sensational spectacles that are about to unfold. He is asking us as he did Moses. Is my hand short that it cannot save? In his hand are the deep places of the earth. The heavens are his handiwork. We have been given dominion over the works of his fingers. Ask Joshua if the heavens will obey the voice of a man. This was only a shadow of what God has planned for us in this hour.

PROPHETIC QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS THAT GOD HAS ASKED ME

By Moses Hightower

◆ There is no darkness in me. No lie is of the truth; therefore, throw off these rags and clothes of darkness. Be adorned only in the clothes of light, and then will my wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, and the fear of the Lord be demonstrated by you. Those who wear the coat of many colors should be bearers of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance.

117. How can you generate these attributes if you have not crucified the flesh with its affections and lusts?

◆ All of your righteousness is as the filthy rags of religion and human reasoning. I have granted you a new understanding of my way and my thoughts. Look again to the mind of Christ and be endowed with true power from on high instead of the limited power of your own mind. I made this day. Be glad and rejoice in the day of salvation. You found the throne. You have found the King of the throne room. I am always exalted. Magnify me in the presence of the trouble of the hour. I am greater than trouble. I am greater than the wicked of the hour.

118. Who will contend with my power in this age of hopelessness?

119. Have I ever forsaken you?

120. Will I ever forsake you?

PRAYER & INSIGHT

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

By Tom Browne

December 6, 2009

I have much to be thankful for, especially because the voice of redemption speaks in me. It is wonderful that the darkness has been penetrated by the power of your word. Your blood has declared better things for me and has revealed excellence. I worship you Lord Jesus because you are the God of Israel and you have called me by name. Because of you I don't have to worry about the devil and the giant structure that has been erected to resist me. You are with your people and go before us into battle to defeat all our foes. I am so thankful that you decided to bless me, a child of Abraham through Christ Jesus. Thank you for giving me rest and tranquility. In the secret of your tabernacle you have hidden me and set me upon a rock. My head is now lifted above my enemies roundabout me. Your grace has enabled me to offer up the sacrifices of joy and to sing praises unto you, my Lord and my God. You have caused us to be in the shade of your gazebo where you are sharing the greatness of your marvelous kindness! All glory, honor, and praise to you Lord, for many souls are coming to eat the living bread that you have provided for your people. Your voice is also creating channels of fresh water that shall carry us unto places of prosperity. Thank you for this extreme goodness that you have rewarded us with according to your own righteousness. I stand in awe that you have turned all our problems into platforms that you demonstrate your power on. Thank you for the faith that sees past every negative and into the provision that you have already set before us in every trial.

PRAYER INSIGHT

By Don Grigsby

RE: PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Satan may scream that he will win and that we will fail but just the opposite is true. Our shouts of triumph will silence the schemer. We are commanded to shout to the Lord with the voice of triumph. Triumph here is the battle cry that speaks of certain victory before the battle is engaged. Goliath tried to do it and Israel was intimidated. David was not intimidated but said there was a cause. Cause here in the Hebrew is the word Debar that means to speak to take dominion over. David was saying that someone should say something. Moses and Joshua echoed this when they said of the people that were dancing around the golden calf that they were not shouting for the mastery. We are caused to always triumph in Jesus Christ and in praise. Every problem and attack that we have is just the door to step into a greater dimension of the power and blessing of God. We have not come to whisper his praise but to shout with a great shout and the walls of all our spiritual Jericho's will come down.

The Way We Live

BY RHEMA AND CONFESSIONS

PROPHECY

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
1 Timothy 1:18

*Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear?
The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?*
Amos 3: 7 – 8

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
Romans 10:8-10

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and has professed a good profession before many witnesses.
1 Timothy 6:12
